HISTORICAL MAP OF WATERTOWN
The ANNUAL 1952
The phrase "In pace condita" and the symbol of the clasped hands on the Town seal signify the peace that existed in Watertown at the time of its founding and the peace that the settlers hoped would be a permanent one. Looking at the seal, one can see an Indian and a settler exchanging a "great bass" for a "Bisket."

We shall always try to maintain the peace that our ancestors fought so hard to preserve. As we are assuming more adult responsibilities in a troubled world, the possession of this, the twenty-sixth edition of the Annual, will bring us recollections of the happy days we have spent together at Watertown High School. It was here we learned to recognize and appraise the values of self-government and of the many experiences which were contributing so much to our development. Here, too, we came to realize the full benefit to be gained from association with those who gave so generously of their wisdom and energies.

The Annual Staff of 1952 presents to you, the graduating class, this record of the school years we have spent together. The staff wishes to express its appreciation and to extend sincere thanks not only for the many and valuable suggestions but also for the kindly and sympathetic interest of Mr. McNealy, Miss Appel, Mr. Moody, Miss Thayer, Mr. Yankowski, and Miss Jacobs.

In Memoriam

John J. Liston

On January 22, 1952, Watertown High School suffered a great loss in the death of Mr. John J. Liston, our beloved teacher and friend. His devotion to all of his students, regardless of their scholastic abilities, was only one of his many fine characteristics. Besides being kind and loyal, he will remain to all who knew him a symbol of straight forwardness, leadership, and courage. He always brought out the better qualities in a student's character while he overlooked a student's bad points. From the very beginning Mr. Liston was considerate of his fellow men and always thought of their comfort and happiness.

As Mr. Liston was a Harvard graduate, he always made it a point to inquire how Watertown High School students attending Harvard were doing in their studies.

Not only the students but also the faculty respected him for his sincerity in all circumstances.

"God's finger touch'd him, and he slept."

—Alfred Lord Tennyson
We the Class of 1952 dedicate to you, Mr. Elisha Chrakian, this twenty-sixth edition of the Annual in appreciation of the countless hours you have devoted to us and of the personal interest and the unfailing understanding you have shown toward us during our high school days. These qualities have been made even more outstanding by your unselfish devotion to your pupils and your willingness to give them that extra prodding that they may need.

Along with these fine characteristics you possess an unusually strong sense of humor well known by the many people that come in contact with you. You have made many friends among us during our three years at Watertown Senior High School, and we hope to continue this friendship after our commencement.

Your faithful work as Chairman of the Public Relations Committee has done much not only to promote the publicity of the different school affairs but also to proclaim the honors bestowed on worthy students.

On behalf of the student body we wish to express to you, Mr. Chrakian, our deepest gratitude for all of the fine and helpful assistance that you have given us. May the coming years bring to you much happiness and success.

Elisha B. Chrakian

Headmaster's
To the Class of 1952 . . .

To you, members of the Class of 1952, I extend heartiest good wishes for the future on behalf of the faculty as well as for myself. You are about to receive a diploma from a school which has been sending forth its graduates into the community for nearly a century.

As you take your places among the alumni of Watertown High School, you will find yourselves among people who have distinguished themselves in all walks of life. You may well be proud to become one of this group because graduates of this school are leaders in their chosen fields in town, state, and nation. Some have gone forth to help mankind in the far corners of the earth while others serve nearer home.

Wherever you may go, whatever you may do, there is a place and a need for every one of you. Each of you will succeed if you accept the challenge of the game of life, pick up the ball as it is tossed to you, and carry it to the goal.

"To each is given a set of tools,
A shapeless mass and a book of rules;
And each must make, ere life is flown,
A stumbling block or a stepping stone."

Bertram H. Holland

CLASSMEN
"Goodnight Ladies"

In March, 1952, the Junior Class actors and actresses overwhelmed their audience with their superb performance of "Goodnight Ladies." Under the capable supervision of Miss Eleanor McBreen and Miss Pearl Griffith, this enjoyable comedy brought many hearty laughs from the attentive audience. The cast consisted of Louise Harian, as attractive Helen Raleigh; Anne Lauricella, as Jane Raleigh, a typical youngster; Joseph Malley, as Sam Raleigh, a prankish student at State University; Anthony Oteri, as "Jug" Brown, Jane's carefree boyfriend; Leon Setti, as eccentric Professor Dexter; Marjorie Mogan, as Dean Eggleby; Gloria Esserian, as Angela Remini, a sweet and lovely freshman; Roger Burk, as Larry Dobson, a student who works as a telegraph messenger; Camille Dennison, as attractive Judy West; Diane Astley, as Lulu Griffin, a "nutty" freshman; Robert Ehrlich, as George West, Judy's bashful brother; and Patricia Schan, as Betty Londen, a sophomore.

A dormitory full of college youngsters, two male "spinsters," a fearsome dean of women, and a professor who is an expert on frogs—these ingredients added up to an explosive mixture.
Junior History

The Class of '53 has now completed more than half of its journey toward the long-awaited commencement goal, which seemed so far away when we were meek Sophomores. As Juniors we have become well acquainted with our school, but of course, we can hardly wait to be "lofty Seniors."

Our first activity as Juniors was the annual Christmas Assembly. Miss Eleanor McBreen deserves much credit for this excellent assembly. Against the symbolic Christmas background, the glorious singing of the Junior girls and the musical selections rendered by members of the band produced an inspirational effect.

In March the Junior play "Goodnight Ladies" proved to be a great success. The Play Reading Committee consisted of Janet Altieri, Shirley Carlson, Penelope Contos, Mary Fanelli, Theresa Giordano, Shirley Johnson, James Lupino, Marjorie Mogan, Edward Nazarian, Leon Setti, and Marcia Zoller.

Armand Audet, Thomas Byrne, Caroline Contone, Mary Foley, John Giglio, Patricia Jones, Ossana Kournjian, Carol Manolian, Josephine Pascicia, Patricia Schan, and Dorothy Sparks comprised the Ring Committee.

On May 2nd, the Junior Promenade with its red and white decorations was over before we could realize that our plans had been completed. This splendid evening was the final social event in our very successful junior year.

Janice Thomson, Secretary
Sophomore Party

On Friday, January 11th, the fine-spirited Class of 1954 had its first gala occasion, the Sophomore Party. Under the capable supervision of Mr. Donnellan, class advisor, and Frank Vittemberg, General Chairman, the various committees were drawn up. Janet Finn and Robert Ohanian eagerly went about the task of selling tickets.

Opening the night’s activities, talented sophomores, with the entertaining master of ceremonies, Mr. Koumjian, performed in the auditorium. The program consisted of songs, piano solos, a trumpet solo, baton twirling, and dancing teams. Heading the entertainment committee were Mary Porter and Joanne Creonte.

Dancing followed in the gymnasium with music from records provided by Roberta Donapue and Barbara Emery. During the dancing, hunch, ice cream, and cookies were served by a committee under the direction of Jane Williams and Priscilla Kingston.

Many of the faculty members attended this splendid affair. All too soon the evening ended, with Miss Mackey calling a wheeling Virginia Reel.
Sophomore History

Leaving behind our freshman days, the Class of 1954 entered the portals of Watertown High. Oh, that first day—the haughty Seniors with their superior glances and the understanding Juniors with a little smile that seemed to express sympathy.

Then followed the scuffle to locate home-rooms. The room the Sophomores feared most that first week of school was not the guidance office nor Miss Jacobs' office—the new students understood that these places were useful only as sources of helpful counsel—no, it was the locker-room. Soon we grew familiar with our teachers and knew again the feel of ink under our nails. Lessons were to be learned and good times to be enjoyed.

At its first class meeting early in the fall, the Class of 1954 received an outline of election procedures from our class adviser, Mr. Donnellan. The outcome of the election was: Frank Vittemberga, president; Robert Ohanian, vice-president; Edward Der Kazarian, treasurer; Joanne Creonte, secretary; Roberta Donahue, Barbara Emery, Janet Finn, Mary Porter, and Jane Williams, executive committee.

The class took part in club activities and elected delegates to the Student Council and the Election Commission. The Sophomore Chorus participated in the Band Concert as well as in the January Assembly and was responsible, together with local service organizations, for the Memorial Day Assembly.

Looking back over the past months with their record of athletic awards and scholastic honors, we are proud to have become a part of Watertown High and look forward to taking our places as Juniors.

ART CLUB

LIBRARY CLUB

Art Club

Under the expert supervision of Mr. Harold Moody, the Art Club offers its members an excellent opportunity to work in such mediums as pastels, water colors, and pencil sketching. Craft work, including clay modeling, plastic casts, and figurines is also part of the program.

Members participated in such school projects as decorating for the proms and making posters for dances, plays, and campaigns. Another function of the club was submitting ideas for the Annual; this included the cover design and other drawings in the book.

Library Club

Under the capable guidance of Miss Johnson, our school librarian, the Library Club studied the duties of a librarian, the use of reference books, and the layout of libraries. In this way members not only got a taste of the duties of a librarian, but also learned the quickest methods of looking up reference material for school.

Club meetings were held every Thursday during lunch periods. The Club of '52 gave $54.00 for new books for the library.

The officers were: Eileen Shea, president; Christine Phillips, vice-president; Natalie MacDonald, treasurer; and Ann O'Neil, secretary.
Mathematics Club

The Mathematics Club, sponsored by Mr. Adams, offers an opportunity to investigate various fascinating mathematical fields for which there is no time in the regular courses. Here, such topics as riddles, fallacies, trick problems, puzzles, paradoxes, historical methods and procedures, and short cuts in computation were considered.

The construction and use of the slide rule, the mechanical solution of equations, the use of computing machines, and the theory of digital computers were other topics included in the year's program.

Club members investigated schools offering higher mathematical training and examined the opportunities in mathematical vocations.

Science Seminar Society

This is a unique organization. It is like a University Graduate School Seminar brought down to High School level of accomplishment. When a student has proved that he plans to follow a career in science and has done something unusual in science that makes him stand out in attainment, he is invited to join the society. This society helps young scientists to develop very rapidly to levels of scientific understanding and attainment not possible elsewhere.

The Science Seminar Society, which is sponsored by Mr. Robert D. MacCurdy, has attained national recognition. A story about it appeared in the October 1951 issue of The School Executive.
Band

The Band, directed by Mr. Chick, met about 120 times in the year. It started the day before school opened in order to be ready for the first football game, and played for all games in and out of town. It played for many assemblies and rallies, as well as gave its mid-winter concert to start a fund for new uniforms. Several of its members, with members of the orchestra and the chorus, took part in the All-State Festival Band, Orchestra, and Chorus concerts held in Framingham. It also took part in the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival held in Everett in May. As one of its outstanding activities it played for the annual Memorial Day Parade.

Camera Club

The purpose of the Camera Club is to educate club members in all principles of photography. The members took all the photographs for the Annual except the formal portraits, and for the Bulletin. They also took pictures and candid of all clubs, activities, and dances. Informal contests were held by the members, with the Spring Contest as a climax to the year's activities.

The club was advised by Miss Helen Thayer, and the officers were: Charles Calusdian, president; Robert Wood, vice-president; Stephen Fenerjian, secretary; and John Senkowski, treasurer.

CAMERA CLUB
CHESS CLUB

STAMP CLUB

Chess Club

The purpose of the Chess Club is to acquaint the members with the names of the different chess men, the moves, and the methods of attack. Tournaments between members helped to develop the necessary skills for playing this unique game. Every term a new Chess Tournament was started, with winners competing until finals.

This year the club was under the supervision of Miss Mildred Norcross. The officers were: Robert Gilkie, president; Muriel Ettenburg, vice-president; Ann Griffin, secretary; and Bernadette Farraher, treasurer.

Stamp Club

The purpose of the Stamp Club is to make available to members standard catalogs and current periodicals; to provide a forum for interchange of ideas and information; to afford a convenient opportunity for exchange of duplicates; to pool resources for bulk buying.

The program consisted of the reading of weekly papers on philatelic topics, the compilation of a reference file, and displays of interesting items and collections.

The club sponsor was Mr. Adams. The officers for the year were: president, Aristides Cago; and treasurer, Fred Margosian.
PROJECTION CLUB

ASTRONOMY CLUB

Projection Club

To provide trained audio-visual operators for all equipment that the school owns and uses is the purpose of the Projection Club, under the supervision of Mr. Robert D. MacCurdy.

Many times a week, during and after school hours, these men of service transported the equipment to the ordered places, operated it in a smooth manner, and returned the equipment to storage. This was a tremendous service to teachers and students throughout the school.

The officers of the club were: Robert Kaprielian, president; Robert Schneider, vice-president; and Paul Griffin, secretary-treasurer.

Astronomy Club

The purpose of the Astronomy Club is to teach more about astronomy in order to enliven interests in those people who are curious about the heavens. As the year progressed, the members of the Astronomy Club had excursions, parties, movies, and lectures. They also planned to visit several observatories and planetariums.

The club was under the capable supervision of Mr. Joseph P. McDermott. The officers for this year were: president, Stephen Fenerjian; vice-president, Richard Calusdian; secretary, Helen L. Compton; treasurer, Maria Lee Voutas; and librarian, Roger Burk.
The Italian Club officers this year were: Josephine Pascisca, president; Joanne Creonte, vice-president; Rose Pino, secretary; Theresa Vernelli, treasurer. Mr. Carlo Vacca was sponsor for the group.

The purpose of the club is to acquaint students with the cultural, intellectual, and spiritual contribution of Italians to modern civilization, with particular emphasis on the impact made by Italo-Americans on contemporary American life. To achieve this purpose weekly readings, discussions, and debates supplemented by visits to museums, university libraries, and neighboring Italian communities, were held. On the whole the year was a profitable one, and frequently entertaining.

Training in rifle marksmanship was the purpose of the Rifle Club. Weekly meetings on the rifle range helped to develop firing skills. The members also fully enjoyed meeting with outside organizations. Since each member usually has a different type of rifle from the others, the group acquired experience in the use and care of various types of firearms.

The club is under the capable supervision of Mr. Arthur McGrath. The members who held office were: John Shepard, president; Joseph Strazzulla, treasurer; and Richard Carbone, secretary.
Music Appreciation

The purpose of the Popular Music Appreciation Club was to give the members some knowledge of the everyday composer and to enlarge their enjoyment in the music field.

The program this year consisted of playing records of the popular hits, talking about harmony, melody, and what makes a song and a composer, and visiting radio stations.

The club sponsor was Miss Helen Mackey. The officers for the year were: Joseph Giglio, president; Elizabeth Garabedian, vice-president; Effie Condis, secretary; and Doris Hanley, treasurer.

Election Commission

The Election Commission, a four-year-old organization under the supervision of Mr. Peter Burke, consists of one commissioner and one alternate commissioner from each homeroom.

This all-school group plays a very important role in school life by assisting in all school voting and in the counting of votes. Upon becoming an election commissioner, the boy or girl forfeits his right to hold any other school office.

The officers elected for the 1951-1952 term were: Adolph Caso, president; Barbara Hunt, vice-president; Carole Mercurio, secretary.
Le Cercle Français

Le Cercle Français, under the able guidance of Miss Stella Malkasian, aims to send at least $20 annually to a French orphanage and a Care package to a French family, to provide a French newspaper for the library, to broaden members' understanding of French culture, and to improve members' conversational French.

The members showed color movies of France not only to the club but also to all French classes and purchased French records for the school.

The officers were: Jack Panjian, president; Janet Altieri, vice-president; Joyce Hopwood, secretary; Sophie Bazarian, treasurer; and Ellen Davis, Elizabeth Norton, and Gasper Caso, program committee.

Tri-Hi

The purpose of Tri-Hi is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The officers were: Mary Ann Papalia, president; Ann Papalia, vice-president; Priscilla Myers, secretary; Shirley Clark, treasurer; Virginia Maffucci, chaplain; and Miss Geraldine Murphy, adviser.

At the end of each year Tri-Hi presents a scholarship to a worthy senior girl, the money for which is raised by selling shakers at the football games and by an annual dance in February. The traditional alumnae tea was held in the spring.
The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community a higher standard of Christian character. The main activity of the Hi-Y was the Annual Football Dance which the club sponsored to raise money for a scholarship for an outstanding senior boy. The Hi-Y was sponsored by Mr. John Liston until his sudden death in January, when Mr. Koumjian became the club sponsor. The officers were: president, Laurence Cafarella; vice-president, Edward McMahon; secretary, John Ames; treasurer, Robert Hirschfeld; and chaplain, Laurence Shyne.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club's objective is to help commercial students to become more interested in business subjects. For some meetings the Commercial Club arranged to have speakers from business organizations talk to the members about their future in the business world. For other activities the members visited business offices to see how they are managed and what is expected of office workers. This year's officers were: president, Rose Najarian; vice-president, Mariam Harutunian; secretary, Nathalie Walsh; and treasurer, Ann Burgess. The club was under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Desmond.
Service is the purpose of the Quid Nunc. Its members are girls interested in social work. They devote their time to serving others less fortunate than they.

As part of its work Quid Nunc made Hallowe’en, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year’s favors for veterans in hospitals. In the spring Quid Nunc again held its Annual Tea for the faculty.

This club is under the supervision of Miss Mary Boyle. The officers were: president, Arlene Miller; vice-president, June Prendergast; recording secretary, Jane Krebs; corresponding secretary, Louise Choulian; and treasurer, Marion Cameron.

Biology Club

The purpose of the Associated Biology Club, sponsored by Mr. Robert D. MacCurdy, is to provide the setting and organization which will help to develop further the student’s interest in Nature.

The members had a carefully developed program consisting of field trips, speakers, films, fairs, parents’ night exhibits, project preparation, discussions, committee work, and an alumni reunion party.

The officers of this year were: president, Aristides Cagos; vice-president, Steven Arpante; secretary, Richard Calusidian; treasurer, Maria Lee Voutas.

QUID NUNC

BIOLOGY CLUB

Pep Club

The Pep Club furnished a well-trained group with the purpose of sparking the spirit of the school. The club was chosen to represent each class, and the girls had to be able to attend all the games. Meetings were held once a week during the fall season to practice the cheers.

The cheerleaders have done a wonderful job in leading this highly spirited group. The resounding cheers heard across our football field gave proof that our Pep Club had the true school spirit of W.H.S.

Glee Club

The Glee Club, under the capable direction of Mr. George Chase, consisted of about seventy boys and girls.

The members worked enthusiastically and in February participated in the Student Council Assembly which was conducted by the music department. Their next important event was the Spring Concert. Also in February several of the members sang with the All-State Chorus, which met in Framingham.

The accompanists for the year were Josephine Pasciscia, Patricia Bryant, and Arline Boyajian.
BULLETIN

ORCHESTRA

The Bulletin staff, under Miss Margaret McCarthy's direction, published ten issues of the newspaper. Members sponsored a most successful "Holly Hop" to defray expenses for the editors' New York field trip.

Publications competitions were entered under the auspices of: The Columbia Scholastic Press Association; The Boston Globe; and Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists.

Miss Geraldine Murphy served as chief copyreader, and Miss Mildred Caram as Business Staff advisor. The editors were: Mary Ann Papalia, news; Keith Gerrard, editorial; Muriel Ettenberg, feature; Ronald Cohen, sports; Parker Kirk, managing; and Hloy Tsoumas, business.

Orchestra

The purpose of our school orchestra is to give musical-minded students a chance to further their knowledge of music. This year the orchestra consisted of about twenty-five members under the direction of Mr. Chase. The orchestra added to the musical life of the school by providing music at the Senior and Junior Plays, the Spring Concert, several Student Council assemblies, and Graduation.

Several of its members participated in the All-State Concert, which was held in Framingham.
On Friday evening, December 7th, talented members of the Senior Class presented James K. Barrie's famous three-act comedy, Dear Brutus. Long and diligent preparation by all members of the cast under the able direction of Miss Eleanor McBreen resulted in an excellent performance.

The plot revolved around the second chance given by the eccentric old Lob (Peter Simoglou) to his oddly assorted visitors on Mid Summer Eve. Those who visited the mysterious wood were Purdie, a philanderer (James Ward), and Mabel (Wilhelmina Bigelow), his wife, whom he was making unhappy; Joanna (Joanne Dickey), who was the object of his affections; Dearth (Anthony Bellantoni), an artist who has lost his faith in himself and whose wife (Virginia Maffucci) despises him and lets him see it; Lady Caroline Laney (Elaine York), languid and indolent; and the Coades, a delightful old couple, (Ann Jigarjian and Charles Calusdian); Matey, the butler (Robert Gilkie), one who took advantage of his master's good will and was a delightful character; and Mr. Dearth's loving and lively twelve year old daughter, Margaret (Barbara Brooks), a might-have been who appeared in the forest.

The first and third acts took place in the main room of Lob's home. In the second act, which took place in the mysterious wood, everyone had the chance to relive his life as people often dream of doing if given "a second chance." Lob, the whimsical master of the house, kept the audience in good humor with his antics throughout the evening.

Membership in Cum Laude, National Honor Society, Student Council, and the National Honor Society in Spanish has been awarded to those students whose scholastic achievements have won for them outstanding recognition and high praise. Besides possessing intellectual ability, these students also exemplify such traits as character, service, and leadership. The following pages are set aside for those whom we honor.
SPANISH NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Spanish Honor Society

This organization is sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese to stimulate achievement in these languages. Membership is open only to secondary school students who have attained an honor average in either language for at least three semesters. This year marked the first time that the W.H.S. Spanish Department was authorized to establish a chapter. Mr. Carlo Vacca was sponsor and its officers were: Diane Swanson, president; Ann Lauricella, vice-president; Janice Carnes, secretary; and Charles Sarian, treasurer.

National Honor Society

Membership in the Saltonstall Chapter of the National Honor Society, is a goal worth striving for. Candidates must be elected by the faculty on the basis of having the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service—the ideals for which the society stands.

Mr. Holland is honorary head of the chapter, and Miss Jacobs is chairman of the faculty committee. Under the leadership of Patricia Gottschalk, president; Eleanor Igoe, vice-president; June Prendergast, secretary; and Angelo Perciballi, treasurer; the members sought to uphold the ideals of the society and to perpetuate its motto Noblesse Oblige.
Student Council

The Student Council, presided over by Ronald Cohen, president; Wilhelmina Bigelow, vice-president; Maria Antonellis, secretary; and Charles Papalia, treasurer, had a very effective year. Representatives and alternates were advised by Miss McCaffery and Mr. McGrath. During the meetings student, school, and class problems were discussed. An Assembly Committee chose the assemblies which were presented during the year. The Council also sponsored the annual Council Kick-off, which was a tremendous success. The representatives did much to help the student body and to learn more of democratic government.

Cum Laude

Cum Laude is a national organization with chapters in many secondary schools, both public and private. Its purpose is to give recognition to superior scholarship.

The Watertown High Chapter was granted its charter in 1921, and every year since then those eligible have been admitted to membership after mid-years of their senior year. The members are from the College Course and are chosen from those having the highest averages for three years of senior high school.

Cum Laude is the highest honor the school can give to a pupil for scholarship.
Senior History

As we look back to our first day at Watertown High School, we remember how confused we were when we blankly wandered through the corridors. Would we ever learn where every room was? To be sure, we were unimportant then, but we knew our day would come.

In no time at all we were participating in many of the activities of the Senior High School. Soon after we had overcome the rivalry between the East and West, elections for class officers were held. Top honors went to Joseph Giglio as president. The other officers were: Ann O’Neill, vice-president; Elaine York, secretary; and Josephine Castellano, treasurer. Bette Abadjian, Shirley Barnes, Geraldine Borronco, Patricia Gottschalk, and Mary Ann Papalia composed the executive committee.

Under the supervision of Mr. Ford we enjoyed our Sophomore Party, which helped most of us to get better acquainted. We had loads of fun, and it gave us a chance to discover our hidden talents.

When we had completed our sophomore year, we were no longer “timid rookies” of Watertown High School; we were Juniors nearing our dreamed-of senior year. We had our class officers elected in the spring of our sophomore year so they were ready to begin work immediately after school opened. The officers were: Joseph Cronin, president; June Prendergast, vice-president; Ann Papalia, secretary; Josephine Castellano, treasurer; and Bette Abadjian, Shirley Barnes, Muriel Ettenburg, Patricia Gottschalk, Barbara Pratley, executive committee. These officers chose all the class committees.

We, as Juniors, were responsible for the Christmas Assembly under the supervision of Miss Griffith. We had a religious nativity scene with many brilliant tableaux and Christmas music. A group of choral speakers added to the effectiveness of the program. Our Class Play, “Seventeenth Summer,” directed by Miss McBreen, was a story of a dreamy-eyed teen-age girl (portrayed by Patricia Bryant) who falls in love with the baker’s son (Richard Kelley) and has to face love’s hardships and all of the other trials in the life of a seventeen-year-old. Some other stars were Wilhelmina Bigelow, Anthony Bellantoni, and Hloy Tsoumas. That spring many of our classmates were elected to the National Honor Society. We were very proud of them.

Then came the long-anticipated Junior Promenade with its gay decorations of blue and white streamers and bunting. The Prom, the last class activity of the year, owed much of its great success to the attendance of Seniors and Sophomores, who were very welcome.

In September, 1951, we began our last year at Watertown High. At last we were Seniors. Our class was diminished, however, with many boys and girls leaving school for either work or the armed forces. The officers elected were: Joseph Cronin, president; Patricia Gottschalk, vice-president; Ann Papalia, secretary; Jessie DeAngelis, treasurer; and John Ames, Dominic Camilli, Muriel Ettenburg, Jean Farmer, Berch Onanian, executive committee. This group of class leaders began the year by electing the Annual committees.

"Dear Brutus" was chosen as our Senior Play, a play in which all the performers were stars. The cast did a superb job which won the production an ovation for being one of the best dramatic offerings of The High School.

In January of 1952 we were shocked to learn the news of Mr. John Liston's death. The whole student body and faculty expressed their heartfelt sympathy on this occasion.

Our athletic teams had fairly successful seasons. Although the field hockey team was rained out of their first six games, they won one of the two games they played. The indoor track team, with Larry Cafarella's great shot-put arm and Martin Pendleton's record-breaking hurdles performances, barely missed the State Championship. Our football team, with many juniors, finished the season with six wins and losses. The team achieved lasting fame, however, by retaining, and thus retiring, the long-desired Bernard S. McHugh Memorial Trophy after defeating Belmont 25-0.

Freak Day brought with it the excitement of disguises and prizes. Mr. Chick's Band Concert and Miss Randall's Fashion Show added interest and variety to our senior year.

Then came our Senior Prom, our final social fling. Remember the brilliant hues of blue decorations, contrasting with the pure white ones? Our class colors! Every boy was a handsome prince; every girl, a fair maiden.

We had our Class Day and Baccalaureate, and then our Banquet, at which we received our Annual. Now we were ready for the closing event—Graduation, where we bade best wishes to all of our friends and a fond adieu to W. H. S.

Ann Papalia, Secretary

Soccer

This year's soccer team, although their record doesn't show it, was a good team considering their inexperience. Credit must be given to Coach Joe Malley for the fine work he did with his team of many novices.

Scoring honors for the season went to Dom Camilli, who notched eight goals, while Captain Robert Mazza connected for five. This season, as with last, graduation will deplete Coach Malley's ranks. Departing veterans include Robert Mazza, Dom Camilli, and Robert Neilsen.

It would be difficult to single out any one player, but general opinion rates Dom Camilli high on any list.

Some of the toughest games Watertown played this year were those with St. Marks, Belmont, and Brown and Nichols. The rugged schedule produced a very satisfying victory over Roxbury Latin in one of the most closely contested games of the year.

Football

This year’s football team was faced with one of the toughest schedules Watertown has ever had, but the fighting Arsenal Towners came through with a good season considering their inexperience and unusually light weight. Much credit must be given to the fine coaching of head coach Joe Zeno and his assistants, Jim Sheehan, John Mantenuto, and Charles McGahan.

The opening game found Watertown facing a highly favored Brockton team, but with the excellent passing of John Simourian and the terrific defensive play of Larry Cafarella, the Towners came out the victors. Our next game with Leominster was a heart-breaker as the Towners lost by one point, but we must give credit to Eddie McMahon for his fine running as he crossed the goal line three times for Watertown; credit also must go to John Ames for his brilliant offensive play. The Chelsea game found Watertown on the losing side once more, but this was through no fault of Berch Onanian or Gerry Nally.

In our first home game with a powerhouse club from Newton, the Towners put up a terrific though losing fight. In this game the honors went to Bob Kilcoyne for his outstanding punting and defensive play. The Melrose game found Watertown back in the win column, thanks to the fine running of Jimmy Knowlton and the excellent defensive play of Roy Northrop. In the Malden Catholic game we found our brilliant Captain, Dick Little, stopping a good majority of Malden’s running thrusts as Watertown chalked up another win. The Marblehead game saw Watertown winning, with the help of Paul Griffin and Jim Billings.

Then came the Belmont contest for the Bernard S. McHugh Trophy. To the joy of the Watertown fans Jimmy Knowlton scooted around his left end for twelve yards and the first touchdown. He was followed up with two successive touchdowns by John Simourian and Eddie McMahon. Opening the second half, John Simourian thrilled the crowd with a dazzling ninety-yard run for the final touchdown. Thanks to the defensive play of Bob Purdy and Al Murray, Belmont was held scoreless. The beautiful trophy is now possessed permanently by Watertown.

VARSITY TEAM

Under the expert coaching of Joseph Murphy, the Watertown sextet had a successful season of three wins, five ties, and two losses. Watertown started on the victory parade after tying the first two games by scores of 2-2 and 4-4. Their first victory was against a hustling Waltham club, which lost the encounter by a score of 3-1. After dropping a close decision to Needham, Watertown upset a favored Norwood club 3-2. Next facing a strong Walpole team, Watertown held the favorites to a 0-0 deadlock. Pulling one of the biggest upsets of the season, Watertown handed Boston College High one of its worst defeats of the year by drubbing them
5-1. That victory secured a first division play-off spot for the Red and Black.

Some of the highlights of the games were: Dick Michelson's lightning dash up the ice to score the tying goal in the last few minutes of play in the Wellesley game; Eddie Morahan's and Fred Alberico's two goals apiece in the Framingham game; the new combination of Ken Holmes, Tom Woodbury, and Babe Simourian, each getting one of the three goals in the Waltham game; Tom Woodbury's equalizer and clincher in the Norwood game; Ernie Sabatino's fine net-tending job combined with the pro-like defense work of Ronny Dronseiko and Babe Simourian in the course of the Walpole game; and finally the outstanding aggressiveness of the team in the one-sided B. C. High contest, the combined result of strong team spirit and superb coaching.

During the play-offs, the boys fought as they never had before but just couldn’t seem to bring victory home; so that they ended the season in third place.

High scoring honors for the season went to Fred Alberico, with Tony Messina and Ken Holmes a close second. It would be difficult to single out any one player, when we had such fine talent as Co-Captains Ronnie Dronseiko and Dick Michelson, and teammates Tom Woodbury, Ken Holmes, Fred Alberico, Tony Messina, Eddie Morahan, Chuck Papalia, Babe Simourian, Ernie Sabatino, and Dick Piscatelli. Ron Dronseiko and Fred Alberico made the Bay State All-Star first team, and Ken Holmes and Ernie Sabatino made the second team. Ken Holmes received All-Star honors for the second consecutive year. The team was well managed by Harry Miller, who was assisted by Walter Brown.

For next year Coach Murphy has another bright outlook with a goodly number of his veterans returning. This year's junior line of Fred Alberico, Tony Messina, and Eddie Morahan will return intact. Babe Simourian and Chuck Papalia should make an outstanding defensive pair. With Dick Piscatelli's experience this year, next year's goal-tending problems should be in good hands. With a little luck, the boys could win the championship.

Cross Country

The harriers, captained by Aristides Cagos, enjoyed a good season despite the lack of veterans on the squad. The team scored fourth in the Divisionals at Haverhill, fifth in the League Meet at Tufts, and sixth in the State Meet.

The season produced Tom Woodbury as one of the leading scorers in the state. In the Divisional Meet Tom ran a second; in the League Meet, a fourth and in the State Meet, a fifth. John MacKay and Captain Cagos dueled each other for second place honors. MacKay, who had never run cross country, was the team's "surprise package."

In the Haverhill meet Tom Woodbury was 12 seconds off the record set by Herb Barlow two years ago. John MacKay tied the record in the "Divisions," while Tom broke the old record, coming in second behind Squires of Arlington.

Among the outstanding “Corridor Kids” in their events were Larry Cafarella, in the shot-put; co-captain Martin Pendleton, in the hurdles and high jump; Dominic Camilli and John Karnikyan, dominating the field in the dash; Ronald Cohen and Jack Buonapane, sharing honors in the 300; Bob Gandolfo and Gale Collupy in the 600; co-captain John MacKay, Leo Speranza, and Dick O’Leary, outrunning everyone in the 1000; Aristides Cagos and Jim Shea in the mile run; Joe Maria in the high jump and hurdles; and Pendleton, MacKay, Gandolfo, and Camilli, making up a strong relay.

Basketball

Averaging slightly over forty points for each of its performances on the court this winter, the Red and White basketball team concluded a fairly successful campaign although our Varsity Quintet faced the strongest opposition seen on the home court in many years.

The Watertown team played hard all season but was poorly rewarded for their efforts. They were paced by such hoopers as Captain Art Marcantoni at center, Jim Centerino and Fred Sacco as forwards, and Aram Miller and Gerry Nally as guards. These five boys carried most of the burden for the Watertown squad.

Aram Miller was a sterling defensive player, while "Marek" Marcantoni carried away the scoring honors with a total of 290 points in his seventeen games.

Needless to say, the primary factor for this seemingly unsuccessful season was the fact that only two veterans returned this year. However, the material available for next season is most promising, since Manager Joseph Topjian, along with the entire squad of this year, except for senior Gerry Nally, will return. Coach James Sheehan, as well as the players themselves, are confident of producing an unusually strong aggregation.

The Annual
Came the advent of the baseball season of '52, Watertown was again hopeful of producing another league-winning team with the capabilities of those in the past. The squad got down to work under the direction of Coach George Yankowski. Owing to the fact that a great majority of experienced players returned, a splendid team resulted.

The prospects for this year seemed brighter than in previous seasons since only Jim Lopez and Pete Godfrey had been lost through graduation. Ed Morahan, Guy Carbone, Gerald Nally, Al Murray and Jack Buonopane combined their efforts to bring home runs when needed and showed some mighty power and efficiency with the stick. John Simourian, Fred Alberico, and Harry Eordekian developed into a fine double play combination to give Bob Kilcoyne and Manuel Gaipo a close contest for defensive laurels.

As usual the team's schedule brought the squad up against keen competition such as Arlington, Waltham and Belmont, but at all times Watertown played a fine game.

It is not often that a coach can compose a team with such splendid coordination and excellent team work, but this year's team certainly displayed these qualities. The great courage and sportsmanship the team evidenced is another factor of which they can justifiably be proud.

Though after graduation of this year many valuable men will be lost, the vacancies will be filled by such capable players as Leonard Hill, Aram Miller and Ralph Felicchia.

Golf

Rated as a definite threat to the Greater Boston High School Golf League’s southern division crown this year was the well-balanced golf team of Coach Joe Malley.

In spite of the loss of four regulars through graduation, the boys who returned formed a fairly potent club. Among those back were seniors: Captain Lou Ranieri, Gerald White, and Jim Billings; and Juniors: Anthony Oteri and Ed Vaughan.

With all this experience, Coach Joe Malley had a good team. Many members of the team were capable of playing in the seventies. Any team boasting the strength of Ranieri, Billings, and Oteri could not be taken too lightly. On the contrary such a team promised hot competition, with plenty of spirit and power. Mr. Malley had a lot of confidence in his team and we can certainly see why. The accomplishments of this year’s team made the year’s record an exciting and stimulating one. Should next year’s follow in the steps of this year’s stars, theirs will undoubtedly be a championship season. But of course this would not be at all possible without the fine coaching of Mr. Malley, who takes a great interest in his boys and golf team.

Practice rounds were held by the team at the Oakley Country Club long before the season’s competition was started. Watertown had its hands full again, for both Newton and Brookline were very powerful as usual, but Watertown held their own as they rounded out a very good season.

This year's tennis squad was under the experienced and good coaching-ability of Mr. John Koumjian. Returning from overseas, he hoped to see Watertown rise to the top in league competition. With veteran Captain Paul Griffin and consistent Robert Gilkie as the nucleus of the team, the squad worked to realize Coach Koumjian's goal.

Included on the list of opposition were: Belmont, Waltham, Rindge Tech, and Cambridge Latin. The team consisted of seven players and three substitutes seated according to their ability. Practice started early in April and continued up to April 29th. Thus, to begin the season, the team was in top form ready to withstand all competition.

The candidates consisted mostly of Seniors, a few Juniors, and two Sophomores. The group totaled 25, which is the largest turnout in tennis history in Watertown.

Returning to the squad this year were Paul Griffin, George Nazarian, Donald McCarthy, Stanley Russell, and Robert Gilkie. The hopefuls included Leon Setti and George Gilfoil, both Juniors. The team hoped to outclass all comers with the possible exception of Belmont High School, which captured first place in league competition in 1951. With the growing power from the underclassmen, coupled with the varsity squad, the Koumjian-men gave stiff competition to all opposing teams.
The 1952 drum majorettes added much color to this year's band. They often displayed new struts and twirls on the football field and were a pleasure to watch while performing.

Laurena Pallone served as a very capable drum majorette leader and was responsible for the many wonderful performances of the group. The girls assisted at the rallies and displayed their talents at the band concert.

The senior majorettes were Shirley Barnes, Yvonne Blair, Ann Burgess, Catherine Conti, Jessie DeAngelis, Mary Georgakes, Eleanor Russo, and Diane Swanson. Juniors, who will form the nucleus of next year's group, were Barbara Hunt, Alice Manasian, Barbara Marr, and Marcia Zoller.

Standing: M. Georgakes, Y. Blair, B. Hunt, L. Pallone, M. Zoller, A. Manasian, B. Marr.
Cheerleaders

This year’s group of cheerleaders contributed much to the surprising finish of the football season and the success of the hockey team. This fine-looking group of girls showed a great deal of enthusiasm and school spirit at the rallies and the various athletic activities. Much credit is due them for the time they spent practising new and old cheers day after day during lunch periods.

Diane Malkasian was chosen as head cheerleader and Mary Ann Papalia served as substitute leader. The other girls were Jean Farmer, Joan Murdock, and Frances La Spada, all senior members; and Augustine Faber, Anne Lauricella, Eileen Phillips, Patricia Schan, Rosemarie Sulahian, and Haleyone Astley (substitute), the junior members.

The girls' uniforms consisted of the usual red pleated skirts and white sweaters with large letters spelling out W-A-T-E-R-T-O-W-N.

A Student Council suggestion made it possible for the girls to lead cheering at the hockey games this year for the first time. The junior cheerleaders sold candy at Sports Night to raise money to obtain new uniforms for next year.
The field hockey team, coached by Miss Helen Mackey, was bothered considerably by unfavorable weather. Four games were cancelled because of rain. In spite of this situation, the girls displayed a lot of teamwork in their remaining games. Much credit must be given to Miss Mackey for a job well done.

The first team forward line was led by a fine captain, Dorothy Long, at right wing; and a very capable manager, Josephine Castellano, at center forward. Other forwards were Priscilla Myers and Toni Davis, playing the inner positions, and Elizabeth Norton and Patricia Schan, sharing the left wing positions.

The first team substitutes were Janet Altieri, Ann Burgess, Mary DeFlorio, Marlo Mitchell, Kathleen Humphrey, Ann Lauricella, Mary Ann Papalia, June Prendergast, and Marjorie Mogan.

The second team players were Sylvia Ajemian, Diane Astley, Rosemary Campbell, Linda Erskine, Bernadette Farrarher, Patricia Finn, Theresa Geordano, Barbara Hunt, Carol Manolian, Josephine Pasciscia, Eileen Phillips, Constance Russell, Ann Semerjian, and Jean Scott.

Priscilla Myers and Janice Thomson are captain and manager-elect respectively.

Basketball

The girls' basketball team under the patient coaching of Miss Sally Biggane, wound up with a fair season.

The first team had a majority of Seniors playing on it. Helen Russo, a short but extremely fast guard, was the captain. Other guards were: Dorothy Long, Ann Burgess, Edith Conti, and Marianne Greene, who successfully and continually kept the opponents on the run. The forwards on the first team were Mary DeFlorio, a fine shooting manager; Josephine Castellano, the team's high scorer; and Ann Griffin, a very capable shot.

Juniors on the first team were: Patricia Finn, Marlou Mitchell, and Gladys Parks, all of whom were forwards and very fine shots. The sole junior guard on the first team was Harriet O'Brien, whose height was a great advantage.

The second team forwards were: Priscilla Myers, Ellen Davis, Connie Russell, and Shirley Ehrhardt. Playing guard were: Elizabeth Norton, Margaret Ciarfella, Barbara Hunt, Sylvia Dalton, Sylvia Ajemian, Janet Altieri, and Loretta Pine.

The fact that these girls are all Juniors should give next year's team a well-balanced squad. An excellent job was done by the time-keeper, Janice Thomson, and the score-keeper, Loretta Stead.

A number of inexperienced but courageous players showed a "do-or-die effort" in order to try to maintain a winning team this year. Miss Sally Biggane, varsity coach, was able to give some excellent pointers on tennis styles to help the team in its attempt to gain victories.

The team's only candidate from last year's squad was Joan Porter. Joan was a fine team player and could give the squad a great boost. Other candidates included: Dorothy Long, Helen Russo, Josephine Castellano, Helen Bonier, and Dorothea Rubin.

All of these girls had entered and won their matches in the previous fall tournaments. Another factor to consider was that these girls were Seniors with three years of tournaments and matches behind them. Their determination proved a large factor in creating a strong team.

There were also two Sophomores who were likely candidates for making the team—namely, Joyce Gilkie and Marilyn Luck. These girls even gave the senior girls a bit of competition for a berth on this year's varsity squad.

Teams Watertown was scheduled to play during the season included: Malden, Lexington, Newton, Concord, and Brookline, all of which promised to give the girls a lot of competition.

Let's pray and practice love and fidelity every day, not just on Sundays, Mother's Day, Father's Day, and Brotherhood Week. This, I call Democracy, the American Way.

PERSONALIZED PORTRAITS

and it's all done with

LIGHTS!

There's magic in lights . . . add a light here, place a spotlight there, and your portrait takes on the appearance of real form and individuality.

Your Vantine photographer knows how lighting effects can be best used . . . How easily they can reflect your personality.

Your Vantine photographer knows best how to secure the sharply etched photograph your engraver desires of the important senior year. . . . The victories of the athletic teams. . . . The brilliance of social occasions. . . . The Prom . . . . The plays . . . The debates . . . The expression of everyday life on the campus.

That personalized portraits by Vantine are important is attested to by the fact that over 300 schools and colleges repeatedly entrust their photographic work to Vantine.

The best answer is YOU

I think it will be too bad if everybody gets the idea that somebody is going to take care of him some day.

People who have money today worked hard for it and saved some of their earnings.

Working and saving by individuals made America the best country in the world today.

Working and saving are two good, old-fashioned habits that we shouldn't throw away in exchange for anybody's promised bed of roses.

You can start with as little as $1
A Yearbook created and produced by our skilled craftsmen is always appreciated for the excellence of its design and quality of workmanship.
