In presenting this eighth volume of the Year Book to the class of 1934, it is the earnest desire of the Annual staff to provide a means of recalling pleasant memories of the years passed in attending Watertown High School.

The Annual

To the Seniors:
May we offer to you on the eve of your graduation a few wise words chosen from The Notebook of Elbert Hubbard? We hope that they will serve to remind you of some fundamental truths which underlie all worthwhile achievement and honest living.

"Responsibilities gravitate to the person who can shoulder them; Power flows to the man who knows how."

"Education is simply the encouragement of right habits—the fixing of good habits until they become a part of one's nature, and are exercised automatically."

"Force expends itself and dies; every army is marching to its death; nothing but a skull and a skeleton fills helmet and cuirass; the aggressor is overcome by the poison of his pride; victory is only another name for defeat; but the Spirit of Gentleness and Truth is eternal."

"Cultivate the intellect, and you shall have a mind that produces beautiful thoughts, worthy images, helpful ideas; that will serve as a solace in times of stress, and be to you a refuge 'gainst all the storms that blow. The cultured mind, as compared with the uncultured, is the difference between a beautiful garden which produces vegetables, fruits or flowers, and a tract of land that is overgrown with weeds and brambles."

With these quoted words we express to you our own sincere wishes for many useful and happy years.

At a certain point in the Swiss Alps, two streams, one bluish, the other brownish, converge into a single river. The two currents flow along side by side for some distance before they become entirely mixed and unified.

So in the fall of '31 two tributaries, one from the East, one from the West, flowed into the Senior High School.

For a while the two streams were reluctant to come together. A party given by the Quid Nunc Society helped to unite them, but the two currents were still quite in evidence when the election of officers was held. The West captured the three highest offices, but the East had a majority of the places. Richard Rockett shot to the top as President. The other officers were Warren Hanson, Vice-President; Catherine Juliano, Secretary; John Thompson, Treasurer; Alison Belding, Joseph Guidrey, and Helen Kander, the Executive Committee.

The class first triumphed publicly when Barbara Russell not only won the star role of the All School Night play The Rivals but also did a remarkable piece of acting. Robert Bond and Harry Kritzman distinguished themselves in minor parts.

Elton George and Helen Wheeler upheld the musical standing of our class when they were chosen with upper classmen to play in the Festival Orchestra Concert given in the spring by a group of representatives of the New England High Schools at Providence, R. I.

Already classmates who were to be heroes in the later years were gaining a foothold, mostly, to be sure, as second strings. Names which have since become famous began to appear in The Bulletin: Lawson, Zacheus, Fisk, Martin, and Larkin; Clare Murdock, Frances Cerqua, Catherine Juliano, and Josephine Papalia.

Toward the end of our junior year our class of '34 was well united with all divided feeling washed away. New friendships had been made and we now felt ourselves a real part of the school.

When we returned in the fall, we found that the school had a curious schedule, known as the staggered system. This change was caused by the increase in attendance. For all students this meant an actual shortening of hours. We pitied the poor Juniors, whose strength was divided between the morning and afternoon groups.

At the class election, women's rights must have been forgotten for the boys acquired exclusive power. Robert Bond was chosen President; Robert Newell, Vice-President; John Thompson, Secretary; Kenneth Keyes, Treasurer; Arthur Fagan, Ernest Falbo, and Richard Rockett, Executive Committee.

That which might have won the greatest renown for the class resulted rather in the greatest disappointment of the three years. This was the middler play Daddy Long Legs which was never presented. It had great possibilities, probabilities in fact, but somehow it fell through, "and what a fall was there, my country-men."

The prowess of the class was augmented as time went on. Now Middlers played on every first team, and elbowed the Seniors for championships. An unusual amount of dramatic talent was shown by such members as "Tina" Natoli, Paula Smith, Harry Kritzman, and Richard Rockett. Still we were only Middlers and were just getting ready to mount to the top rung of the scholastic ladder.

Another summer passes and at last we are Seniors. From our pinnacle we view our younger friends. Lilliputians, or are they only ants drudging away at their little tasks? As for us, we have now acquired the appearance of ease under our heavy burdens.

Who would be chosen to fill the offices this all-important year? Again we ballotéd, and the votes fell to Richard Rockett, President; Robert Newell, Vice-President; Alison Belding, Secretary; Erle Chase, Treasurer; Catherine Juliano, George Larkin, and Helen Wheeler, Executive Committee.
THE ANNUAL

In February our class play, Christopher Beau, was presented, with a cast composed chiefly of newly discovered talent. The players worked with enthusiasm, and the results captivated the audience.

We are the first class to complete three years under the dime plan which has been a financial aid to us personally, to the running of school activities, and to the class budget.

We have gained many athletic honors, musical fame, and have had our share of honor students. Surely we have all benefited in some way by our high school career.

Although a feeling of relief and joy comes over us to leave school and studies, we also experience a feeling of regret to part from these halls of friendship and good times. We are grateful to the teachers who have made our three years really worthwhile and prepared us to face the future with confidence.

For the Juniors and Middlers we wish good fortune, together with an ever-growing realization of the value of the privileges and pleasures which they will experience as they take our places.

CUM LAUDE

The Cum Laude Society, founded at the Tome School, Maryland, in 1906, has for its object the encouragement and reward of high scholastic attainment in secondary schools and corresponds in aim and methods with the Phi Beta Kappa in colleges. The motto of the society consists of the three Greek words απετη signifying virtue, δικη signifying justice, and τιμη signifying honor.

Watertown High is one of the few schools to hold membership in this society and was granted its charter in 1921.

The organization was first called the Alpha Delta Tau Fraternity, but to avoid confusion with the Greek-letter fraternities of a different character, this name was changed in 1916 and it became the Cum Laude Society. In the same year the constitution was amended in order that girls, who had formerly been excluded from the society, might be allowed membership. The society is incorporated under the laws of Maryland.

FOOTBALL

Coach, Edwin Ward; Co-Captains, Jack Ananian, Vincent Sansone; Manager, James Quirk.

Outstanding players:
‘‘Jocko’’ Ananian, ‘‘Vinnie’’ Sansone, George ‘‘Flash’’ Larkin.

Games played, 9; won, 2; tied, 2; lost, 5.

Outstanding games:
Waltham and Belmont.

Although the football team did not win many of its games this year, it was the first team ever to tie Waltham and beat Belmont in the same year. The first game of the season was with Framingham at Watertown. The game resulted in a seven to seven tie, thanks to the fine playing of ‘‘Eddie’’ Reid and ‘‘Tiger’’ Larkin and the constant plunging of our strong line.

The Waltham game came in the middle of the schedule. This team was undefeated and on its way to a state title when it was met by the underrated Watertown team which tied it six to six. The clever work of our line, both defensive and offensive, ‘‘got the bacon.’’ Runs by Fisk, Wallace, and Larkin put the team in the shadow of the welcoming goal posts where a pass from Larkin to Daughters was completed for a touchdown.

The season came to a close with the Belmont game at Watertown. ‘‘Booker’’ Wallace, Larkin, and Bond were the star players, although enough cannot be said about the fine work of our plunging line. The result was a decisive victory for Watertown, 7–2.

‘‘Ben’’ Wolohojian was elected captain for ’34. Ananian, Sansone, Larkin, and Daughters were chosen for the All-Mystic Valley Team.
BASEBALL

Coach, Edwin Ward; Captain, Robert Bond; Manager, Walter Slayton.

The 1934 edition of Watertown High baseball promises a successful season despite the loss of many of the '33 championship outfit. Graduation took a heavy toll, and the loss of "Joe" Guidrey just before the start of the season added further grief. However, the club has pulled together and if it can supplement a little batting power to its formidable pitching staff it is bound to go somewhere. The mound corps is led by the brilliant "Dom" Lupo, all-scholastic pitcher of last year, and is sure to receive help from Paul Toscano, veteran of two years, Ray Chamberlain, sensational rookie, and Warren "Fish" Newell. The latter two are both lower classmen which promises well for the future. Chamberlain has also added his big war club to the attack.

"Bob" Bond, captain and first baseman, promises to be the leading slugger, but he will have to look closely to his honors. Gardner Sherlock and Murray Berringer make a fast keystone duo while a hot battle goes on for third base among "Dave" Howe, "Bucky" Walker, "Bill" Fitzpatrick, and "Jocko" Ananian. In the outfield are "Ben" Wolohojian and "Ed" Zacheus, good flyhawks, and the aforementioned Chamberlain.

George Larkin has been doing the major part of the catching and improving with each game.

The faculty manager has booked a hard schedule, but the club and its coach expect to pull through with a high average of wins.
SOCCER

Coach, John Craig; Captain, "Tony" Mantenuto; Manager, Tony Mantenuto.

Outstanding players:
Tony Mantenuto, Donald Thurber, Joseph Berinato.

Games played, 12; won, 7; lost, 5.

Outstanding games:
New Bedford, Lexington, Medford.

This year the soccer team played thirteen games, eight of which were league games. The league championship was won by Medford, Watertown finishing in a tie with Lexington for second place. All the games that were lost were by a very small margin, and even the crack New Bedford Vocational Team was lucky to get away with a win from us on our home ground. The team was captained by Tony Mantenuto who proved a splendid leader and who developed into one of the best center-forwards ever to represent the High School.
WRESTLING

Coach, George Grimes; Co-Captains, Henry Paolera, Edward Eaton; Manager, Norman Abbott.

Outstanding players:

  Edward Eaton, Henry Paolera, "Jocko" Ananian.

Meets, 8; won, 4; tied, 1; lost, 3.

Outstanding meets:

  North Quincy, Quincy, Weymouth.

The wrestling team had a fairly successful season. It was its first year in the Old Colony League and it finished in third place, only four points behind North Quincy who won the league championship. The last three meets were very close and were won by Watertown at the last minute. Henry Paolera and Jocko Ananian went through the whole season without defeat.
HOCKEY

Coach, Harold Kenney; Captain, Edward Reid; Manager, Sumner Starbird.

Outstanding players:
Edward Reid, Leo Martin, Ivan Morel.

Games played, 13; won, 6; tied, 2; lost, 5.

Outstanding games:
Boston College, Wellesley, Needham.

The hockey team had a fairly successful season, winning more games than it lost. This was its second year in the Bay State League. It finished in fifth place, just missing being in the play-offs. Captain "Eddie" Reid, playing center-ice and right wing, was the outstanding player of the season. He was chosen for the All-Bay State and All-Scholastic teams.

The best game of the season was that with Boston College High which ended with a tie score, Reid and Morel playing the leading roles. Eddie Reid scored the first goal and then Ivan Morel fell just short of the league scoring record by scoring three goals in the one game.

Another outstanding game was that with Wellesley which resulted in a deadlock. The first and only goal for Watertown in this game was made by Eddie Reid. Soon after this Wellesley tied the score.
FIELD HOCKEY

Coach, Miss Biggane; Captain, Frances Cerqua; Manager, Sara Joseph.
Outstanding players:
Frances Cerqua, Sara Joseph, Anna Hillier.
Games played, 4; tied, 2; won, 1; lost, 1.
Outstanding games:
Waltham, Newton, Winchester.

In all of the hockey games this year, our players showed both speed and endurance, especially in the Winchester game. The Watertown team had the ball on Winchester’s half a great deal of the time, scoring two goals which were not counted because of fouls.

The Newton game was a very trying one, each team having the ball up and down the field without a score until Anna Hillier sent a swift pass to Frances Cerqua who passed to Alison Belding. Alison passed back to Frances who scored the goal which won the game.

Honors for the Waltham game went to our second team which scored two points in the first half and prevented Waltham from tying in the second.

The first team, lacking in cooperation during the first period, played a hard and fast game with fine defense work in the second half, preventing the opposing team from scoring although they were not able to score themselves. The game ended 0 to 0.

Miss Biggane drilled the players on team work as well as on stick work so expertly that the team won several honors at the Newton Field Day. The Watertown forward line won first place and the defense line won second place for fine passing as well as team work. Josephine Papalia won first place in the obstacle dribbling race.

After the season was over a banquet was held at which Gilda Campagna, a clever defense player, was chosen captain for the coming year, while Liana Cerqua, who played for the first time this season, was elected manager.
The basketball team, playing a very hard schedule, had only a mediocre season. The two most exciting games of the season were with North Quincy, both of which were won by Watertown by a very small margin. Both teams played a fast game; first one team was ahead, then the other. George Larkin led the team for the season in scoring. He tallied eighty-five points to lead his nearest rival, Donald Daughters, by twenty-two points. "Bill" Stevens was by far the most consistent foul shooter of the team, scoring fifty-nine points, nineteen of which were fouls. The season came to a close with Watertown at Newton Trade. Watertown won the game, but there was a hard battle as the score was always very close.
GIRLS’ BASKETBALL

Coach, Miss Biggane; Captain, Catherine Juliano; Manager, Clare Murdock.

Outstanding players: Catherine Juliano, Clare Murdock, Anna Hillier.

Games played, 6; won, 5; lost, 1.

Outstanding games: Return game with Winchester, Lexington, Newton.

The basketball team, under Miss Biggane’s fine coaching, was very successful this season, winning five games out of six. The fact that the second team was undefeated gives promise of a strong team next year.

All of our games were easily won, with unusually high scores.

The Lexington game was a surprise. Both teams entered the game undefeated. The Watertown team scored the first baskets but, over-confident because of previous victories, did not keep up to its standard. From this time on until the end, the game was a struggle in which each team took the lead successively. Lexington finally won by only three points.

Another interesting game was the return game with Winchester. The Winchester team had been practicing and had improved since the last time we had met them. Also we were playing them on their own floor this time. Watertown went into the game realizing this but nevertheless won the game with a safe margin.

The teams had unusually high scores in all their games. The total scores were: first team, Watertown 201—opponents 68; second team, Watertown 258—opponents 39.

The captain-elect, Ellen Sheehan, was the only Middler on the first team this year and promises to be a fine guard. Kathleen Martin, a jump-center, was chosen manager.
INDOOR TRACK

Coach, Thomas O'Brien; Captain, Allan Fisk; Manager, Vito Cirillo.

Outstanding players:
Allan Fisk, Thomas Kingsley.

Meets held, 10; won, 7; lost, 3.

Outstanding meets:
Arlington, Somerville, State Meet.

This year’s track team had a very successful indoor season. For the first time in years, it succeeded in defeating Arlington, one of its keenest rivals. At the Northeastern Meet, it finished second to Malden, the indoor champions. The relay team consisting of “Tom” Kingsley, “Bob” Newell, Hoyt Thurber, Captain “Al” Fiske set the fastest time in the B: A. A. meet and together with another relay team, consisting of “Bill” Aberle, George Bramhall, “Bill” Fisk, and “Win” Ballentine, succeeded in capturing the Relay Carnival Championship in Class B. The team did exceptionally well in winning the State Meet, Class B, and at this time the relay team came through again by setting a new record. Captain Al Fiske also broke the record in the “600,” but was beaten to the tape by a few inches.
Third row: Callahan, McKinnon, Kelley, Krancer, Ray, Antoni, Fahey.
Back row: Kingsley, Radcliffe, Ballantine, Looney, Newell, Kimball.

OUTDOOR TRACK

Coach, Thomas O'Brien; Captain, "Al" Fisk; Manager, Vito Cirillo; Assistant Manager, "Tom" Vahey.

The outdoor track team of 1934 began its season by defeating Norwood High School by the overwhelming score of sixty-one and two thirds points to twenty-five and one third. Under the able leadership of Captain Al Fisk the team expects to give a good showing in its dual meets with Belmont.

The relay team, composed of Donald Thurber, Robert Newell, "Tom" Kingsley, and Al Fisk, is the nucleus of the track team. As a result of winning the Class B State Championship at the Boston Garden the above-mentioned runners, with Donald Daughters as alternate, were sent to Pennsylvania to compete in the Penn Relays, in which they won second place.

Coach Thomas O'Brien expects the team to win honors at the Inter-Scholastic meet at Harvard and also at the Fitchburg Relays.
BOYS' TENNIS

Coach, Harold Kenney; Captain, Fred Greehan; Manager, Warren Hanson.

The 1934 tennis team, as this is being written, anticipates a longer and harder schedule than that of any previous team representing Watertown High School. Fifteen candidates turned out for the first practice session. Of these, the veterans, Fred Greehan and Warren Hanson, will be the nucleus of a winning team; other members of the squad who are expected to comprise the team are Peter Koumjian, Warren Knapp, Lloyd Sexton and Robert Watts. During the first few games, lack of experience will be a hindrance to our players, but they will make a better showing as the matches progress.

The Watertown tennis team is a member of the Suburban Tennis League which includes Melrose, Winchester, Lexington, Belmont, Winthrop, and Watertown. Other matches to be included on the stiff schedule are with Natick, Boston College High, Framingham, and Newton. All of the home games will be played at the Victory Field tennis courts.
GIRLS' TENNIS

Coach, Miss Biggane; Captain, Louise Hedlund; Manager, Celia Madanian.

The three most promising players:
Louise Hedlund, Celia Madanian, Alice Dedeian.

Three games which may prove outstanding:
Newton, Winchester, Belmont.

The tennis schedule this year includes the alumnae game and the games with Concord, Winthrop, Needham, Newton, Malden, Winchester, Waltham, and Belmont. The games with Newton, Winchester, and Belmont are going to be hard fought matches because these schools have had a great deal of experience during the winter at the Longwood Cricket Club, consequently having more strength.

Miss Biggane hopes to have a successful tennis team this year because of the many experienced players remaining from last year. There are also other players who are already practicing in the gymnasium, since the courts at Victory Field are not yet open, to acquire skill and strength in their play under the capable coaching of Miss Biggane.
The forming of the new Greater Boston Inter-scholastic Golf League has aroused much interest in the scholastic sport world, especially in Watertown. With the return of five veterans for competition, namely Leo Martin, captain and former state caddy champion, Edward Martin, his twin brother, Myles King, "Charlie" Phillips, and Richard Minasian, the prospects for capturing the championship of the league are quite promising. There are also several other good golfers, one of whom may make the six-man team. The Oakley Country Club has given Watertown the use of the course on Mondays and Fridays as in past years. The team's opponents comprise Worcester, Norwood, Newton, Brookline, Waltham, Arlington, and Lexington. If Watertown succeeds in winning the championship of the league, much of its success can be attributed not only to the fine work of the team, but to the cooperation of Mr. Keene, the popular coach, and Donald Boylan, the enterprising manager who had charge of most of the detail work.
