May this book recall to the members of the Watertown High School the delightful memories of the past year, and may it represent to their friends the many interesting sides of our School life.

The Staff
To the flame of Friendliness
kindled in our School days
by the willingness to help one another, and by the joy of working together—
to that flame which will glow more radiantly with the fanning of the years,
We, the Class of '27,
dedicate this third volume of
The Annual
To you

Miss Harrison

we attempt to express our appreciation for the countless hours you have devoted to us, and for the personal interest and the unfailing understanding you have shown toward us during our High School days.

We wish to thank

Miss Byron

our Class Adviser who, in directing us through this past year, has given so unspARINGly OF her rich experience.
PRISCILLA ACHORN
47 Maple Street

Despite the fact that Priscilla is one of our exceedingly quiet girls, she has made many friends here and is very well liked. Her work at School has been in the Commercial Department. Although she is still undecided about next year, she may continue her business training at the Bryant and Stratton School.

LOUISE ALCOTT
64 Lincoln Street

Louise deserves credit for the work she has done since she entered W. H. S. and especially for her assistance in the Library during her Senior year. She was a member of the Glee Club, and took part in the Middle Medley. She was also on the Committee for All School Night. Next year Louise will go to Simmons where she will specialize in Library work.

DANIEL ALLEN
22 Broadway

"Dan" came to us this year from Punchard High, Andover, where, as one of the most popular boys of his Class, he took part in many School affairs. He recently became a member of our Hi-Y Club. "Dan" intends to enter Northeastern University next September.

LILLA ANDERSON
8 Green Street

Lilla came to us in her Junior year from Spaulding High, Barre, Vermont. She is one of the most faithful and earnest girls of the Class. During her first year with us she was a member of the Glee Club, and this year has belonged to the Girls' Club. Lilla expects to enter the College of Liberal Arts, Boston University, next Fall.

ARAXI ANJOORIAN
16 Elton Avenue

Whenever there is special work to be done in the Commercial Department, it is invariably given to Araxi. She has always been one of the most outstanding members of the Business Course, as the frequent appearance of her name on the Honor and Super Roll would suggest. Her work on the Bulletin last Spring gave her good training for the responsible position of Business Manager of the Annual this year. Araxi has also found time for athletics, having been on both the Basketball and Hockey Teams. Next year she will enter Business. She will be missed at W. H. S.
MURIEL ARONSON
41 Union Street

Muriel came to us from Montreal, where we feel sure that she must have been as well liked as she has been here. She took part in the Middler Medley and in our Middler Gym Exhibition. Muriel intends to go to a Secretarial School next year.

MALCOM BACON
16 Royal Street

"Mal" is an outstanding figure in the Commercial Department where he has studied for the past three years. He was a member of the Track Team in his Junior year and surely showed his speed. In his Middler and Senior years he went out for the Basketball Team. Next year he goes to Burdett's where we know he will succeed.

RUTH BARKER
1 Thewer Park

Ruth came to us as a Middler from Arlington High School and immediately won our hearts. She soon became active in School affairs and was very successful as Chairman of the Candy committee for the Middler Medley. This year she has further proved her executive ability by being Chairman of the Library Committee of the Girls' Club. In this position she has had charge of several outstanding programs and has been one of the mainstays of the Club. Academically Ruth has also made a name for herself, having frequently been on the Honor or Super Honor Roll. That she has dramatic ability was made evident when she took part in the Senior Play. But best of all—we shall always remember Ruth as one of the pleasantest girls we have ever known. Next year will find her at Framingham Normal School.

FLORENCE BARNARD
445 Pleasant Street

Although Florence has not been very active in School affairs, she has always given her loyal support to whatever we have undertaken. She worked hard helping to prepare candy for the Senior Play. Her ready smile and kindliness have been a constant source of cheer. Florence plans to train to be a Kindergarten Teacher. We think she will make a most-delightful one.

EDWARD BATCHELDER
25 Spruce Street

"Eddie" is an all-round athlete. He has played on the Baseball, Basketball, and Football Teams for three years, and in his Middler and Senior years has been a member of the Track Team. Never shall we forget him as the dignified "Noel Derby" in the Senior play. Eddie also found time to serve on the Class Picture Committee and the Property Committee for All-School Night despite the great amount of studying which has been necessary to prepare him for Brown University.
JOHN BAZARIAN

17 Laurel Street

"Johnnie" was a regular on the Football Squad for three years, where he certainly did some wonderful playing. He has been a hard-working student, but is always ready for fun. "Johnnie" plans to go to an Engraving School next Fall.

CATHERINE BEACH

48 Putnam Street

Catherine, one of our very finest workers, has as her workshop the Cooking Laboratory and Cafeteria where she gives us our luncheon each day with a smiling face. She has taken the Household Arts Course for three years and could easily qualify as "Class Cook." At the recent election of officers, she was chosen Vice-President of the Household Arts Club. But perhaps she has been best known as one of the outstanding members of the Girls' Club, having served most loyally and efficiently as Chairman of the Hospitality Committee and as Club Custodian. Catherine's plans for next year are unsettled, but she hopes to be able to continue her study of Home Economics.

ELIAS BEARS

64 Wilmot Street

Elias has been a very quiet member of our Class, but has proved to be steady and reliable. Outside interests have prevented him from taking part in many of the School activities; however, he has been willing to help whenever he has been needed. He expects to work for a while and then hopes to go to College.

HARWOOD BELDING

277 School Street

Harwood is one of those quiet chaps who accomplish many things without "much ado." Of course we all remember the delightful piano solos which he has rendered in Assemblies. He was in the cast of the Junior Play, took part in the Middler Medley, and in his Senior year served on the Cap and Gown Committee. Harwood has been studying faithfully with the intention of entering Wesleyan University in the Fall.

LESLIE BOND

22 Porter Street

Leslie, one of our hard-working boys, has been active in our School life. Last year he served on the Property Committee of the Middler Medley and was the Hints Editor of the Chemist. This past year he has been an active member of the Camera Club, and a valuable man on our Track Team. We'll not forget the dignity and efficiency with which he conducted our Assembly spelling-match! Leslie plans to go to M. I. T.
WILLIAM BOUTELLE
62 Boylston Street

Here is our popular and able President. "Billy" is so versatile that if we were to enumerate all his accomplishments, we would fill many pages. After having played his well-known "sax" in the Orchestra for two years, he was elected Business Manager. He is a fine Tennis player, having been on the Team for the past two years and having won many games. That he has excellent dramatic ability was made known when he took the leading part in The Goose Hangs High. Besides supervising all the committees as Chief Executive of the Class, he has worked diligently on most of them. Prep School is "Billy's" intention for next year, and then on to Dartmouth.

JOSEPH BRADLEY
11A Dartmouth Street

For three years "Joe" has been prominent for his excellent piano playing in the Orchestra. Besides serving on several committees, he has shown his dramatic ability by his participation in the famous Latin play presented last year in Assembly, and The Trusting Place given All School Night. And will we ever forget the striking resemblance between Benjamin Franklin and "Joe" in the Library Assembly? Next year "Joe" intends to enter either Harvard or Boston College.

EVA BROOKS
180 Walnut Street

Eva has been a fine student in the Commercial Department. Last year she found time to take part in the Middler Medley; this year, in All School Night. She has also done her bit of School service by assisting in the Office one period each day. Eva has not yet decided what line of work she will follow next year.

MADELINE BROWNE
82 Church Street

Madeline, with her sunny disposition, has always been outstanding among the members of our Class for her capability. Her scholastic record in the Commercial Department has been high ever since her Junior year. She has served faithfully this past year as the Secretary of the Orchestra and as Chairman of the School Service Committee of the Girls' Club. The greatest accomplishment of this Committee has, of course, been the preparation of the Junior Handbook of which Madeline has been Editor-in-Chief. We are looking forward to her certain success at the College of Practical Arts of Boston University.

ALICE BURKE
40 Elliot Street

Alice has been active in many School affairs, having participated in all three of the Class entertainments. She also was in the "Candy Chorus" of All School Night. As Alice is one who is always ready to give her assistance when needed, we are sure she will be welcome in whatever School she decides to enter.
LOUIS CAPORICCIO
19 Hearn Street

“Gigi,” as he is generally called, has been one of our finest athletes. He has starred in Baseball and Football during his Junior, Middler and Senior Years and was Captain of the Baseball Team his Middler year. He has also been Assistant Manager and Manager of the Basketball Team. “Gigi” can sing, too, for he was among those chosen to take part in a special chorus at one of our Assemblies. Next year he intends to go to a Preparatory School.

ARPENY CARAGULIAN
404 Mt. Auburn Street

During the past three years, Arpeny has been neither absent, tardy, nor dismissed—a record which very few are able to maintain. Her efficiency in Typewriting has won for her certificates on the various machines. She plans to continue in Business work after Graduation.

EVELYN CARLETON
365 Orchard Street

Evelyn is one of the happiest girls in our Class. Her cheerful smile and ready wit have brightened up many a dull period. For two years Evelyn has played her violin in the Orchestra. Next year she plans to study Foreign Trade and Spanish for a few months and then go into Foreign Trade work.

EDNA CASEY
49 Parker Street

Edna entered Watertown High School along with us all, but she came from another town. We surely scored a victory over Arlington when we won Edna! In spite of the fact that she has often been obliged to remain out of School, Edna has been able to keep up the pace and graduate with us. We know that such an ambitious girl will surely become a success in any work she undertakes.

LENA CATERINA
85 Arlington Street

Lena is a nice quiet girl whom we all like. She has very faithfully and efficiently accomplished the work of the Business Course, which has trained her for the stenographic work she intends to undertake next year. Our best wishes go with her.
WILSON CAZMAY
16 Riverside Street

Wilson is well known in the Business Department as one who is always ready to liven the day's routine with a smile or a joke. He has helped us on the Annual, having been responsible for several of the personal write-ups. Wilson is undecided whether to become an Accountant or to enter an Insurance Office.

RUTH CENTEBAR
5 Highland Avenue

Ruth has been a fine capable worker ever since her Junior year when she was on the Class Ring Committee. Again she helped her Class by participating in the Middler Medley. She has been the Assistant in the Office Period IV all this past year. Next year Ruth plans to enter Newton Hospital to train for Nursing.

RUTH CLARK
93 Riverside Street

Ruth is a jolly girl and a faithful student. During the Junior year she was our Class Secretary, and in the Middler year, took part in the Middler Medley. This past year she has worked on the Prom Committee. Ruth's plans for the future are as yet unsettled.

JAMES COLLINS
180 Church Street

Who was the hit of The Goose Hangs High? Why, "Jimmie" of course! As "Bradley" he certainly was the typical college youth, and played the part exceptionally well. "Jimmie" has been a conscientious student throughout his High School career, and intends to continue his studies at Boston College next Fall.

WALTER CONNEARNEY
25 Myrtle Street

"Bunny" surely acted to perfection his part as "Bob," the slack office boy, in the Business Department Play presented in Assembly. In real life he is a fine worker, however, and has received certificates for Typewriting from the Underwood and Remington Companies. Next Fall "Bunny" intends to go to work.
VIOLA CONNOLLY
126 School Street

Viola is quiet and unobtrusive, but does all her work efficiently and is popular among her group of intimate friends. Her three years’ training in the Commercial Course has led her to choose Business as her future work.

ARTHUR DADAIAN
409 Mt. Auburn Street

Arthur, with his quiet manner of accomplishing a great deal, won our favor early in his Junior year. We missed him very much when he left us for a while in his Middle year to attend Framingham High School, and were delighted when he returned. He assisted with the business work on last year’s Annual and has been Advertising Manager of this year’s book. As a playwright, he has also won distinction, and we are eagerly awaiting the production by the Dramatic Club of his A Day with the Hoza. Our best wishes accompany him as he enters Harvard next Fall.

JOHN DAILEY
135 Riverside Street

“Johnny”, with his spontaneous grin and fun-loving nature, is everyone’s friend. He has taken the Commercial Course during High School, and has received certificates from the Royal and Underwood Companies. Last year he took part in the Middler Medley. His plans for next year are undecided.

HENRIETTE DELMAGE
77 Langdon Avenue

Henriette is one of our serious steady workers. She has entertained us twice in Assemblies with her readings. What a fine brogue she can acquire! Henriette will go abroad after Graduation and we are sure she will make many friends on her trip. On her return, she plans to enter Business.

ARTHUR DESCHENES
36 Upland Road

Arthur has not found much time for School activities as he has been working outside every day. He has been a student of the General Department these three years, and intends to work for a News Company after Graduation.

Page fifteen
CHARLES DOLAN

297 Mt. Auburn Street

“Charlie” has been very prominent here at W. H. S. During his first year he was on both the Class Executive and Decoration Committees. In his Middler year his chief accomplishments were along the literary line, for he was Editor of the “Science Column” of the Bulletin, contributed to the 1926 Annual, and was the Editor and Publisher of the Chemist, a leaflet for amateur chemists. This year we have seen him working hard on the Annual Board, besides serving as Treasurer of his home-room. Charlie plans to go to M. I. T. where he will continue his work in Science.

WALTER DOLBIER

99 Boyd Street

All of us like Walter very much; he has been so friendly to everyone. He has been a faithful student of the General Course all through High School and this past year took part in one of our Assemblies. Walter is going to attend Evening School at Boston University next year.

CATHERINE DONALDS

12 Fletcher Terrace

Catherine is a jolly girl who has taken part in quite a few School activities. In her Junior year she was a member of the Girls’ Glee Club, and during the past two years has been an interested member of the Girls’ Club. She has always been an ever-ready helper. Her work in the Commercial Course has fitted her to be a Stenographer.

FRANCIS DONNELLY

23 Greenville Road

Everyone knows and likes “Fran”. He is another of our well known athletes, having been a valuable member of the Basketball Team in his Middler year and Captain of it in his Senior year. He took the part of “Ingald” in The Locked Chest on All School Night. Francis has not decided what he will do next year.

THOMAS DYER

101 Langdon Avenue

“Lizzie” came to us from St. John’s High in North Cambridge where he was very popular. For the success of our Track Team in the last three years, we owe a great deal of credit to “Lizzie”. He is not inclined to say much about it, but he has been the most consistent runner of the mile on the Team. He plans to enter the Business world after Graduation.
ALBERT EDGECOMB

107 Winsor Avenue

"Al" has been voted one of the best dancers of our Class. Ever since he entered High School he has played his 'sax' in the Orchestra. "Al" is going to Northeastern University next Fall.

FREDERICK EGAN

45 Winsor Avenue

Whenever you look at Fred, you see a face wreathed in smiles. He is usually the center of a group of laughing boys and is continually indulging in playful jokes. Fred has been a popular member of the Track Team for three years. Next year he is going to study Aviation.

ROGER EMERY

9 Franklin Street

Here's our Senior Vice President and the President of the Hi-Y Club. During these three years Roger has found time to be on the Hockey, Track, and Baseball Teams, and also to play his "sax" in the Orchestra every week. His spontaneous smile and friendliness have made him one of our most popular boys. His choice for next year is Northeastern University.

ISABELLA EVANS

28 Rangely Road

Isabella is one of our cheerful persistent workers. As a Junior she was a member of the Glee Club, and as a Senior, has been the competent Treasurer of the Girls' Club. We feel certain that Isabella, with her pleasing manner will be missed here at W. H. S. when she enters the School of Practical Arts and Letters, at Boston University.

MARION EVERETT

11½ Marshall Street

"Red" is another one of our girls who has distinguished herself in athletics, having been on the Basketball Team her three years here. She has also been a member of the Girls' Club these past two years, and was most efficient as chairman of the Candy Committee for All School Night and the Senior play. Marion plans to go to Lesley Normal.
SHIRLEY FAIRWEATHER
50 Carver Road

We all know Shirley as one of our friendliest girls, for she always has a bright smile for everyone. Those who are in her classes know what a competent worker she is. She has been a member of the Girls’ Club and the Cercle Français, and also has sung in a special chorus. Shirley plans to go to Radcliffe next year.

DOROTHY FISHER
31 North Beacon Street

Dorothy is one who is always ready to volunteer her help at a moment’s notice. She undertakes any task quietly and efficiently and has really done a great deal of School service. Dorothy plans to be a Stenographer next year.

ALICE FITZGERALD
90 Fayette Street

Here’s Alice, one of our finest athletes. After having played on the Basketball Team for two years, she was given the honor this last year of being chosen Captain. Under her leadership, the Team has made a splendid showing. Alice is undecided as to what she will do in the Fall.

MARION FITZGERALD
40 Hall Avenue

How we admire Marion’s curly hair and eyelashes! She is one who always has a kindly smile for everyone, and those who have had the opportunity of being well acquainted with her are fortunate. She has taken part in both Gym Exhibitions. Marion intends to continue her studies at Framingham Normal.

ROBERT FRENCH
426 Main Street

“Bob” is one of the most dependable boys of the School. No matter how hard a task we place upon him, it is done correctly and on time. He made the Football Team in his Junior year, besides serving on several committees. This year he has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Class. His scholastic record has been such that he was elected a member of the Cum Laude Society. “Bob” is a fine all-round fellow. Next year he plans to go to work.

Page eighteen
HELEN GALE
20 Broadway Street

What a capable jolly girl Helen is when you really know her! During her three years here, her name has appeared on the Honor Roll quite frequently, and on the "Super" the second term this year. But the greatest honor came when she was chosen a member of the Cum Laude Society. Helen was also chosen a member of Le Cercle Français this past year. We feel that Middlebury College is fortunate in getting such a fine student.

THELMA GILLESPIE
50 Parker Street

Thelma is also the possessor of much-envied curly hair, and is one of our jolly though quiet girls. Whenever you pass her in the corridors, she flashes you a cheerful smile, and she is always ready to do her bit. Thelma has been taking the Commercial Course throughout her High School years and has won certificates in Typewriting from the Remington Company. She expects to obtain a position as a Secretary when she finishes School.

JOHN GLEASON
113 Fayette Street

During his three years of High School, John has been well known as a Baseball star. These past two years, he has been prominent on the Basketball Team as well. John has not yet decided what line of work he will undertake next year.

ANNIE GOSS
259 Boylston Street

Annie is one of the kindest and sweetest girls in our School, and to know her means to love her. She played her viola in the Orchestra in her Junior year. As Chairman of the Friendship Committee of the Girls' Club this year she has done valuable work. Annie has also helped with the Annual this Spring. She is undecided as to what she will do next year, but we know that wherever she goes she will make a host of friends.

ALMA GRANDIN
49 Charles Street

Alma distinguished herself in her Middler year by winning a prize for the finest essay on the subject Mother. Her name has been a very familiar one on the Honor Roll, for she has worked very faithfully in the Commercial Department. She has helped with the typing for the Annual. Alma has already accepted a permanent position as a Stenographer at Lewandos.
ROBERT GRAY
42 Concord Road

"Bob", although a newcomer to Watertown High, has made himself well-liked with his quiet manner. Before he came here last Fall, he had attended three other High Schools: Malden, Shrewsbury, and Worcester Commerce. "Bob" intends to enter Evening School next September to study Business Administration.

GEORGE GREENE
83 Franklin Street

Here is one of the most outstanding members of our Class. George has been an A1 athlete, having played on the Football and Basketball Teams all three years, and also on the Baseball Team his Junior year. Athletics is only one phase of School life in which he has been active, however, for he was our efficient and popular Class President for the first two years, and this year has served on the Prom and Class Day Committees. But perhaps he has been best known for his dramatic ability. He made his debut in The Ghost Story Junior year; this year he took part in The Trusting Place and The Goose Hangs High, and has been a member of the Dramatic Club. Next year he intends to study at the Repertory Theatre School.

DOROTHEA GRUND
141 Spruce Street

Dorothea is a merry girl who always has a smile for everybody. During her three years in High School she has taken the Commercial Course, and may continue this work in Business College. As an alternative, she may remain here at School another year as a Post Graduate.

ELIZABETH HARDING
80 Bailey Road

This is a very familiar face, and one which brings much cheer with its ever-ready smile. Elizabeth has been especially interested in the Orchestra, faithfully carrying her trumpet to practice every week, rain or shine. Her uncanny way of soliciting money was discovered early in her Junior year when, as home-room collector, she invariably reported 100% returns. Next year she is to attend Briarcliff Manor, New York.

WALTER HARRINGTON
7 Woodleigh Road

Walter is another who does his work quietly. This year he has been a member of our Hockey Team, and has covered himself with glory by his brilliant playing. Walter plans to attend a Preparatory School next year and then College.
LILLIAN HASLE
102 School Street

Lillian seems to be a rather quiet girl, but her friends find her full of fun and very lively. She has been a member of the Girls' Club and has served as Secretary of the Music Committee this past year. She has sung in several quartets and in a special chorus at Assembly. Lillian intends to train to be a Nurse.

KARNIK HEKIMIAN
235 Boylston Street

Have you ever heard Karnik laugh at one of Mr. MacCurdy's jokes? If not, you've missed something! Karnik came to America in 1923, and surely deserves much credit for having been able to complete his High School course so quickly and successfully. He is to enter Tufts College next Fall. Our best wishes go with him.

EUGENIA HELMS
119 Palfrey Street

Eugenia is a girl who possesses that rare habit of being punctual. All through the three years of High School, she has never been tardy. In fact she has been so determined not to be late that it is seldom that she doesn't arrive at School before eight o'clock! In looking up her previous record, we find that she hasn't been tardy since she began her School career in the first grade! It is a feat not many of us can boast of. Next year Eugenia plans to attend the School of Religious Education at Boston University.

774 Belmont Street

"Smile and the world smiles with you" is "Heinie's" motto. He is known all over School for his friendliness and his willingness to help everyone. He played Football and Basketball his Junior and Middler years and was one of the mainstays of both Teams. Many times in Assemblies he has entertained us with his fine voice. "Heinie" will go to Hebron Academy next year.
CHARLES TAYLOR

77 Franklin Street

Did anyone ever get by "Charles" at Victory Field? We think not. Charles has been most efficient as Ticket Collector at the games. During his three years at High School, he has also been a member of the Orchestra. He has always been a faithful student and a dependable member of the Class. We are sure that he will succeed in Business.

MILDRED THEURER

171 Watertown Street

"Millie," though quiet, is very friendly and pleasant. She has taken the Commercial Course all through High School and has studied conscientiously. She was one of those who received a certificate from the Underwood Typewriting Company. Mildred plans to take up physical training at the Sargent School.

ELMER THIBODEAU

116 Hillside Road

Elmer came to us this year from St. Mary's College, Van Buren, Maine, where he played on the Football and Hockey Teams. His good nature and ready smile have won him many friends in Watertown. Those of us who know him feel sure that he will be successful in the study of Electrical Engineering which he hopes to make next year.

MARGARET TICEHURST

136 Summer Street

Margaret has proved herself to be a faithful and conscientious worker. She has a friendly and happy disposition and can always be depended upon to do her best. Although she has been quiet here, we shall always remember her as a very delightful classmate. Margaret intends to enter Business in the Fall.

ESTHER TILDEN

55 Robbins Road

In Esther we find a sweet and true friend, and fortunate are those who are especially well acquainted with her. She has appeared on the stage three times—in the Junior Play, in the "Old-Fashioned Dance" of the Middletown Medley, and in the "Candy Chorus" of All School Night. During the past year she has been a member of the Dramatic Club. As she enters Miss Wheelock's School next Fall, she takes with her our very best wishes.
NORMAN TIMPER
226 Boylston Street

Norman has been very active in School affairs ever since he entered. In his Junior year he assisted in the Class Play and has exhibited exceptionally fine School spirit by always being ready to help us in any undertaking. This Spring he has been very valuable to the Annual by soliciting advertisements. Norman intends to remain here another year as a Post Graduate in preparation for Massachusetts Agricultural College.

VERKIN TOVMASSIAN
71 Spruce Street

Verkin has been one of the mainstays of the High School Orchestra for the past three years. In her Junior year she was a member of the Glee Club also, but her interests have not been confined to Music. Through her efficiency in Typewriting she has won certificates and a bronze pin. For the past year she has been able to fill a responsible position outside of School, while maintaining a high standard of work here. She was excused the last of April to do full-time work. Next year Verkin plans to enter a Business School where she will continue her Commercial studies.

DORIS UTTING
1½ Centre Street

Doris has been especially interested in the Art Department, where she has made many clever posters for different School entertainments. She also did her bit All School Night by ushering and at the Senior Play by selling candy. Doris has recently been excused to accept an office position at the New England Baptist Hospital. After working there a year, she will enter the Nurses' Training School.

JAMES VAHEY
10½ Riverside Street

James has been so busy working outside that he has had little time for special School activities. He did, however, serve as an usher at the Senior Play. James plans to enter the Electrical Business after Graduation.

MARY VAHEY
123 North Beacon Street

Here is “Sis,” one of the well-known “Vahey twins,” whose dry humor is a continual source of joy to her classmates. She has been an active member of the Class, having been in the Junior Play, Middler Medley, and other School entertainments. For the past two years she has been Chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the Girls' Club, and this Spring has served on the Class Day Committee. “Sis” intends to go to Katherine Gibbs' Secretarial School next Fall.
RUTH VAHEY
238 No. Beacon Street

Early in her High School career, Ruth became known for her dramatic ability when she took part in Fourteen, a one-act play given in Assembly. Last year she appeared in Two Crooks and a Lady and this Fall on All School Night in The Trysting Place. She was also our competent Class Secretary Middler year, and this year has served on the Class Day Committee. Next year Ruth plans to enter Leland Powers’ School of Expression.

WILLIAM VOSE
17 Phillips Street

With his good-will and genial personality, “Billy” immediately gained favor among us. His musical ability has been shown by his work in the Orchestra, while his dramatic ability has been proved by his participation in the Junior Play and the Middler Medley. He plans to continue his schooling next year.

AGNES WAKEFIELD
71 Boylston Street

Can we ever forget “C’mon now, spell it out! one—two—three—”? Agnes has served as Cheer Leader for the past three years, and many is the well-deserved lecture on School Spirit which she has given us. In her Junior year she was on the Bulletin Staff and with Stella, had charge of the Girls’ Hallowe’en Party. For three years she has been on the Girls’ Basketball Team, and last year was instrumental in organizing a Girls’ Tennis Team. She was in the Middler Medley and was one of the “Candy Chorus” All School Night. Agnes plans to go to College, and then to Law School.

WILLIAM WALLACE
159 Hillside Road

“Bill” has been a member of the College Preparatory Course during these three years, and one of our most conscientious students. During his first two years he played the cornet in the Orchestra. This Spring he takes the Entrance Examinations for Boston College.

CATHARINE WALSH
61 Union Street

Catherine has seemed quite demure and reticent in her classes, but outside with her group of friends she is considered very jolly. She has taken the Commercial Course for three years and has received a certificate in Typewriting from the Underwood Company. Next year Catherine is going to continue her studies at a Business College.

MARTHA WEED
17 Hosmer Street

Martha entered as a Junior from Oak Grove Seminary in Maine. For three years she has been an honor student and was one of the ten members of the Class to be chosen by the Cum Laude Society. In her Middler year she took part in the Latin play, Medicus, and has been a member of the Cercle Français during her Senior year. She plans to go to Boston University College of Liberal Arts next year and then to teach French. With the ability which she has manifested here, there can be no doubt of her success.

GORDON WESTON
Perkins Institute

Gordon entered from the Perkins Institute last Fall. We are very sorry that he did not join us sooner, for he has proved to be such a pleasant classmate. Gordon is very much interested in Poultry, and intends to major in that subject next year at Massachusetts Agricultural College.

ALICE WHITE
30 Hillside Street

Alice, with her pleasing personality, is the happy "full-of-pee" type. Although her work here has been in the Commercial Department, next year she intends to take up Nursing. It would be a pleasure to have as cheerful a nurse as we are sure she will be.

BERNARD WHITE
11½ Hillside Road

"Bernie," coming to us from Boston College High School, quickly made a name for himself as an athlete. For two years he has played on the Football, Basketball, Track, and Baseball Teams, earning a School letter on each Team. He also took part in the one-act play The Crimson Cocoanut, three years ago, and has this last year been an active member of the Hi-Y Club. "Bernie" goes to a Preparatory School next Fall.

JOHN WHYTE
56 Cuba Street

John has been one of our busy members. In his Junior year he was the Treasurer of the Class and was in the cast of the Junior Play. He served on the Advertising Committee of the Middler Medley and on the Property Committee of the Senior Play. John plans to go to work next year.
EDWIN WICKES
45 Boylston Street

"Buddy" is one of our most versatile boys. For three years he has been a member of the Basketball Team and for two years a member of the Track Team. He was Vice-President of our Class Junior year and Treasurer Middler year. This year he served on several committees and has also been the competent Treasurer of the Hi-Y Club. In fact, Buddy's services have been invaluable all during High School. He intends to work next year.

EVELYN WINSLOW
289 Waverley Avenue

"Fiddlesticks!" What a precious little old "granny" Evelyn made in The Goose Hangs High! Never will we forget how splendidly she played her rôle. "Wally" is the pianist of our Girls' Club Orchestra and intends to develop her musical talent further next year.

ISADORE WOJTULEWICZ
102 Belmont Street

"Izzy" came to us Senior year from Boston College High School. He has been a steady worker and has not had much time for extra School activities. Next year he is coming back as a Post Graduate, and then he plans to go to M. I. T. to study Electrical Engineering.
Class History

September, 1924. Two hundred and thirty-six Juniors securrying about with an air of supreme meekness.

June, 1927. One hundred and eighty eight Seniora walking sedately through the corridors. What has transformed us from woebegone juveniles to sophisticated sages? It is with the different stages of this metamorphosis that this history is concerned.

The first step in this transmutation was the election of our officers. George Greene was called upon to lead our Class. He was aided by "Buddy" Wickes as Vice President. Other officers were Ruth Clark, Secretary; John Whyte, Treasurer; Charles Dolan, Francis Keanu, and "Bud" Mosher, Executive Committee.

We were first publicly recognized when our girls received an invitation from those of the two upper Classes to go on a hike to Cedar Hill. In return for this courtesy, we gave a Hallowe’en masquerade for all the girls of the School. Both of these enjoyable affairs helped promote a more intimate acquaintance among the girls.

Early in the year, we obtained our Class rings, of which we are very proud.

To prove that we had matured enough to appear before the public, we gave our Junior Entertainment. Aided by Miss Spoor we revealed our latent dramatic ability by presenting The Ghost Story. After the play, a few of our especially talented members entertained. The evening ended with dancing.

At the end of this year we bade adieu to the halls of the old High School and awaited with earnest enthusiasm our entrance into the new building. However, we felt nearly as lost in its halls and corridors as did the Juniors. Actuated by this fellow-feeling, our girls asked those of the Junior Class to accompany them on a Hallowe’en hike and supper party at Prospect Hill. Those who undertook this were more than repaid by the good time which they had.

Early in the Fall we chose the officers who should guide us through the second period of our development. George Greene was again elected to the Presidency. Other officers were "Bud" Mosher, Vice President; Ruth Nagle, Secretary; Edwin Wiekcs, Treasurer; Roger Emery, Ruth Vahey, and Mary Vahey, Executive Committee.

We then undertook to plan an entertainment which should disclose hitherto unsuspected endowments. The Middler Medley was the culmination of many long hours of tedious work of preparation. The first presentation was a short play coached by Mr. Woodwell. Numbers of dancing and singing followed, one of the most popular of which was the Double Quartet. The modern and old-time dancing which followed in the gym provided an apt conclusion for this unusual evening.

We terminated this year conscious that we were about to enter the last process of our development, from which we should emerge perfect products.
On our return we elected to conduct us through this last stage; "Billy" Boutelle, President; Francis Keany, Treasurer; Roger Emery, Vice President; Stella McEnaney, Secretary; Lillian Reifenstein, "Bob" French, and John Spalding, Executive Committee.

The Senior Play, The Goose Hangs High, acted with a skill born of previous experience, was indeed worthy of our reputation. This play afforded us an opportunity to display our cheerful willingness to work.

Early in April, we observed our "Freak Day." The originality we had acquired in our metamorphosis expressed itself variously. "Billy" Boutelle was a frisky old lady, while "Aggie" Wakefield proved herself quite a man. "Johnny" MacBrayne made an only too realistic girl scout, and "Billy" Richheimer was quite a captivating sailor. Laura Perry had a wonderful time on her roller skates. "Buddy" Wickes looked like someone you dream about.

Ten of our "intellectual lights" have recently been inducted into the Cum Laude Society. This is the highest honor that can come to a pupil in a College division.

Now we are anticipating our Graduation with mingled feelings—feelings of regret, feelings of joy, and feelings of relief. But although we shall soon be separated, we are sure that the fond memories of our High School will linger long with us.

John Spalding.

To Our Good Friends, the Middlers and Juniors

We, the Class of 1927, wish to thank the Classes of 1928 and 1929 for their hearty support and loyal friendship during the past year. In the coming years we shall look back most happily upon our association with these two Classes.

Class Poem

Crusaders they, with June's bright sunlight glancing
On glistening mail, with pluméd crest a-dancing
In summer's gale, and neighing horses prancing
All eager for the fray.

Around them June, in all her joy and splendor,
Her heart aflame, and 'neath her beauty tender
A will to gain till she at length may render
The one all-perfect day.

There's music there from budding souls of flowers—
The song of hope, of seeking greater powers
And wider scope; each thing of nature towers
To gain its perfect form.

So they strive on—the young lark to discover
Its power to sing, the butterfly to hover
On glorious wing, the clouds the land to cover
With healing summer storm.

'Tis the June of life, and noble hearts are glowing
With purpose high, resolves more earnest growing,
To win or die, on all the world bestowing
The things of truest worth.

So set they forth—each valiant heart on-pressing
To lofty goal, stirred by the tender blessing
From nature's soul, their spirits mute confessing
The bond 'twixt Man and Earth.

—Evelyn Minick
Class Song

Soft steals the dawn to herald the day
   And dim the morning star;
Each bird awakes and sings its lay
   From near and from afar;
Cool fragrant winds do gently blow
   To kiss the dew-pearled grass;
With new-born talents all a-glow
   We sing to thee; O Class!

To thee, we pledge our hands and hearts
   In love and loyalty;
Such talent as some muse imparts
   Is gladly giv’n to thee.
While in the morning of Life’s day
   Ambition sheds its rays,
Let hopes be high, let hearts be gay,
   And praise thee, O Class, always.

Class History

We, the Class of '28, had the distinction of being the first to enter this beautiful building as Juniors. Now we have spent two profitable and extremely happy years here under the inspiring direction of our Faculty.

How clearly we recall those first few weeks through which, as bewildered Juniors, we groped our way! But what a fine Class we finally organized under the competent leadership of President Lawrence McBride, aided by John Kaveny, Vice President; Norman Thomas, Treasurer; Dorothy Descheneaux, Secretary; and with Raymond Ford, Doris Johnson, and Alicia Kelleher as Executive Committee.

The Class rings and pins were chosen early in the year.

Even when we were Juniors, our Class was active in sports and other School activities. Although there were no outstanding members, our Class was well represented in the Orchestra, Girls' Club, and other School organizations. With the exception of Basketball, every sport was played with at least one Junior on the first Team. The success of the first teams in all sports was largely due to the hard work of the fighting second teams which consisted chiefly of Juniors. In view of the fact that we had fewer members in our Class than either the Middlers or Seniors, we were also well represented on the Honor Roll.

As a triumphant finale to our Junior year, we presented our Class Play, Mother Carey's Chickens. The parts were well taken and won approval even from our most severe critics, the Middlers and Seniors.

Our Middler year started with the election of Norman Thomas as President; John Milmore, Vice President; George Wallis, Treasurer; Dorothy Descheneaux, Secretary; Joseph White, Dorothy Durbin and Alicia Kelleher, Executive Committee. Early in the School year we thought we were about to be shipwrecked when Norman regretfully left us, but John Milmore took the helm and has proved to be a most skillful pilot.

Last Fall the Middlers were very much in evidence on All School Night, in the casts of the plays, and on the various committees.

Again this year the Middlers have made a great showing in sports, especially in Football, where they composed more than half of the first Team. The girls of the Class made a name for themselves in the Exhibition given by the Gymnasium Classes under the direction of Miss Biggane.

The Honor Roll has been decorated by many Middler names, and Mary Schwendeman and Ernest Steele have won distinction by making the Super Honor Roll.

The big event this year was the Class play Believe Me Xanthippe. The part of "Dolly Kamman," the leading lady, was taken by Helen Graham, while Ralph Smith took the part of "George MacFarland," the leading man. The parts of "Thornton Brown" and "Arthur Sole," friends of MacFarland, were taken respectively by George Wallis and Gilbert Thurlow. The humor of the play was supplied by Elizabeth Nicholson, "Dolly's aunt," and Raymond Koch, "a jailor." The other parts were acted by Miriam Shipton, "a street girl"; Ernest Steele, "Dolly's father"; and Albert Nelson, "a desperado."

The Class of '28 has gone and will go its determined way. We hope that next year we shall be able to smash all records, and that, in years to come, some praise of the Class of '28 will re-echo throughout the corridors of dear old Watertown High.

We feel that much of our success has been due to Miss Sweet, our Class Adviser, who has so loyally guided us through these two years.

We, the Class of '28, wish you, the Class of '27, the best of success in everything you may undertake. We shall endeavor to prove ourselves as indispensable as you have proven yourselves and to carry on the good work which you have begun.

Class History

Our Class has certainly started its career in High School very auspiciously. We entered in the Fall with much energy and enthusiasm, determined to get the most out of the three years, and to prove ourselves to be the hardest-working and the most helpful Class in School.

We thought we should never forget those first few days when we wandered hopelessly through the corridors, trying to remember whether to turn to the right or to the left. Nevertheless, when the Girls’ Club appealed to us early in the Spring for suggestions for a Junior Handbook, we had become so at home in the School that we found it hard to think of any difficulties that newcomers could possibly have!

Although the Class has not accomplished a great deal as a body, many of the individual members have already made a name for themselves in the history of the School.

Of course we held our Class elections in a very dignified and grave manner. The result of the voting was as follows: Tom Blake, President; Marjorie Vahey, Vice President; Florence Catton, Secretary; Norman Erlandson, Treasurer; and Barbara Hall, Logan Field, and Eleanor Oliver, Executive Committee.

Early in the year, we ordered the Class rings and pins, which we now proudly wear, thanks to Mr. Hamer, our Class Adviser, who greatly assisted us in this matter.

One of the first and most important social events of the year was the “Get-Together” Party which the Girls’ Club gave to the Junior girls. It was a great success, and from that day on, the Seniors have no longer been thought of as the haughty, distant people of fiction, but as the best of friends and helpers.

In December, Miss Harrison’s English Classes gave an afternoon program and tea to their parents and friends at which they exhibited original booklets on various phases of the life of fifty years ago—a project which had been inspired by the reading of The Rise of Silas Lapham. Although the tea was the first social affair which the Juniors had sponsored, much time and effort made it go off very successfully.

Many Junior girls participated in All School Night, and several Juniors also took part in the Library program for Assembly, arranged by Miss Morse.

We are all very proud of our scholastic record for the year. Alice Critchett and Charlotte Clapp have had their names on the Super Honor Roll all year, and in the third term Grace Peavey and Eileen Brown joined them. The Junior Honor Roll has been the largest of any in the School with a total number of twenty-eight students during the course of the year.

The Juniors have excelled in athletics as well as in studies and social affairs. Blanche Patterson, Marguerite Hastings, Hazel Streeter, and Ruth Ambrose made the first Team in Basketball, and Marguerite has been given the honor of having been elected Captain of next year’s Team. After the regular season of Basketball, the Girls' Inter-class Teams played, and the Juniors took the laurels from the upper-classmen, for they won the championship of the School. Herbert Berry, Tom Blake, George Renaccio, and Logan Field won their letters in Football; Logan Field, Tom Blake, and Charles Collins received letters in Hockey; and Warner Andrews, John Mantenuto, and William Garland, won their Second Team letters in Basketball. Several other Juniors have gone out for other sports this Spring.

Apparently the Juniors are very versatile. Several members of the Orchestra are proud to be called Juniors, and Barbara Hall gained much credit for herself and the Class with her delightful playing at the Annual Concert.

Alice Critchett and Eileen Brown have been School reporters for the local papers—positions quite unusual for Juniors to hold.

The Junior girls quickly became affiliated with the Girls' Club and the honor of the office of Second Vice President was bestowed upon Elizabeth Read. Eileen Brown is a member of the Girls' Club Orchestra, which has played for several affairs at School, and Elizabeth Read and Barbara Conti are in the Girls' Club Quintet.

We feel that much of our success during the year has been due to the assistance and friendliness of our teachers and the upper-classmen. We are greatly indebted to them for this wonderful first year.

To the members of the Senior Class we wish to extend our heartiest good wishes. They seem a part of the School, and we think of their departure with much regret and a keen appreciation of our loss. We, the Class of 1929, shall feel that we have reason to be proud if we, when Seniors, have made ourselves as indispensable to the School, and have accomplished as much, as have the Class of 1927.

Athletics
Tennis

A Tennis League composed of Watertown, Winchester, Winthrop, Melrose, and Lexington was formed during the past Winter. Watertown High has the honor of having been instrumental in the formation of this League, which is the first of its kind to have been organized east of the Mississippi.

Last year the Tennis Team had a very successful season, winning ten matches and losing only three. This year the Team expects to do even better, and hopes that the cup awarded by the Suburban Tennis League will remain here at the close of the season.

The Team is in a plight similar to that of the Golf Team in that each player has to pay a fee at the Winsor Club for the privilege of playing. This has kept some away who otherwise would have tried for the Team.

The letter men left from last year are Captain Perkins, Manager Spalding, Boutelle, Johnson, and Coolidge.

League matches have been played with the Winthrop and Melrose Tennis Teams. The former match resulted in a Watertown win, 5-0, while in the latter Watertown was barely outpointed by Melrose, 3-2.

Contracts for matches with Lowell, Belmont and Cambridge Latin have not as yet been completed, but the remaining League matches are as follows: Winthrop at Watertown, May 13; Lexington at Lexington, May 17; Winchester at Winchester, May 20; Lexington at Watertown, May 27; Winchester at Watertown, June 3; Melrose at Melrose, June 7.

Golf

Golf is a minor sport with us, but it shows every evidence of becoming quite prominent. Last year's Team was victor in all of the five matches in which it played. The Team has always been handicapped by the lack of a home course on which to stage return matches with rival Teams. Owing to this situation, it has been exceedingly difficult to schedule matches with the teams of other schools. However, much praise must be given to the boys because, in spite of this obstacle, they have always managed to make a good record.

No captain has as yet been elected. The boys intend to go through the first three games without any; then, after having discovered one another's merits, they will hold an election, the veterans of last year's Team voting. This year's Team consists of practically the same players as last year's in that Captain Breed was the only man lost to it through Graduation. The veterans are McGrady, Keirce, Egan, Swanson, and Ingham. Three new men are expected to add materially to the Team. These are Reiman, H. S. Ross, and Honeth.

In the opening match the Team lost to Newton 4-3, while in their second attempt they defeated Beverly 3-2. In these first two matches the boys displayed a type of Golf that is sure to procure many victories for them. The schedule from now on is as follows: Lowell, May 13; Lexington, May 16; Thayer Academy, May 23; St. John's High, June 18.

Baseball

The Baseball Team started the season of 1927 on April 19. Although Framingham won, 8-3, the game showed the Coach the weak points of the Team. The Team had hardly regained its feet before it lost to Belmont 10-0. This was discouraging, but under the able supervision of Coach MacDonald the Team improved so rapidly that Wakefield was held to three runs while Watertown scored one.

The game with Winchester was a victory, 8-3. Our Team scored six runs in the second inning with only two hits.

In the third inning of the Arlington game Mantenuto and “Gigi” scored. In the fourth and fifth innings Arlington scored four runs. However, Watertown came back in the sixth with two more runs, tying the score with two outs, in the last half of the ninth, “Fat” doubled, and Fred Kinchla came across with another double, making the final score: Watertown 5, Arlington 4.

In the Melrose game Watertown was leading 11-4 at the end of the seventh, but the Melrose Team surprised everybody by bringing in seven runs and tying the score. In the eleventh each Team scored one run. Then, after Melrose had been retired in the twelfth, with only one out and the bases full, John Gleason hit to right field, bringing in the winning run: Watertown 13, Melrose 12.

That put our Team first in the League.

Since half of the Team are Juniors, we are assured of good work next year.

Track

Although aspirants for the Track Team have been out practising for the past six weeks, only one match has as yet been staged. Six veterans are left from last year's Team. These are Captain Egan and Dyer, mile and half-mile; Ford, dashes; Kaveny, high and broad jump; White, shotput; and Wickes, dashes.

At the first call for candidates for the Track Team, forty-five men reported to Coach Smith. From these Mr. Smith expects to develop a first-class Team. The newcomers who have been weeded out as especially promising are Blake and Johnson in the dashes; McBride in the broad jump, Hammill and Kerr in the 440, Field in the dashes and mile, Freehill in the 880, Emery in the shotput, and Freehill and Kelly in the mile. An unofficial meet was held with the Alumni at the Y. M. C. A. and, although the Alumni were victors, the High School Team showed up exceedingly well.

The season was opened by defeating Belmont at the Belmont Field 39-38. This meet was disputed by Belmont as being their victory. However, the meet was unanimously awarded Watertown by the Boston sport writers.

In the first two meets, Captain Egan and Dyer showed that they still have the same winning strides which they had last year when they were always among the first three winners in every race in which they entered. Many victories are assured the Team if they keep up the good work.

A tentative schedule has been made up as follows: Melrose, May 11; Harvard, (meet) May 14; Rindge, May 18; Cambridge High and Latin, May 20; Brown, (meet) May 30; Salem, June 6.

Girls' Basketball

Although there has been no League to encourage Girls' Basketball this year, the interest in this sport has been unusually keen, as was shown by the way the girls turned out for practice. Throughout the season the brilliant tactics of the players gave ample testimony of the thorough coaching which they had had under Miss Biggane.

An innovation which proved to be very popular this year was the organization of School League Teams, composed of the girls who did not make the Varsity. These League Teams played against each other, thus keeping in practice those who might make good Varsity material for another year. This plan has been so successful that we hope it may be continued.

The following games were played with outside teams: Lexington at Lexington, Reading at Reading, Norwood at Watertown, Newton at Watertown, and Arlington at Watertown. Of these five games, our Team won three and lost two.

Alice Fitzgerald, the Captain of the Varsity Team, displayed able generalship throughout the season and, like the efficient Manager, Ruth Leacy, played in every game. The Team was composed mainly of Seniors and Juniors, only one Middler representing her Class. Marguerite Hastings received the unusual honor of being elected Captain for next year. Mary Gardner was elected Manager.

As a whole, we feel that the Basketball Team of 1927 was a great success.

Marie Hermansen
Boys’ Basketball

Basketball prospects at the beginning of the year seemed exceedingly bright. With a veteran Team back, a fine record was expected. However, things seemed to go all wrong. Games were lost, although often by the narrow margin of only one point. The passwork of our Team equaled, if it did not surpass, the passing of any other team which it encountered during the season, but some unlucky fate seemed to cling to us. Shots that ordinarily would have netted two points rolled off the rim.

However, by this it should not be thought that the Team had an extraordinarily poor year, for this was not so. It might just as well have won all of its games had only four more points been scored in each one. Credit for the successes of the Team is due chiefly to the efforts of Captain Donnelly, Mosher, and White. Starting with a series of three losses, the Team came back to win one of the objective games of the year—Chelsea. Other victories were scored against Gloucester, Everett, Framingham, Winthrop, and Belmont, the Watertown Quintet defeating the last three teams twice.

Next year’s Team bids not only to be the equal of that of the past season, but also to be able to overcome the tenacious bad luck which for the past two years has kept the Teams from the Championship.

David Perkins
Girls' Hockey

Under the direction of our new Coach, Miss Biggane, Field Hockey as a School sport for girls was revived this year.

The call for volunteers brought forth a Squad of thirty, who reported daily for practice. However, owing to the late start, only one game was played. That was with the Waltham High School on their field. Although our girls fought hard throughout, they were unable to overcome the early lead of the more experienced opponents, and suffered defeat by a small margin.

The following girls made the trip to Waltham and, as a result of their participation in the game, received the minor "W": Captain Ruth Leacy, Marion Everett, Araxi Anjoorian, Madeline Browne, Laura Perry, Virginia Fitzgerald, Ruth Hawes, Marjorie Vahey, Hazel Streeter, Marguerite Hastings, Mary Schwendeman, Manager-elect, and Dorothy Robertson, Captain-elect.

Before the Waltham game, Class Teams had been organized, and in a closely contested game, the Seniors defeated the Juniors, winning the School championship.

Next year the girls will have a new Hockey field at the rear of the building which will be more convenient for practice. In 1927, under the leadership of Captain Robertson, they hope to have a Team which will be able to compete successfully with any team in the vicinity.

Boys' Hockey

The Hockey Team with but two veterans left from the preceding season made a very creditable showing—for three victories, two defeats, and one scoreless tie is not a record to be sneezed at. Captain Emery was the big scoring ace of the Team, while McNabb, the other veteran, was a tower of strength on defense, allowing only five goals to slip by him throughout the season.

In past years the Team has been poorly outfitted, but this year found the sextet with practically complete equipment. Much credit is due Coach Corcoran who worked untiringly in the interest of his boys. He spent almost every afternoon coaching them at the rink, and was also largely responsible for their new equipment.

Waltham was the only school to administer defeat to our Hockey Team. They accomplished this twice, winning both games by the score of 2 to 1; Browne & Nichols was defeated 2 to 0; Brighton was allowed to escape with a scoreless tie, the darkness preventing a continuation of the game after two overtime periods had been played; Needham was conquered 5 to 1; and Newton finally yielded 3 to 1.

The members of the Team were Captain Emery, J. White, Field, McNabb, Hicks, Collins, Blake, Harrington, and Marcus. As a reward for his versatility, Joseph White was elected Captain of next year's Sextet.

David Perkins
Football

Football has always had the distinction of being the game of all games at this School. The Team this year, although not the champion of the League, was as strong as any other against which it played. With but four days' practice the Team opened its season.

The first two games were lost to Waltham and Malden. The Jamaica Plain Team, previously assured an easy victory, was lucky to leave the field with a scoreless tie. Bad luck came to us again, and we lost the next two games to Framingham and Melrose. At length, our eleven offered two straight victories to its faithful "rooters," defeating Wakefield 21 to 0, and Woburn 7 to 0. It was in the Arlington game that Bernard White made the first real long run of the season. In this game, also, Captain Mosher received a serious injury to his back which greatly impaired the playing of the Team. The Winchester game resulted in another victory for our Team.

Then came the famous Belmont-Watertown game on Thanksgiving Day. McNabb proved to be the real hero in this game, carrying the ball seventy yards for our sole touchdown, and making one of the finest open field runs of the season. However, Belmont finally emerged as victor with a score of 7 to 6.

With this game, the season closed. We had not a champion Team, but one which had done its best in the face of all adversities and obstacles.

Honors
Honor Roll

The Honor Roll is the recognition of good scholarship. Those who are included in its lists should be congratulated for their effort. The requirements of the Honor Roll are of such high standard that no one can meet them without earnestly trying. To gain this distinction, one's marks must all be A's and B's, with a minimum of two A's in prepared subjects, or one in a prepared subject and two in unprepared.

The Super Honor Roll is the recognition of unusually fine scholastic attainment. It requires grades which approach perfection; they must all be A's.

Following is a list of those in the different Classes who have met these requirements this year for one or more of the three terms as indicated.

Commercial Awards

Under the careful instruction of Miss Semple, Miss Grosvenor, and Miss McNally, the Commercial students have progressed rapidly in Typewriting.

Each month the Remington, Royal, and Underwood Typewriting Companies send speed tests to the School. Those who make the required grades get rewards for their efforts. For 25 to 40 words per minute, the Remington gives a certificate; for 40 to 50 words, a silver pin. The Royal requires 30 to 45 words per minute for a certificate and 40 to 50 words for a gold pin. The Underwood requirements are 30 to 40 words for a certificate and 40 to 50 words for a bronze pin. In each case not more than five errors are allowed.

During their High School course many of the students have achieved a few of these honors on each of the three machines.

On the Remington, the following have received silver pins: Araxi Anjoorian, Madeline Browne, Edna Casey, Viola Connolly, Isabella Evans, Alma Grandin, Marie Hermansen, Gladys Jacobson, and Rae Sheer.

To the teachers who have so patiently trained them, the Commercial students wish to express sincere appreciation.

Cum Laude

The Cum Laude Society was founded in 1906 at the Tome School, Port Deposit, Maryland. Its purpose is the encouragement of high ideals of work among the pupils in the College Preparatory courses of Secondary Schools. It corresponds somewhat to the Phi Beta Kappa Society of College in that it admits to its membership only those who have shown exceptionally high scholastic attainment and good character.

The granting of a charter for the establishment of the Chapter at Watertown High School, on June 14, 1921, was considered a great honor, for only Secondary Schools of exceptionally high standards are allowed this privilege.

The Society was originally known as the Alpha Delta Tau Fraternity. Very soon, however, the name was changed to the Cum Laude Society to avoid confusion with Greek letter fraternities of an entirely different character. At first, only boys were admitted to membership, but the constitution was later amended to include girls.

The Society is governed by a National Board to which our Principal, Mr. Whitehill, was elected at a General Convention in 1923.

The following student members were elected from the Class of 1927:

- Robert R. French
- Helen G. Gale
- Sylvester Loring
- Geneva M. McWhirter
- M. Evelyn Minick
- Roland C. Moore
- Miriam A. Rix
- Charles W. Schroeder
- John Spalding
- Martha E. Weed

Activities
Orchestra

In 1919 Miss Bisbee organized the first Watertown High School Orchestra with twelve members. In the Fall of 1926 when she gathered the players together, there was a membership of fifty with ten different kinds of instruments. The increase in number is not the only advance which has been made in the eight years of organization, however, for the playing has been steadily improving. It has been said that during the past year the Orchestra has made more progress than at any other time.

Early in the year the Orchestra was invited to play at the Coolidge Theatre and readily accepted the invitation. It also gave a short program at a meeting of the Watertown Women's Club.

The Eighth Annual Concert was presented on March 25 in the High School Auditorium, the second concert to be given in the new building. The numbers on the Program were varied and were very enthusiastically received by the audience. Great credit is due Miss Bisbee for her splendid training of the Orchestra.

The officers for the past year were Victor Mitchell, Concert Master; John Smith, Assistant Concert Master; William Boutelle, Business Manager; Madeline Browne, Secretary; and Marion Pritchard, Librarian.

Although we regret the loss, through Graduation, of some of our most dependable members, we feel sure that the Orchestra will continue to make steady improvement.

Eileen Brown
Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club is an organization of High School boys in the United States and Canada under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the School and Community high standards of Christian character. The Watertown Hi-Y Club consists of thirty-eight members of the School who try to live up to the standards of the Club.

One of the major activities of the Club this year was A Night of International Friendship. This was a reproduction of the ceremony held by fourteen countries at Helsingfors, Sweden, in an attempt to bring about friendship between them. Later, a dance was held in the High School gymnasium to which all the Hi-Y Clubs in the vicinity of greater Boston were invited.

The Watertown Hi-Y Club has the interest of the School at heart, and, although it has been organized only two years, it has done extensive work both in and out of School. The first officers of the local organization were Howard Stoney, President; Herbert Garratt, Vice President; and John Spalding, Secretary-Treasurer. This year they have been as follows: Roger Emery, President; William Boutelle, Vice President; John Spalding, Secretary; and Edwin Wickes, Treasurer. The Club holds its meetings at the Newton Y. M. C. A., where talks are given and discussions held.

The Hi-Y movement has spread over the country until there are now about 2,100 clubs with a total membership of 70,000.

Roger Emery
Girls' Club

The Girls’ Club was founded last year under the direction of Miss Harrison, by a group of girls who thought that if the girls of the School were organized, much more could be accomplished. The objectives of the Club are friendship, service, and worthwhile activity.

Among the All-Club activities of the year, the most outstanding have been the “Get-Acquainted” Party, the Costume Party, the Christmas Program, and “Guest Night.” In addition to the All-Club affairs, the various Committees have carried on their individual activities throughout the year and have accomplished much for the School, the Community, and the girls themselves.

The officers serving this year are as follows: President, Ruth Nagle; 1st Vice President, Mary Schwendeman; 2nd Vice President, Elizabeth Read; Secretary, Stella McEnaney; Treasurer, Isabella Evans.

The Executive Board is composed of the Officers and the Chairmen of the Volunteer Committees. These are as follows: Outdoor, Laura Perry; School Service, Madeline Browne; Arts and Crafts, Alice Pratt; Library, Ruth Barker; Music, Marie Hermansen; Friendship, Annie Goss; Community Service, Irene Perry; Entertainment, Mary Vahey; Hospitality, Catherine Beach. Catherine Beach has also served most faithfully as Club Custodian.

It is the sincere wish of the outgoing members that the work of the Club be faithfully carried on. May the Watertown Girls’ Club continue to be as great a factor in the School life of the girls as it has been during the past year.

Ruth Nagle
Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club started the year with the election of officers chosen from those remaining from last year’s group. These were Alice Pratt, President; Ruth Nagle, Vice President; and Mary Vahey, Secretary-Treasurer. Later, with the addition of new members, the number was increased to about twenty. Meetings were held as regularly as possible.

Two one-act plays were put on very successfully on All School Night under the able direction of Mr. Woodwell, the Club Adviser. Lillian Reifenstein, George Greene, Mary Vahey, Ruth Vahey, and Joseph Bradley took part in The Trysting Place. The cast of The Locked Chest included Robert Marcus, Francis Donnelly, Howard Johnson, Alice Pratt, Roger Emery, Richard Plunkett, Arthur Long, and Irving McNabb. All those who took part in the plays, but who were not actual members of the Club, were eligible to join if they cared to do so. The members of the committees filled their positions very competently.

Another play, A Day With the Hoja, of particular interest because written by one of our school-mates, Arthur Dadaian, is soon to be presented in Assembly.

The work of the Club has been intensive rather than extensive, and all those who have belonged to it feel that they have laid a firm foundation for a permanent organization in the School.

Alice Pratt
Library Service Club

The Library Service Club was started about the middle of the year with the following members: Ruth Barker, Chairman, Roger Emery, Wilson Cazmay, Allan Stevenson, Virginia Fitzgerald, Eileen Brown, Conceitina Grillo, Tom Blake and Ralph Nelson. Its purpose was to support, advise, and help carry on Library activities.

The Club helped to plan and stage the Library Assembly program. After consulting teachers about classroom needs, the Club decided to spend the Class of 1918 $10 gift for historical novels. When the current magazines appear, the best articles are listed and either the list is posted on the bulletin board, or the magazine is sent to the teacher who would be interested.

This Spring the Club was enlarged to include those who had given several hours each week in aiding the Library in making the file and looking after the regular routine. This group included Sylvia Reichenbach, Louise Alcott, Shirley Fairweather, Leronu Helms, Katherine MacNutt, and Hazel Streeter.

The making of our daily bulletin in the Library has become established, and credit is due to those who have clipped the papers and posted the news items on the bulletin board. This group of workers includes Harriet Pillsbury, Anna Gough, Jack Young, Ralph Burnham, Robert Whittier, Joel Stevens, and Norman Erlandson, all of whom have joined our Library Service Club.
Cercle Français

If you peep into Room 204 every other Tuesday afternoon you will see a meeting of Le Cercle Français. This Cercle was started in January under the able direction of Miss Hamilton. It consists of seven girls chosen from the third-year college French classes: namely, Evelyn Minick, Martha Weed, Miriam Rix, Marion Peavey, Esther Burgess, Helen Gale, and Shirley Fairweather.

In the meetings, the members strive to speak only French. They are reading and very much enjoying On ne badine pas avec l'amour by Alfred de Musset, and discuss in French the play and its characters. One week Miss Hamilton surprised them with two French card games. Patient endeavor to understand the rules of the game, which, of course, were written in French, brought forth much animated conversation. Interesting views of France brought into the meetings have also furnished subjects for discussion. Le Cercle welcomes any additions to its programs which will provide amusement and hold the interest of the members, while fixing in their minds a greater range of vocabulary and a greater ease in speaking.

Unfortunately, the time element has been lacking to this busy Cercle of 1927. They are leaving to the new group which will compose the Cercle Français next year, all opportunities for advancement, and, in closing their short but pleasant venture, they wish to one and all "Un bon voyage."

Shirley Fairweather
Camera Club

The Camera Club, one of our newest activities, was organized this year under the direction of Miss Thayer to encourage interest in Photography. Through this Club, many of the members have learned much about the work which they otherwise would not have known. Demonstrations of new methods and processes by members of the Club have been very helpful to beginners.

The Club started with ten members, but soon several more joined. At the first meeting Albert Rodd was elected President, and Charles Dolan, Secretary-Treasurer. In the second elections of the Club, which took place in February, Albert Rodd was re-elected President; Omar Somers was elected Treasurer; and Herbert Wilcox was elected Secretary.

Beside making itself generally useful by doing photographic work about the School and for the Annual, the Club contributed to the social activities of the School, sponsoring a lecture given on the evening of October 27 with Mr. Smith of the Boston Camera Club as speaker. His subject was "The Important Points in Amateur Photography." After his talk, he answered questions concerning the different phases of Photography, helping the members with his advice.

It is hoped that the members of the two lower Classes will keep up the good work next year and will interest others in the Club.

Charles Dolan
Household Arts Club

One of the newest of the School organizations is the Household Arts Club, which was formed by the members of the Department last March.

The purpose of the Club is to undertake outside of School hours many interesting projects which are prevented by lack of time during School hours.

The Club is to be both instructive and recreational. The members plan to take field trips to factories and other places of interest which will give them an idea of the growth and manufacture of many food and textile products. Some of the time in Club meetings will be spent planning and furnishing the suite of rooms. The stenciling of curtains and covers is to be done in the Art Department, while the sewing will be accomplished in Club time. A pleasure trip to Manchester-by-the-Sea is now being planned with great enthusiasm.

With the assistance of Miss Graves and Miss Randall, the girls hope to make this one of the outstanding Clubs of the School, and trust that the interest here created in the Arts of the Household will be of everlasting value to the members.

The officers of the Club are as follows: President, Helen Hauck; Vice President, Catherine Beach; Secretary, Margaret Holland; Treasurer, Irene Johnson. The Program Committee consists of Agnes Barnard (Chairman), Ruth Barker, Evangeline Foote, Mary Holland, and Mary Morrell.
