The YEARBOOK STAFF of WATERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL WATERTOWN, MASSACHUSETTS Presents
The Annual
1965

WATERTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
WATERTOWN, MASSACHUSETTS
FOREWORD

Watertown High School gives us the opportunities to gain an education, to develop our abilities, and to prepare for the future. During our three years at W.H.S., we had many enjoyable and memorable times along with our studies. Capturing some of our moments here at W.H.S., the Annual portrays the memories of the Class of 1965—the picture of each Senior, school activities, clubs, and candid photos of past recollections. The Annual illustrates the academic subjects that have played an important part in our school years, and the Administration and faculty who have helped us and guided us along the road to the future. We, the Editors, hope that the Annual will serve each graduate of the Class of 1965 as a means of retracing the days of Watertown High School.

MISS EDITH J. JACOBS

MR. JOHN McNEALY
Dean of Boys
In your Honor

In order to express our gratitude for his many years of service here at W.H.S., the class of 1965 dedicates this Annual to Mr. William H. Donald, Director of Industrial Arts for the Watertown School System. Teaching woodworking at W.H.S since 1942, Mr. Donald has helped many boys develop their skills in the department of industrial arts for a profitable future after their graduation. Mr. Donald has also taught woodworking at the Perkins Institute for the Blind.

Graduating from Newton Vocational High School in 1916, Mr. Donald worked in industry for sixteen years and then received his teaching certificate. From 1932 to 1942 he taught cabinetmaking for the Massachusetts Department of Correction. Mr. Donald is also now Post Commander of Post number 99 of the American Legion.

We, the class of 1965, wish Mr. Donald much happiness as he retires this year.

Underclass
As sophomores at WHS we spent most of the year adjusting and making friends. After a challenging half year, we elected our Sophomore Class Officers—President, Paul Airasian; Vice-president, Robert Bloomer; Secretary, Susan Venezia; Treasurer, Marilyn Corey; Executive Committee - Brenda Whalen, Elizabeth Golden, Robert Erickson, and Judy Wright. We all hold many pleasant and lasting memories of our Sophomore year.

The following September we held elections again—President, Paul Airasian; Vice-president, Robert Bloomer; Secretary, Susan Venezia; Treasurer, Marilyn Corey; Executive Committee - Brenda Whalen, Judy Wright, Patty Levesque, Denise Pimentel, Janet Cavalen. As Juniors we purchased our class rings and had our Junior Prom. Now the Senior Year awaits us.

Class of '66
We, the class of '67 watch our senior class members as they prepare to leave. Bewildered, perhaps a little frightened at times, we realize how quickly the next two years will slip away from us. We wonder how to equip ourselves for the uncertain worlds of college and business to which our upper class members are now ascending. But, most of all, we feel pride for those who will always be to us: "The Class of '65".

Each week the new organization, Hi-Y, meets to partake in all the social and civic activities offered by the Y.M.C.A. The purpose of the club is to strengthen and uphold high moral principles and standards of our society.

Hi-Y meeting in school
Under the guidance of Mrs. Barbara Murphy, the members of Tri-Hi-Y engage in many interesting and worthwhile activities. Among these are the Winter Carnival, swimming at the Y, making beanies for football rallies, attending lectures, and giving a Christmas party for underprivileged children. At the end of the year, they present an annual scholarship to a deserving Senior.

Rifle Club

Linda Micklay and George LeFavor take aim.

The Watertown High School Rifle Club, Composed of thirty members, meets weekly at the John F. Kennedy Junior High School to practice prone and off-hand shooting with target rifles. Watertown High School was one of the original members of the Middlesex Scholastic League, and under the able coaching of Mr. St. Onge, the Rifle Team competes with nine other schools in the league for several annual awards.
Quid Nunc

Quid Nunc, under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Boyle, is a service organization affiliated with the Junior Red Cross. The girls of this organization spend their time helping out in hospitals, giving parties for the underprivileged and filling Red Cross boxes to be sent overseas. They assist on parent teachers' night by escorting parents to the proper rooms. The time and effort donated by Quid Nunc members have given the club a well-known and respected name.
The Bulletin

The Bulletin, the school newspaper, is published monthly throughout the school year. In addition to news of school activities, it contains original writing, feature stories, and humorous articles. The paper's staff sponsors the Holly Hop and an annual used Book Sale for the purpose of reducing its operating expenses.

The purpose of Theatre Workshop, under the sponsorship of Mr. Hughes, is to stimulate student interest in the theatre arts and to provide members with the opportunity to perform before others. During club period, students read scenes from famous plays and participate in such creative drama activities as pantomine, impromptu dialogue and monologue. Outside of school the club as a group often attends local professional and amateur productions.

Theatre Workshop

Workshop members rehearse Senior Class Play.
Direction of school activities, encouragement of student participation in democratic practices, and promotion of better understanding between the faculty and the students are the purposes of the Watertown High School Student Council. Being composed of forty-three homeroom representatives, the Student Council belongs to the Massachusetts and Eastern Divisions of the National Association of Student Councils.

Under its faculty advisor, Miss McCaffrey, the Watertown High School Student Council annually sponsors such activities as the Kouncil Kick-Off Dance, the United Charity Drive, the Student Government Exchange Program, and the Annual Athletic Banquet.
It is the duty of the Election Commissioners to aid in the administration of school elections. Under the supervision of Mr. Peter Burke, they set up the voting booths and count the votes. Each election commissioner is also responsible for conducting those elections which take place in his homeroom.

Mr. Burke and Nancy Milner look over the election returns.

Election Commissioners

Learning to take and develop better pictures is the primary purpose of the Camera Club. Many of their pictures appear in both the Bulletin and Annual. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Daniel Sullivan, the members acquire photographic skills, knowledge, and professional instruction in photography.

One of the school's largest organizations is the Math Club. Under the direction of Mr. Gerald Cleary, its members learn to operate slide rules and digital computers. As a member of Mu Alpha Theta, a math honor society, the club is able to engage guest lecturers throughout the year.

For girls interested in careers in secretarial work, the Secretarial Club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Desmond, provides an opportunity to develop poise, self-confidence, initiative, adaptability, and other qualities necessary for success in business. Their activities include a visit to a business office in Watertown and a typing contest.
The office helpers are valuable assistants to the school's administration. Working in the Guidance, Deans', and Main Offices, they file notes, late slips, and collect attendance sheets, answer phones, and perform other helpful duties.
Sponsored by Mr. Gerald Cleary, the Math Team competes regularly with local high schools in math meets. For students with above average ability in math, the Math Team provides a means of testing their skill. Arithmetic, algebra I and II, geometry, and trigonometry are covered. The big event of the year is the play-off between the top ranking schools.
One of the school's most active clubs is the Projection Club, sponsored by Mr. Bannon. Under the leadership of president Ronald Jigaranjian, vice-president Andrew Christo, and secretary-treasurer Albert Miller, the club keeps W.H.S. moving throughout the year. It is responsible for the technical work of all the assemblies, movies, plays, rehearsals, town meetings, rallies, freak day, graduation, and many more functions that occur throughout the school year.

Mr. Bannon and Dan Pugliese discuss the operation of the projector.
The Art Club, sponsored by Mr. Harold T. Moody, is a vitally important organization to the school. It finds time to add a creative touch to many of the school functions as well as help each student express himself individually in several different mediums—including oil, watercolor, and pastel. Although some of the members go on to further study in the field of art, most find the club enjoying, simply for the relaxing benefits of self-expression.
One of the major projects of the Crafts Club is decorating the gym for the major dances and the two proms. Members also provide many of the posters announcing coming events. In addition, they work with ceramics, stained glass, and copper enameling. Under the direction of Mr. Voci, members enter into competition at the New England Ceramics Show and the Boston Scholastic Art Show sponsored by the Boston Globe.

Crafts Club

This year's French Club has tried to provide a background for culture and appreciation of the arts by encouraging visits to museums and attendance at various musical and theatrical productions in the area. The activities are often punctuated by dinner out at one of the many fine French restaurants in Boston where members can experiment with la cuisine francaise.

The administrative end of the club includes Mrs. Wells, faculty advisor, Peter Amershadian, president, Anita Kerbeshian, Vice-president, Beth Macurdi, treasurer, and Susan Penny, secretary.

Speaking Spanish informally and deepening its knowledge of Spanish and South American culture are the two main purposes of the Spanish Club. This club has the distinction of belonging to a national Spanish Honor Society: La Sociedad Honoraria Hispániola.

The Spanish Club celebrates Christmas with the breaking of the pinata.

Basketball Club

The basketball club, under the supervision of Mr. Charles Auburn and Coach John Allen, is made up of basketball enthusiasts as well as members of the basketball team. The purpose of the club is to support the basketball team and to improve the members' knowledge and skill in the sport. The meetings consist of tape recordings of past games and analytical discussions.
Made up primarily of members of the football team, the Gridiron Club is headed by Coach Frank Cousineau. The Club's purpose is to introduce its members to the basic concepts of football strategy. Among its activities are general discussion periods and viewing movies of past Red Raider games. At the close of the football season, it sponsors the Gridiron Hop.

As is the tradition of W.H.S. the graduating class presented the annual senior class play on March 4th and 5th. This year's production was the "Madwoman of Chaillot" by Jean Giraudoux. It depicted the attempts of a group of mercenary gentlemen to extract oil from beneath the city of Paris and their final destruction at the hands of Countess Aurelia, the Madwoman of Chaillot. Under the combined effort of the director, Mr. Paul Hughes, the stage technicians, and the fine performance of a large cast of players, the play was a large success.

The Ragpicker and the Countess
A new club was inaugurated at Watertown High this year — the Clothing Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Nancy Fitzgerald of the Home Economics Dept. The members of the club design and make their own clothing. The purpose of the organization is to give the girls an opportunity to express their creativity in homemaking.

The Clothing Club
Sponsored by Mr. Anthony Grassia, The World Literature Club is a new organization for the purpose of learning more about the world's great literature. After reading certain books, the members of the club gather around to discuss the ideas, expressions, background, symbolism, characters, and creativity of the authors.

The World Literature Club studies a novel.

Future Nurses

This year a new club has been organized, the Future Nurses' Club. Under the sponsorship of Miss Raybould and the guidance of Mr. McDonald, the girls have listened to guest speakers and have toured various schools of nursing to learn about the intricacies of nursing. The members, through fund raising projects, want to establish the tradition of presenting a scholarship to a senior girl who is going to become a nurse.

Chess Club

The Watertown Chess Team, under the direction of Mr. Craig, is showing great promise. Considering it is a relatively new club, the members have been quite successful. The team's best players are R. Butterfield, A. Sabatino, D. Antressian, B. Lavelle, and Ed Lang. In the future, Mr. Craig has great confidence that an outstanding junior, T. Metcalf, will spark the team.
Folksong Club

Friday afternoons find folk song enthusiasts of the "Ethnic Groove" on the auditorium balcony singing to the strains of guitars and banjos. Their favorite folk artists include Joan Baez; Peter, Paul, and Mary; and Bob Dylan. Though the members meet chiefly for enjoyment, they made a public appearance this year. This, the school's newest club, was formed in 1963, under Mr. Hagopian's sponsorship.

Choraleers and Madrigals

The chorus and madrigals, conducted by Mr. Hagopian, find great pleasure and satisfaction in rehearsing and performing in the numerous musical activities. Their accomplishments include participation with musicians from other schools in exchange assemblies and concerts, choral performances on television and at the Watertown Rotary and Garden Clubs during the Christmas season, and participation in school assemblies and in the spring music festival.

Orchestra

Mr. Hagopian directing the orchestra.
Under the direction of Mr. Zarba, the band continues to provide spirit and entertainment for the WHS football games and pep rallies. The band also participates in the annual music festival, several school assemblies, and exchange concerts.

When we arrived at W.H.S. for the first time, most of us were well armed with bits of sage advice doled out to us by well-meaning old grads or friendly upperclassmen. We were prepared to put in his place any senior who should tell us that there existed an elevator or a swimming pool somewhere in the bowels of W.H.S. Most of us, though were a little disappointed to find that such tricks were "passe" and no one paid much attention to the sophs anyway. Soon we were deeply immersed in the routine of study. Then they sprung something called mid-years on us poor, trusting sophs. But, after that week of sheer agony, we were on our feet again and ready to cope with student life. During our first year at W.H.S., we became aware of many differences between junior high and high school. There were the dances, the rallies, the football games and basketball games, the school spirit, the friendly hostility of the upper-classmen, the late slips, the dismissal slips, the warning slips, the "kindly allow to come to room such and such" slips, the class dues, and a somewhat expanded "on our ownnes". But after the long dark days of Winter, came the sweet-warm day of Spring and a sharp increase in daydreaming and that old longing for the days of Summer. And soon it came, though some thought it never would, SUMMER VACATION.

Returning to W. H. S. we filled out our quadruplicate copies of program cards with new confidence. Now we too had become upper-classmen and were fully prepared to sneer at the new sophs. But, this passed quickly and once again we settled down to routine, becoming increasingly envious of the senior 2:27 dismissal. Soon we were possessed by a longing, a longing which grew as days passed, the longing for the 2:30 bell. All too soon midyears had come and gone once again. And we began looking forward to the Junior Prom. Now that we were juniors, we began to take more interest in W.H.S. by joining clubs, serving on committees and promoting school spirit. So once again the days of Winter faded to the bright days of Spring and Summer vacation was just beyond finals.

Seniors at last we returned for the last time to W. H. S. Setting down to study right away, we began to make applications to colleges, business schools, nursing schools etc, etc. Now we had only to wait for that fatal letter which would confirm or deny our acceptance. Time passed quickly and we began to count the days to the Prom and graduation. And some of us, though reluctant to admit it began to feel a little sad about leaving W.H.S. and the friends we made here. These three years have been unique indeed. They are the years in which our characters have grown, the years in which we have decided on careers, formed opinions and gained knowledge which will influence the rest of our lives. And only now that we must leave W.H.S. do we realize how quickly these years have passed and how much they have meant to us.

Last Will and Testament—Class of 1965

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the bonds that have tied them to one another, that is called graduation.

Therefore, we, the class of 1965, being of unstable minds and unfit bodies do hereby bequeath to the faculty and seniors-to-be the following:

1.) Miss Appel we leave a broken down synapse.
2.) To Mr. Hannon we will an electric comb.
3.) Mr. Bannon we assign a squad of SS troopers.
4.) To Mr. Cucinatto we bequeath a bullhorn.
5.) Mrs. Boy we leave a three pound box of yankee ingenuity.
6.) To Mr. Peter Burke we will a marquee.
7.) To Mr. Kaveny—an out-of-state license plate.
8.) For Mr. Jackson a bright eye and a bushy tail.
9.) For Mr. Koumjian—a tapered shirt.
10.) Mr. Craig we leave an extra bishop (redeemable for 3 pawns).
11.) To Mr. Jenkins—a book on Armenian pronunciation.
12.) To Mr. Winand we relinquish a tear-stained Schaum's book.
13.) Mr. Hughes we leave a Verbose mute.
14.) To Mr. Bernard Burke we will a change holder.
15.) Mr. Zarba—we leave a tryout on Community Auditions.
16.) To Mr. Sakala we leave a pound of elastics.

To the Junior class we leave our blood, sweat and tears and anything else they can find ground into the desks.

Athletics
Although the Cousineau men won only two games, they never con­ceded defeat. Against highly rated Brookline, the team played its great­est game. Quarterback Dan McDermott and John Verocchi put on a great offensive display with the strong support of the linemen. Against Brockton the team put on a great defensive exhibition and managed to tally the lone touch­down of the game.

The outstanding senior linemen who made the strength in the de­fense were Co-captains Jim Pane, Dan White, and Frank Torres. In the defensive backfield, seniors John Donovan and Co-captain Mike Assarian were outstanding.

Coaches Comment: The 1964-65 team was a pleasure to be associated with; they were a fine group of boys. Even though the team won only two games, it is interesting to note that an average of 16 points were scored against us, while we had a 10 point average of points scored per game—a difference of one touchdown per game. With a little bounce of the ball, the boys could have had a win­ning season. We hope the future holds a few more “rays of sunshine” for Watertown football.

Ted Malvey goes for basket.

Basketball

It was a long, hard season for new coach John Allen and his varsity hoopers. The team finished the season with its best record in fifteen years. The team set many scoring records for team performances. Against Newton South the team tallied 85 points, and against Arlington the team again broke the record by scoring 92 points. Co-captains Teddy Malvey and Ricky Grant, along with seniors Connie Brosnan, Allen Gallagher, Tom Haggerty, and Tom Read added the experience for the team which junior Gary Brackett and sophomore Butch Raute supplied the underclass depth.

Vaskenkaloustian prepares to defend.

J. Short and R. Morrell on the attack.

Charlie Goodrow battles for the ball.
This year's Soccer Team wasn't as successful as it was hoped to be, due primarily to the heavy loss of last year's seniors. The majority of the team consists of sophomores, who have gained much valuable experience. The seniors were Captain Vasken Kaloustian (center-forward), Peter Gerlach (Full-back), Joe Regan (goal-keeper), Shawn Kelly (right wing), and John Short (left wing).

Coach's Comment:

Coach Malley says that although the boys were green, they were trying very hard and hope to do much better next season.
The Hockey Team, coached by Mr. Shannon, had a rugged season. Watertown High put on a splendid performance however, against league leaders Melrose who emerged with a 3-1 victory. Peter Gerlach, considered by many as one of the best goalies in the state, was the standout of that game. This year the hockey team had tri-captains who were: seniors David Danielson, Ed Camposano, and Bill Vahey. Other seniors were: Peter Gerlach, John Coyle, Bob Donahue, Bob Warren, and Bob Pugliese.

Track Team

Highlighted by the performances of Dick Manion, Jim Moran, John Malloy, Bob Watson, and Jerry Forget, coach Jenkins' indoor track team enjoyed a successful season finishing with a superb 6-1 record, of which the only loss was by a mere two points. This record was a complete reversal of last year's record. With a fine Junior and Sophomore group returning next year, the feeling is that this year's record will be upheld if not bettered. Dick Manion, the most consistent runner on the team, qualified for the National Track Finals in New York.

Coache's Comment: "It couldn't have happened to a better team."

Fran Donnelly making his move to pass on the outside.

Ken Ryan and Al Thompson in the lead.
Cross Country

Because of injuries or illness, Coach Jenkins feels that the team's potential was never realized. Although they won only one of four dual meets, the runners showed a great deal of spirit. In almost every meet a different boy finished first for Watertown, Paul Donnelly, Jim Moran, and Captain John Malloy supplied senior depth, while Juniors Andy Anastasia and Fran Donnelly showed the underclass strength. Other outstanding runners were Ken Ryan, Tim Mann, Joe Barksdale, and Steve Osieki.

A fine turnout of experienced seniors and eager juniors and sophomores initiated hopes for a successful season. Yet despite the efforts of Miss Raybould and the co-operation of all the girls, the results were disappointing. The contest with a strong Concord opposition was, by far, the best display of the teams’ skill and endurance. The girls played a sharp defensive but failed to tally the winning goal. Veteran teammates predict more promising results next year.

Coach’s Comment:
“There’s a lot of good material. Next year we hope to win.”
