WITH RESPECT AND GRATITUDE:

FMR. THOMAS McGOVERN

It is a quality that many strive for, but few consistently attain. The quality is respect and one of the few is you, Mr. Thomas McGovern, to whom this 1981 annual is dedicated. You have gained this respect by teaching colleagues and students alike through dedication and hard work, whether in shirt and tie or "sweats". By waiting those few extra minutes after class to help a student, by staying late at practice to advise an athlete who seeks your counsel, by simply being there when you are needed and by conducting yourself in a professional but always courteous manner, you have earned a place of honor in this Annual, which you so richly deserve.
Genesis

Genesis: the beginning
Of a time in our lives
That we wish would go by quickly,
But that we also want to remain;
The beginning
Of a part of our lives
Different from any part to come;
For some, this beginning
Will be easy. For others,
It will be far more difficult
Than anything they have experienced.
So far. But for all,
It will be easier than anything in our lives
Will ever be again;
The beginning
Of a time in our lives
When we are no longer children,
But not yet adults;
The beginning
Of a period of our lives
That will prepare us for
What is to come;
Our beginning, our genesis;
It is gone before we have a chance
To realize
That this era in our lives
Has begun.

REVELATIONS
It was a time of changes;
A place we came to learn
A road that showed us who we are
And what we might become.

It was an age of discoveries
Of seeking out our goals;
A time to capture wishes
And corner all our dreams.

It was our time of Revelations
Our time to see the Light
To mold the sands of Future
And start our brand new lives.

by Kathie Gregory
Exodus

Just as the end of every circle is also its beginning,
The exodus from today is the genesis of tomorrow.
For in the realm of life, every ending is in itself a beginning.
And as we walk along the paths of our lives,
We find that the end of every road leads to
The beginning of the next road.
We carry with us all the memories of our past roads
And when we look back to see the trails we've made,
We may be tempted to backtrack to more secure roads.
But on the road of life the only true direction is forward.
Sure there will be times when we're not sure which way to go
And those times when we just felt like wandering.
And times when we find we've taken the wrong turn.
But with the guidance of the past
And the promise of the future,
You'll find the path that was meant just for you.

The top stories for tonight:

Found shopping at Toys R Us, DOMENIC DICENZO and RICKY RIDGE were caught red-handed with Rockem-Sockem Robots, Retin-Garin Shopping Gallery, B14 pants, and pocket full of matchbox cars. Defending them in court will be their own white shadow, Coach Cothen. Pending over the court will be mercurial judge LAURIE "Jeanice" GAYNE. Drawing the court sketches will be JAMES GUGGINA.

Due to Proposals 2-, Police Chief RICHARD MUNGER has given up his search for the wanted STEPHEN BERNE because funds have run out.

Meanwhile, next door at the fire station there was a ceremony for the unveiling of the three statues honoring CHARLIE DUPUIS, NORMAN AUBERT and BILLY PALASH. Before anyone had a chance to see the statues, the hook and ladder team of DAVID and DANNY GIDAS accidentally demolished the statues while backing in.

Tragedy struck Waterson today when the famed "WALL" of Commons and Columbia Street crumbled. The tragedy left many harmless among whom were: D AWNY NORTON, MARIA LOUDERIGAS, LEANNY CARAGULIAN, STEPHANIE COLMAN, SANDRA COOK, KENNY DELUCA, LINDA DEVINCENTIS, CALLIE EVELYN, KATHY MAUGHAN, STANLEY PEARDON, JANICE SMITH, DAVID STORAS and JEANINE PARELIA. We offer our deepest condolences to all of you.

On the bright side, Wexler Construction Company has agreed to reconstruct the wall. Wanting to take over the "NEW" wall are SARI BISGA, ELIZABETH MAEVE, LAURA RICHTER, DAVID PICKERING, MIKE DARBOUGHIAN, DOUG BURKE, DONALD DONOVAN, JOHN ROSSO, RODIANE ARPDING, BREENDA BERG and LILAI TOSSTEJANAS. Wexler has informed us that the wall should be white and emblematic that should be completed by the year 2000.

History was made today when President of the U.S. Space Program, STEVE ANDERSON completed the first phase of his new space program, MAUREEN REYN and THERESE WOOGLOCK became the first women to land on the moon. During their stay on the moon the girls will be transported around by DAVE RICHARDSON and his moon son.

MARCEL GALLO, TERRY DALDOL, CATHY BURKE, CHERY L MARTINO and BARBARA SCALTRETO set their sights on egg shoe. They will be arraigned in court next week. The chief prosecutor will be Ms. Stowell. Ms. Stowell came across the evidence when she was invited to dinner by her students and we served egg salad, deviled eggs and egg nog.

The Check Mate Burglar struck again last night and left his latest move, putting the police force chase game in a check mate. Realizing that they were at the end of their rope the police brought in an expert MARK SELERFAC and sketched a picture of the Check Mate Burglar who is only known to them as STEPHEN. However, we are told that a wall has been broken out between the Greeks and Armenians. Millions of eggs have been planted throughout the Greek community. These eggs will be glass and will shatter on anyone stepping on them. The Greeks have been ordered to keep an eye on their eggs.

The paper boys will be working in the streets of Waterson today. Several boys have been arrested for throwing eggs at the police. Several others have been arrested for stealing eggs from the police.

Making headlines in every paper across the nation was the attempted assassination on President TONY CESPEDES. Secret Service men JOHN HAMILL, DuKE DOHERTY, BOB KINSTONG and GRABB PULCCHI courageously blocked the shots allegedly fired by ERIC BARRON. Wanting to treat the injured victims at Mt. Auburn Hospital were MARIE MILLER and stretcher attendants STEVE MACLEOD. We regret to inform you that no pictures are available due to the excitement.

After many years of research, scientists MIKE RHOET and MARITA GHRISOLI have developed a new human growth potion. Their first successful guinea pig was MIKE GOYEE. He grew five inches in one year. Mike and Marita are now working on a potion that will reverse ages. The plan is to use on RICHARD KIN and STEPHEN ROSE.

Last week marked the 5th anniversary of the attempted assassination of Pope John Paul II. Italians from all over the world have been arriving at the Vatican. Waterson's delegation consists of CARAVNE MASSARIOLI, OLYMPIA MAURO DONATO ALONZO, RICHARD ROBIC, MARYLOU DIZICACO, VINNIE FURIA, NICK TAMASCIO and DONNA KATTA.

WELL, JOHN CLINTON was all smiles today when his dream finally came true. He became the new President of the Stop and Shop Supermarket and named JACKIE DUFFY his Vice President. However, his reign did not last long. JUDE CALABRIO, having the hungry hordes emptied the same stores of the money that he had previously found. However, this wasn't just an ordinary hungry hunger, it was the biggest one. Jude left the last store and headed for Convenience and then Ralue's Shop. Heartbroken, ELIZABETH VONN and DINO IRISIGON report that until new stocks come in, everyone will have to rely on the school lunches.

DAVID WHITE'S burger strike has finally ended after 5 grueling years of fasting. The purpose of the strike was to bring attention to the new Deba fries. Both DEBBIE RANCORT and RICHARD FRASER say that business is booming due to David and the fries are not reflected.

McDonald's and Burger King have merged to form MCKING. The international franchise are owned by JIM JOHNSON, ANNE DONNELLY and MIKE McCOL. Today kicked off the beginning of a nation wide campaign to promote MCKING new sandwich, the NELL BURGER. ... We wish them luck.

CHERYL JUDKINS, TINA SALVITTI and ROBERT FACCONDA announced that they have signed their Papa Gina's franchise over to ESTHER MCMANON, CHRIS HANCOCK, CAROLINE KELLY, VERONICA NOONAN, KATHY GREGGIAN, TOM McCARTHY and JOHN GRIFFIN. The new franchise will be called Punka Gina's.

While playing soccer, TARIK AYERIAN learned that he had been drafted into the Russian army for his knowledge and experience in guerilla warfare. He will be taking with him: AL FAHRA, BILLY ARTIS, JOHN GEORGEOPHIL, MIKE GEORGEPPIC, HARRY CARBY and JAY MANJUAC to hold up the fort.

Five years after the Waterson-Belmont X-country meet, speedsters TOM PEASE, ALDO D'AMICO, KAREN HURLEY, TONY CARACINO and TOM MAFF have finally made it over Heartbreak Hill (Common Street) in time for their reunion.

The following athletes were admitted yesterday to the Mt. Auburn Hospital for treatment of splinters in their dermies: GLENN DACLEY, BARRY DONNELLY, ROBBIE ROGLEE and VINNIE IULIANO. CAROL MANIAR, was the lucky nurse who was chosen to pluck the splinters.

For an age when new inventions are popping up everywhere, sports are no exception. Modern technology is pleased to present Rockall. As the name suggests, it is a combination of both hockey and baseball, where a hockey player slaps a baseball and a baseball player throws a puck. Bruin defencemen JACK DURAN and TONY LEONE and Red Sox Pitcher RICHARD HUNSTE were asked to demonstrate the object of the new game. However, Jack slapped so many baseballs into left field net and Richard threw so many pucks that the score got too high for us to keep count, so we scratched the whole project.

Famed Indianapolis speedway driver CARL CARITO suffered a minor setback today when he hit a tree behind the guardrail at Indy 300. How he got on the other side of the guardrail, we have no idea. However, not far away, FRED PHILLIPS CAMERON was expecting some spectacular feat from Carl and was waiting close by to give him much to much unsatisfaction.

Cait is doing fine and we are happy to announce that the two will be married under that same tree next Sunday.

JEFF DAISY signed a 4.5 million dollar contract today with the Los Angeles Dodgers. However, word soon leaked out that Dodgers manager Tom Lasorda resigned and that the job had been given to manager AL DITULIO who then appointed ED BASILE as his assistant. When Jeff was reached for comment, he simply looked at the reporter, tore up the contract and left the stadium.

Some big news in sports this week: JOHN CININO, as his soupped up 1966 Dodge Rambler, was disqualified at the Daytona 500 for taking a short cut through the Galaxy. NICK TEMPLER was then declared the winner.

While competing at the 1984 Olympic Gymnastic finals, RICH PETRILLO had an embarrassing experience when his suspenders gave way in the middle of his routine. Apparently MIKE CORRIGAN was quick to help to keep Rich's pants up but not quick enough since ALAN MAYNARD, CHERY HENDERSON and KATHY GREGORY were all able to help Rich keep his exposed physique for the yearbook.

SPORTS
The 1980 Soccer Team finished 4th in the Middlesex Soccer League. This was quite an accomplishment with the team beating rival teams of Winchester, Wakefield, Belmont and having a record of 13-4-1 for the regular season. A total of six shut-outs made it a terrific season not to mention making the State Tournament, and coming away with Division Two North Soccer Champions for 1980 for Massachusetts. With one game away, the team came close but lost with two starting players unable to play. The season finished the season with a 16-5-1 over-all Season Record. Highlights of the season: The team qualified for the State Tournament. They beat Lexington 2-1, and tied Winchester with 1 second left on the clock, came from behind to beat Belmont — the arch rival!!! WHS Soccer players scored 72 goals vs. 26 against them. In the play-offs, 19 goals were scored by WHS vs. 6 against them. As well as beating Lynnfield (the powerhouse of soccer), WHS also beat Bedford 4-1 (Last year’s defending Champions) Raffi Agharian was picked the Globe All Scholastic Middlesex League All Star Player and WHS “MVP.” Harry Cinoral also WHS “MVP” and Middlesex League All Star. Heath Joukdarian — Middlesex All Star, Sandro Lani — Middlesex All Star and Armen Keuchkarian was Middlesex All Star Runner-up. Mr. John Arone was chosen The Middlesex Soccer Coach of the Year and the Sons of Italy Coach of the Year. The Captains of the team were: Armen Keuchkarian, Sandro Lani and Raffi Agharian. To the Division Two North Champion Soccer Team of WHS — we salute you!

Following a slow start, the Harriers closed strongly with wins over Reading and Belmont and finished their season with 4 wins and 5 losses. Seniors Co-Captains Tom Mann and Tom Pease, backed up by Aldo D'Amico, Barry Donnelly and Juniors Kevin Malloy, Dave Tierney, Jim Kelly and Ed Mansfield formed the nucleus of a squad that finished 4th in the Middlesex League standings and proved to be very competitive in the state meet (14th among 26 teams), the Catholic Memorial invitational and the state coaches meet. Coach McGovern looks forward to a solid 1981 season with the return of 4 talented juniors and 9th grader Dave Renzella moving up to the Varsity.

The Watertown High Girls' Field Hockey team enjoyed their most successful season this past year, compiling an impressive record of 11-4-3 and missing qualification for the State tournament by six-tenths of a point. The girls' season started in mid-August at camp and they never stopped their hard work until the last game. For the first year, a member of the team was named as an honorable mention All-Star in the Middlesex League. Next year's team looks strong as the team only loses five seniors to graduation — Tri-Captains Mary Duffy, Eileen Coffin, and Paula Pomponi along with Anne Donnelly and Susan Magliozzi.

OUR DEFENSIVE SPECIALISTS
The fighting spirit of the 1980 Raider football team was clearly displayed in each of their ten games. Led by captains John Giglio, Rick Iodice, and Greg Poillucci, the 1980 squad "Turned the program around" with seven wins and three losses.

The coaches attribute the team's success to the 22 seniors who set their goals high and were willing to make the self-sacrifices to achieve them.

Middlesex League All-stars: Stephen Brackett, Bill Doherty, Peter Fiorentino, Rick Iodice, Jim Miller, Dave Richardson, Brian Walker.

The Watertown High Golf Team ended the season with a 10-2 record. This was good enough to make them Co-Champions with Woburn in the Middlesex League. Seniors Kevin Sullivan, Tom Cusack, and Eddie O'Brien were the mainstays on the team, while junior Kevin Brown, and sophomores Mike Bannon and Peter Hayes contributed greatly. Kevin Sullivan and Tom Cusack were selected to the Middlesex League All Stars. This was a remarkable season's performance and proved once again that Watertown golfers can overcome the lack of a course for practice and compete with any town in the league.

Girls' Basketball

For the second year in a row, the girls' team advanced to post-season play, compiling an impressive 14 and 4 record. Under Captain Paula Pomponi and League All-Stars Mary Duffy and Leslie Horne, the "Hoop Pack" averaged over 50 points a game while holding their opponents to under 40 points. Though they were disappointed early in the season when an easy victory had to be forfeited, the girls fought back to win 13 of their last 16 games. In the quarter finals of the tournament, against Tewksbury, the girls fell short but this has no reflection on their play throughout the season. Next year will be a rebuilding year for the "pack" as they lose six seniors to graduation. The team showed this season, above all others, that they are a team with heart.

The Boys Gymnastics Team 1980-81.
This year’s team consisted of only one senior, Laurie Ganem. The team had an average season this year. The enthusiasm and positive attitude kept the team going through the bad times. The team worked very hard this year which showed its results by their performance.
In many ways the 1980-81 Hockey season was a very rewarding one. Though the team did not post a winning record (7-9-2) they fared far better than last years (2-15-1) club.

The team's goaltending corps of Ed O'Brien and Bill Astgis was the top tandem in the Middlesex League.

The club's seniors played important roles both on and off the ice. These players which include J. Deignan, D. McCauley, A. Leone, J. Fournier, E. Brown and W. Astgis, provided leadership and had the team prepared for the season before it officially started.

The future holds many secrets for this team next year with the talents of: D. Ricci, D. Tierney, K. Dickie, and S. Bruno.

In all the season 1980-81 was an enjoyable one for the players, the coaches and the fans whose support paid for a better team.

Though finishing the indoor season with but 1 win and 8 losses, a number of senior veterans enjoyed topflight campaigns. The Raiders' versatile captain Jim Griffin capped an outstanding year by qualifying for the state meet in both the hurdles and high jump. Steve Parsekian came on strong in the middle distances while Tom Mann, Aldo D'Amico and Tom Pease were consistently improving performers in the distance events. Rick Iodice won 5 individual dual meet victories in the shot and Dave White proved to be highly competitive in the shorter events. Underclassmen Ron Cantalupo, Rob Delongre, Kevin Malloy and Ed Mansfield were major point scorers throughout the season and will provide a solid base for next season's comeback effort.

RIFLE TEAM

The girls team looking in great form.

Captains Rick Munger and Tom Pease show their stuff.

WHAT NOW???

RIFLE

Though only showing a 1-8 record for the season, the Watertown High School Rifle Team showed great improvement with captains Rick Munger and Tom Pease leading the squad throughout the season. Other top scorers for the team were Paul Schofield, Ralf Konians and Anne Duquette. The team had good support from the rest of the shooters, John St. Onge, Dave White, Kevin Faherty, Michelle Hudon, Maureen Cusack, Cheryl Abreu, and Karen McDonald.

Take it from a pro.
This year's swim team had an enjoyable year. The team was led by tri-captains Dave Colcito, Sherry Bigelow, and Maura Driscoll. The entire team contributed to make an enthusiastic and spirited group of swimmers. The 3-12 win/loss record is not an indication of the success of the team. The Team hopes to remain a part of the winter sports program, and next will be led by tri-captains Dana Boole, Dave Kandar, and Amy Gallagher who were elected at the annual Swim Team Banquet.

Maria says, "No More."

Assistant Coach Andrea Doucette
The varsity baseball team finished the 1980-81 season with a winning record. Co-captains Michael Woods and John Hamill led their team in a competitive, exciting and successful season. Junior pitcher Bob Rallis led the Middlesex League with an impressive 0.66 ERA. Brian Walker overcame a preseason injury and went on to become one of the leagues most respected hitters. Coach Richard "Moe" Maloney contributed much in the way of teaching skills and motivation.

In a season that was plagued by a major league strike, it was refreshing to see this team work and play for the love of the game.

Indoor Track 1980-81

Though finishing the indoor season with but 1 win and 8 losses, a number of senior veterans enjoyed topflight campaigns. The Raiders' versatile captain Jim Griffin capped his outstanding year by qualifying for the state meet in both the hurdles and high jump. Steve Parsekian came on strong in the middle distances while Tom Mann, Aldo D'Amico and T. Pease were consistently improving performers in the distance events. Rick Iodice won 3 individual dual meet victories in the shot and Dave White proved to be highly competitive in the shorter events. Underclassmen Ron Cantalupo, Rob Delsignore, Kevin Malloy and Ed Mansfield were major point scorers throughout the season and will provide a solid base for next season's comeback effort.

Head Coach
Tom McGovern
On the 1980-81 girl’s track team there are only three seniors: Susan Todino, Susan Delraso, and Karen Hurley. The rest of the team have either one or two years in which to change and improve the team. The girls on the team worked very hard to get the job they had to do done. Each girl knew her expectations, and performed well. The team had a successful season under their coach, Coach Harrington.
Again this year our cheerleaders put in an enthusiastic year of cheering for our hard-fighting teams. To encourage support, these girls held rallies in our new gymnasium. The squad accompanied the teams to all the games and tried to arouse the crowd. In addition to cheering at the usual football/basketball games, these girls were invited to cheer for the Shriners Football Classic game. Our senior members are: Maria English, Maureen Ryan, Linda Robley, Cheryl Lavash, Susan Miceli, Suz Grillo, Karen Sennett, and Carolyn Pano.

Cheering our victorious team on is Carolyn and Suz
This year the cheerleaders raised money for the squad by selling candy. The cheerleaders, with seniors Mary Ann Burns and Jacki Duffy, got to lead the soccer team to the division championship at Nickerson Field. They also were allowed to participate in the rallies.

The Indians in their descriptive uniforms assist the football cheerleaders at rallies and at football games to arouse the excitement of the crowds. These girls are senior students without whose presence the games would be less exciting.
The hockey cheerleaders, under the guidance of their advisor Helen Foynes, like the hockey team has had a successful season. They raised money for their squad by selling raffle tickets. The prize was a pair of Red Sox game tickets. The captain of the cheerleaders this year was Bev Jewers. Other seniors are: Carol Mancuso, Linda Jones, Susan Magliozi, Marie Perlatonda, and Liz Kelland.
SUPER SPIRITED SUPPORT
FROM W.H.S. STUDENTS IN '81!

Carol says we're number 1 and the others seem to agree!!

What would spirit and support be without Patti and Kay.

Even if it's cold they smile!!

A group effort.

Linda and Patti show a youngster what spirit is.
If life is about trying and sharing and not about winning, then the boys tennis team has had a positive season. The overall record does not reflect the squad’s determination and dedication. The long hours of practice did pay off with some fine individual performances. Senior Maurice Celose provided the incentive and leadership. Douglas Burd and Michael Deboghosian made fine contributions in their own right.

The future looks promising with budding players David O’Keefe, Robert Fleming and Jay Essegian. This year’s team was coached by Frank DiMascio.

Doug serves a mean one.

Mike keeps his eye on the ball.

We rarely won, yes that’s true
But that didn’t make us sad or blue
We played with style, we played with grace
Enthusiasm was at a feverish pace.

Don’t look at the statistics stated
They don’t reveal how we truly rated.
Take it from me cause I can say
We were the best team in a special way.

Maria Sanchez
ACTIVITIES
CLASS OFFICERS

Our senior class officers and the executive committee had a success-year. They received support from their fellow students. They were responsible for the organization of several dances, the prom, the Senior Banquet, and the all night party.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the direction of Mr. John Guccinato, had a fruitful year. The purpose of the Council is to promote the ideals of good citizenship throughout the school and the town. This year's officers were: Susan Todino — President, Suzanne Grillo — V. President, Linda Hunt — Secretary, Pam Clancy — Treasurer, Marshall Bradt — State Student Advisory Council Delegate, Denise Coveney — State Council Alternate, and Dan Gildea — Parliamentarian.
The Tri-Hi-Y Club has been in existence for many years at W.H.S. It plays an important role in the involvement of students in community activities. Sponsoring the Winter Carnival and providing Thanksgiving baskets for the needy families were just a few of their worthwhile projects. It is an admirable club filled with prestige and bright ideas. This year's advisor was Ms. Karen Kazarosian.

The W.H.S. football team make up the members of the Gridiron Club. This year, as in the past, they led the march for the Retarded to raise money for the retarded students of W.H.S. Their advisor is their football coach, Mr. Barbati.
As we all know chess is an intellectual game. The players must have a sense of concentration that is intense. The members of this year’s team have this quality, which gave them a successful season.

The goal of the Math Team is to involve the students in a higher level of learning which they can not fully attain in the classroom. With this skill, the members compete with students in other local towns. The competitive areas include Algebra, Geometry, etc.
Even though the members of the Media Club receive little recognition, they are an essential element of the school’s day-to-day operation; much of the behind the scenes work they do would be conspicuous only by their absence. Their important role must not be overlooked.

Mr. John Whyte and Mr. John Napolitano with members of the Media Club.

The Art Club has a membership of every dedicated art student. The Club has worked hard all year producing paintings, water colors, sculptures, drawings, and silk screens. The events of the year culminated with an exhibit at the Watertown Mall and the recognition of many art club members at Awards Day.

Ms. Rose Gravilles and the art club.

Ms. Murrman and members of the “early sunrise” Photo Club.

The Bulletin is the student newspaper of W.H.S. The paper welcomes contributions from any member of the student body. The following were active in the Bulletin as editors during the year 1980-81:

- Editor-in-chief: Sue Todino
- Managing Editor: Marshall Bradt
- Sports Editors: Al Ditullio, Karen Hurley
- Art Editor: Peter De Fazio
- Features Editor: John McDermott
- News Editor: Helen Makridakis

These editors were responsible for the success of the newspaper.

The staff of the Annual is responsible for the final production of the yearbook. The staff also must find the funds to publish the book. The funds are usually raised from businesses within the area. Students help the book by selling/buying patrons to their family and friends.

The Annual staff would like to thank Ms. Murman for her participation in our yearbook. Without her dedication the 1980-81 W.H.S. Annual may not have existed. Also to Ms. Mills for her business advice.
The Word Painter magazine gives recognition to student talents in writing and art. The club works on the annual production of the magazine. Business students do the type composition and the Graphic Arts Communication Center prints the magazine. The DECA store handles the sale of the magazine. The 1981 edition of the Word Painter contains photos, illustrations, poems, stories, and plays by sixty five students.

DECA, Distributive Education Program, strives to develop managing and marketing skills, and to give a student a better understanding of the world of business. Local members have opportunities to enter state and national recognition through competition that they would not otherwise have. The DECA store sells Basic school supplies, cards, and many other articles.
Armenian Club

The Armenian Club at W.H.S. helped to develop an understanding and appreciation of the Armenian culture and heritage. Among their activities this year, the Armenian Club held a raffle to raise funds for scholarships. They participated in the "International Foods Day" and held a "Disco Dance." To commemorate the Armenian Genocide, they held a visual presentation, titled "Where Have Our People Gone?"

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The main objective of the International Club is to make students aware of how customs differ with in the different countries. The President of this club was Marie Stinehart. Marie, with the help of the faculty advisor Barbara Roberts, held many interesting meetings which included student presentations from foreign students in our school.

The Biology Club had its first female president this year... that being Sue Todino. The advisor of the club is George Buckley who planned and executed a fun as well as adventurous field trip to the Florida Keys. During the February vacation, the Biology Club set out on their expedition to Islamorada's Tropical Reef Resort. The expeditioners dove in the Crystal River with the endangered Sea Manatees and later drove on to the John Pennekamp Coral Reef State Park. The group was kept busy with diving, jet-skiing, sailing and taking pictures.

FLORIDA KEYS FIELD TRIP

"Look you guys, don't touch!!!"
WHS BAND

VIEW OF A MARCHING BANDSMAN

We practice in the cold our feet go numb, our lips chafe, our fingers grow immobile, but yet we march on until our legs seem to fill with lead and our heads are too heavy to lift. For the four months of the marching band season this would be nearly impossible without pride and determination, but there are rewards.

One of the greatest feelings I know is to assemble my trombone, put on my marching shoes and count down until halftime. Then we file out of the stands, thrill back our shoulders and lift our heads. While in our minds we concentrate on showing everyone that we're the best band around. You can feel the enthusiasm flowing and the adrenalin pumping at an incredible rate. We are introduced and proudly march into position. The conductor's hands break into motion and the first note reverberates through the stands. The crowd freezes, their minds wavering between getting a hot dog or staying to us more stay. As the next notes ring, most of the eyes are on us.

My mind blocks out everything except the tempo set by the director's hands. My feet move like they had minds of their own, finding each strategic spot on the field like they had been doing it for a thousand years.

The band heads toward each other just narrowly escaping collision. The fans cringe then cheer as they see everyone still standing, and in the back of my mind a smile shines bright. The first number ends and the fans cheer and the excitement level on the field climbs as my head swells. I begin to play like I've never played before. We go on and I start to become ecstatic. In one jazzy song, the color guard throws their colors and whistles echo across the field. The electricity builds until the last beat of the bass drum and the movement of the final flag maneuver ceases. The crowd roars and my head is in the sky. The feeling flowing through me is indescribable. The only way to experience this feeling would be to join the Watertown High Marching Band. Only if the fans would permit, I would do the show over again four times.

For this feeling in all the world is well worth it. For this feeling I would march in the muddiest mud and play in the coldest cold. When the performance is over we pack up and practice for another week striving for excellence and anticipating our next performance so we can get back in front of the crowds.

This year marked a period of great development for Watertown High's Marching and Concert Band. Blessed with a greater number of musicians in our ranks and an instructive week at band camp under our belts we went through the ten game football season to become one of the best marching units in the Middlesex league. As the football season drew to a close we found ourselves a close knit family ready for concert band and band rating. We would however resume our marching formation to represent the school in the Bill Kehoe and Memorial Day parades. As the concert season opened we were well in demand, through the year we played for many assemblies and functions including the last town meeting. The performances helped ready us for our two major events Pop's Nite and Graduation.

At the Awards' Assembly we were bestowed with a great honor, The Thomas A. Blake Award for school spirit, we are very grateful and would like to thank everyone involved in our getting this award.

The Band's Advisor, Mr. John Bernazzani

VARIETY SHOW — “FAME” CAST

Ms. Barbara Roberts with members of the cast of the year's show "FAME."
DRILL TEAM

Formerly known as the majorettes these girls with the help of the W.H.S. Band provided entertainment during the rallies and at halftime. These girls worked many hard long hours to achieve their success under the captains: Michelle Fiern and Paula Del Raso. Other senior members are: Maureen McCauley and Joanne Pinzone.

Michelle explains that Paula is camera shy.
The Cum Laude and the National Honor Societies comprising of thirty four seniors and supervised by Ms. Barbara Stasium and Mr. Anthony R. Grassia have been busy with the following activities this year: a Hallow-Gram, Student tutoring, selling Christmas candles, a bake sale and a raffle at the Watertown Mall, distributing honor roll certificates for the students on the high and honor rolls each term, and ushers for the PTA evenings. Proceeds from these activities are given to deserving students in the form of scholarships. The societies represent excellent service, leadership, character, and academic achievement.

A formal May induction ceremony is the highlight activity of the year.
The Cum Laude and National Honor Societies Induction Ceremony was held on Wednesday evening, May 13, 1981 at seven thirty o'clock in the Shaw Auditorium. The guest speaker was John Finnegan, the Auditor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. After the ceremony a reception was held in the high school cafeteria. The following are the inducted seniors:

"Famous Final Scene"

Like a guest who stayed too long,
Now it's time to leave.
Yes it's finally time to leave.
Take it calmly and serene,
It's the famous final scene. . .

Now the lines have all been read
And you knew them all by heart
Now you move toward the door
Here it comes the hardest part
Try the handle of the road
Feeling different, feeling strange
This can never be arranged.
As the light fades from the screen
From the "Famous Final Scene".
To be sung by Carol Ann Maronese

The queen, Veronica, and runner up, Paula, with their dates, Steve and Jim.

"Is this the Academy Awards?"

Dr. and Mrs. Wall watch the students dance.

Marshall uses Ann's shoes instead of a glass.

Billy acting like J. Franois.

Four friends sharing a special moment.

Arnauad and his date on "Cloud 9".
Jackie and her date are interrupted by the camera.

Don DiClemente and his date, Sue, having a ball.

Stem laughs as his date hides from the camera.

Jackie says, "Smile girls!"

A very important table.

Billy, John and Glen living it up.

George trying to make Torri, Peter, John and Lisa laugh.

Kathy and Harry having an exciting time.

Paula asks, "What's so interesting, Mike?"
At Chateau de Ville, Framingham, Massachusetts

Dave and Sue finally arrive.

Cheryl and Steve look surprised.

Carl and his mom dance.

Scott toasts the Class of '71.

What a group!

Tony and Olympia dance a slow one.

Judi tells Jack a cute joke.

Sherry and Dave leaving.

John smiles as he dances with Ms. Rogers.
Last Dance at the "Final Scene"...

Dess and Matt dancing their last dance.

Maura and Lisa sing along with the music.

Phyllis asks Mike to dance.

Peter in a daze.

Laurie, Nick, and Rick take a picture while Christian takes a nap.

"We're having so much fun."

Tony looks for his date as Eleanor and Carl dance.

Mr. Roberts keeps an eye on his pretty wife.

Gary gazes into the eyes of his date.
THE GANG'S ALL HERE!!!

A stunned Mr. McGovern

A last farewell for Tony and Dr. Bannon

The Gang is all here!

Jackie performs saying grace.

Linda accepts a scholarship.

Pearlene does it again.

Mr. McNicholas hams it up.

Who is the happy couple?

Everybody's a comedian!

Our friendly officers
Valedictorian Saki Bisbas addresses fellow graduates.

Maura Driscoll — the class Salutatorian

The class of '81 awaits their diplomas.

"It's almost over" says Mike, Carl, Janine, and Roland.

Lucinda runs off with hers.

Waiting for the big moment.

Barbara, Rosanne, and Marilou are glad it's over.

Jackie smiles as she walks off with her diploma.
Lining Up to Receive the Diplomas . . .

"We're in the Army now!"

"Please, NO INTERRUPTIONS!"

Even band members graduate.

"Can you believe this?!"

"Hey, I made it!"

Steve's typical routine graduation.

What a cute picture.

Veronica and Marta applaud the Class of '81.

A Cheery bunch.

"I'm ready for the rain."
More Graduates of 1981...

- What comedians!!

We Made It!!!

"Is it real, Al?"

Jamie laughs at the future.

What a cute couple!

"I went to school for 13 years for this?"

Tony proves to his friends that he got a real one.

What a way to go.

GOODBYE
Friends are people who are never in the past.
Thoughts of good times that last and last,
Always together, never to part.
To think of each other from end to start.
They are the first ones you look for when you walk down the hall.
It's their number you dial when you need someone to call.
Knowing your secrets will be kept well
Your friend knows better than to ever tell.
Your friends laughter is the one you most like to hear,
You feel safe and confident when they are near.
Friendship is a diamond, so hard to break,
You have fights with friends, you make some mistakes.
When you fight with them you feel sad and lost,
You can't wait to make-up whatever the cost.
You will do anything for them — The same goes for you.
They mean so much, if they only knew
No matter what happens — they're the ones you are for,
When there's almost nothing left to give
For them you try to give more.
With your friends there's a togetherness vow,
We'll stick together forever and now.
To trust one another no matter what we say,
We'll be together in our memories — even when away.
Don't forget your old friends when you have new ones that you've made.
For the old friends are the best friends
For their friendship never fails.
Good friends [or pals] are rare and few.
But I want everyone I know to be
Just like you.
THE DREAM

One time I dreamt I crossed the sea;
My dream went whirling, wild and wet,
With silver sails blowing free.
The journey made, I can't forget.

The sky was dark and stars were low;
The moon beams danced on Water's waves;
As Summer Wind began to blow,
I heard lost echoes call in caves.

A creamy-white horse whisked me away;
I rode along that eerie shore;
Where Sand and Wind were hard at play;
And nightmares came with Ocean's roar.

When Sun appeared and it was dawn,
The horse and dream were forever gone.

SPRING-HERALD OF THE NEW YEAR

O, that this hibernal sleep is finally o'er,
And the warming rays have just begun to compress,
The powdered snow, which blankets the forest's floor.
A migrant bird will sing for all to impress.
The trees, on which the budding leaves will grow,
Present a miraculous change in their state.
Forming a curtain of brown, and green, and yellow.

For this transfiguration, they have had to wait;
A family of bears comes from their hibernation.
And traverse through the budding woods for a meal.
The migrating birds will sing their melodies with elation.
As each small bird joins, their choir will start to peal.

For this is the herald that issues in a new year, quality.
And this, the regeneration of life, will soon appear.

TWO VIEWS

I. I woke up after a good night's sleep. I walked into the kitchen to see Joell sitting at the table. She smiled and got up to get a tea cup. She poured me a warm cup of tea. I sat down and thanked her.

The sun was bright. It lit up the whole room and made a rainbow on the sink's faucet. Joell began telling me about her date with a new guy she had met. I listened while I looked out the window, watching the branches of a nearby tree sway in the breeze. We talked for a while, then got ready to go shopping.

II. I woke up from a horrible night. I hadn't gotten to bed until 4:00 a.m. My room was cold and the people downstairs made noises that woke me many times during my restless sleep. I stumbled into the kitchen.

The sunlight was blinding. I covered my eyes with my hand. I saw Joell sitting at the table with a sickening grin on her face. She stood up and got me a cup of tea. The cup was chipped, and the tea was so hot I could hardly drink it. She began rambling about some guy she went out with last night. I didn't listen because I was watching a gust of wind tear all the leaves off a little tree. We finished our breakfast and got ready to go out.

Extended Outward

Try and understand, please,
My visions reveal what I am reaching
Out to give the guidance and help
Reach into your bag of potential philosophy and come on image of security which I can hold behind myself
For one day I will break through the image
and create one for myself

WILLOW TREE IN ARMENIA

It is an Armenian tradition to tie a white cloth on a willow tree and wish. When I went to Armenia, I saw a willow tree that had been covered with white ribbons and decided to tie a ribbon myself.

I took a piece of cloth off a willow bush
I see that cloth around you and wished a wish
I wished for life, happiness and love
I wished to wish for those everyone did
Wish on another superstitious mother called in
Not to me you wanted. You were on a willow tree behind the ancient ruins of a church

Your branches are bare without leaves. You sit in bloom every day of the year. They are filled with the wishes of girls of all ages all over the world
My dear old willow tree. I only wish for your happiness, your life and your love
To me, you are beautiful in your somber special way. You stood there one after another day. Always filled with hope, beauty and, most of all

STUDENT WORK . . .
True Love

The kiss that I felt from my first true love
Made me feel wonderful like the sunshine
It put me in a trance thought to be above
And made me think she would always be mine.
Our love moved along at such a fast pace
Which made me think it would always go on
Then one sad day we both stood face to face
And as quick as love had come, it had gone.
My second true love came when I was older
It sent me soaring like an eagle in flight
Then all of a sudden, her love grew colder
And our time together ended with a fight.
Although my first two loves were not too sound
I might find the real thing next time around.

Hunted

I can't believe this. I'm actually flying. I just feel so free. There is space all around me, just my sturdy wings at my side to support me high above the ground. It's as if I don't have a worry in the world.

Bang! The thundering noise cracks through the air and, startled, I fall and feel pain in my chest. I don't understand. I just can't fly. They have arms and legs, and they're much larger than I. They walk closer, stop and point. One of them points a rifle at me, and I lie there and stop struggling because I know it's useless.

Peter calls upstairs to me, "Hey, Jim, hurry up or we'll be late for the south migration. Get your rifle."

I stop and think. It's just a dream, then yell, "I'll be down in a jiffy!"

THEN AND NOW

At other times, I feel more sure of what direction I'm heading in. After having had time to explore my inner emotions and expectations, I find that I receive the most peace through not worrying too much about what I'm going to do with the rest of my life. Instead, I just take it one day at a time. All I can do is listen. To ask any more of myself would just be unreasonable.

ONE MORE LOOK AT THE GOOD TIMES AT WHS
MEMORIES OF SENIOR YEAR

Our days will change on that day in June
No longer will we be classmates in school
Some of us will be off to college soon
The rest will learn to work with hand or tool
We will cherish football games and dances
Of course we will remember our prom night
And selling magazines and turkey chances
Certainly the research paper we had to write

The best times were always spent in the caf, though
Laughing and talking and carrying on
While hearing 'COZ on the radio
It will soon be over but the thoughts will go on

And though that day in June may end with a tear
We will meet again Thanksgiving Day next year.

Judy O'Neil
Senior
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Ms. Murrman would like to thank the following staff who really helped out to make this book complete and special: Maura D., Sue T., MaryLou D., Mike D., Susan K. and Esther M. for their wonderful effort, and all the photo students who did those "last minute" prints!
