THE ANNUAL VOLUME V

A Memory Book
of
The Class of 1931

WATERTOWN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
Watertown, Massachusetts

JUNE, 1931
When Time who steals our years away
Shall steal our pleasures too,
The memory of the past will stay
And half our joys renew.
To Miss Byron

As time wears on, and our high-school days come to a close,
We pause and think of all those whose friendship we have made.
And now before we turn to new interests the future has for us,
We wish to pay tribute to our true and loving friend, Miss Byron.
From deep in our hearts, to you we give our sincere gratitude
For your helpful hints and ever-present willingness
To help us in our tasks, and to guide us, inexperienced, to clearer understanding
Of what really fine companions our teachers always are.
In the shrine of Memory we will have and ever cherish
Glad recollections of the dear days spent with you.

—Demeter Kollias.
The Annual Staff wishes to express its appreciation to Miss Jacobs for her cooperation and invaluable aid in compiling this year-book.
To the teaching staff of Watertown High School, whose sympathetic interest and understanding have guided us through the past three years, we, the Class of 1931, dedicate this memory book.

DOROTHY ALEXANDER

Who was that vivacious person who always wore a smile? Why, that was "Dot Alex." Her bubbling personality has made her popular with every member of the class. Dot was the able treasurer of our class in the middler year. As a senior, Dot was the secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club, and wrote those interesting reports of her club in the "Bulletin." Dot has decided to enter the Pierce Secretarial School. It will not be hard to predict success for her.

HENRY ANDROSKI

Henry is a member of the commercial department. He sang in the Glee Club and played in the orchestra for both the middler and senior plays. Playing football, he won his letter. Henry intends to work next year. Best of luck, Henry!

ELIZABETH ARONE

Elizabeth is one of our care-free members. She was a member of the Household Arts Club. It is not surprising to hear that "Betty" has decided on a career of physical education, as her chief interest, while in school, was athletics. Best of luck, Elizabeth!

HIGUHY ASSARIAN

Higuhy is one of the kindest and sweetest girls in our school and to know her is to love her. During her three years here, her name has appeared on the honor roll quite frequently. Higuhy has been a member of the Art Club. She is undecided as to what she will do next year, but we know that wherever she goes she will make a host of friends.

ALICE BELBEN

What a capable, jolly girl Alice is when you really know her! She has worked in the office. Her three years' training in the commercial course has led her to choose business as her future work.
ROBERT BELDING

"Bob" has been with us ever since grammar school "daze," and is known to all of us. In his senior year, he has been a member of the Dramatic Club, and a locker monitor. Bob plans to enter some college next year.

ELSA BLAZO

"Hip! Hip! Now put pep into this cheer!" Elsa has shown that she has lots of school spirit by being cheer leader. She took part in the senior play. Elsa was a very active member in the Library Club, being vice-president in '30 and secretary in '31, besides being a member of the Quid Nunc Society. She received a letter and class numerals in hockey. Good luck at Simmons, Elsa!

IDA BOGGIA

Ida is another one of our quiet girls. She has taken the courses in the Household Arts department. She was a member of the Household Arts Club in her middler year and a member of the Type Club in her senior year. Ida wants to be a nurse and we all know she will be a good one.

MARY BONANNO

Mary is one of our good-natured girls. Her work during high school has been in the commercial department, where she has worked hard in preparation for a position in business after graduation.

HAIG BOJICANIAN

Haig has musical ability, which he has displayed as a member of the High School Band and Orchestra. He is also a member of the soccer team. Haig does not know where he is going after graduation, but he is on his way!
ZA VEN BOYAJIAN

Zaven has made a name for himself as a member of the Aero Club. He plans to continue his study of aeronautics at M. I. T.

ROBERT BOYD

“Bob,” in his three years in Watertown High School, has done excellent work in the commercial course. Next year, Bobby plans to attend Bryant and Stratton. Best of luck to you, Bob!

MYLES BOYLAN

Myles our capable business manager is one of the best musicians in the class as well as a fine athlete. He is a member of the football and basketball teams, and a member of the Glee Club. As concert master of the Orchestra he was chosen to become a member of the Eastern Conference Orchestra in Syracuse. Myles intends to enter Massachusetts Agricultural College.

ALICE BROADHURST

If you know Alice, you know one of the finest of girls. She combined athletic and scholastic interests and received honors in both. She received a basketball letter in her middler year and was captain of a victorious team in her senior year. She was elected to the Cum Laude Society. Alice plans to go to Radcliffe. We have the greatest of faith in you, Alice!

DOROTHY BROWN

“Dot” is another of our steady and constant workers. For the past three years she has been taking the commercial course in preparation for her future work. She has worked in the office. We are sure that Dot will be successful in whatever work she undertakes.
DONALD BUCHANAN

Donald came to us from Wisconsin during our last year, and, in the short time that he has been with us, he has made many friends. Donald plans to enter Northeastern next year.

DONALD BUDDINGTON

Donald is one of those quiet fellows who say little and do more than their share. He was a member of the Yacht Club and the track squad. In his senior year he did locker and cafeteria duty. Next year Donald will enter Wentworth Institute.

MURIEL BURNHAM

Muriel has been a jovial member of our class. When she was a Junior she was a member of the basketball squad and received an athletic letter. Muriel will probably enter the business world next year. We know you will be very successful, Muriel!

ROSINA BUSCONI

Rosina is a jolly and well-liked girl who has been a member of the commercial department.

EARL BUTLER

Earl came to us from Newton High. He has done good work as circulation manager of the Annual. Earl plans to enter some school or college next year.
ELsie CHAPMAN

Elsie is a rather quiet member of our class, but those who know Elsie find that she is a wonderful pal. She was a member of the Household Arts Club and served as corresponding secretary in her middler year and as president in her senior year. Elsie is undecided as to what she will do next year. Perhaps she will enter business.

JAMES CHASE

Flaming youth! "Jimmy’s" red head is often a bright spot in an otherwise dreary day. Jimmy also wears that habitual grin peculiar to possessors of red hair. After graduating, he will attend some preparatory school.

BONNIE-JEAN CLELLAND

Surely Bonnie needs no introduction. Who is there who doesn’t know that tall, dark, and very good-looking girl who is a most active member of our class? For three years she has been a member of the Dramatic Club and took part in its play of 1930. Bonnie has done both cafeteria and locker duty. As a veteran member of our Orchestra, she was chosen to go to Syracuse, New York, as a member of the Eastern Conference Orchestra made up of students from the Eastern States. Furthermore, she was there elected the leader of the 'cello section. Next year she will enter some college. It is not hard to predict success for Bonnie. Bonnie, we are proud of you!

HELEN COMEAU

Helen came to us this year from Wakefield High and enrolled in the Household Arts department, where she has been doing splendid work. She says she is going to cooking school next year. May success be yours, Helen!

BERNARD CONNOLLY

"Bernie" has drifted amiably and aimlessly through the years he has been at Watertown High. Bernard does not know what he will do after graduating from high school, but, whatever it is, we wish him luck.
JOSEPH CONNORS

"Joe" Connors is well-known to all of us as a member of the football team and the Glee Club. He has twice won his football letter and was one of those who helped to defeat Belmont two years ago.

RALPH CRAIG

Ralph came here from Dummer Academy and has made himself known to many of us through his connections with the Dramatic Club, the Emanon Club, and the Hi-Y. Next year Ralph plans to enter Dartmouth.

ELIZABETH CUNNIF

In Elizabeth we find a sweet, true friend, and fortunate are those who are especially well acquainted with her. She has been an active member of the Art Club, serving as its president this year. She has also worked in the office. Her plans for the future are unsettled, but we are sure she will continue doing her good work in whatever she undertakes.

SEBASTIAN CURCIO

Sebastian has made many friends in the three years that he has been in Watertown High. He was a member of the Band and Orchestra, as well as of the Emanon Club and the Hi-Y. "Sebby" won his track letter in his junior year, but unfortunately was prevented from running last year because of an injured back.

VARTAN DEDEKIAN

Vartan has shown himself to be a real worker as long as we have known him, and has that plucky persistence, which wins for those who have it a place in the sun. As a member of the soccer team, Vartan has won two letters. Next year Vartan is going to Tufts, and we wish him the best of luck.
ALFRED DIXON

"Al" Dixon, the president of our class, is well known to all of us. He has shown dramatic ability in several plays in which he has taken part. He is president of the Hi-Y and a member of the Band. Alfred intends to enter Bowdoin College next year.

JOHN DONOVAN

Besides his studies in the general course, John has been interested in the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club, of which he was president during his senior year. He was also chairman of the committee for the senior picnic. After graduation, John intends to study medicine.

BETTY DURELL

Betty Durell is that tall stunning girl whom everyone knows by her quiet voice and winning smile. Betty did locker duty two years. She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society of which she was elected secretary in her junior year. The following year she was secretary of the Glee Club. Betty was on the basketball squad in her junior and middler years, and those who saw her admired the agile jump-center we had. She took part in the senior play, "Disraeli." Betty is as yet undecided as to what college she will attend next year, but we know she will make as fine a showing as she did here.

FLORENCE DUVALL

Florence is a nice, quiet girl whom we all like. She has very faithfully and efficiently accomplished the work of the business course which has trained her for the stenographic work she intends to undertake next year. Our best wishes go with her.

EDYTHE EDGECOMB

Although we haven't heard much from Edythe in her three years at W. H. S., we know that a girl as cheerful as she is will help make the world brighter. She was a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club. Next year the Wheelock School will have a fine girl in its freshman class.
RICHARD EGAN

"Dick" Egan in his three years in Watertown High, has not yet acquired the habit of talking a great deal but has quietly gone about his business and made many friends. We wish him the best of luck in whatever he does for his future work.

ROBERT FARRELL

"Bob" is one of the best-liked members of his class. His cheery grin is death to all despondency, but behind that pleasant smile there is infinite determination to succeed. As a result, Robert intends to enter Purdue University next year.

JAMES FENCER

James is known to most of us because he has been a member of our football team. He has dramatic ability, which he demonstrated in the middler play of 1930. James plans to attend Bucksport Seminary after graduating from Watertown High.

ANITA FLANDERS

Anita came to us from Manter Hall Preparatory School in her middler year. She is a very jolly girl who sees the sunny side of everything. Anita belonged to the Quid Nunc Society and to the Glee Club. She was a member of the Annual staff. When Anita goes to Radcliffe she will make many friends, for everyone likes a happy disposition.

KENNETH FOOTE

Kenneth's face has given him good service, and his angelic countenance has won him freedom from many a scrape. "Ken" intends to enter Bryant and Stratton next year. We wish his instructors luck!
LORRAINE FRIEDSTADTER

Lorraine has studied very faithfully during her high school career. Lorraine was the only one in our Orchestra who played the viola and was one of the lucky ones to be chosen to represent W. H. S. in the Eastern Conference Orchestra in Syracuse. She was a member of the Household Arts Club in her junior year. Next year Lorraine plans to enter Boston University.

LORRAINE FROUNFELKER

Lorraine was one of the most reliable girls in our class. Everything she attempted was accomplished successfully and well. She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society and the Glee Club, and also served on locker duty. She was one of those who attained the greatest of all scholastic honors, membership in the Cum Laude Society. Lorraine plans to enter Wheelock School next year.

ANGELE GARABEDIAN

Of course we all know Angele. This dark-haired girl is always willing to help. She was a candy girl at All-School Night. Being a member of the Type Club, she has shown her ability by earning pins from all the typewriter companies. We wish Angele success in the business world next year.

KATHRYNE GATELY

"Kay" has been a popular member of the college division. Her chief interests were the Dramatic Club and the Orchestra. In connection with the former she took part in the All-School Night production. She was one of Miss Bisbee's most valuable pianists, playing for every entertainment for two years. Next year Kay will enter the Wheelock School.

ISABEL GAZARIAN

Here is a friend indeed who believes in the proverb, "Still waters run deep." Quietly she has gone about the business of making friends. She was a member of the Nature and Chamber of Commerce Clubs. Isabel has decided to work next year. Best of luck, Isabel.
LUCY GAZARIAN

Lucy is well known for her art work. With her fine posters, she has helped to advertise many of our school entertainments. She has been a faithful member of the Art Club and has received several honorable mentions for her drawings, one of them being second prize in the International Humane Poster Contest of the Latham Foundation. She intends to keep up her study of art at the Massachusetts School of Art next year.

ROGER GELLATLY

Roger needs no introduction, for his voice has long since won him recognition. In his senior year he was captain of the indoor track team and gained the title of “the Flying Scot” by his repeated successes in the hundred and the furlong. He was a member of the Glee and Hi-Y Clubs and had many friends in both. Roger does not know what he will do after graduation, but in whatever he decides upon, we hope good luck attends him.

CAROL GIBSON

Carol is a girl concerning whom one could write pages and pages. Everything she undertakes is a success! We have all read and enjoyed her plays, poems, and stories. One of her plays, “O These Englishmen,” was successfully put on by the Dramatic Club. She was an active member of the Quid Nunc Society, and was its president in her senior year. This last half-year, Carol was the editor-in-chief of the “Bulletin.” She plans to go to Radcliffe. All our best wishes go with you, Carol!

GRACE GILBERT

“Gilly,” who entered from Cambridge High and Latin, became a student of the general course and proved to be a fine classmate. She has been a member of the Quid Nunc Society and the Type Club. She plans to enter the Sargent School of Physical Education next fall. We all wish you success, Gilly!

GERALD GOLDEN

“Jer” is one of the finest fellows anyone could meet. His delightful personality has won him many friends in school and in the Hi-Y. His name is Golden, but he isn’t overwhelmingly silent, for, wherever he is, his ingenuous humor keeps everyone in gales of laughter. As advertising manager, he has done excellent work for the Annual. Next year electrical engineering at M. I. T. will occupy him. The best, Jerry!
GENEVIEVE GOUGH

"Gerry" has taken the Household Arts course. She seems to be a rather quiet girl but her friends find her full of fun and very lively. She has been a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club. Genevieve intends to go into training for a nurse.

DORIS GRADE

Words are inadequate to describe Doris! She is one of the most accomplished students in W. H. S. Doris took part in several dramatic productions: She was Queen of 1730 in the Tercentenary Pageant, the broadminded mother in All-School Night, and leading lady of the senior play, "Disraeli." She was a member of both the Dramatic Club and the Quid Nunc Society. Doris was not only elected to Cum Laude, but she was given a scholarship membership in the Watertown Woman's Club. The "Bulletin" once spoke of Doris as "the blonde salesgirl of Room 207." Next year Doris will enter Bridgewater Normal School.

GRACE GRIFFIN

Grace entered W. H. S. in her senior year from a school in Wethersfield, Connecticut, and she immediately became one of us. She was a most charming duchess in the senior play, "Disraeli." Next year Grace intends to enter Rosemont College for Girls.

FRANCES GUIDREY

A most erudite and charming Senior has been Frances Guidrey. Her travel tales and stories told in English class have held their hearers enthralled. The "Bulletin" staff and the publicity committee of the senior play have profited by her enthusiastic cooperation. She was prominent in both athletic and scholastic activities, winning her tennis letter and being elected to the Cum Laude Society. We think that the school which she may choose for her further education will find in her the ideal girl.

LUCY HAGOPIAN

Lucy has been the acme of intense eagerness in the pursuit of her studies! The other college course students have felt halting and ill-prepared beside her. She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society and was elected to the Cum Laude Society. Framingham Normal School is sure to find in her the making of a most efficient teacher.
WALTER HANSEN

Walter came to Watertown from Cambridge High and Latin School. Though he has not been with us long, he has made many friends. After graduating, Walter intends to enter Burdett Business College.

CORTLAND HARLOW

Cortland’s power over the fair sex has been a source of envy to many of the masculine element of the school. He has decided to forego heartbreaking for dentistry, however, and will enter Tuft’s Dental College in the fall.

DOROTHY HARLOW

Here is one member of our class who evidently believes in the maxim, “Silence is golden.” Dorothy was a member of the Household Arts Club, and also interested in tennis. Next fall she will attend Wilfred Academy.

LEONA HAYWARD

Leona is one of our pleasantest girls. She has spent most of her time on her work and is a very faithful student, making the honor roll many times. She has been a member of the Type Club. She plans to become a stenographer after graduation.

JOHN HEALY

John has been a popular member of the industrial department, his chief interests outside of studies being the Glee Club and baseball, in which sport he won a second-team letter. Next year John will study radio at a nautical school.
PHOEBE HELMS
Phoebe was a quiet member of the class but made up for that by singing in the Glee Club for three years. She was a member of the chorus which sang in the Tercentenary Pageant. Next year Phoebe will enter The Wheelock Kindergarten School.

ROYDEN HELSING
Royden’s work has been in the general department. He has also done locker duty. “Roy's” interests are varied—at present aviation, cartooning, and newspaper work. We are sure he will make good in whatever line he adopts.

AGNES HERMANSEN
No one could wish for a more cheerful or loyal companion. When a Middler, Agnes took part in the All-School Night entertainment. This year she was one of those beautiful statues which adorned the court in the senior play, “Disraeli.” Agnes has been a member of the Glee Club for three years, and, when a Junior, was on the basketball squad. She was the smiling blonde who was seen behind the counter in the cafeteria and on locker duty in the corridors. Her charming personality will surely aid her when she becomes a nurse.

ANNIE HESSION
Another “silent partner” is our Annie. She has been a loyal worker in the Household Arts department. She has been a member of the Household Arts Club. She plans to take up the career of nursing next year.

DOROTHY HODGKINS
“Dot” is a vivacious person whose cheerfulness has won her many friends. During her three years she has been a member of the commercial department. She is a fine worker and a most willing helper. Next year Dot plans to enter art school.
WILLIAM HOLMES

"Holmsey" is well-known to all of us because of his activities in the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Hi-Y, and the Emanon Club. He has also been a member of the hockey team and the football squad.

DORIS HOWARD

Doris has been one of the bright students of the college division. She has been a member of the Dramatic Club and the Quid Nunc Society. Doris took part in our last All-School Night, and was one of the realistic statues in the senior play. She was also on the hockey and tennis teams in her senior year. Doris was one of the girls who very ably took charge of the locker rooms during the day. We know you will keep up that high scholastic record at Boston University, Doris.

ARLINE HOYT

Arlene is a girl whom everyone knows and loves. In her senior year, she was a member of the Quid Nunc Society and was assigned to locker duty. Arline was another lovely court lady in the senior play. Next year she plans to enter the Forsythe Dental School.

CRAIG HUNTTING

Craig was an active member of the Band and the Dramatic Club. His characterization of "Disraeli" in the senior play revealed his dramatic talents. Craig plans to go to Phillips Exeter Academy from W. H. S.

MILDRED HYLAND

"Millie" came to us last year from Haverhill High, and has made many friends in Watertown. Millie is always on hand when one needs cheering up. We know that her pleasantness will attract many friends in the business world.
HETTIE JACKMAN

Hettie always seems to be happy and jolly no matter what the circumstances. Hettie is another girl who has done locker duty. She has been a member of the Type Club. Her name has appeared on the honor roll. She plans to continue her business training at a secretarial school.

IDA JANKOWSKA

Ida came to us in her middler year from Medford High School. She has been a member of the Type Club. Maybe you have seen Ida working in the cafeteria office after school. She plans to enter Burdett College in the fall.

ALTHEA JOHNSON

Althea is a jolly, lovable girl. She blows away the blues with her always ready smile. She belonged to the Glee Club, Quid Nunc Society and the Orchestra. She was also on the tennis team, receiving her letter. Althea was one of the scholars to receive the highest of all scholastic honors, a membership in the Cum Laude Society. Good luck in college, Althea!

EDYTHE JOHNSON

Edythe has been an outstanding student in the college course, and has had many outside interests as well. She belonged to the Glee Club and, in her senior year, to the Quid Nunc Society. She won her letter on the senior class hockey team. During the last year she did locker duty. Next fall will find Edythe at the Wheelock Kindergarten School.

PEARL KASABIAN

Pearl is the quietest person we ever saw. Her motto is "What's the use of talking when there isn't anything to say?" Pearl has been a hard-working and earnest student in the commercial course, making the honor roll frequently. Her plans for the future are undecided.
MARY KAZARIAN

Mary is rather a quiet girl but we think a lot of her. She has been a member of the Type Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Mary plans to enter the business world and we wish her success in her work.

JOSEPH KEANY

"Joe" is another potential actor. He gave clever performances in both the middler and senior plays. He was a member of the Emanon Club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Next year he intends to attend Burdett College.

NORMAN KELLIHER

We all know Norman as the conscientious manager of the basketball team. He also sang in the Glee Club. After graduation, he plans to enter some branch of hotel work.

MARGUERITE KELLY

Marguerite is a girl who is always so willing and helpful when someone wants something done. She has served on several committees and has twice acted as chairman. In her senior year she did cafeteria service. She was a member of the Glee and the Dramatic Clubs. Marguerite is undecided about what school she will attend next year.

ANOOSH KERGIAN

Anoosh is well-liked by all of us and in his senior year has been a member of the Camera Club, the basketball team, tennis team and soccer team. The fact that Anoosh won first prize in the International Humane Poster Contest in the Latham Foundation gives evidence of his excellent art work. He plans to take up engraving as a vocation.
JACOB KERKBESHEIAN

Jacob is a conscientious worker, as is shown by his excellent performance in a difficult course. However, he found time to win his soccer letter. "Jake" will enter Massachusetts College of Pharmacy next year.

MAXINE KEWER

Maxine is one of our serious, steady workers but she has found time to take part in a few of our school activities. She has been a faithful member of the "Bulletin" staff for two years. She was one of our beautiful statues in the senior play. She has taken the commercial course during high school and has received an Underwood certificate and pin. She has also worked in the office. She plans to enter the business world as a stenographer after graduation.

CLARA KHAZAROSIAN

We shall always remember Clara as the possessor of that natural marcel which has been so admired. She has been a member of the Type Club, and has worked in the office. Her plans for the future are undecided but she hopes to go to Burdett College.

CAROLYN KIDDER

Carolyn came to us from Holden High School and has taken the Commercial Course. She took part in the senior play as a lovely lady of the court. She has also done locker duty. Carolyn intends to enter the Chandler Secretarial School. Good luck, Carolyn!

FRANKLIN LANE

"Mike" is an all-round athlete, having exhibited his ability on the football team, the basketball team, and the baseball team. He has cheerily performed office work during his senior year. Franklin intends to enter some preparatory school after leaving Watertown High.
BERNICE LEACY

During her three years of school, "Bunny" has proved to be a very loyal friend. She was a member of the basketball team during the last two years. Bunny plans to enter the business world next year.

BEATRICE LEAVITT

Beatrice came to us from Newton High and enrolled as a student of the commercial course, and has gone about in her quiet way to learn the mysteries of curves and keys. We are sure she will make a success in the business world.

IRMA LEE

Irma's dramatic ability has not escaped recognition in our school. She was president of the Dramatic Club this year and has taken part in several of its plays. Irma also took part in All-School Night. As yet, she is undecided as to what she will do in the fall.

KATHREEN LIBBY

"Kay" is the name by which the students know this small, pretty, blonde girl. She is another proof that "good things come in small packages." She was a member of the Commercial Department and very wisely became a member of the Type Club. Kay is undecided about what she will do next year, but we wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

RUTH LILLEMOEN

We all know Ruth, so there is no need of introducing her. She has been vice-president of the Quid Nunc Society and president of the Type Club. Ruth has been a great help in the school office. Her name has appeared frequently on the Honor Roll. Ruth intends to further her business education by attending the College of Business Administration at Boston University. This summer Ruth and her mother will make an extensive tour of Europe. Bon voyage, Ruth!
PAUL LINFIELD

Paul, in his three years at high school, has shown great promise in the technical course. He is a charter member of the Yacht Club, and has won some of the prizes offered by the club for races on the Charles River.

EDWARD LOONEY

"Ed" is known to many of us as the strictest monitor on locker duty. His steady, business-like manner will assure him of "getting there" at Suffolk Law next year.

WOODROW LOWNEY

Woodrow is a track man. In almost every aspect of track work, he has shown his capability; his high-jumping is a thing to remember. He was a member of the Hi-Y, Dramatic, and Emanon Clubs. Next year Woodrow intends to enter Marquette. Good luck, Woodrow!

DOROTHY MAKIN

Dorothy has been a quiet member of our class but has proved to be steady and reliable. Outside interests have prevented her from taking part in many of the school activities; however, she has been willing to help whenever she has been needed. She was a member of the Household Arts Club and has done locker duty. She intends to enter the business world in June.

JOHN MALCOLM

John is made up of a shock of red hair and a cheery grin, a combination which is guaranteed to drive away the blues. He has many friends in the Aeronautical Club and elsewhere. "Johnny" plans to enter Bryant & Stratton next year.
MARGARET MALLEY

One of the active members of our class was Margaret. Everybody knew when she was near. She was a member of the Dramatic, Library, and Glee Clubs. She has made quite a record as an athlete and has received letters in field hockey and basketball. We know her dynamic personality will gain her many friends in the business world.

IVA MALONE

Iva came to us from Haynesville, Maine. We do not hear much about Iva but we do know that she is a faithful student and has successfully completed her work in the commercial department. She intends to enter Burroughs Business School.

LEONA MAZMANIAN

Leona has certainly been a great credit to the commercial department and the school. Besides her excellent work in her regular course, she worked in the school office in her middler and senior years. Leona’s efficient typewriting has won for her three pins and many certificates. Next year she will turn to music and attend the New England Conservatory.

S. ELLA MAZMANIAN

Another quiet but diligent worker! She has been a faithful member of the Orchestra and the Glee Club. She has taken the commercial course for three years and has received certificates in typewriting from the Underwood and Remington companies. Her plans for the future are undecided but she hopes to enter Burdett College.

HELENA MAZZA

If you want a friend who possesses a most helpful manner, Helena is the girl. She has been a member of the Art Club and the Shawnee Nature Club. Helena has decided to enter the Katharine Gibbs School. She has our best wishes for a successful career.
DOROTHY McCOLLOM

Dorothy, of the dreamy eyes and pretty hair, came to us in her junior year from Frederickton High School, Frederickton, New Brunswick, Canada. She is a hard worker, but is always ready to have a good time. This year she had locker duty and was office girl in room 206. She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society, and she was also on the class hockey team, for which she won her numerals. Next year she plans to take up nursing. We wish you the best of luck, Dorothy!

ANNA McDONNELL

Anna is another small and quiet girl. We know that her untiring efforts in high school will earn for her her reward, and we are sure she will succeed in her chosen secretarial work.

THOMAS McDONNELL

Thomas, because of his retiring manner, is not known to many of us. However, he has done his regular work well and also did good work in the middler and senior plays. After graduating, Tom plans to attend Art School.

HELEN McELLIGOTT

Helen is an obliging friend and you are missing something if you don’t know her. She has been a member of the Glee Club. Best wishes for the future, Helen!

HILMAN McGLAUF LIN

Hilman is a valued member of our class. He did excellent work in our dramatic presentations and has also been a member of the Band. Next year Hilman will enter Art School.
PAUL McGRADY

Paul’s pleasant smile is well known to all of us. He took the college course. Paul was captain and star of the golf team in his senior year. His future is as yet undecided.

MARY McNALLY

Mary has been one of the outstanding students of the college course, winning her place on the honor roll with ease and culminating her efforts by winning election to the Cum Laude Society. We feel that Simmons or any college that she may choose will gain an unusual girl.

GEORGE McNAMARA

“Gabby’s” athletic ability is well known. On the baseball and football teams, his services have been invaluable. He was also a member of the Glee Club. After graduating, George will go to Bucksport Academy.

BERNICE McWHIRTER

Berny has been a quiet but loyal and friendly member of our class. She has been a willing helper at all times. She belonged to the House­hold Arts Club, and the Quid Nunc Society. Next year Burdett College will have an excellent student in Bernice!

ARMAND MICHAUD

Armand came to Watertown High from Perkins Institute in his senior year, and has done remarkably good work in the college course. He will enter some college after graduating from Watertown High.
STELLA MILLS

One cannot remain sad or gloomy when Stella is around. She certainly believes in the motto "Smile, and the world smiles with you." Next year Stella hopes to do secretarial work in an office.

JENNIE MISSERIAN

Who doesn't know that curly-haired girl with the perpetual smile who is always brightening up some class and yet making the honor roll at all times? She played on both the varsity and class hockey teams. For two years Jennie has been an enthusiastic member of the Spanish Club. Jennie is as yet undecided about her future, but we all wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

JANET MOAKLEY

Janet entered W. H. S. in her junior year from Lexington High School. Everyone knows Janet! She has a novel way of brightening her classes by her interesting and amusing recitations. Janet was a member of the Glee Club in her senior year. She played on the 1931 class hockey team. Next year Janet will further her education either at Boston University or Bridgewater Normal, for Janet has decided that she will be a teacher.

WENDELL MOORE

Wendell, in his three years in high school, has shown a great deal of promise in the college course. He is a charter member of the Yacht Club, which was formed in his junior year.

MARJORIE MORASH

Marjorie came to us in her middler year from Memorial High School in Roxbury. Her chief interest has been her studies. We wish you success at Sargent School, Marjorie.
WALTER MORASH

Walter has passed through school without apparent effort. On occasion he surprised us, however, as by his appearance on the wrestling team. We hope that this untroubled state of mind may follow him into Burdett Business College.

THOMAS MULVAHILL

"Tommy" has many friends in the Dramatic and Emanon Clubs as well as in the Hi-Y. He is captain of the hockey team, and is also a member of the baseball and tennis teams. After graduation, Tom will enter Boston College.

OLGA NELSON

Olga is one of our very good friends. She has been in the commercial department during her three years at W. H. S. There is no doubt that you will succeed in business, Olga!

MILDRED NEWELL

An even temper is "Milly's" strong point. Did you ever see her ruffled? Her popularity is evident throughout the school. Mildred has filled her school years with outside activities. She was on the executive committee in her middler year, and in her last year she served as secretary of the class. Mildred was a member of the Dramatic Club and took part in both the middler and senior plays. She was a home room representative in her senior year. Besides all this, she found time to do cafeteria service. Mildred has been a valuable member of our class and we shall all miss her pleasing personality.

HERARCHY NIGHOSIAN

Hierarchy is one of the speediest typists in our commercial department. She has earned two pins and many certificates by her typing work. Hierarchy is planning to enter the business world as a private stenographer, and because of her excellent work here, we know that she will be a huge success.
EDWARD O'BRIEN

"Eddie" is well known to us, and his handsome face and engaging manner has won him many friends. His work in the senior play both as actor and ticket manager did much to further its success. Eddie does not know what he will do after graduation, but whatever it is we hope that good fortune will attend him.

ALICE OUNJIAN

Alice is a very quiet, reticent girl. She has been a member of both varsity and class hockey teams. Her work during the high school has been in the commercial department where she has worked hard in preparation for a position in the business world after graduation.

PHILIP PANE

Philip's perpetual grin is familiar to all of us and his witty remarks have furnished constant entertainment. He has done fine work in the technical course and still has found time to win his soccer letter. Philip intends to study mechanical engineering next year.

ALEXANDER PAOLERA

Alexander is known to us as the midget member of the wrestling team. He is also a member of the Camera Club and the track squad. Alex will go from Watertown High to Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

MICHAEL PAPPAS

"Mike's" reputation as a wrestler is enviable, for he was thrown only once in his entire career. On the football team his playing was always reliable. His shot-putting gained many points for the track team. He was a member of both Glee Club and Orchestra. Michael has an engaging manner which will surely win him many friends at N. Y. U., where he plans to take an engineering course.
ARTHUR PERKINS

Arthur's artistic ability is well known to us all. Nor have his efforts been confined to art, for his high jumping has been a joy forever to the track team, and he has been an indispensable part of the soccer machine. In his senior year, finding time to include photography in his interests, he joined the Camera Club. We're rooting for you, Arthur wherever you go.

ESTHER PERKINS

Esther has been a very quiet but likable member of our class. She is one of our songsters and has been in the Glee Club for three years. Although Esther has not decided on a definite career, we are sure she will be successful in whatever she undertakes.

ELIZABETH PERRY

Bright eyes and a sunny smile! No one is dull long around "Betty." She belonged to the Glee Club and Quid Nunc Society, acting as president of the latter in her middler year. She also was a member of the Household Arts Club in '30. Betty was on the property committee for the middler play, was in the senior play, and was chairman of the Class Day exercises. She did locker duty. Here's hoping for the best for her at Massachusetts State College. She deserves it.

ERNEST PHILLIPS

Ernest has done good work in the industrial department. He was chairman of the committee for the senior pictures. Ernest has not decided what he will do after graduation.

JOSEPHINE PICCOLO

As one of the quiet members of the class, "Jo" has won her way into many of our hearts. She was an active member of the Type Club. We know the children will enjoy having Jo as their teacher after she completes her course at the Wheelock School.
ROCCO PONTARELLI

Rocco entered the senior class of Watertown High from Perkins Institute, and the excellent work he has done in the college course is an example most of us would do well to follow. Rocco intends to go to Brown University from Watertown High.

BLANCHE PORTER

Blanche is a delightful class-mate. She has worked enthusiastically on All-School Night and senior play committees. She was a member of the Glee Club and, in “The Airmaster,” sang most charmingly. Before entering Radcliffe, she plans to spend a year at prep school.

CORINNE POUliOT

Most of us in the class know Corinne very little, but—we’ll let you in on a deep secret. Corinne is a very accomplished poetess, although she hasn’t favored us with many of her poems. She has decided on a teaching career, and hopes to enter Framingham Normal School in the fall.

JOSEPH POUliOT

Joseph came to us from Newton High and readily found his place among us. His curly hair and pleasant smile have won him many friends. Joe intends to take up advertising as his career.

CAROL PRICE

We all know Carol, that smart, well-dressed young lady. She gained great honors scholastically, being on the honor roll and super-honor roll, and by being elected to the Cum Laude Society. She was the secretary of the Quid Nunc Society in ’30 and belonged to the Glee Club for three years. We know Carol will make many friends at Wheaton, for she has many friends here.
DORIS PROCTOR

"Dot" is five feet two with eyes of blue! After successfully completing her college course in our school, she is going to try her hand at Bryant and Stratton Business School. We are sure she will succeed in this course and make someone a very capable secretary. Our best wishes accompany you, Dot!

MARJORIE QUIRK

"A friend in need is a friend indeed"—That's "Marjie!" She was a member of the Nature Club of which she was secretary and in her senior year she joined the Spanish Club. Marjorie was a court lady in the senior play, "Disraeli." Next year Marjorie will be enrolled at Bridgewater Normal School.

JOHN RATTIGAN

John was a track star! We mean that in many events he proceeded to clip records with nonchalance. On the football team, he proved his worth. His dramatic ability was shown in the senior play "Disraeli." In his senior year he served as vice-president of the Glee Club.

WILLIAM RAY

"Willie" is known to us as a member of the Journalism Club. He was also a member of the Dramatic Club in his junior year. William plans to enter a Commercial Art School next year.

REX READ

Rex has played in the Band and Orchestra for three years. Next year he plans to enter Harvard College.
MARIAN REID

Marian is a friendly girl who leaves a very pleasant memory behind her. She was another charming lady of the Victorian court in "Disraeli." Marian has been a member of the college division, in preparation for her entrance into the Wheelock School.

HELEN ROBINSON

Because of outside interests, Helen was unable to enter the senior class until January but immediately entered the class activities. She is willing and helpful at all times. She was a member of the Journalism club. Next year Helen intends to enter Boston University.

EDITH ROGERS

Edith is the proud possessor of two nicknames. To some she is known as "Sunshine" and to others she is known as "Icky." To know Edith is to love her. She is one of our star athletes, having played on the following teams: basketball, hockey, tennis and baseball. She has received letters in all sports. In 1930, she managed the hockey team. She was president of the Spanish Club in her senior year. "Icky" is undecided as to what she will do next year, but, whatever it is, we know Edith will make a success of it.

ABRAHAM ROSSOFF

"Abie" is one of the Three Musketeers who have helped make famous the various athletic teams. He went out for baseball, football, and basketball. In his middler year he was vice-president of the class. He was also a member of the Glee Club. Abie has our good wishes for successes in whatever he undertakes.

CHARLES ROSS

"Charlie," our popular vice-president, is a fine athlete and has won his letter in basketball, baseball, and football. He has been a member of the Glee Club for two years, and has served as a locker monitor in his senior year.
MAE ETTA ROSS

We could fill pages when we talk about Mae Etta’s achievements in high school. She always has a smile and cheery greeting for everyone. She was elected secretary of the Spanish Club, of which she has been a member for two years. Mae Etta has received several awards in typing, and her name appeared frequently on the honor roll. She did locker duty in her senior year. Next fall she plans to enter some secretarial school in Boston.

CARL RUSSO

Carl came to us from Lowell and has done excellent work in our school as a member of the French Club and the Camera Club, in addition to maintaining a good standing in his regular work. He also had a part in “Disraeli,” the class play. Carl has not yet decided what he will do next year.

DANTE SACCO

Dante came to Watertown High from Malden. He played his part well in the senior play, “Disraeli.” After leaving Watertown High, Dante will study electrical engineering. In any work, his friendly courteous manner will be an asset to him.

ANTHONY SALES

Anthony is known to many of us and in his quiet way has accomplished a great deal. He has done excellent work in the commercial course, and has also found time to win his football letter.

ARPIAR SAUNDERS

Arpiar came to us from Bridgewater High and is well known to us as one of our talented musicians, for he has played in the Band and Orchestra for the last two years. Next year, Arpiar plans to enter Colby College.
HELEN SAXE

"As busy as a bee the whole day long." Surely this applies to Helen! She was a member of the Glee, Dramatic, and Journalism Clubs and was also a member of the Quid Nunc Society. Helen played both field hockey and basketball on the class and varsity teams. Who can forget Helen, our peppy little cheer leader? She did both cafeteria and locker duty. Next year she intends to enroll at Bouvé-Boston School of Physical Education.

DOROTHY SHEER

Dorothy has, in her quiet way, accomplished much and made countless friends. She made the honor roll several times besides receiving many awards for speed and accuracy in typewriting. She was also a member of the Type Club. We enjoyed seeing Dorothy in the school office where she worked in her senior year. Next year Dorothy plans to enter business.

VIRGINIA SHERIDAN

"Ginny" is one of our Cum Laude members. She was one of the charming court ladies in the senior play, "Disraeli." She was a member of the Quid Nunc Society. Next year Virginia will enter Barnard College, where we know she will be as well liked as she is here. Good luck, Ginny!

ALTHEA SMITH

"Smitty" is one of those girls one just can't help liking. Her smile is irresistible, as can be proved by the number of friends she has. She belonged to the Orchestra, Quid Nunc Society in '29-'30, and the Glee Club in '29-'30-'31. She played on the basketball team and was always an ardent rooter for her team. The Cum Laude Society recognized her ability for it elected her to its membership. She is uncertain about her future plans, but she is bound to become a success in whatever she undertakes.

HELEN SMITH

Helen came to us from Holyoke High School and in her quiet way has won many friends. Helen has decided on a very interesting career. She has secured a position as hearing stenographer in the State House where we know she will be well-liked and competent.
LAURA SMITH
Laura's friendly personality has pervaded the classrooms for three years. She has been interested in a variety of activities. In her junior year she belonged to the Dramatic Club; in her middler and senior years, the Library Club counted her as an efficient member. She was on the honor roll, and was a lady of the court in "Disraeli." We know Simmons will like Laura as much as we do.

PRESCOTT SMITH
Prescott does not talk a great deal, but he has always done just a little bit more than is absolutely necessary and hasn't spent time watching the clock! He has shown great promise in the technical course and intends to enter M. I. T. after graduating from Watertown High.

DOROTHY SPAULDING
Step right up and meet "Dot," our reliable but temperamental drum major. It was she who so ably led the Band at the various games and at other appearances. Her dramatic ability has been evident at W. H. S. She appeared in All-School Night when a junior. Her success in the middler play cannot be forgotten by those who saw it; but she capped the climax by acting the part of the spy in the senior play, "Disraeli." Dot also found time for other activities, as she has been a member of the Journalism, Camera, and Dramatic Clubs. Dot has decided to enter the Presbyterian Hospital to train to become a laboratory doctor. We wish you luck, Dot!

MARY STATUTA
Mary has certainly made a wonderful record here! She entered in her senior year from the Perkins Institute. Mary's name appeared on the honor roll at all times. She is undecided about her future, but her many friends wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

MARIE STOHL
Marie is another girl who, in her quiet way, has always been "right there." She has been a member of the Glee Club and of the Quid Nunc Society. Marie has also done locker duty the past year. Marie plans to enter the Burroughs Business School next year. Good luck, Marie!
PEGGY SULLIVAN

Peggy came to us from our rival school, Belmont High. She always has a smile for everyone and is a wonderful friend. Peggy was often seen sitting at the end of the long dismal corridors doing locker duty. She has been a member of the "Bulletin" staff for three years. Next year Peggy will enter a school where she intends to study dramatic art.

ANNE TAYLOR

"Honey" needs no introduction. She is just as sweet as her name. Here we have an athlete. Those who saw any of the basketball games know that Anne is a scrappy little side-center. She has also played on the field hockey and tennis teams. Anne has belonged to the French and Glee clubs. Honey is now studying to become a hairdresser. May success be yours, Anne!

DAVID THOLLDEN

David, who is sometimes called "Bulldog," is well liked by all of us. He is a member of the Yacht Club, and has done as much work as any other member. Next year, David plans to take up architectural engineering.

MAXINE TIBBETTS

Maxine is a young lady of marked literary ability. She has been an interested member of the Glee Club and has served as president of the Library Club. She is undecided as to her immediate future.

PETER TITUS

Peter was an enthusiastic member of the Yacht Club. He was a member of the Band and played the bass viol and cornet in the orchestra. As for sports, he was more than adequate on the golf team. Next year, Peter plans to enter the University of Maryland, and he may be, sure that our best wishes go with him.
DORA TOMASETTI

Dora? Why, who could forget her as the clever “Marie” in the middler play, “Tommy,” and then as “Lady Brooke” in the senior play? Dora has been a home room representative for two years. She has made the honor roll many times. Next year she will enter the business world as a competent stenographer for some lucky employer.

CARNIG TOVMASSIAN

Carnig is another of the boys who have shown promise in the technical course. He is a prominent member of the Yacht Club, and served as manager of the football team in his senior year. After graduating from Watertown High Carnig intends to enroll at M. I. T.

JOHN VAHEY

John entered Watertown High from the West Junior and, in his three years in high school, has won many friends by his many witty sayings. After leaving Watertown High, John will go to the State University of North Carolina.

DONALD VALENTINE

Donald was a valuable member of the Yacht Club. He was also a member of the soccer and hockey team.

HELEN WALLACE

Who doesn’t know “Cunnie?” She has been a very friendly member of our class. Cunnie is always willing to help everyone. She has also been one of the most athletic members of our class. Cunnie was the captain of the field hockey team and has been a member of the basketball squad. She has earned both a letter and class numerals in field hockey. You have probably seen Cunnie on duty in the locker room, and also in the cafeteria the last of the year. Cunnie hopes to become a proficient business woman.
ALTHEA WEBB

Although "Alie" has been a quiet member of our class, she has many a friend here. She has been a member of the Household Arts Club for three years. In her middle year, Alie did office work in Room 206. She is a lover of music and next year she intends to enter the Conservatory of Music in Boston.

HELEN WEED

"Silence is golden" so Helen believes, and in her case it is true! Though Helen has been very quiet she has made a fine record. She was a member of the Household Arts Club and the Quid Nunc Society. In the senior play she was one of the charming ladies of the court. In her senior year she did locker duty. Next year Helen will enter the Wheelock Kindergarten School where we know she will be successful.

CLIFFORD WEEDEN

Clifford is one of those invariably cheerful people who seem to enjoy life to its fullest. He has been more than adequate on the baseball and hockey teams. He was a member of the Glee Club. Clifford's plans for next year are uncertain but in any event we wish him the best of luck.

ARTHUR WELLS

Arthur has that sort of personality which no one can resist, nor is there any phase of school activity in which he has not taken part. In both indoor and outdoor track his performances have been consistently outstanding since his junior year, when he won his letter. The soccer team has likewise profited by his determined playing. As for dramatic ability, we cite the middler and senior plays. He has held offices in both the Yacht and Hi-Y Clubs, and was a member of the gospel team of the latter. Arthur has been one of the best-liked members of the class and we are sure that his popularity will follow him to M. I. T.

ELsie WEST

Elsie has been a quiet, retiring member of our class. She was a member of the Glee Club. Elsie was the staunch goalie on the field hockey team, and also one of the senior hockey champs. We wish you luck when you become a nurse, Elsie!
GERTRUDE WESTER

Gertrude has spent all her spare time in athletics. She is a three-letter athlete, having played on the field hockey, basketball, and tennis teams. In her senior year she captained the hockey team. She was a member of the Glee Club for three years. Next year Gertrude has wisely chosen to enter Sargent School of Physical Education.

HOWARD WESTHAVER

During his school career, Howard has shown remarkable business ability in the Hi-Y, Emanon and Library Clubs. In addition he has lent invaluable assistance to many school affairs. No matter what college he chooses, we are sure that his enthusiasm will gain him many friends.

BERTELL WHEELER

Bertell is a quiet, likeable fellow. His cleverly designed boat “Waterwitch” won acclaim for the Model Yacht Club. On the soccer team he likewise proved his capability. He was also a member of the Hi-Y. We feel that he will be highly successful in whatever he attempts to do.

MARY E. WILSON

Here she is—the editor of our Annual. We’re proud of her! One could not say too much about her and the record she made here. She was assistant editor of the “Bulletin” in ’30 and editor-in-chief for the first half of ’31. Mary has been on the honor roll and on the super-honor roll, thereby winning membership in the Cum Laude Society. She was given a membership in the Woman’s Club, was a member of the Orchestra, the Quid Nunc Society, and the Journalism Club. Mary plans to go to Wheaton College. We know she will make a fine record.

GEORGE WOLOHOLIAN

George is an all-round athlete and in his senior year took up wrestling. He was prominent on the football and basketball teams and was also a member of the track squad. He worked in the office during the past year. George plans to go to Bridgeton Academy.
ROSE YERAN

This titian-haired, brown-eyed girl with an interesting smile is none other than our own Rose, Lady Beaconsfield, in the senior play, "Disraeli." She was a member of the Household Arts Club of which she was the president in '31. Rose worked in the school office in her senior year. She won many awards in the commercial department and she has wisely chosen to follow this field of work. Next year she will attend a Linotype Printing School.

FLORENCE YOUNG

For three years Florence has been a faithful crooner in the Glee Club. She sang in the chorus of the Tercentenary Pageant. Next year will find Florence in Seattle, Washington.

FRED ZACHEUS

During his years at high school, Fred has shown himself to be quite talented musically, having been a member of both the Band and the Orchestra. Nor were his talents confined to music, for he was also a valued member of the baseball squad. Next year Fred hopes to go to Massachusetts College at Amherst.
JUSTIN HICKS

Justin was the original silent member of this class. He has, however, made his mark in the general course and has done locker service. His future is as yet undecided.

FRANK SPAKOWSKI

Frank's basketball playing is a thing that is seen but once in a lifetime and must be seen to be appreciated! Frank is a member of the Aeronautical Club and intends to enter some branch of aviation next year.

MARY WHITE

Mary is a very quiet, retiring member of our class who entered W. H. S. from Hyde Park High School in her middler year. In the commercial department, she has made many friends who wish her success at Burdett next year.
We, the class of 1931, entered the Watertown High School on October 1, 1928, a later date than is usual for the opening of school, but we soon made up for lost time. Under the supervision of Mr. Smith, our class adviser, we soon organized and held election of officers. Robert Johnson was elected president; Kenneth Foote, vice-president; Ada Bythewood, secretary and Gertrude Lescarbeau, treasurer. Isabel Fitzgerald, Dorothy Makin, and Angele Garabedian were on the executive committee.

Soon after the election in November, we held our junior “Get-Acquainted Party.” This served somewhat to break the ice, although some of us were still rather shy. In the All-School Night program our class was represented by Alfred Dixon and Mary E. Wilson, who had prominent parts in a skit entitled “Station YYYY.”

In the spring, the class decided to have rings like those which the class of 1930 had procured and to fix the design as a standard for future years.

Our junior year was uneventful in comparison with those to come, for it was a period of adjustment to new surroundings and interests.

When we returned as Middlers in the fall of 1929, we were accustomed to the routine and to the unwritten codes existing in the school. We took much delight in watching the discomfort of the Juniors who, much like us the year before, had not learned the plan of the building sufficiently well to be sure they were in the correct room.

Our annual election was a close race. John Simonds was elected president; Abraham Rosoff, vice-president; Ada Bythewood again secretary; and Dorothy Alexander, treasurer. On the executive committee were Althea Johnson, Mildred Newell, and George McNamara. Miss Sweet was our faculty adviser.

Many of the Middlers took part in the operetta on All-School Night. Further proof of dramatic success was furnished by the class play, “Tommy,” which was coached by Miss Chapman.

The Middlers “Gabby,” “Mike,” and captain-elect “Bobby” Johnson all helped to make the 1930 football team a championship eleven.

At the Boston Interscholastic Spelling Contest, Mary E. Wilson won the championship.

At last our senior year arrived, accompanied by its duties and dignities. The busiest year of all was under the leadership of Alfred Dixon, president; Charles Ross, vice-president; Mildred Newell, secretary; and Thomas Mulvahill, treasurer. Miss Byron was our class adviser.

As usual the senior class was represented in the All-School Night entertainment. The senior play, “Disraeli,” met with great success. Craig Huntting earned for himself the nickname of “Dizzy” by his remarkable performance in the leading role.

Freak Day was the next senior event, and caused much merriment. Our dignified concert-master was disguised as an austere spinster with black-ribboned pince-nez perched precariously on his nose. The hobo seen sauntering about the corridors was our able president.

As the Annual goes to press, we are eagerly looking forward to Senior Promenade, Class Day, and Graduation. When the year is entirely ended, these final events will have earned their places among our happiest memories.

Betty Durell.
Class Poem

O Great Spirit of our people,
O thou guardian of our passing,
Guard us as we leave these portals.
Thirty moons we've fished and hunted,
Thirty moons we've played and sported,
Making friends and gaining wisdom,
Striving to achieve our manhood.
Now at last we've won our symbol,
Won a feather from the eagle,
Won a feather from the pinion,
From the wing that bears us skyward
To the realms of great achievement.
In the thirty moons behind us,
Some have liked the hunting, fishing,
Some preferred the dancing, singing,
Some enjoyed within these portals
Games of prowess and of skill.
There are many moons before us,
Moons in which we shall soar skyward.
Of our number, who will wander,
Who will quell the rushing rivers,
Who will set their thoughts to music,
Who will found new homes and teepees,
Who will hunt in cool green forests,
Who will fish in great deep seas,
Who will find new lands and peoples?
No one now can prophesy.
O Great Spirit of the Future,
Meet us, guide us from these portals
As we journey onward, upward
To the goals we've set so high.

Carol Gibson.
The Senior Play

On Friday evening, February 13, the senior class presented that popular and well-known stage success, "Disraeli." This was a very ambitious undertaking, for this play, with the incomparable George Arliss, has been a favorite on both stage and screen. Our senior production, however, gave adequate proof that able coaching and serious effort combine to produce a very worthy program.

Craig Hunting was excellent in the title role, that of Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield. The physical resemblance was striking, and he was skillful in his use of the little mannerisms made so familiar by the inimitable Arliss. Lady Beaconsfield, the gracious wife of the great statesman, was ably portrayed by Rose Yeran. The mutual thoughtfulness of the middle-aged people was fully as romantic as the love-interest furnished by the younger lovers, Doris Grade and Ralph Craig.

The complication of the play revolved around Dorothy Spaulding, the daring and charming Russian spy, and her efforts to frustrate England's plans for the purchase of the Suez Canal. Edward O'Brien was admirably adapted to his role as president of the bank of England. The part of Hugh Meyers, life-long friend of Disraeli, was well interpreted by Carl Russo. John Rattigan was satisfying as Mr. Tearle, Disraeli's secretary. Grace Griffin and Joseph Keany as the Duke and Duchess of Glastonbury were outstanding characters early in the play.

Those having lesser parts are equally to be commended, for the excellence of their acting provided background and gave confidence to those having more prominent parts. The two butlers, Franklin Lane and Dante Sacco; Fred Zacheus, the gardener, and John Vahey as Flooks, the postman, added greatly to the interest.

In the last scene the living statues, with their poise and classic beauty, were clearly defined against the blue background. The rich gowns of the court ladies and the formal black of the men mingled to form a picture that remained in the minds of the audience long after the final curtain.

Second Row—Margaret Malley, John Rattigan, Ralph Craig, Doris Grade, Rose Yeran, Craig Hunting, Edward O'Brien, Dorothy Spaulding, Carl Russo, Dora Tomasetti, Elsa Blazo.
Third Row—Alexander Paolera, Fred Zacheus, Anita Flanders, Laura Smith, Sebastian Curcio, Gerald Golden, Franklin Lane, Joseph Keany, Donald Buddington, Helen Saxe, Frances Guidrey, Helen Weed, Helena Mazza, Carolyn Kiddier, Mildred Newell, Carol Price, Elizabeth Durell, George McNamara, Marjorie Quirk, Maxine Kewer.
Fourth Row—George Wolohojian, Arthur Wells, Hilman McGlaflin, Michael Pappas, John Vahey, Doris Howard, Arline Hoyt, Marion Reid, Virginia Sheridan.
FREAKS FOR JUST A DAY
Betty was a sailor upon the ocean tide.
She had a little compass which dangled by her side.
She never swabbed a single deck, nor swore a single swear,
Not because she couldn't but because she didn't dare.
Her skirt was hitched with safety-pins, her hat pinned to her head;
Her long skirt sadly interfered with Betty's stately tread.
For just one smiling, roguish glance from eyes of larkspur blue
A "nineties" gallant would have hired a bicycle for two.
Red ribbons on her pigtails, a curl upon her brow
The heavy sweater, black and scarlet, kept her warm—and how!
In making all quite perfect, Helen wasn't lax;
Her skirt was most appropriately made of burlap Saxe!
A smiling, sooty stevedore was Doris H. that day.
Her manly charms o'er female heart held undisputed sway.
With all that black upon her face she was a lovely sight—
We think it must have been a job to wash her face that night.
Her head was in a bandage because her tooth did ache;
She took a lot of aspirin the raging pain to slake.
The big hot-water bottle that hung down by her side
Was still another remedy that Doris G. had tried.
Mary had an ostrich plume upon her dashing hat—
(Although we do not know for sure just what 'twas dashing at.)
Around her alabaster (?) throat she wrapped a feather boa,
And her foamy lacy ruffles swept up the dusty floor.
O lovely gypsy maid with undulating grace
A knowing smirk upon your painted face
O faun, O Carl, I'd spend my life, I mean,
Pursuing the jingle of your tambourine.
Frank covered his nose with putty quite damp
To augment his costume of woebegone tramp
But the putty stayed wet and the red paint smeared
And all succeeded in making Frank weird.
Sequins and gauze of insufficient length
Revealed Alex's limbs in their muscular strength,
But time after time a teacher's dismay
From the door of the room sent Alex away.
To be a portly gent in full dress attire
Did Tom Mulvahill meekly aspire,
But in sitting down he was apt to get stuck,
And if he arose, 'twas only by luck.
Ralph looked out on the world 'neath a picture hat's brim;
Judged by his expression 'twas a strange world to him,
And though at this fact he may rant and may wail,
More dulcet tones were ne'er heard from a male.
Sebbie, in a hat detachably lined,
As a Swiss bellringer certainly shined,
But his funny appearance was honestly doubled
Because his socks and his blouse left him constantly troubled.
Milord Belding of what-have-you-shire,
We judge by that good English mire
Upon your face, that despite the rain
You've been riding foxes again.
The Class Won’t

We, the class of 1931, as yet able to simulate the outward appearance of sanity, and being totally oblivious to undue suggestion or influence, and considering the approaching end of our present existence, and being desirous of terminating aforesaid existence suitably, do hereby formulate, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament, herein revoking any and all wills heretofore by us compiled, hoping that our heirs will feel fitting gratitude for our outstanding generosity.

To the Board of Education we bequeath our appreciation for their meticulous consideration for our educational opportunities, of which we have made extensive and soporic use.

To Mr. Whitehill we express our gratitude for his efforts in behalf of our class, for his tolerant understanding of our difficulties, and the inspiration which he has imparted to us.

As for the Faculty, we wish to acknowledge their coöperation, guidance and assistance during their tutelage and to bestow upon them the courage to face the unresponsive and uneducated hordes which will shortly descend upon them.

To the building we bequeath the sturdiness and fortitude to withstand many a stampede to class.

To the Middler Class all the “Quips and scorns the Senior Class is heir to,” the conceited mien and the stolid dignity with which we grave and reverend seigneurs are accredited.

To the Juniors we grant permission to cast aside the habiliments of infancy and to swagger forth with new-found confidence into the realm of middlerhood.

To the self-confident and anticipating entering class we freely donate a swift awakening to a knowledge of their lowly status.

To the members of the Middler-Class, Howard Westhaver leaves his Ford for conveyance to and from school—and other places.

To the staff of the ’32 Annual the editors of ’31 bequeath the well worn eraser handed down from the prehistoric days of ’30.

To the boys of the Middler Class Bernard Tombrink leaves his latest book, “How to Charm the Ladies.”

To Edward Geiger, Paul McGrady leaves his new bottle of very strongly scented slickum to keep those unruly curls from being ruffled by the breezes or (?)

To Clarence Patterson, Tom Mulvahill leaves that unobtrusive personality that endears him to students and teachers alike.

Gerald Golden bequeaths to Dick Taylor that ingenious wit that renders him such a genial companion.

On next year’s Senior Class we selfishly inflict the same kind of weather for their class picnic that we had for ours.

To the Senior High Library, we leave the world-famed book, “Franklin Lane, the World’s Best All Round Athlete,” by Franklin Lane.

To another who may be afflicted with the wanderlust during Physics lab, Clifford Weeden bequeaths a road map of our school, drawn and autographed by Arthur Perkins.

To Russell Angell, Al Dixon leaves the curling iron with which he carefully waves his hair every morning.

Carol Gibson, our class poetess, leaves to her successor in the Class of ’32 her well-worn textbook, “How to Write Poetry in One Lesson.”

To Andrew Kasper, Mary Wilson leaves Vanilla, her milk-white palfrey, on which he may successfully trot through his senior Latin classes.

To ourselves, the instigators and perpetrators of this atrocious and verbose document, we present seventy-two hours of sleep, on a DeLuxe mattress (not an advertisement), one silent alarm-clock, one ten-o’clock rising hour, one leisurely masticated breakfast, one day of “dolce far niente.”

We do hereby constitute and appoint Monsieur Discobolus of the upper corridor as sole executor of this our last will and testament.

Whereupon, and in witness whereof, we, the Class of 1931, upon this inspiring occasion, do, in all solemnity, set our hands and seals, duly in the presence of ourselves and in the presence of each other, upon this our last will and testimonial, this second day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

Class of 1932

We, the class of 1932, arrived at the high school in 1929 as ignorant but willing-to-learn Juniors. In our junior year an acquaintance social was held. In November, the officers elected were: William Rockett, president; Frederick Cook, vice-president; Pauline Stevenson, secretary; Rosalie Clelland, treasurer. The executive committee was made up of Phyllis Fall, Cecilia Frehill, and Leslie Lenfest. With Mr. Smith as our competent adviser, our junior year proved a successful one.

Having been initiated into the standards of high school life, we entered as Middlers in the fall of 1930. Our class was led by John Walsh, president; Frederick Cook, vice-president; Phyllis B. Fall, secretary; Milton MacDonald, treasurer. The executive committee consisted of Cecilia Frehill, Myrtle Phillips, and Leslie Lenfest.

On October 13, Bernard Cosman won a model yacht race from Greater Boston schools, and received as a trophy a silver cup.

The All-School Night performance gave William Crook an opportunity to show his talent as a leading man. John King and Florence Holland furnished additional entertainment by exhibiting their musical ability.

The Middlers made an excellent showing in athletics. In 1932 the basketball teams will be captained by Helen Duff and Clarence Patterson. Ida Caruso and Dexter Wesson will lead the teams in hockey. Many Middlers made good at football, track, baseball, tennis, and soccer.

Our class can always depend upon Lucile Jones, Andrew Kasper, and Dorothy Wheeler to appear on the super-honor roll.

Class meetings have been few, as the middler play was our only activity. We congratulate the cast on their successful performance. Doris Thayer and William Rockett played the two young lovers. The rest of the cast consisted of Myrtle Phillips, Ambrose Ford, Betty Chapman, David Crawford, Russell Angell, George Meehan, Charles Thatcher and George Marshall. Miss Chapman is to be complimented on her excellent coaching. As class adviser, Miss Sweet helped to make the play a success.

The middler class extends its sincere wish for prosperity and good fortune to its good friends and long-remembered pals, the graduates of 1931.

Phyllis B. Fall,
Secretary.
Middler Play

After overcoming numerous difficulties, the class of 1932 succeeded in presenting a very commendable performance entitled "The Perfect Alibi." It was a mystery play concerning the strange death of Sir Arthur Ludgrove, who was characterized by Alfred Wray. Doris Thayer and William Rockett provided the love interest and unravelled the tangled threads of mystery. In this they were aided by Myrtle Phillips in the role of Jane West, a very sophisticated modern girl. David Crawford as Sergeant Mallet absolutely commanded the attention and applause of all by the admirably impressive manner in which he delivered his difficult speeches during the questioning of the murder suspects. George Meehan as his well-meaning but rather tiresome father provided bits of comedy in the long, dramatic second act. Shall we ever forget Betty Chapman's able acting as the gushing widow, Mrs. Fulverton-Fane? The villainous parts were played excellently by Ambrose Ford and Charles Thatcher, who were quite convincing as murderers. George Marshall as Adams the butler contributed no small amount of interest by his extremely correct manners and enunciation. Last but by no means least is Russell Angell, whose interpretation of the Englishman, Major Fothergill, was outstanding.

The class of 1932 wishes to take this opportunity to express its sincere gratitude to Miss Chapman and also to those members of the faculty whose earnest efforts made it possible for the presentation to meet with great success.

JUNIORS
Junior Class Officers

JOHN BELDING
Class of 1933

The Junior Class, consisting of three hundred and sixty members, has been especially active this year. In November the following officers were elected: Thomas Gough, President; Adolph Piantedosi, Vice-President; Ariel Johnston, Secretary; Edward Riccio, Treasurer; Richard Clapp, James MacDonald, and John Belding, Executive Committee.

The class is very proud of Richard Clapp, Joseph Golden, and Rita Daloisio who are on the super-honor roll.

On the honor roll are the following pupils: Nevart Abrahamian, Mary Anastasi, Nicholas Barbarossa, John Belding, Josephine Conley, Viola Hayward, Mary Hilley, Bessie Iodice, Armenue Jigarjian, John Lavrakas, Hollis Moore, Dorothy Najarian, Elna Nelson, Bernice O'Kane, Frances Puzo, Ruth Robertson, Esther Russo, Sattenig Tutunjian, Georgia Vittum, and Audrey Whitehead.

Virginia Vartabedian recently received honorable mention for her poster which was among those selected to represent Watertown High School in an International Contest. Besides this she has drawn other posters which have been placed in the building.

Louise Mooney, Miriam Oikemus, Elizabeth Crawford, Virginia Freethy, Jean Gabineau, and Christine Hillers were selected to do locker duty. Alice Gleason is working in Room 206 during some of her study periods. It is an honor for the junior class that these girls have been selected for these responsible positions.

The chance of buying rings which is usually given to the Juniors has been postponed until next year.

The Orchestra and Band have their share of members from our class. Members of the Band are Edward Riccio, Robert Sawin, Madge Howarth, John Keating, Eldon Fay, and Virginia Freethy. Perhaps some have heard Virginia sing over station WLOE recently. She has done well and we hope to hear her soon again. The orchestra members are Madge Howarth, Victoria Derderian, Betty Crawford, Eddie Riccio, Loris Diran, Michael Paone, Jean Gabineau, Dorothy Dinjian, Eldon Fay, and Robert Sawin.

The fact that it was our first year made no difference in the fine representation of both boys and girls in the predominating sports of the seasons.

Much credit should be given to the junior boys who so willingly took over the work of the more experienced football players who were ineligible. This team was composed of Riccio, Captain; Moran, Hannaway, Piantedosi, Watts, English, Ford, Clapp, Keating and Gough. The latter also played on the first team when the veterans were reinstated. The first eleven all received their letters despite the fact that their place was taken by the regular squad.

In basketball also we had many boys out; Gough, Peterson, Piantedosi, Riccio, Martin, Lavrakas, Ford, Prendergast, are all players of whom the junior class is proud.

Clapp, Milton, Golden, Williams, and Sheehan, are out for track. We hope they will continue to uphold the name of their class.

The sports which received most of our attention in the spring are baseball, golf, tennis, and track. The boys interested in baseball are: "Red" Gough, John Lavrakas, "Red" Daughters, Bill Prendergast, Eddie Riccio, William Ford, Halie Boudakian, Arthur Frank, and Charles English, the manager.

The boys certainly have not been the only ones active in sports. The girls received their share of attention. The following played field hockey: E. Plaisted, Captain (who has since left school), I. Caruso, M. Linehan, M. Wetsell, V. Derderian, M. Swift, M. Steele, M. O'Brien, A. Johnston, A. Gleason, V. Chamberlain, J. Holmes, J. Conley, F. Busconi, and H. Kelley.

During the basketball season, the girls made as good a showing as the boys. Those on the first team were: E. Wolohojian, A. Whitehead, V. Freethy, E. Bishop, F. Busconi, J. Holmes, and M. Linehan.

Jean Gabineau defeated her rival classmates in tennis, but lost out in the finals. However, we hope she will try again.

Quite a number of our girls who had done well in tumbling took an active part in the annual gymnasium exhibition.

We appreciate the help and guidance which Mr. Smith as class adviser has given the class.

Our good wishes go with the Seniors, and we assure them that we shall keep the standards as high as they did and try to make them even better.

Ariel Johnston,
Secretary.

Cum Laude Society

The Cum Laude Society was founded at the Tome School in Maryland in 1906. Its object is the encouragement and reward of high attainments on the part of students in secondary schools, and the means it employs to accomplish this object are similar to those used by the Phi Beta Kappa Society. The organization was first called the Alpha Delta Tau Fraternity, but this name was changed in 1916, to avoid confusion with the Greek-letter fraternities of a different character. In the same year the constitution was amended to open the Society to girls, who had formerly been excluded from membership. The Society is incorporated under the laws of Maryland.

The Watertown High Chapter was organized in 1921; Watertown High is one of the few public schools to hold a membership.

Mr. Whitehill is a member of the Board of Regents.

The following pupils from the college division were elected members in 1931:

Front Row—Virginia Sheridan, Mary E. Wilson, Frances Guidrey, Mary McNally, Lucy Hagopian, Lorraine Frountfelker.

Back Row—Althea Johnson, Doris Grade, Carol Price, Althea Smith, Edythe Johnson, Alice Broadhurst.

M.H.S.
1931
Aereonautical Club

The year 1930-1931 was considered by all the members of the Aereonautical Club an unusually successful one, replete with exciting incidents.

Club time was usually spent listening to speakers and checking up on aviation problems which had been solved in outside time. Three of the most important speakers who addressed the club were. Mr. Kraner, the official parachute packer of New England; Mr. Parker Hart, representative of the Boston branch of the Curtiss Wright Service; and Stanley Boynton, holder of the junior transcontinental record.

The club has spent a great deal of its outside time on the finishing of the primary glider which was begun the previous year. Arrangements have been made to enable the club to fly the glider in Ipswich. Also, at one time, the club sponsored an assembly, giving as entertainment films on air training and parachutes. This assembly, topped by a short comic reel, was enjoyed by all. There were also many afternoon trips to the Boston Airport for flights and to inspect the hangars and planes.

Art Club

Each year the Art Club plans to study either painting, sculpture, or architecture, so that in the three years of any one member there will be no repetition. In 1931 the Art Club's subject was sculpture. It began with that of the Egyptians; later the Grecian was studied more comprehensively because of its highly developed character. During the course, research was done concerning their materials, methods, and the uses to which the sculptures were put. Then Italian, Spanish, French, and German sculptures were studied. The final subject was the one the members considered most important: American sculpture from colonial days to the present.

The officers during the first half of the year were:

President .................................................. LUCY GAZARIAN
Vice-President ............................................. HELEN MEADE
Secretary .................................................. MARGARET DODGE
Treasurer .................................................. ELIZABETH CUNNIFF

Those elected at mid-term were:

President .................................................. ELIZABETH CUNNIFF
Vice-President ............................................. MARGARET DODGE
Secretary .................................................. RUTH ROBERTSON
Treasurer .................................................. LUCY GAZARIAN

Through the year many visits were made by the girls to museums and current exhibitions. In December the Club held a successful sale of Japanese prints. In January two former members, Mary Hotz and Elaine Tripp, were guests at a meeting. They told the Club of their experiences at the Massachusetts Art School, and Mary Hotz exhibited some of her drawings and sketches. On March 14, the Art Club, accompanied by Mrs. Randlett, visited the various schools which had displays during Art Week in Boston.

The Club members are greatly indebted to Mrs. Randlett for her interested guidance and wish to express to her their heartfelt thanks.
Band

The band started its 1930-1931 career with a bang! Practise began immediately with the twelve veteran members and many new applicants.

The band played at all the home football games, and it also accompanied the football team to Belmont on Thanksgiving day where the Drum Major, Dorothy Spaulding, led the players as usual in an excellent performance.

At the annual Orchestra and Band Concert the band made a fine showing.

We are proud to say that several members of our band were represented in the Festival Orchestra which played in Syracuse, New York, from March 17-20.

At the annual Gymnasium Exhibition, held on April 23, the band played for the drills and marches.

All the credit is due Mr. Arnold Chick, the able leader, who so untiringly has directed our Watertown High School Band towards success!

Camera Club

Again the Camera Club has completed a successful year under the guidance of Miss Thayer and the following officers:

President .............................................................. Demeter Kollias
Secretary-Treasurer .................................................. Phyllis Fall
Librarian ................................................................. Eleanor Chase

In the fall of 1930 the club had only seven members to carry on the work in photography. Sixteen applicants were elected to membership, making the largest number the Camera Club has ever had.

Many well prepared subjects were discussed in a very clear, concise manner during the club periods. Silhouettes, portraits, table-top and action pictures provided material for experiment.

Upon the invitation of Dorothy Colby, the club enjoyed a delightful outing at her camp in Wellesley.

The Camera Club wishes success to its graduating members and hopes that they will long remember pleasantly the time they have spent working with the Club.

Front Row—Anoosh Kergian, Esther Keddy, Eleanor Chase, Phyllis Fall, Demeter Kollias, Miss Thayer, Cecilia Freehill, Dorothy Spaulding, Dorothy Wheeler, Carl Russo.

Dramatic Club

This year the membership of the club was comparatively large even after the elimination of some of the members which it was necessary to effect early in the year. Each meeting throughout the year has been very entertaining. Many fine plays have been dramatized in the club meetings, and the art of make-up was explained. Mr. Woodwell also gave many interesting talks on the different phases of dramatics. Special reports on dramatics were given by club members several times during the year.

The club took charge of two assemblies, presenting a play entitled “Betty’s Butler” and a puppet show entitled “The Pink Persimmon Tree.” The school was greatly honored by having Professor Charles Swain Thomas as a guest at the puppet show. The club was also very well represented in the plays on All-School Night, under the direction of Mr. Woodwell.

The officers for the club were:

President ........................................... Irma Lee
Secretary ........................................... Bonnie-Jean Clelland
Treasurer ........................................... Kathryn Gateley

Third Row—June Newell, Evelyn Gostos, Mary Swift, Louise Mooney, Alice Campbell, Duncan Morgan, Doris Howard, Doris Grade, Hyde MacDonald, Joseph Moran, Norma McDow, Rosalie Clelland, John King, Craig Hunting.

Fourth Row—Vincent Kavanaugh, Mr. Woodwell, Harry Strapp.
Emanon Club

The Emanon Club looks back on a highly satisfactory year. The club has been under the able direction of the following officers:

President ......................................................... SEBASTIAN CURCIO
Vice-President ............................................... WOODROW LOWNEY
Secretary-Treasurer ................................. HOWARD WESTHAVER

The meetings were held every Monday night at the high school. Before the meetings the boys played basketball.

During the school year, the club members offered their services as ushers at several of the school activities, thus carrying out the service principle of the club.

At many of the weekly meetings, the Emanon Club discussed various subjects of interest to the members. At one meeting, "Capital Punishment" was warmly debated.

On February, 1931, the club gave a dance in the high school gymnasium. This dance was an outstanding success.

The club wishes to express to Mr. Smith, the more than able faculty adviser, its appreciation of his great interest in and enthusiasm for all its activities. His sympathy and readiness to help have been largely responsible for the worthwhile year just spent. The members who are leaving hope that the club next year will carry on the good work and service to the school.

EMANON CLUB

Second Row—Mr. Smith, James Thurber, Harry Stephens, Ralph Craig, Wilbur Simmons, Cutler Trow, Harry Thurber, Thomas Mulvahill, James Chamberlain, Edward Geiger, Francis Egan.

Glee Club

The Glee Club has met once a week, every Friday morning during the regular club period. This year there were more members in the Club than ever before. The number of the bass and tenor singers was unusually increased. The Club consisted of sixty-five sopranos, forty-five altos, nineteen tenors and twenty bases. Officers were elected at the beginning of the year by the members. Edythe Johnson was president, and when Miss Bisbee was absent or unable to conduct, Edythe took charge of the singing. John Rattigan was vice-president and Mildred Dwyer was the secretary, who took the attendance with the help of Mr. MacCurdy. Robert Ingham was the librarian, but since he left the Club, his duty, that of taking care of the music, has been performed by Ruth Ewin and Agnes Anderson. Eileen McNiff, the pianist, has been assisted by Mary Ford and Florence Holland, all of whom are accomplished pianists.

It has been the custom of the school to have the chorus sing several selections at the graduation exercises; these selections have always been enjoyed and looked forward to with pleasure. This year Miss Bisbee has chosen unusually lovely numbers. During the last few weeks, the members of the Club practised Latin pronunciation, because among the selections for graduation, a Latin hymn will be sung. Myles Boylan, the “Caruso” of the Club, who has sung at many of the entertainments given at the school, has been chosen to sing at the graduation exercises, and he will be accompanied by the Club.

The Glee Club, through its officers, wishes to thank Miss Bisbee for the help and patience she has shown again during the past year.
Gun Club

The work of the Gun Club was under the supervision of Mr. Hamer. The twelve members spent the first quarter of the year in shooting for awards at the Newton Armory. Later the Club was permitted to make use of the shooting range in the Town Hall. When the range was given over to the Club, the space for shooting was found to be limited. Therefore the Club changed the range from a seventy-five to a fifty foot stretch that more room might be had. The change included a larger prone position which the members built from their own material.

Because of the use of the Town Hall range and the enthusiastic cooperation of the members, the Club was able to purchase its own target rifle. With it the necessary equipment for its care was bought.

During the year, the Club took part in the National Rifle Matches and, for an organization of its size, won for Watertown an excellent position on the records.

At the weekly meetings special topics were presented by the different members on subjects dealing with the mechanism and care of various types of guns, and the study of different types of gun sights was carried on.

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club has spent a very profitable year under the direction of the following officers:

President .............................................. ALFRED DIXON
Vice-President ....................................... ARTHUR WELLS
Secretary .............................................. WILLIAM HOLMES
Treasurer ............................................... CHARLES DONAHOE
World Brotherhood Secretary ....................... DEMETER KOLLIAS

The Club has met every Wednesday evening at the Newton Y. M. C. A. Interesting speakers have helped to make the meetings memorable.

On the evening of November 28, the Hi-Y held its annual Victory Dance, which was as well attended as ever.

In May, the Club observed “Co-ed Night,” in honor of the girls who had waited on table at the club meetings during the year. The next meeting was given over to the faculty.

December 5, 6, and 7 were the dates of the Annual Two-State Convention at Quincy, attended by twenty-eight members of the Watertown club.

The Treasure Hunt at the Newton Boat Club, on May 8, was a triumph over adverse conditions. Altogether, the Club looks back upon a very satisfactory year.

Fourth Row—David Crawford, George Meehan, Andrew Kasper, Clarence Patterson, Franklin Lane, Joseph Keany, Bertell Wheeler, Carnig Tovmassian, Philip Watts.
Household Arts Club

Under the expert tutelage of Miss Randall, the Household Arts Club has had a most profitable year. The officers elected at the beginning of the year were:

President ..................................................... ELSIE CHAPMAN
Vice-President ............................................... EMILY DURO
Secretary ......................................................... MOLLY PLATT
Corresponding Secretary ................................. ALTHEA WEBB
Treasurer .......................................................... CATHERINE RYAN
Executive Committee ......................................... FRANCES RAMONO

In the middle of the year another election was held. The new officers were as follows:

President ..................................................... ROSE YERAN
Vice-President ............................................... CATHERINE RYAN
Secretary .......................................................... ALTHEA WEBB
Corresponding Secretary ................................. LILLIAN SURABIAN
Treasurer .......................................................... DOROTHY HARLOW
Executive Committee ......................................... ETHEL WEBB
Chairman Program Committee ............................. JOSEPHINE WYSS

The Club has spent the year in making many useful and charming things for the home. It also carried on Red Cross work. Early in the year, a party for the new members was given on Whitney Hill. They were regaled with frankfurts, marshmallows, and cocoa prepared over an open fire. At Christmas the usual party was held, to which each member contributed something to bring joy into the life of a local poor family. At one meeting Mrs. Botsford, a representative of the Junior Red Cross, talked most interestingly on this subject, and accompanied her speech with an exhibition of the handicraft of children of foreign lands. Later in the year the club displayed, in shop-windows throughout the town, various articles which the members had made. The club was also honored by an invitation from the president of the Home Economics Club at Framingham Normal School to send a representative to an “Interschool Program” held in March. Rose Yeran was chosen to attend. The members have made very effort to surpass the records of former years and hope that next year this ideal will be carried on.
Journalism Club

The Journalism Club organized in October with eight members of last year. It voted to continue the work of editing the school paper, with Miss Severance as adviser. The form of “The Bulletin” was changed from that of a magazine to a newspaper to be issued regularly every two weeks.

The president of the club, Mary E. Wilson, acted as editor-in-chief, and Frances Guidrey, treasurer, acted as business manager. Carol Gibson, secretary and literary editor during the first semester, was unanimously elected editor-in-chief for the second semester, when Mary Wilson resigned in order to work on the Annual.

William Hawkins, as sports editor, with Helen Saxe responsible for girls’ athletics, Richard Taylor, editor of the “Here and There” columns, and Margaret Vincent, alumni editor, could always be depended upon for interesting departments. Club notes have been collected and edited by Maxine Kewer and George Meehan. The circulation has been managed through the home room representatives under the efficient leadership of William Rockett, and Frances Guidrey, through advertising support has put “The Bulletin” on a firm financial basis.

The Club as a whole met every Friday morning, but two or three additional staff meetings after school were necessary every other week when “The Bulletin” went to press. The membership rapidly increased from the original eight to twenty-one active members with a few more regular contributors and assistants.

The efforts of the Journalism Club were of necessity entirely absorbed in the first semester in making it possible to issue “The Bulletin” regularly every fortnight. Since the first of the year, the club has been endeavoring to perfect a system of efficiency in the staff and of co-operation with the school as a foundation upon which to build the work next year.

The ideal of the Journalism Club is to make “The Bulletin” truly representative of the entire school; its work and play, faculty and students . . . to make it a worthy record of the activities and expression of the spirit of the Watertown Senior High School.
Junior Chamber of Commerce

When club work started in the fall there were only three former members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club, but the membership increased to seventeen.

The officers elected for this year were as follows:

President .........................................................JOHN DONOVAN
Vice-President ..................................................FRANKLIN LANE
Secretary .........................................................DOROTHY ALEXANDER
Treasurer .........................................................ISABEL GAZARIAN

Program Committee ...........................................
     MIRIAM OIKEMUS, Chairman
     FRANKLIN LANE
     DOROTHY WILKINSON
     JOHN DONOVAN

Advertising Manager ...........................................
     GENEVIEVE GOUGH

The Club has sponsored a wide range of helpful and worthwhile activities. One of these was the exhibition of the work of several high school clubs and classes in a store window of the town. This exhibition, held in January, was in the Hawes Electric Shop window for one week and in Rand's drug store window for another week. The Club helped to restore order in the passing of students in the corridors by making and hanging up “traffic law” posters. It aided Fire-chief O'Hearn in his drive for fire prevention and assisted the town Chamber of Commerce during clean-up, pick-up, and paint-up week. The secretary of the Watertown Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Casgrain, spoke to the Club on a number of occasions, offering many suggestions which were carried out. Visits were made to many places, one of which was the Charlestown State Prison.

Although most of the time was spent in working, good times were not overlooked. During the Christmas Season, the Club enjoyed a novel Christmas breakfast party in Room 210. Other enjoyable gatherings augmented the social program of the Club.

The dues of the Club will be used to buy a gift for the school, in memory of its former supervisor, the late David S. Wheeler.

To Mr. A. Robert Kelman, a new member of the faculty and the Club's supervisor, is due a great deal of appreciation and thanks for his excellent work.
The Library Club has accomplished much during the current year in giving the members opportunity to become familiar with library work, and it was of great assistance to the student body. The following officers presided during the first half year:

President ___________________________ HOWARD WESTHAVER
Vice-President _________________________ DONALD CRUPI
Secretary ______________________________ ELSA BLAZO
Treasurer _______________________________ ETHEL PRATT

It will be remembered that candy was sold during the football and basketball seasons. The money earned in this way bought a number of good books for the library.

Each Friday morning in the club period definite programs were carried out. The most interesting of these was a talk on library work as a vacation and on new books given by Miss Meade of the Public Library.

The social activities of the Club were numerous. The Library Club and Quid Nunc Society gave an evening dance early in the year. Later the Club was entertained by one of the members. In the Spring a matinee dance was given. All these functions were very enjoyable.

The officers for the last half of the year were:

President ___________________________ HOWARD WESTHAVER
Vice-President _________________________ SHIRLEY BAGNALL
Secretary _______________________________ MAE MANDELLE
Treasurer _______________________________ ETHEL PRATT

The Club wishes to express its great indebtedness to Miss Johnson for her interested assistance, and hopes that the club will increase in usefulness throughout the years, as it has done during the past years.

Front Row—Vera Gordon, Dominic Crupi, Theresa Natile, Barbara Arone, Richard Young.

Second Row—Laura Smith, Miss Johnson, Shirley Bagnall, Howard Westhaver, May Mandell, Barbara Doe.

Third Row—Adrina Surabian, Ethel Barry, Louise Fitzgerald, Elsa Blazo, Dorothy Kilbride, Myrtle Martin, Irma Kelliher, Dorothy Bodge.
Model Yacht Club

The members feel that 1931 has been a very successful year for the Model Yacht Club. In the three years of its existence the club has progressed steadily. Mr. Black has been a most competent and interested adviser. This year the following officers cooperated with him in the furtherance of the club’s work:

Commodore .................. Carnig Toomassian
Vice-Commodore .............. Bertell Wheeler
Secretary-Treasurer .......... Arthur Wells
Measurer ...................... Paul Linfield

In the fall six new members were selected from many applicants, thereby filling the quota of twenty-one. These six immediately began work upon their models. The veterans overhauled their boats, many making radical changes in their keels at Mr. Black’s suggestion.

Having entered the competition at the Sportsman’s Show in Boston, the club, represented by twelve boats, won every prize offered for boats over thirty-six inches in length. The Chester I. Campbell cup which was presented to the club best represented, went to the Watertown Model Yacht Club; Roger Daggett, Bertell Wheeler, and Norman Bartholomew won individual prizes for the excellent workmanship of their boats.

As a result of the 1930 championship Cup Races held by the club on the Charles River, Carnig Toomassian’s “Sea Devil” won first prize, Bertell Wheeler’s “Waterwitch” second, and Arthur Wells’ “Jabby” third. Awards for the first and second highest point winners among first year members went to David Crawford and Norman Bartholomew respectively.

The club is greatly indebted to Mr. Black for his patient instruction in the building and sailing of model yachts.

Front Row—Bernard Cosman, Roger Daggett, David Tholden, John Belding.

Nature Club

Under the excellent supervision of Miss Sturdy, the Nature Club has enjoyed a most successful year. The following officers were elected in the fall:

President ................................................. CUTLER TROW
Vice-President ......................................... LAWRENCE HUTCHINGS
Secretary-Treasurer ..................................... GEORGE BLENN
Program Committee .................................... HELEN DUFF
Publicity Chairman ..................................... RUSSELL ANGELL

At the beginning of the second half, the following officers were elected:

President ................................................. GEORGE BLENN
Vice-President ......................................... MARION PLUNKETT
Secretary-Treasurer ..................................... CUTLER TROW
Corresponding Secretary ............................... ROWENA LOWNEY
Program Committee .................................... ROBERT DAUGHTERS
Publicity Chairman ..................................... MARY M. OATES

Front Row—Russell Angell, Lawrence Hutchings, Herbert Fairbanks, Robert Daughters.
Second Row—Mary B. Oates, Rowena Lowney, Marion Plunkett, George Blenn, Cutler Trow, Louise Springer, Helen Duff.
Third Row—Esther Russo, Frances Puzo, Mary M. Oates, Dorothy Curtin, Mr. Cassidy, Dorothy Chittick, Miss Sturdy, Marie Ripley.
Orchestra

The Orchestra has had a most unusual and successful year under the direction of Miss Bisbee. It has brought honor to the school and to the town, not only through the assembly concerts, the Woman's Club program, and the annual concert itself, but through a delegation chosen to play in the Eastern Conference Orchestra at Syracuse, New York.

Although hampered by a late start, the Orchestra prepared a concert that upheld its reputation. This was done only by hours of faithful practice. Like previous concerts of the Orchestra, this one was well advertised, in fact, exceptionally so, because the money realized from the sale of tickets was to be used to defray the expenses of the Syracuse delegation. The audience was not disappointed, but praised Miss Bisbee for her accomplishment. The program was varied with vocal and instrumental selections and with a selection by a small orchestra. Albert Kander, who was concert-master in 1929, was the guest conductor. Albert, who is taking the Public School Music course at the New England Conservatory of Music, has helped Miss Bisbee in the Wednesday afternoon rehearsals.

Miss Bisbee was disappointed because the Eastern Conference Orchestra at Syracuse took the place of the New England High School Festival Orchestra at Boston, for which she had planned to recommend a large number from the school Orchestra. For the past two years she has had a large delegation accepted as members of the Boston orchestra, but was able to recommend only a few to go to Syracuse because of the distance and expense. However, all nine players that she recommended were accepted, the second largest delegation from any school represented in the large orchestra, for which applicants were chosen from ten states. These same members who went to Syracuse have been invited to play in the Boston Garden as members of a Symphony Orchestra composed of high school pupils. This orchestra is to play on May 23 during New England week.

The Orchestra has been well balanced this year, consisting of 17 violins, 1 viola, 5 'cellos, 3 flutes, 4 clarinets, 4 trumpets, 1 French horn, 1 mellophone, 2 trombones, 1 baritone, 3 saxophones, 1 bass, drums, and piano. Myles Boylan has filled the position of concert-master, and Edward Ajamian, assistant concert-master. Leslie Lenfest has been business manager; David Crawford, his assistant; Althea Johnson, secretary. Eileen McNiff with the help of Victoria Derderian, took care of the library.
Quid Nunc Society

The officers of the Quid Nunc Society for the year 1930-31 were:

President ___________________________ CAROL GIBSON
Vice-President _________________________ ROSE ANNENSE
Secretary _______________________________ HELEN Saxe
Treasurer _______________________________ LUCILE JONES

The activities of the year have been as follows:

In the fall, a committee was chosen to plan the publication of a handbook, which we expect will be placed in the hands of next year’s incoming class. We took charge of the decoration of the emergency room and now we have curtains, a dressing table, which was made for us by the woodworking department, and a pretty, framed picture, which is a pastel copy by a former member of the Art Department. In November, we joined the Library Club in giving a matinee dance. On All-School Night, the selling of candy was our responsibility. At our Christmas party, we exchanged inexpensive gifts, bought supplies and a tree, all of which was given to a needy family through the Watertown District Nurses’ Association. The girls enjoyed a skating party, at Bullough’s Pond in January. On the last day of the mid-year examinations, we held a matinee dance. In March we enjoyed our annual hike to Cedar Hill, where we wandered through the maze, and refreshments were served in the farmhouse. In April, the girls entertained their mothers and teachers at an entertainment and tea, which gathering helped to promote a greater feeling of friendliness. We have been completing the scrapbooks which were started last year, and early in May, sixteen books of twenty-four pages each, were taken to the crippled children at the Peabody Home. Each spring since the Quid Nunc has been organized, we have all gone to a matinee performance, at some Boston Theatre. At the time this report was written, we did not know which play we should see this year, but all the girls were anticipating the party with a great deal of pleasure. Our annual business meeting has been scheduled for the last of May and at that time officers for the next year are customarily elected.

All the meetings of the Quid Nunc Society, are held after school hours and the girls do not receive credit, as in other clubs. When we consider this fact, we are happy that we have been able to carry out such a program. We hope that the Quid Nunc Girls of the following years, will be able, even more than we have, to live up to Article VIII of our Constitution:

“The purpose of the Club shall be to serve loyally this school and community. Every member upon joining, pledges herself to abide by the established rules of the school, to try to maintain a high standard of conduct, and to help other girls to do so.”
Spanish Club

The real name of the Spanish Club is El Circulo Espanol. This year it consisted of ten members. The officers were as follows:

President: EDITH ROGERS
Vice-President: HELEN BEACH
Secretary: MAE ETTA ROSS
Treasurer: DORIS THAYER

Most of the periods were spent in working on the Spanish scrapbook. This book contained pictures and stories of the costumes, customs, traditions, industries, and sports of this romantic old country. It will be a great help to the future Spanish classes.

A member was chosen at each meeting to take charge of the following one. In the first two terms, half of the period was spent for entertainment; Spanish games were played. Helen Stewart, who had lived in Barcelona, gave many interesting accounts of Spanish customs and costumes. She brought Spanish dolls, records, and a beautiful shawl and fan to several of the meetings. Many Spanish records were played during these entertainments. In the latter half of the year, the members who wished to receive a credit gave reports on Spanish books. Some of these reports were "Don Quixote," "Basquerie," "Tales of Bette," and "La Bodega."

In March the club gave a party at the Metropolitan Theater.

Each meeting was called to order in Spanish by the President, Edith Rogers. The roll-call, minutes of the previous meeting, and the salute to the flag were in Spanish. The business of nominating the directors and assistant-director for each meeting was also accomplished in Spanish. The duty of the member who was elected director was to gather the material necessary for work on the scrapbook. After the entertainment, each person had his own share of work to do on the scrapbook.

Miss Ricker was the supervisor and Miss Grosvenor an honorary member.

The members hope that the club continues and increases in number. They also hope that the future members will enjoy the work as much as those of the past year.

In Front—Fred Cook.
First Row—Doris Thayer, Mae Etta Ross, Edith Rogers, Helen Beach, Jennie Misserian.
Second Row—Margaret Cosman, Helen Stewart, Dorothy Aberle, Marjorie Quirk, Miss Grosvenor, Miss Ricker.
Type Club

The second successful year of the Type Club has made the members feel justified in continuing this useful activity. The chief aim of the club is to acquire speed and accuracy in typing, with special emphasis upon accuracy. The pennants won by all the members are a constant reminder of their slogan, "Accuracy First."

The title of "most accurate" was given to Leona Mazmanian, who also won credit for being the best speedster. Although the club has been conducted in a very business-like manner, there were social activities much enjoyed by the members. These were a trip each semester to a musical comedy being presented in Boston; the devoting of one hour each month to typing to syncopated music; attempts to depict houses, castles and animals with only the typewritten page as a medium. Ida Jankowska was the most skilful artist, but Alice Ounjian was a close second. The officers were:

President ........................................RUTH LILLEMOEN
Secretary-Treasurer ..........................DOROTHY SHEER

Front Row—Clara Khazarian, Leona Mazmanian, Ruth Lillemoen, Miss Hammill, Dorothy Sheer, Angelé Garabedian, Alice Ounjian.

Calendar, 1930 - 1931

September 19. School opened. Seniors rejoiced in their newly-found dignity, lording it over confident Middlers and meek Juniors.

September 30. The Seniors elected their officers for the year.

November 4. Middler and Junior elections were held.

November 10. Visitors from the Grand Army of the Republic and the American Legion came to help us celebrate Armistice Day.

December 5. Twenty-eight members of the Hi-Y Club attended the Annual Hi-Y Conference held at Lynn.

December 12. All-School Night. Two charming one-act plays were presented by the Dramatic Club. Specialty songs, dances, and piano selections helped to make the program unusual.

January 5. Beginning of the new term, bringing us back to hard work after a long Christmas vacation.

January 7. The final change in our program was effected. The closing time was definitely set at two o'clock. Assembly. Capt. Thomas Eadie, U. S. N., well-known diver, related his many and interesting experiences under water. He illustrated his talk by displaying his heavy diving-suit and apparatus.

January 14. Assembly. Mr. John Orth, well-known musician and former pupil of the great Liszt, played selections from his famous master and a few of his own compositions.

January 21. Assembly. A picture was shown, sent out by the American Sugar Refining Company, makers of Domino Sugar.

January 23. Beginning of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Club exhibit. All departments of the school were represented.

February 11. Assembly. Room 201 broadcasted an original program to the school.

February 13. Senior play, "Disraeli," coached by Miss Chapman and played by an able cast to an appreciative audience.

February 16. Special assembly to honor the memory of Gen. Edwards, late commander of the Yankee Division.

February 20. Assembly. The Dramatic Club sponsored an assembly which in part celebrated Washington's Birthday. The rest of the time was devoted to a playlet, "Betty's Butler."
Calendar, 1930-1931 (continued)

March 4. Assembly. The school was entertained by Chief Crazy Bull, grandson of the famous Sioux chief, Sitting Bull.

March 11. Assembly. Representatives of three colleges addressed the school.

March 18. Assembly. Pictures sent by the Boston Fire Department were shown. Chief O'Hearn and members of the Watertown Fire Department were present.

March 20. Eight members of our Orchestra played in the concert of the Eastern Conference Orchestra at Syracuse, New York.

March 25. Assembly. Mr. W. H. Shumway, of Shumway, Inc., addressed the school on various aspects of employment problems.

March 27. The Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Bisbee, gave its annual concert. The Band also played several selections.

April 1. Assembly. The program was largely musical. Selections on the piano, cello, violin, and harp, as well as vocal numbers, were given by Alumni and by members of the school. A reading was also enjoyed.

April 10. The Middlers presented Milne's "Perfect Alibi." Another of Miss Chapman's striking successes, with much credit due to the actors.

April 13. Freak Day.

April 17. Quid Nunc Society Tea.

April 23. Assembly. Dramatic Club puppeteers presented a Japanese fantasy, "The Pink Persimmon Tree." Carol Gibson expanded and dramatized the play into verse from a pantomime.

Annual Gymnasium Exhibition.

May 22. The Senior Promenade. As colorful and unforgettable as ever.

June 1. Class Picnic at Pleasant Pond, Wenham.

June 7. Baccalaureate Service. The address was given by Mr. Simpson of the Union Church.

June 11. Class Day.

June 12. Commencement. "Class of '31" leaves the school and starts out on its way. We are no longer Seniors, but Alumni.
Football

Because of an unfortunate situation many of the students at the beginning of the football season were barred from competitive sports with other schools. The schedule could not be cancelled, so with eleven volunteers Coach Ward snapped a team into shape to meet our first opponent, Waltham. This eleven carried on for the first three games until they were relieved by the reinstated veterans. The school awarded the major W to the following team men:

FRANKLIN LANE (Capt.)
CARNIC TOVMASSIAN (Mgr.)
GEORGE McNAMARA
ABRAHAM ROSOFF
JOHN LAVRAKAS
THOMAS GOUGH
ADOLPH PIANTEDESI

MYLES BOYLAN
JOHN RATTIGAN
HENRY ANDROSKI
JOSEPH CONNORS
GEORGE WOLOHOJIAN
MICHAEL PAPPAS
CHARLES ROSS

The team that met Belmont on Thanksgiving Day showed the old fighting spirit. Although we did not break the scoreless tie, Belmont was hard-pressed. In spite of the fact that we started the season late, Watertown flashed the brand of blocking, kicking, and passing of the superior team. Lane was in his usual form and with his sea-rolling gait carried the ball down the field. Charlie could still be depended upon to block passes and Mike Pappas and Wolohojian together proved to be a stalwart wall for the Belmont team. Tommy Gough who was one of the props on the football field all through the season unfortunately hurt his ankle in the first quarter so Lavrakas went in as substitute for him. The rest of the team did marvelously well in blocking and passing and are certainly to be praised.

Elsa Blazo, Bonnie-Jean Cledland and Helen Saxe led the cheering section at all the games. On Thanksgiving Day they were assisted by William Rockett and Arthur Wells. The cheer leaders have done their best to promote enthusiastic interest in the cheering section and hope that the cheer leaders next year will have a better response.
Baseball

This year's baseball team's outlook seemed rather dubious at the beginning of the season, as the team was composed mostly of Juniors. Although the results of the first game promised a successful season, a number of the following games were defeats. But despite these few losses, the team, under the leadership of George (Gabby) McNamara, fought through every game and finally gained the Mystic Valley Championship, defeating Melrose and Arlington, thus removing them from second and first places respectively.

"Red" Gough played a spectacular game as catcher, this being his first year in high school baseball. Watertown's splendid infield consisted of Captain George McNamara at first, John Lavrakas at second, Robert Daughters at shortstop, and Billy Prendergast at third. The team had two valuable pitchers in Joseph Dwyer, right-hander, and Clifford Weeden, southpaw. With these two alternating in games, Coach Ward always had a fresh man to start each game. The outfield consisted of Vincent Boudrot, left-field; Mike Lane, center-field; and Hiakie Boudakian in right-field. Boudrot and Dwyer were the highest batters this season, with an average of approximately .400. In all, the team won eleven games and lost three.

Boys’ Hockey

Watertown had quite a successful season in hockey this year, winning four, tying one and losing four games. As usual, the team was handicapped by weather conditions and by the lack of a rink in which to play the games. In spite of such difficulties, the team developed into a strong combination. All of the games were played away from home with the exception of the game with the Alumni, which Watertown won by the score of 6-2. We lost the first game to Concord. It was a hard-fought contest in which we were defeated 2-0. Watertown came back strong in the second contest and defeated a fast Alumni team 6-2. The next game was a hard-fought battle with Waltham which ended in a 1-1 deadlock. We lost to St. Mary’s High of Waltham, 4-2 and to Needham 2-1. Then Watertown won two close games over Newton Junior Varsity 2-1 and 1-0.

The most exciting game of the year was the second Waltham game which Watertown won 3-1. The two teams were deadlocked 0-0 near the end of the first period, when Wesson took a pass from Egan and scored, putting his team in the lead. After that, Waltham tied the score with a quick goal. But McNamara and Daughters added two scores and the game was over.

Nearly all of the players distinguished themselves. At the opening of the season, the team was without an experienced goal tender, but both Valentine and Harry Thurber filled the position capably. George McNamara was outstanding on the defense, being chosen an All-Scholastic defense player. Clifford Weeden, who had probably the hardest shot on the team, played left wing and was one of the best scorers. Captain-elect Dexter Wesson played right wing. He is a clever stick-handler and should have a good season next year. Captain Mulvahill played center ice.

There were several newcomers who developed into fast players, especially Joe Dwyer, Dick Kelley, Paul Murdock, and Frank Egan, who played a fine game at defense. Bob Daughters proved to be one of the best defense players. Mr. Kenney of the faculty coached the team. We expect to have a strong team next year, as only four letter men, McNamara, Weeden, Valentine, and Captain Mulvahill will be lost through graduation.

Record of the games is as follows:

| Watertown 0 Concord 2 | Watertown 2 Newton J. V. 1 |
| Watertown 6 Alumni 2 | Watertown 3 Waltham 1 |
| Watertown 1 Waltham 1 | Watertown 0 Roxbury Memorial 1 |
| Watertown 2 St. Mary’s 4 | Watertown 1 Newton J. V. 0 |
| Watertown 1 Needham 2 |

Girls' Hockey

The fact that the hockey practices were marred at the first of the season did not dull the spirit of the hockey enthusiasts among the girls of all the classes. Every sunny afternoon found a willing group of girls out on our hockey field, under the watchful eyes of Miss Biggane and Miss Crowley.

Captain Helen Wallace and Manager Edith Rogers were the only first team letter girls from last year. Nevertheless, there were a great many more that were stepping right along.

The girls opened by playing Belmont at Belmont on October '31. This game was really a "getting used to playing with each other" affair which ended in a scoreless tie. This game was followed by one with Newton and one with Winchester, two very good games. In both games our girls played hard and furiously, but lost each by a scant one point. The last game was with Waltham, whom we defeated with a two-point victory.

Three candidates were chosen to go to Newton to try out for the All-Boston Field Hockey Team: Anne Taylor, Helen Wallace, and Edith Rogers.

The senior class won the inter-class games so they were awarded class numerals. Those receiving first team letters were Helen Wallace, Captain; Edith Rogers, Manager; Anne Taylor, Alice Ounjian, Doris Howard, Bonnie-Jean Clelland, Jennie Misserian, Helen Saxe, Gertrude Wester, Margaret Malley, Eleanor Degan, Molly Platt, Thelma Rogers, Ida O'Brien, Ida Caruso. Those who were awarded second team letters were Dorothy Wheeler, Elsa Blazo, Helen Beach, Helen Ounjian, Eleanor Chase, Muriel Larkin, Elsa West, Joan Murdock, Rosalie Clelland, Pauline Stevenson.

We feel sure that there is some special material left in both the middler and junior classes, with prospects of a splendid team next year. In our last game two junior girls played on the second team, so, Middlers, beware! or the Juniors will be out-shining you. The girls, we are sure, are looking forward to next season with our able coaches, Miss Biggane and Miss Crowley, and under their watchful eyes and careful instruction will surely make a fine group.

The season closed with the annual hockey banquet, where everybody had a splendid time, including our guests of honor, last year's team. At the banquet, one of our most enthusiastic players, Ida Caruso, was unanimously elected captain for next year. Ida O'Brien, another of our enthusiasts, will act as manager. We wish next year's hockey team every success in its coming season.

Front Row—Eleanor Dugan, Anne Taylor, Thelma Rogers.
Third Row—Miss Crowley, Bonnie-Jean Clelland, Gertrude Wester, Molly Platt, Helen Saxe, Margaret Malley, Miss Biggane.
Boys' Basketball

At the beginning of the 1931 season Coach Ward was seemingly handicapped. Only Captain Lane and Charley Ross were left over from last year's first team and some new talent had to be tried out. However, Ross and Prendergast in the forward positions, Lane as pivot man, and Patterson and Sheehan as guards seemed to fill the bill.

The Alumni team with several of last year's stars snowed under the high school with a 31-15 count in the first game. In the first game with Hingham, Watertown played under wraps but managed to come through on top by three points 24-21. Newton lost 26-18, and Reading was easily taken into camp, 33-17.

Quincy had the makings of a fair team but with Watertown finally asserting its real strength, fell on the wrong end of 29-10. In the team's first game away, Wakefield put up a rough defense but was smothered in the last few minutes and the final score was Watertown 41, Wakefield 33. Winthrop, considered the favorite, came here but lost out, running into the smoothest playing that Watertown had yet displayed. The score of this sixth straight victory was 27-14.

The seventh game in a row was won when Belmont performed here and all the squad had a chance to play. Belmont scored a scant six points while Watertown brought its total to 56.

Winthrop gave Watertown the first setback on January 30, when the team played on Winthrop's narrow court. As Prendergast and Patterson were unable to play because of illness, the team was weakened and lost 34-13.

One of the greatest games ever seen in the Watertown gymnasium was that with Brockton when, after leading away in front the first three quarters, Brockton saw Watertown begin a sensational rally that fell short by just one basket. It was Brockton's game 29-27.

Another close contest was staged with Wakefield, the score being tied with only a few seconds left until Patterson put Watertown in the lead, and Rosoff closed the game with Watertown 24, Wakefield 20.

The return game with Quincy was another battle decided by one basket, ending with Watertown 23, Quincy 21. Brockton and Belmont were met in the same week, Watertown losing to an accurate shooting Brockton team 38-13 and turning back Belmont for the second time 33-12. Lexington also fell under a clean, powerful attack and trailed at the end 33-20.

Those who witnessed the Medford-Watertown tilt at this gymnasium saw perhaps the most thrilling contest ever staged there. One foul shot won for Medford 27-26 in the overtime period and this defeat was responsible for Watertown's not being included in the Tech Tournament, although Medford was decidedly the favorite to cop the game.

Captain Franklin Lane was the high scorer with 134 points, and he outjumped nearly every center he came up against.

Front Row: Adolph Pianedosi, William Prendergast, Anoosh Kergian.

Second Row: Abraham Rosoff, Charles Ross, Leo Sheehan, Franklin Lane, Clarence Patterson.
Girls' Basketball

The excellent record of the 1930 girls' varsity basketball team was equalled by the squad of 1931, which completed the season without suffering defeat. This was due to a great extent to the skilful coaching of Miss Biggane and Miss Crowley. Captain Alice Broadhurst, who retained her position of center from last year, played with her usual intensity. The forward positions were filled most capably by Manager Gertrude Wester and Margaret Malley. They proved to be mainstays in their positions. Anne Taylor and Edith Rogers, two reliable players, alternated as side centers. The clever strategies of Bernice Leacy, Althea Smith, Helen Saxe, and Jennie Misserian as guards kept opposing scores at a minimum. The Captain-elect Helen Duff and Manager-elect Adeline Montuori can be relied upon to uphold the standard of sportsmanship and victorious play set by the 1931 team. The second team was also undefeated.

Front Row (Left to Right)—Edith Rogers, Helen Saxe.
Second Row—Gertrude Wester, Helen Duff, Alice Broadhurst, Adeline Montuori, Lillian Milmore.
Third Row—Althea Smith, Myrtle Phillips, Margaret Malley, Dorothy Wheeler, Thelma Rogers, Jennie Misserian.
Fourth Row—Miss Crowley (Coach), Helen Beach, Bernice Leacy, Anne Taylor, Rosalie Clelland, Molly Platt, Joan Murdock, Miss Biggane (Coach).
Indoor Track

The indoor track team enjoyed a most successful season by winning two out of three dual meets, placing well at the Interscholastics, and winning the Class B State Track Championship at the East Armory, Boston, on March 7th.

The tracksters were handicapped because of not having an indoor track. The school corridors and gymnasium took the place of a track and through the courtesy of the Country Day School in Newton the team had several workouts on their board track.

The team was led by Roger Gellatly, sprinter and leadoff man on the relay team. The manager was William Cronin and the coach was R. Glenn Smith of the faculty who has done much to put Watertown on the "track map."

Watertown had four State Champions for Indoor Track. They were Johnny Rattigan in the 300-yard run, Jimmy Thurber for the 1000-yard run, Art Perkins in the running high jump, and Mike Pappas in the shotput.

Watertown had a snappy relay team in Captain Gellatly, Thurber, Lowney, and Rattigan. This four defeated Somerville and Boston Trade at the Northeastern Interscholastic Meet. At the Andover Track Tourney, Watertown defeated Malden in a fast relay race.

For winning the Indoor State Meet the team was awarded an Alfred W. Dickerson trophy which is for permanent possession. Several members of the team were awarded medals for placing at the Interscholastics.

Watertown had a record breaker in Johnny Rattigan, who established a new Class B 300-Yard record at the state meet. His time for the distance was 35 plus. At the Northeastern Interscholastics, Rattigan equaled the record for the 300. Johnny was high scorer on the indoor team with 38 plus points and met defeat only once in the 300 which was at the Andover Meet. He was without question the best 300-yarder in New England High Schools this season.

Soccer

In spite of obstacles, Coach John Craig steered the 1931 soccer team through a fairly successful season. Because of unusual conditions, the squad suffered several setbacks at the beginning of the season. With the exception of the two unpleasant defeats met with at the hands of Quincy High, the New England Champions, our slate was kept clean. Seniors in the forward line are: Haig Boujicanian, a brilliant performer; and Pane and Kergian at the wings. The entire half-back unit was composed of Seniors, namely, Kerkbashian, Wells and Perkins, who was partly responsible for the good showing made by this trio. Vartan Dedekian, a fullback, is a powerful kicker whom Mr. Craig will find it hard to replace. Valentine and Wheeler, two capable goalies, are the two remaining Seniors. In Captain-elect Murdock, R. Simmons, Chamberlain, W. Simmons, Fitzgerald, Thatcher, Osmond, and Igoe, Mr. Craig has a good nucleus for next year's eleven. The soccer team is grateful to Mr. Craig for the time and effort he devoted to it and we Seniors wish his 1932 eleven all the luck in the world.

Tennis Team

As all last year’s men had graduated, the tennis team started its season without any veterans. This year Mr. Kenny undertook to take charge of the team, which consisted of Alfred Dixon, Andrew Kasper, Anoosh Kergian, David Crawford, Phillip Watts, and Joseph Golden. At the first meeting of the team, Alfred was elected captain and the duties of the manager were given over to Demeter Kollias, post-graduate, as there were no other boys available for the position.

This year, the team was handicapped by not having the Winsor Club courts on which to practice and to play its matches. It was forced to use the town courts, which were not free at all times.

The team was again a member of the suburban league, whose other members were Winchester, Belmont, Lexington, and Winthrop. Three singles and two doubles matches were played in each contest. Although the team had not won any contests up to the time of the Annual’s going to press, it improved immensely with each contest. As only Capt. Dixon and Anoosh Kergian graduate this year, the team will have a good nucleus for the next year.

The scores of the matches are as follows:

| Watertown 0 | Winchester | 5 |
| Watertown 2 | Lexington  | 3 |
| Watertown 1 | Belmont    | 4 |
| Watertown 1½| Winthrop   | 3½|
| Watertown 1 | Belmont    | 4 |
| Watertown 0 | Winchester | 5 |
| Watertown 2 | Winthrop   | 3 |
| Watertown 2 | Newton 2nd Varsity | 3 |

Girls’ Tennis

The girls’ tennis squad started indoor practice April first. After vacation the team was chosen, and practice started at the Victory Field tennis courts. The team consisted of seven members: Phyllis Fall and Dorothy Wheeler, doubles; Doris Howard and Althea Johnson, doubles; Thelma Rogers, Edith Rogers, and Grace Mulvahill, singles. The players rank as follows:

First—MANAGER THELMA ROGERS
Second—CAPTAIN EDITH ROGERS
Third—GRACE MULVAHILL

As we go to press, the schedule stands as follows:

May 28—Belmont
June 2—Belmont
June 4—Newton
June 8—Winthrop

Front Row—(Kneeling) Edith Rogers, Thelma Rogers
Second Row—Grace Mulvahill, Phyllis Fall
Third Row—Dorothy Wheeler, Althea Johnson, Miss Crowley
Golf

The golf team has had a most successful season under the captaincy of Paul McGrady and the able coaching of Mr. Keene. Through the efforts of Mr. Whitehill, the Oakley Country Club was secured for home matches. Fourteen matches were played, two each with Waltham, Newton, Arlington, Tufts Freshmen, Dedham, Belmont, and Worcester. Watertown was victor in nine matches, losing only to Tufts Freshmen, Newton, and Arlington.

Although the main strength of the team lay in the first three men, the others did a fine job, considering that this was their first year on the team. Another year will find them greatly improved and ready to meet and conquer all opponents.

Left to Right—Mr. Keene, Dexter Wesson, Raymond Martin, Robert MacCurdy, Paul McGrady.
Trophies

The Mystic Valley Baseball Championship was won by Watertown High School in 1918. The team won a cup inscribed with the names of Captain Edward Cousineau and Coach McDonald.

In the same year Watertown won the Football Championship of the Mystic Valley League. The trophy this time was a shield inscribed with the names of Captain Winthrop Chamberlain and Coach McDonald.

In the same banner year of 1918, Brookline High was downed by a powerful Watertown eleven. The football which was used in this 13 to 1 victory has been kept as a reminder of the words, "the bigger they are the harder they fall."

In 1919, a fast team under the leadership of Captain Albert Shanahan and Coach McDonald, added another shield to our collection.

The next Championship shield was won in 1920 by a team led by Higgins and McDonald.

As a member of the Suburban League in 1921, Watertown High took the lead and held it to win the championship in basketball. This team was coached by Mr. Higgins and captained by Thomas Moran.

The Watertown-Belmont game of Thanksgiving Day, 1928, was a great victory for the school. The football which was used in this contest has been preserved for future generations to marvel at as the one which lived through a 27 to 0 victory for Watertown.

In 1929 Watertown and Melrose stood at the top of the Mystic Valley League in football. The teams were pretty evenly matched, but Melrose was favored. Watertown took this game by brilliant playing and fine spirit.

In 1931 the Watertown track team won the Alfred W. Dickerson Trophy in the Fourteenth Annual State Track Indoor Meet. Our team was the winner in Class B.

Also in 1931 Watertown won Class C in the Harvard Interscholastic Track Meet held in the Harvard Stadium.

Through three generations the Vose Piano has responded with sympathy and understanding to the touch of its players... it accompanied the tender love songs of that day when one was not afraid to confess one's broken heart... and it responds now, ever sweet, when the young generation draws it into the swinging rhythms of new day.

How Much or How Good?

Before money is spent for any commodity, the purchaser usually wants to know what the cost will be. That is natural and businesslike as well.

As applied to food products what is the essential thing? Which is of vital importance; how much it costs, or what it will supply in energy and healthfulness?

People usually get what they pay for, and no more. Who has not been persuaded against her better judgment, to buy something apparently low priced, only to realize later of its cheapness and shoddiness.

We do not try to beat the town on price, but we do propose to give the buyer a lot for her money. We invite you to prove this to yourself.
