As we, the graduating class of 1998, sit here this evening in our caps and gowns we bring closure to our years at Watertown High School.

During these past four years of high school, we have not only learned from one another. Through the years, good or bad, we have given each other advice, strength, understanding and friendship, each experience helping us to grow and become better people.

We entered Watertown High School a group of children unsure of ourselves and of our place in the world around us. Four years later we leave as mature and confident young adults.

During our years in high school we learned far more than Calculus and Biology, we learned to be open-minded, fair, compassionate and responsible adults...people who are willing to reach out and help those around them. We leave Watertown High not only with the knowledge acquired by textbooks but with the wisdom necessary to grow and flourish upon entering the real world. We will take with us these lifelong friendships and memories to pass on for generations to come.

Now we are about to enter a new world. Whether it be with college or career we will always remember our times here together and many things we have achieved as a class always remembering how ‘we did it our way’. Thank you and best wishes to all.

— Gina Baker, Class President

Dear Class of 1998,

It has been a long road to complete this book which we all will treasure over the years to come. Like everything else, we completed the yearbook "our way." We would like to thank everyone who contributed to the long hours of putting this book together, especially to those who were there till the very last day. This yearbook is meant to be looked at for all to remember the memories that have been established throughout our lives. Good Luck in your future endeavors. Enjoy!

Victory At Last!

The boys cross country team came into this season with one goal in mind—to make up for last year's one-point loss to Belmont. Through their hard work, they were able to do so in the last meet of the season, crushing the Marauders in a resounding 40-19 victory and putting an end to a four-year losing streak. Senior captain Doug Doo, senior Sean Berfield, and juniors Nate Chase, Brian Madden, and Joe Pires fought to keep the team in the running at each meet, while underclassmen Eric Hackett, T.J. Mendez, Evan Holden, Sam Feldman, and Ben Floyd all had outstanding novice seasons.

The 1997 cross-country season was one marked by improvement. The Raiders posted their largest roster in years with a total of 12 girls on the squad. Many of the members were new to the team, and with no seniors, this season was considered to be a building year for the sport. Everyone put forth their best effort, and were able to reach many of the goals set for themselves.

Senior year was the year to do it and they did. The varsity field hockey team consisted of the thirteen strongest, toughest, and most skillful players in the state. They took the Middlesex League by storm, scoring convincing victories in all eighteen of their season games. The Raiders entered the MIAA tournament with confidence, determination, and a firm resolve to finish the season with no regrets - they can proudly say that they did! Along with the many impressive team accomplishments came individual accolades: Boston Globe D2 player of the year Jane Rogers, and coach of the year Eileen Donahue; Boston Herald All-Stars Jill Fantasia, Bernadette MacDonald, and Herald player of the year, Jane; News Tribune All-Stars Nicole Keuchkarian, Catherine Rogers, Kathy Barry, Bernadette, Jane and Jill; League All-Stars Jane, Jill, Bernadette, Catherine; and league MVP Jane. These outstanding players never lost sight of what came first: the team. Along with the other seven players, they were able to capture the Middlesex League and Division 2 North titles, along with (most importantly) the Division 2 State Championship!

The 1997 football season was a rebuilding year for the Red Raiders. Despite all of the misfortunes, the team was competitive throughout the season. They fought hard each game, and finally saw their efforts pay off in a 22-7 victory over Woburn. The Raiders put up a great fight in each of their games. Led by Middlesex League All-Star Shant Banosian, Watertown's Defensive Player of the Year John Iaconelli, Watertown's Offensive Player of the Year David Montville, and Tri-Captain Kamel Khnaizir the Raiders gained the respect of the other teams and coaches in the Middlesex League.

The 1997 football season was filled with memories sure to last a lifetime. With the help of Coach Terri Dougherty and the fresh ideas and tremendous dedication of new assistant coach Laura Turner, the girls were able to achieve many of the goals that they had set for themselves, furthering their cheering skills in the process. Rain or shine, this upbeat squad of 16 cheerleaders was always there to support and cheer on the players! Just having fun and getting the fans involved were things which the squad will cherish when they look back on this year.

"To all of our seniors, good luck in the future. It was an awesome season that we should all be proud of!"
The 1997 golf season was one marked by individual improvement. Despite being in the extremely competitive Middlesex League, the golf team managed to score respectably in all of its matches, and finished up the year as better players. Under the guidance of Coach Travers, they were able to recognize the weaknesses in their games, and worked on those shortcomings over the course of the year. Everyone on the team tried to put their best foot forward, despite the fact that the team was unable to come away with a victory. “Remember the Oakley, and best of luck in the future.”

Netting The Win

This season proved to be an exciting one for the Boys Soccer Team. Though game scores and the final standings indicated otherwise, the Varsity team accomplished many goals, making an impact on the Middlesex league which is sure to be felt for years to come.

Topping the list of accomplishments was an emotional win over Melrose, one that broke a 38-game losing streak. In the first 15 games of the season, the team proved that they could score goals and play solid defense. They were not, however, able to accomplish both in the same game. Coach Keuchkarian remembers that win well, saying “We finally broke out. Everything came together - the passing, the intensity, and the hustle. This was big.”

With all of the good that came out of this season, one can only look ahead and wonder what the future will bring. Keuchkarian, for one, has spent many sleepless nights contemplating this question. His answer? “The program is starting to take shape. I know that everybody is mentally on an upswing. I can’t wait for next year.”
Toughing It Out

In their second year in the Middlesex League the young squad struggled to find the program’s first league win. Without seniors, the underclassmen put forth their best effort in an attempt to pull off a victory from one of the several close games that they played. The team demonstrated noticeable improvement throughout the course of the season. Junior goalie Jen Kelly was selected as a Middlesex League All-Star and junior forward Sarah Coughlin received an Honorable Mention.

"Win or Lose - Together"

This year the Raider basketball team completed its best season in eight years with a 14-8 record. The team had only two returning starters from last year, they were the only seniors on the team, co-captains Grady Milton and David Monville. Led by the coaching of Stephen Harrington and his assistants, the Raiders were able to sweep Reading, Stoneham, Woburn and Burlington. The Division III Tournament began with first round action against Triton Regional. The game was both exciting and rewarding for the team with a 75-69 victory. The second round of the tournament sent the Raiders once again to play Bishop Fenwick in the final game of the year. Three players represented Watertown on the Middlessex League All Star team, Grady, David, and Bobby Murgo. Bobby was an All-League player and David was an MVP runner up.

Enthusiasm

This past season was one that will not easily be forgotten. After cheering on the Raider Boys Basketball team and giving them endless amounts of support this group of girls accomplished many routines and further developed their cheering abilities. The team grew in enthusiasm and determination throughout the year, and with teamwork we showed that having spirit was key to victory. For the seniors on the squad this basketball season was one that we are all very proud of. Being there for the team was most important to us and sharing our ideas proved that anything is possible. With the season ending in the second round of the state tournament we showed excitement and pride that our team got as far as they did. Good Luck to everyone next year. Keep up that spirit!!!!

Perseverance

The Girls Basketball team looked hopeful this year after losing only two seniors from last year's squad. The season started off just as the team planned, winning the Kiwanis Holiday Tournament, giving them a 3-1 record. Fighting every moment as the smallest team in the ever tough Middlesex League, the girls never backed down. This year they battled a hard road in front of them both on and off the court. Throughout it all they would not bow down; instead the players stepped it up even more finishing the season proud. Junior co-captain, Renee Gaudette was selected as a Middlesex League All-Star and All-League Player.

Great Strides

The Raider hockey team struggled on the scoreboard but made long strides as a team. Although the Raider record showed otherwise, the team proved they could play with the best teams in the Middlesex league. Playing against the perennial powerhouse of Burlington, the Raiders skated to a 3-1 loss. The also challenged themselves with a 5-3 loss to the eventual Division I State Champs, Winchester. The Raiders were led by senior co-captain Joe Ganno, senior net minder Jeff Patterson, All-Star junior Mike Ciulla, and All-Star, All-League Joe Chaisson (only a sophomore). The Raiders gave notice they will be a team to deal with in the future. This years’ strides will not be forgotten.

CHEERLEADING

Cool Cheers!

This year the Ice Hockey Cheerleaders were a group of many newcomers. The spirit and dedication throughout the season by all of the team and the coach brought great results with lots of fun. Even though the League exhibition did not happen this year the practices were put to good use for the first time ever: WHS Winter Pep Rally. The cheering squad wishes all the seniors from the hockey team and the Class of '98 Good Luck in the future!

Determination

The Girls Ice Hockey team accomplished much in its second season as a club at WHS. The team consisted of only nine members, most of whom had never laced up a pair of skates before stepping onto the ice for Watertown High. Yet together these girls have set the standard for girls hockey in the years to come. The most exciting moment of the season was the victory over Lexington’s varsity team 6-5. The team record for this season was 3-19-1. The members of the hockey team played each game with courage, determination, and heart and together they proved that girls hockey is back (after a twenty year hiatus) and stronger than ever.

Endurance

The Boys Indoor track team had a great overall season. With a low number of boys the team was still able to round up a decent number of points in the meets. Senior co-captains Doug Doo and Aram Manoukian had great final indoor seasons. Freshman Nathan Downes continued to show his running talent throughout the season. Coach Sullivan did a great job, in his first year as the head indoor coach. He was assisted by Yuri Klimovitsky who shared his many skills with the team. The 4x200, 4x400, shot put and sprint medley relay teams were able to put forth a good showing at the State Relays. The track program looks like it's on the rebound and could shape up in the near future.

Commitment

The Indoor Track team finished their season with a record of 1-8. Despite this record the team proved their commitment and spirit for the sport. Each individual brought something special to help carry the team through the tough season. The highlight of the season occurred when facing the Melrose Red Raiders. The Watertown victory was especially sweet for the relay team: senior co-captain Gina Baker, juniors Deb Psychoghiocos and Jen Rossi, and sophomore Liz Novis. The team will lose senior captains Kathy Barry and Gina Baker but is left with a skilled group of underclassmen.

A Beginning

In the first year as a club team the wrestling team at WHS enjoyed great success. With hard work and determination at practices and meets the undermanned group went undefeated in all four of its meets. The team represented itself very well at the Lexington Memorial Tournament, where many of our wrestlers advanced into late rounds. The team was coached by Dan Duest. The seniors that led the team were Harut Arutyunyan, Shant Banosian, Khamel Khanizer, Raffi Papazian and Dani Jaber. Other key members contributing were Tim Cacia, and Rouben Meschian.
The 1998 baseball season did not go exactly as planned. With the loss of eleven seniors, the boys quickly learned how much experience had to do with winning games. This year’s team consisted of only three seniors and five returning varsity players. Though they did have decent talent and a lot of heart, the team was just not ready to take charge of the competitive Middlesex League.

Although the team did have many tough moments, they had a lot of fun. They came close in many games, holding Burlington to just one hit and losing to Woburn 3-2 in an unbelievably tight game. They also beat Marignon 3-1 in the season opener before a great hometown crowd.

Though the season lacked wins, there was no shortage of excitement. Three Middlesex League All-stars were selected from the team; senior co-captain Aram Manoukian, co-captain Nathaniel Chase, and junior second baseman Mike Ciulla. The team has a lot to look forward to next year with eleven returning varsity players.

The boys would like to thank Coach Centola for putting up with such a hard team to work with, Joe Chiado, who takes time out of his busy life to help make them better players, and coaches Dave Hartnett and Joel Giampa for their work in building up the freshman and junior varsity players. The seniors had a lot of fun and will miss the program very much. They wish the best of luck to the team and also every sport at Watertown High. “No matter what, always be proud that you are able to play for such a classy program. Go Raiders!”
"Good Eye"

The Softball Team started off strong beating non-league opponent Mt. Alvernia. Each player fought hard all season, especially the two captains and Middlesex League All-Stars Kathy Barry who dug deep at second base and Teresa Fenichel who kept on her toes at short stop. Pitcher Nicole Keuchkarian worked hard on the mound throwing strikes while Lidia DiIeso backed the team up in centerfield and Michelle DeSimone came through with defensive assistance. Although the team only won one League game; it was on our home field and it was against Belmont, which made the win all that much greater. The team came close to winning in many games, but definitely were the winners as each member cheered their teammates until the very last inning.

Improvement

The boy's tennis team improved during the '98 season. The team won their first match in four years, beating Woburn 4-1. Individually the team racked up ten wins, a great accomplishment over the single win of the previous year. The team will only lose two seniors, Greg & Dan to graduation, so all members look forward to continued success in 1999.

"WORTH THE WAIT"

"With borrowed will get up, it said, you haven't lost at all. For winning is no more than this: To rise each time you fall." The Lady Raiders fell many times - 161 matches in a row, to be exact. Yet with each fall the girls made small gains, and finally, in their last match of the year, they pulled it altogether and showed the league what they're made of, defeating the Woburn Tanners in a decisive 5-0 victory. It took a while, but by the second half of the season the players finally became a "real team", supporting and encouraging one another through both the good times and the bad. The girls owe much of their success to second year coach Marianne Cameron, whose hard work, dedication, and enthusiasm serve as an example to all of her players, both on the court and off. Co-captains Jessica Colangelo and Kara Conceison, along with seniors Mimi Asnes and Gina Napoleon, will never forget the 1998 tennis season and wish the remaining players the best of luck in the future.
Celebrating a Victory
Boys Track and Field

Watch 'Em Run

This past season could very well be the beginning of success for Watertown Boy's Outdoor Track. Entering the season with only four seniors, this year's squad knew it would take a lot of hard work to be competitive. Everyone had one common goal: that was to improve each meet. With great senior leadership and lots of young talent the team fared well in all the meets, almost pulling off a couple of upsets and opening the eyes of various coaches around the league. The highlight of the season came on the final day, against rival Belmont. Knowing it was their last chance to win everyone gave their all and it paid off. Watertown WON!! It was the first victory in twelve long years. Special performers for the season and qualifying for the Class D State Coaches Meet were: Freshmen Matt Born (Middlesex League All-Star), Nathan Downes, junior Joe Pires, and seniors Kamel Khnaizir and Alex Raveau. The future is bright for next season. Good Luck to all the seniors.
The Girls Outdoor Track team, despite its many losses also had many gains under the leadership of the two senior co-captains. The team was competitive in all its meets. A wave of personal best came throughout the season and sent four girls onto the Middlesex League Championship Meet and eight others onto the Class D State Meet. With a large number of girls returning to the team next year all members are hopeful. A word of Thanks goes out to Coaches Charlie Smith and Betsy Davenport. Good Luck to the seniors in their future endeavors.

"I have no chair, no church, no philosophy. I had no man to a dinner table, library, exchange. / But each man and each woman you led upon a knoll. / My left hand feeling you around the waist. / My right hand pointing to landscapes of contentment and the public trial. / Nor I, nor anyone else can travel that road for you. / You must travel it for yourself. / It is not far, it is within reach. / Perhaps you have been on it since you were born and did not know. / Perhaps it is everywhere on water and on land. / Long have you usually walked holding a plank by the shore. / Now I will tell you to be a field swami. / To jump off in the middle of the sea, rise again, cool to me, shout, and laughingly dash with your hair. / Long might have you dreamed contemplative dreams. / Now I wash the guns from your eyes. You must have poured to the dazze of the light and of every moment of your life."

Dr. Gavrynah, Ms. Bulley and members of the School Committee, Dr. Diaz, teachers, parents, family and friends. I come to Waterdown High School as an new student. I was a short little curly haired stranger in a sea of new faces which formed above me. With me I looked up to the upperclassmen, the teachers, and the housemasters. Four years later...I still look up in just about evergreen at Waterdown High School—very freshman. But now that ocean of faces has become a community that has taught me as much about life as all four thousand hundred plus eighty hours I've spent in class.

Several days ago I was standing at a wall in my house which my friends and I painted at the beginning of freshman year; when I still reached daily for the green elevator to the rooftop pool. On that wall I found copied a poem from the first term of freshmen English class when we studied "The Odyssey" with Mrs. Porter. It is by the Greek poet C.P. Cavafy, and was Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis' favorite.

"helpak. / When you see me not for helpak, ask that you may be long, / full of adventure, full of instruction. / Full of Algebra, full of Advanced Topics, full of stories of how Ms. Tennbolton's dog Killer bit Mr. Wilson but always likes Mr. Price because the brown bagels. Ask that your way be long for teachers who are hand of big Tarantaulas named Fuzzy and cut your tall paper, teachers who walk as lonely as a cloud, teachers who will take you to the top of the mountain or into the deepest trenches of the human psyche.

The Last Egyptian and the Cyclops, angry Poseidon do not fear them; such as this I see you will never find, as long as your thought is lofty, as long as a rare current touch your spirit and your body. / As long as there is someone to teach that rare emotion to you -- as long as you have a friend who will walk the Oakley with you at midnight, as long as you have a summation, a coach who will whisper words of encouragement to quiet the demons of doubt in your head. As long as there are parents to make you tea and cookies even though you forget to mow the lawn and study for your midterm. As long as there is a teacher who will take you on a field trip to sit around a pond and reflect.

The Last Egyptian and the Cyclops, angry Poseidon— you will not meet them, unless you carry them in your soul. / unless you are able to see them before you. / Or perhaps we have not met them already. Perhaps we have wandered with the sea god himself as we saw those beside us get sick and slowly recover, as we lost people we cared for, as friendships cracked and shifted like continents, as classrooms left us, as families crumbled and we had to pick up the pieces and shape them into something new.

ask that your way be long. / As many as summer days down to ever, / with what gratitude, what joy. / Ports seen for the first time, / to sing at Pharmacien trading centers, merchandise, mother of pearl and coral, amber and ebony, / and formal perfumes of every kind, / sensuous perfume as likely as you can.

The beauty of living in a lavish diverse community is the wealth that every member of this class has brought to share with others, wealth from pools beyond the numbered doorways of fifty Columbia Street. Our mother of pearl and ebony are the thunks of wisdom mined from the children we counted at summer camps, from our cowards at the supermarket where we bag a queen, of which we scoop up coconuts and banana splits on hot summer nights. Our sensuous perfumes are our quiet moments on the beach or in the mountains, and the knowledge we bring to our classmates of our homeschools in the Camdem, South America, Africa, Europe, the Middle East and Asia. "To visit many Egyptian states, to gather stores of knowledge from the learned." Joins with Mr. Harris or Mr. Huang trying to uncover the art of the agar, to listen to Mr. Jordan explain why the dimadent seventh always leads back to the first chord. Our class has delighted and exasperated every teacher in this older generation and hood mouth, with our arguments, with my talent and weccandized. We have demanded to know the meaning of life and whether or not it would be on the test. We have multiplied and differentiated and analyzed numbers and equations and poems; we have acted like fools and businesswomen and Menses and lawyers and renaissance and cowardly lads and girls and both on and off stage.

Have helpak always on your mind. / Your arival there is what you are destined for. / But do not in the least hurry the journey. / Better that it last for years, / so that when you reach the island you are old. / rich with all you have gained on the way. / Not expecting helpak to give you wealth. / helpak gave you the splendid journey. / Without her you would not have me one. / She has nothing else to give you. / Sticking out our hand for a small dip in the sheet of the shore. / But the first thord. Our class has brought us together...we sit here within the moments we have been waiting for since September 1994. Can we see that it was the journey itself that was the important thing. / And if you find her poor, / helpak has not deceived you. / So wise have you become of such experiences, / that already you will understand what these helpak mean. / I would like to thank everyone here, teachers, parents, friends, classmates, families, and citizens of Waterdown, for giving our class the support and encouragement we needed to reach this day. And I would like to close with a message to the class of 1998 from Walt Whitman's "Song of Myself."

"I have no chair, no church, no philosophy, / I had no man to a dinner table, library, exchange. / But each man and each woman you led upon a knoll. / My left hand feeling you around the waist. / My right hand pointing to landscapes of contentment and the public trial. / Nor I, nor anyone else can travel that road for you. / You must travel it for yourself. / It is not far, it is within reach. / Perhaps you have been on it since you were born and did not know. / Perhaps it is everywhere on water and on land. / Long have you usually walked holding a plank by the shore. / Now I will tell you to be a field swami. / To jump off in the middle of the sea, rise again, cool to me, shout, and laughingly dash with your hair. / Long might have you dreamed contemplative dreams. / Now I wash the guns from your eyes. You must have poured to the dazzle of the light and of every moment of your life."

GRADUATION
VICTORY FIELD

115
Good evening Dr. Dias, members of the School Committee, Dr. Cavanaugh, members of the faculty, invited guests, friends, family, and fellow classmates. I am very honored to speak on behalf of the class of 1998.

Thinking back over the years, I remember all of the steps we have taken in our journey towards our new life. As freshmen, we were young, immature, and very uncertain of the four years ahead of us. We wanted to be successful in everything we attempted, but had no direction on which steps to begin our journey. Every year, we would follow new paths to see where they would take us. Now, four years later, some of us may still continue taking steps but have made many friendships with classmates and teachers that have helped guide us in our decisions. These friendships are what pulled us through and made us the class of 1998.

We have experienced sad times, good times, hard times, and fun times where friends were there every step of the way. We were able to cope with the departure of our headmaster and mentor, Jennifer Huntingrnon, when she decided to leave us last year. However, we were also blessed to have a new headmaster of equal caliber in Dr. Cavanaugh. We also shared our good time with each other every step of the way, especially at the many dance, sporting and senior events. When times got rough, friends were there to help us get through them. However, our class size is small and many of us still don't know each other. As the poet Barbara Burrow once said, we should "...work at building bridges and not walls." Instead of being unaware of our classmates, we should break down those walls and get to know each other.

I hope that in our years to come, whichever path each one of us takes, we must not forget our friendships made at Watertown High School. As we embark with our new lives, we must take with us our knowledge and friendships that we have gained and cherished. Bring your memories with you wherever you may go because your past shall never be forgotten. As we look towards our future, I would like to leave you with this quote by Henry Emerson Fosdick, a Presbyterian preacher, who said, "He who cannot rest, cannot work; he who cannot let go, cannot hold on; he who cannot find footing, cannot go forward." Thank you. Congratulations and good luck to the class of 1998.
Brian Brewer in a relatively short time you have come to be regarded by your students and colleagues as an outstanding teacher.

To students you have been:
* a dedicated science teacher who believes in their ability to succeed and structures lessons and labs so that they can experience first hand the joys of succeeding.
* a caring and concerned adult to whom they can come for advice, support and comfort.
* a patient and wise guide who steers them in positive pathways, looks to their futures and sees hope and success, and moves them towards that success.
* a committed and thoughtful class advisor who encourages their independence, supports them as they grow together as a class, enjoys their company, organizes and attends their functions, and generally “is always there for them”.
* one of their staunchest supporters - one who always sees their potential, emphasizes the positive, is firm, fair and patient. Someone whom they trust always to be on their side.

To your colleagues you have been:
* an inspiration with your dedicated, hard-working, “never say die” attitude.
* a thoughtful colleague with whom the sharing of ideas is easy and natural.
* an advocate for the student - always emphasizing the best and positive aspects of each student - firmly grounded in the belief that each student can and will succeed with the support of a teacher.

We thank you for everything that you do on behalf of your students and recognize you as Watertown High School’s Teacher of the Year.
