Watertown High School Home of the Raiders

Class of 2005
To the Class of 2005

It is with a sincere sense of pride that I congratulate you, the Class of 2005. As the Acting Headmaster of Watertown High School, I have had the opportunity to watch your growth from young, impressionable freshman to mature, self-directed seniors.

You have distinguished yourselves as students, musicians, actors/actresses and athletes. I truly hope your years at Watertown High School have been rewarding and form the foundation for a successful future.

Take the knowledge and positive experiences you have learned at Watertown High School and make a positive impact in the world.

Best Wishes,

P. Michael Noftsker

In Memoriam

The Watertown High School 2005 Annual is lovingly dedicated to

Mr. Thomas McGovern

a shining light in the WHS constellation for over 40 years
Dear Class of 2005,

I really can't believe it's over. These past four years have gone by faster than we could have ever imagined. This yearbook holds all of the memories we have shared together. I'll never forget the times we had together throughout high school, and in some cases, the past 13 years. The yearbook committee has tried our hardest to make the yearbook the best that it could be. We will all remain a part of each other as we go our separate ways. I wish everyone luck in the future.

-- Jacqueline Metjian

Congratulations Class of 2005,

This has been quite an experience. We have spent the last four years at WHS, and graduating is both sad and exciting. I hope that this yearbook will remind you of all the fun we have had. I wish you all the best in your future goals.

Robin Joseph

Class of 2005...

It's been an awesome four years that I'm going to miss but will always remember. We are now off to new adventures, leaving all these crazy memories behind but making new ones too. We will always come back to Watertown and get together and will always have our little groups and bonds. You will always be a part of me. Thanks for the memories.

-- Christine Nardone

Hi guys!

Well, this is it. This book contains many years of memories, so sit back and enjoy. It was a lot of hard work, but I'm sure most of you will say it was well worth it. We've been through a lot together, and I hope as we all go our separate ways we take a little bit of the past with us. I mean, who can honestly forget good 'ole Watertown! It's been great, Class of 2005. Best of luck with whatever the future brings you.

~ Olivia
Production on this year's edition of the Yearbook began in the fall of 2004. The dedicated editors, staff members and Ms. Regan (the advisor) worked diligently through July of 2005 to bring you the very best memories of the Class of 2005. The staff wishes to thank Ms. Regan and all the members of the WHS community who made this book a success!

Senior Banquet
Hiershe, Dr. Gould, Mr. Noftsker, Dr. Cavanaugh, Mr. Paolillo, members of the school committee, invited teacher honorees, city members, families, and friends. Thank you for making this possible. Most importantly, I want to congratulate the Water Hill High School Class of 2005. Today marks the end of a 13-year chapter in our lives and the beginning of a new and exciting era for all of us. We are the future leaders of this town, this country, and the world. We do not know how we might impact the old, but our potential is limitless. Individually, we can do anything; collectively, there is no stopping us. To learn what we can do, I asked many of my classmates how they would like to impact the world. Here is some of what they said:

want to make people happy.”
want to be a teacher so I can teach kids to read and write.”
want to be a successful working woman but still be a mom who raises her kids to have good morals.”
“if of us can impact the world through local community service projects.”
then those of us with a profession should leave time to help the less fortunate.”
want to help instill tolerance in young people. By starting with the younger generation, they may be able to develop an understanding of respect.”
want to be a lawyer so everyone has a chance to be represented and to have equal opportunities.”
would like to get students interested in how the world works, to know the importance of their vote and voice.”
want to spread political awareness so everyone can have an impact on decisions and government.”
want to find a way to give everyone access to health care.”
want to find a cure for disease.”
want kids like me to know that there are interesting things out there.”
are more than just doctors and lawyers. I want people to see how cool the ancient world is too.”
want to impact the world creatively through art.”
want to show that young people are underestimated. We can do a lot more than we’re given credit for.”
Finally, “I just know that I want to make a difference somehow. I don’t know how, but I guess that’s the point. You figure it out as you grow up and find your place in the world.”
we two grandmothers here today. They both travelled over 1,000 miles by plane to be here. When they graduated from high school, their grandmothers couldn’t have dreamed of such a thing. The world they are living in today is not the world they grew up in. Change is one of the few things we can be certain of. And since change is certain, we need to be prepared to influence it. the anthropologist Margaret Mead once said, “Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.” Class of 2005, there is nothing we can’t do, from affecting one person’s life through teaching to curing disease and stopping wars. To have any success though, we must always strive to be all that we can be. As one of my teachers said to me, we all need to be led by our dreams and goals. I can’t wait to be back together again at reunions to hear about all that we have done. We are the next leaders of this world. We need to accept that responsibility and rise to meet the challenge.
