We made it to the very end
Not I, or you, or he or she
But together we did it
You and me

We've shared the laughter
We've shared the tears
We've shared the excitement
And all the fears

Teachers and friends
Things to remember
Football games
In late November

Proms and dances
Late nights out
Friends for life
Without a doubt

Whether quiz or test
We always pulled through
We stuck together
Whether happy or blue

When looking back
On the four years past
We're no longer together
But memories last

Our days at Watertown High School
Are finally done
As for the graduates of 1996
Life has only just begun

Dear Members of the Class of 1995

How quickly the years have gone since kindergarten! In the future you will be seeing each other again at reunions and wondering where other years have gone. I hope this year book with all its wonderful pictures and reminders of your years at WHS will be something you treasure for all the years to come. There will be memories of lots of wonderful events, people, faculty and staff, and good times you have shared together. I hope you will remember WHS and return to visit. We will always be interested in your future endeavors, and will welcome you back. Good luck, and remember to keep learning all your lives!

Best wishes,

Jennifer M. Huntington
Headmaster
Dr. Sally Dias
Superintendent of Schools

Hearty congratulations to the Class of 1995! Your many accomplishments in the classroom, on the performing stage, and on the playing fields will long be remembered. My best wishes for continued success.

Annette Stavros, Ed. D.
Assistant Superintendent

I extend my congratulations to the Class of 1995 on your accomplishments and thanks for your contributions to the Watertown School System and the community. I wish for each of you a bright future and further achievement of your goals.

Acting as Editor-In-Chief of the 1995 Annual was an enormously challenging task. Organizing, creating, and managing this book to the best of my ability required extraordinary amounts of time and effort which I cannot even begin to describe. Although there were times when I just wanted to give up, knowing that I was doing this for such a talented, remarkable, and unique class kept me going. Of course, I also had a wonderful group of people who constantly supported me throughout this roller coaster ride. I extend my gratitude and thanks to my publisher, Mr. Tom Keeley, the Burlington Studios staff, Ms. Jennifer Huntingdon, and Ms. Joanne Murman for their encouragement and belief in me.

Many thanks also to Carolyn Ahlquist, Aimee Smith, Nancy Readon, Shannon McElhinney, Nicole Norton, Taline Badrikian, Henry Zunino, Wayne Pillion, Christina Arico, Maria Psikarakis, and Tina Iordanidis for their contributions. However, I am especially grateful to my editors — Maria Stefanis, Jen Largey, and Laurie Messina — for all of their hard work. I could not have done it without their help.

Finally, I hope that my fellow classmates are reminded of all the fond memories we shared here at WHS whenever they look at this book. Whether you go off to college, the military, or join the work force, take pride in who you are and where you came from. Watertown may be rather small in size, but its people are largely impressive. Good luck and best wishes to the Class of 1995!

Finale ......................... Michael Neel
Michael Neel — Michael represents the very core of the WHS Drama Program having performed in sixteen productions. His most memorable roles have been Seymour” in Little Shop of Horrors, the “Bagricker” in Madwoman of Chaillot, and now “Jesus” in Godspell. Mike is competition producer for the Drama Club and is currently preparing to perform “Paul Stuart” in Isn’t It Romantic. Michael possesses an outstanding singing voice which has earned him selection to the Senior District Chorus and the elite All-State Chorus. Michael would like to end his last musical with another one of his famous quotes: “Theatre is life. That’s all there is to it.”

Nicolete Allen — Nicolete has been a strong presence in WHS musicals since her sophomore year. She has performed the roles of Mabelle in Fame and an Utrchen in Little Shop of Horrors. She has also appeared in This is the Kill Speaking and Calvary. Nicolete loves to sing and act. She is a diligent student who plans on pursuing a career in the fields of mathematics and science.

Nate Dushku — Nate’s acting and musical talent has taken him through 12 WHS productions including major roles in all four musicals and Drama Festival entries. His most distinguished performances include the “Minstrel” in Once Upon a Mattress, “Schlomo” in Fame, “Seymour” in Little Shop of Horrors, and now “Judas” in Godspell. He is a recipient of a Massachusetts High School Drama Guild Acting Award, second place winner in WHS Monologue Competition, and an alternate in this year’s Shakespeare Competition. He also directed a play in last year’s Springfest show. Nate is set to perform “Marty Sterling” in Isn’t It Romantic, this year’s WHS entry in the 1995 Drama Festival. Nate has appeared in various commercials and films and will continue to pursue acting as a future endeavor.

Maria Stefanis (Assistant Director) — Maria has been a dedicated Stage Manager and Assistant Director for eight WHS productions. Some of her work includes Voices from the High School, Fame, The Real Inspector Hound, & Little Shop of Horrors. Maria is a member of the yearbook staff and has been involved with Dance Theater. She loves to dance, exercise and read horror stories. Maria is also an excellent French student.

Thomas Lee — Thomas cannot have thought of a better way to end his high school career than having been elected President of the Drama Club. He has performed in nearly twenty productions, including all four musicals and three Drama Festival entries. His most exceptional credits include “Birdboot” in The Real Inspector Hound, the “Masochist” in Little Shop of Horrors, and the “Young Man” in Please, No Flowers. Tom is a recipient of an MHS Drama Acting Award for his portrayal of “Harry” in Voice from the High School, and has been a first and third place winner in WHS Monologue Competition. Tom would like to express his extreme gratitude to the Drama Program for giving him the best moments of his life.

Penny Fairbairn — Penny’s many talents have given her the versatility to perform in such diverse roles as “Carmen” in Fame, “Cinderella” in The Final Dress Rehearsal, and “Lena” in Please, No Flowers, which earned her a MHS Drama Acting Award. In March, she will perform “Janie Blumberg” in Isn’t It Romantic at the Drama Festival. In addition to being a remarkable pianist and flute player, Penny has an exceptional singing voice, which has led to her selection to the Senior District Chorus and the elite All-State Chorus. Penny is also an excellent student and an All-Star Field Hockey player.

Jessica Rossi — Jessica’s name has become synonymous with dance and musicals since her Freshman year. She was Dance Master in Fame and choreographed Little Shop of Horrors. Jessica has a fine voice and is the top student in her class. She has modeled and appeared in commercials including a promo for WBZ. Jessica is chief member of the WHS yearbook staff.

Jennifer Largery — Jennifer has been a leading voice among the altos in the WHS Chorus since her Freshman year. Godspell is Jennifer’s acting debut. She plans on attending college to study voice and music and is considering choral education as a possible career option.

Bethany Rogers — Bethany has been involved in every WHS musical since her Freshman year. Bethany is a past member of the WCT and has five years of dancing experience with the Boston School of Ballet. She was also Co-captain of the Watertown Field Hockey Team that has won two State Championships in the last four years. Bethany plans on attending Providence College on a full scholarship, having been highly recruited by the top Division I field hockey programs in the country.

Tracy Ford — Tracy has been a member of the Watertown Children’s Theatre since the fifth grade. She has appeared in the WCT productions of The Wizard of Oz, Oklahoma, Music Man, and Fiddler on the Roof. Tracy has performed in three WHS musicals, two of which were Little Shop of Horrors and Once Upon a Mattress. She also plays the alto-saxophone in band and is a member of the chorus. Tracy plans on attending college to study medicine, specializing in pediatric disease.

Every Spring, under the leadership of Mr. George Buckley, the Biology Club travels to the Caribbean Island of Bonaire in the Dutch Netherlands Antilles. The tropical waters off the coast of this beautiful island are considered to be one of the world's top scuba diving and snorkeling locations. The trip usually consists of approximately 8-10 students and four adult chaperones, and lasts for one week. The majority of students who travel to Bonaire are certified scuba divers. However, snorkellers are welcome as well.

During the week, members of the Bonaire Expedition are able to study the marine environment on a first-hand and very detailed basis. The impressive coral reef off the coast of the island is within easy swimming distance. During the week, divers and snorkellers learn a great deal about coral reefs, their inhabitants, and ocean environments in general. Since the island of Bonaire is under the jurisdiction of the Netherlands Antilles, the trip also provides students with the invaluable opportunity of studying a foreign culture. It is not uncommon for members of the expedition to be speaking broken Dutch by the end of the week. Last year's trip was an exciting and enjoyable undertaking for all involved, and this year is not expected to be any different.

Student members of the 1995 Bonaire Expedition included James Castanino, Ken Peschier, Steve Casella, George Keumurian, Nick Russo, Mark Donahue, Theresa Power, and Lauren Furbush.

Biology Club Members also participate in other exciting activities during the year, such as attending conferences at the Whitehead Institute at MIT. During February vacation, the recipients of these scholarships attend a 3 day series of lectures geared toward high school students. These lectures are given by Whitehead Scientists and respected researchers. Last year's topic was "Molecules, Mysteries, and the Truth Behind Jurassic Park."

The Biology Club has been fortunate enough to be able to assist and attend the annual Ocean Sciences Conference of the historic Boston Sea Rovers in Boston in several years. At these conferences, members of the Biology Club attend interesting lectures, slide shows, and presentations given on a variety of marine-related topics. The Sea Rovers Conference provides students with an excellent opportunity to learn and to meet many new and interesting people.
ONE MORE LOOK . . .
AT OUR SENIOR YEAR.
Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne — unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Aftet a peasant uprising in Chiapas and two major political murders, Mexico gets a new president, Ernesto Zedillo, an economist, assumes office only to face a stockmarket crash, a ruined economy, and a loss of international confidence in the wake of the North American Free Trade Agreement.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

On July 25, U.S. President Bill Clinton welcomes King Hussein of Jordan, right, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to the White House, where the two sign a historic nonaggression pact that ends a 46-year state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan.
Millions of South Africans travel weary hours and wait in mile-long lines to vote in the first all-race elections. After more than a century of white rule, the voters choose former political prisoner Nelson Mandela to preside over the dismantling of apartheid.

In Japan, an earthquake with a magnitude of 7.2 collapses buildings, derails trains, buckles elevated expressways, and causes fires throughout the city of Kobe. Over 5,000 people are killed and 26,000 injured. The Japan quake occurs January 17, 1995, one year to the day after a quake devastated Los Angeles.

Chinese school children, dressed to look like Colonel Sanders, welcome the president of Kentucky Fried Chicken to Shanghai in May 1994. Few of the country's many foreign business ventures thrive, but KFC becomes a Chinese favorite. The finger-lickin' enterprise makes plans to expand its outlets from 28 to 200.

Triumphant Jean-Bertrand Aristide reclaims his position as president and restores democracy to Haiti with the help of U.S. troops. Haiti had suffered under the rule of a military junta led by General Raoul Cedras, who goes into exile after reaching an agreement with U.S. mediators.

In one of the most successful antiterrorist operations in aviation history, French commandos storm an Air France jet-liner and kill four Algerian hijackers, freeing the plane's 173 passengers and crew.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.
In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fire-seekers teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.
