

Honors USII Summer Reading

Incoming Honors Sophomores are required to read the following two books over the summer.

All students must hand in a chapter summary for each book on the first day of class.

Booker T. Washington, Up From Slavery
You will be tested on this book September 10.

John Stokes, Students on Strike

You will be tested on this book later in the year, however, summaries are still due on the first day of class (either September 7 or 8).

Books may be purchased at your local bookstore, on amazon.com or similar sites, or borrowed from the library network www.mln.lib.ma.us/. As Massachusetts residents, you may also borrow books from the MBLN. Visit the Boston Public Library for information on obtaining a library card.
