Volume XV

WATERTOWN SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Watertown, Massachusetts
FOREWORD

We, the Annual Staff, present this fifteenth volume of the year book to the class of nineteen hundred and forty-one with the sincere wish that in the years to come it will serve to bring back pleasant memories of high school days and comrades.
TO MISS ETHEL A. RICKER

whose understanding, sympathy, good nature, and loyalty have earned the friendship and respect of all who have known her through her many years as an instructor.

A TURN IN THE ROAD

Our life is but a path which turns and twists
And strains to reach, at last, a peak—a goal.
Thus far we’ve toiled together up this path;
We’ve helped each other o’er each rock and knoll.
Our friends, who trod this path once long ago,
Reached back to help us climb the unknown way
When we were weary, or had given up hope
Of victory, and so had gone astray.

But now the end of the familiar trail
Is reached. The climb ahead is strange and steep,
And up it we must grope our way alone.
But if we keep our faith we can not fail,
For when the fruits of honest toil we reap,
We’ll know that our success has been our own.

JACQUELINE BERNICE ZELDIN, 1941

GRADUATION 1941

(FAREWELL FROM JUNIOR CLASS)

Up the steps to the green lawn
You slowly pass where ribboned scrolls are furled;
With youth’s undaunted eagerness for life
You reach out for your passport to the world.

The tassels swing of one accord!
You looked, as students, toward this day with cheer;
But now, as men and women of the world,
Look back in sadness, for the day is here.

A soft tear falls upon a gown
To blend with countless others unaware
In a deep and flowing stream of brotherhood
That rings sweet memories through a world of care.

And where will fortune beckon now—
Where fickle fame’s resplendent banners fly;
Or through the humbler, timeworn walks of life
That most of us will some day travel by?

Some one plants a sprig of green
And we who soon shall follow breathe the prayer
That higher, and more brilliant day by day
Your fame will grow as will the ivy there.

—EVELYN OLSEN
Class of ’42
CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1939, a group of thrilled Sophomores marched gaily into the enormous brick building called Watertown Senior High School. Eager to adapt ourselves to the customs and traditions of this wonderful building, we soon began planning for the Junior Party. That memorable night proved to be an outstanding success with Frank Maguire as Master of Ceremonies. The program starred Marie Grassia singing and dancing; Charles Parsons singing hit tunes; Ray Ballantine, that witty individual, lending his talents; Eddie Gonsalvo doing trick tap steps; and Tom Murphy singing romantic ballads. We then proceeded to dance on one others' toes in the gym. Remember the 'Barny' clothes we wore? A barn dance to start the activity ball rolling!

Soon after this, elections took place. Top honors went to Jack McKeever who was voted president. Following, came Tom Murphy, vice president; Ruth Sheehan, secretary; Gini Guidrey, treasurer; and Ronald Davis, John Allen, and James Monroe, our executive committee.

We pause a moment to recall the unfortunate death of John and Aldo Corsi, two excellent athletes who will not be forgotten.

The year 1940 rolls around and we find this amazing class confidently walking the corridors of Ye Olde Senior High School.

Soon after the mighty seniors had elections, our class had theirs, placing top honors once more on Jack McKeever. Tom Murphy followed as vice-president; Ruth Sheehan, secretary; 'Gini' Guidrey, treasurer; and John Allen, Charles Dillard, and June Holmes became the executive committee.

Deciding it was about time we were recognized as were the classes in other schools, our class, changed its name from 'Middle' to 'Junior'. Weren't we wonderful? As time passed on, we had a chance to exhibit our dramatic abilities in a play called 'The Goose Hangs High.' We won't forget Ronnie Davis, Ruth Fifield, Ray Ballantine, Jean Kilgore, and Tom Murphy and their supporting cast in the roles they played so excellently. As our chance to shine that year was over, we settled down to the three R's, reading, writing, and arithmetic.

The long-awaited year of 1941 came slyly in with its bag of tricks for a fresh batch of seniors. After renewing pleasant summer memories with our friends, we settled down to the more serious problems such as elections. Not content to remain dignified seniors, the class eagerly waited for the returns of elections. But why so jittery? We should have known Jack McKeever would lead in the hard battle of politics, with Bill Boyce as vice-president; Ruth Sheehan, secretary; Gini Guidrey, treasurer; and John Allen, Charles Dillard, and Ronnie Davis, June Holmes, and John Allen as executive committee.

As soon as the officers had taken over their duties, the Annual staff was selected. Charles Colby, one of our most prominent seniors, was chosen as Editor-in-Chief.

'WHAT A LIFE!' Yes, that was the title of our successful Senior play. We won't forget Charlie Ellis's superb performance as Henry Aldrich, backed by many other superb performances.

At last! Freak Day! The dignified Seniors came down from their 'pedestals'. Edith Dauphinee made a beautiful Queen of Hearts. Eddie Roche as a typical 'oomph' girl, and Margaret Coutts as a cave woman brought many squeals of delight. The memorable day ended with the Freaks staging a parade through the auditorium.

Though another page had been turned in the book of activities, we still had four more important dates to enjoy. The banquet, where the Hall of Fame was revealed; the Senior Prom, the last dance of the year; The Baccalaureate; and best of all, Graduation, where diplomas hold the center of attention along with best wishes from our classmates.

Respectfully submitted,
Ruth Sheehan, Secretary
CLASS PROPHECY

"Here I am at the Joyce Hotel; I can hardly believe it is 1956. It has been just 15 years since I last saw Boston. 1941, that was the year 'best citizen' June Holmes threw her overalls into Thomas Murphy's chowder. Whoever thought that Tom would become a matinee idol and June would become the President of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Massachusetts!"

Going down in the elevator, which was piloted by Joe Mee, I met Monsieur Gerard Sama, well-known hair stylist with his assistants, Rose Kaderian, Grace Donahed, Lillian Dobrowolski, Clara Carracini, and Eileen Curren. It struck me that apparently Gerard has an eye for more than hair.

After receiving my mail from the desk clerk, Bob Monahan, and saying hello to the telephone operator, Shirley Colby, I asked the doorman, John Soule, to have my car sent over from the hotel's garage... It was promptly delivered by James Monroe in his usual sunny manner.

Driving slowly down Park Street I noticed Bazarian's Department Store situated directly across from the Common. And there sat Lloyd Green feeding the pigeons. Amused by this unexpected sight, I am afraid I didn't keep my mind on my driving for suddenly—crash!

The driver of the other car was Chas, who later told me he stormed out to find who the dickens had hit him and what damage had been done. His car was intact, but mine had not fared so well. He pecked his head through the window and was he surprised to find me, out—like a light. The surprises continued with the approach of officer Joe Leah, wondering what was happening. Jean Green, a private nurse, who was a witness to the collision, brought me to, while Chas phoned for a wrecker. When I found that he had been driving the other car and recognized him, I was speechless (for a change). "While you're getting your breath," he said, "I'll tell you a story you really might be interested in." His story went something like this.

"My meeting so many old pals is getting to be a habit. It seems I've seen and heard of more of our class of '41 since last night than I thought still existed.

It started when I went to see some of the old gang at the 'All Star' pro-football game last night. Lucky Zissus, Vic Palladino, T. J. Oates, Joe Marini, and of course, Bill Boyce have been playing 'pro-football', as you doubtless know. They're still pretty good even if they're 'old men'. I was talking to them after the game, and they told me John, 'Bull', Hovagimian's wish came true. He is head coach in a midwestern college and turning out some good teams. There I saw Helen Lupo, Grace Harrington, Miriam Hartenstein, Elaine Devine, and Helen Hansen, whose faces are still familiar, watching their old heroes at the game.

Right after I arrived home, I received a radiogram which was delivered by none other than John Kirwan. He told me he expected soon to be elected "Mr. Western Union". Good old John, always bragging! He told me about a new band he had heard in which four Watertown boys were playing. Art Margosian and Harlan Haag are playing sax and Al Stadman is on the guitar. The other one is Lou Juliano, who is doing all their arranging. According to John they're tops.

The radiogram was from Scott Carpenter who, by the way, is a head chemist at the DuPont Chemical plant in New Jersey. He is flying in on tonight's plane and he wants me to meet him. He tells me that Donald Larson and Bill McMahon are the co-pilots of the plane while Barbara Duffley is the hostess. And he has as his co-passerger our old friend Paul Mulvaney, the big Tel. and Tel. executive.

I got up this morning never realizing that these meetings would continue, but I had to laugh when I heard Richard Briggs as announcer on the '920 Club' introducing Dick Marquis at the keyboard broadcasting from the piano warehouse. I had an appointment over at the ‘Snap’ magazine office whose editor is Calvin ‘Soup’ Campbell. In the office were his typists, Mary Arone, Veronica Haboian, Dot Grimmich, and Catherine Mazza. I also found Roy Carpenter, who has charge of all the ‘Snap’snapplings’, and Florette Sanders, who is Soup’s private secretary.

On the way out, after finishing my business, I nearly stumbled over Kay Megan who is the magazine’s ‘Boogy-Woogy washerwoman’. I also met some of ‘Soup’s staff including Agnes Trapasso, Al Wood, Esther Zitso.

I went down in the elevator with Donald Stacey, who told me he is the printer for ‘Snap’. I was also bumped into by Bea Altemar, who handles the advertising end of the magazine and is censored by Hay’s office.

I met Dean Weber, from the Chemistry Department at the Hood Rubber, for lunch. We were glad to find Manuel Stephanian, Clementi Sansone, Alfred Malaney, Julius Perri, and Bob Prout, all in officers’ uniforms of Uncle Sam’s forces, and all, especially Bob, looking like the answer to a woman’s prayer.

After lunch I left Dean and finished my day’s work without anything further happening. I was on my way home when whom did I run into but you. By the way, what are you doing in Boston?

I told him I had been on my way to the New England Music Lover’s Convention. And that our president is the former Eileen Boone who is not only a most talented singer, but also a model wife. We are having as our guest artists, Miss Doris Dodd, piano virtuoso; Stuart Stoney, a xylophonist; and Helen Chilingarian and Anastasias Tsicoulias, concert violinists.

I was interrupted by a voice saying, ‘Excuse me, Bud, but da lady’s car won’t be ready until late tonight.’ It was none than Arthur Brown, head mechanic of Harold Young’s newly opened garage. After an exchange of greetings we were told to move on by Sergeant Dineen, the torrid terror of the Boston Constabulary.

Chas sputtered out, ‘Let’s eat,’ in a voice that still cracked like Henry’s. Leaving cars in Brown’s care, we finally decided to go to ‘Selen’s Society Stopoff’ where the food is cooked by Carl himself and the menu is supervised by Eileen Wilkinson. We were served by Barbara Fagan who is ably assisted by Bob MacDonnell, recently selected as ‘Boston’s most glamorous bus boy’.

Several of Watertown’s class of 1941 sat here and there throughout the restaurant. At a small table for two we saw Jack McKeever and Ruth Sheehan, now passing notes across the table instead of across the class room. Jack is a professor of English at Boston University and Ruth is a Secretary there.

A sign ‘Teacher’s Convention’ drew our attention to a table which was occupied by Dorothy Hill, Muriel Hansen, Dorothea Hamm, Ruth Johnson, Mimi Chian, Harry Kouyoumjian, Nazareth Kashmanian, and William Nahabedian (would you believe it?).

With time to waste we decided to see Boston’s latest musical comedy ‘Have You Ever Been To Cincinnati?’ starring Ray ‘Dutchy’ Ballantine and produced by Malcolm Willoughby.

Leaving, we caught a glimpse of the inimitable Ronnie Davis, now famous for his feminine Caricatures posing for the society photographer Bob Tarjan. With Ronnie were his 2 inspirations, Joyce Townshend and Jean Kilgore.

Hailing a Keefe Cab driven by Norman Huliston, we headed for the theater.

Still laughing over the sight of Ralph Holmes in his brass-buttoned high-hatted uniform doubling over opening car doors, and the passing view we had caught of Bernice Mortenson soliciting contributions for the Salvation Army with Ranny Perry, Charlie Boyle, Donald Ryder, and Keith Doty tooting their horns behind her, we entered the crowded lobby.

We greeted many old friends among whom were: the former Kay Paige with
THE ANNUAL FORTY-ONE

Fluffy Sr. and Jr; Jackie Zeldin with her escort the aristocratic Charles Colby, Harvard's well-known professor of home economics; Louise Noden, Mary Astor, and Mary Murphy accompanied by Jacky McBride, Wilfred Smiley, and Al Corcoran (these boys are highly publicized for their auto-racing); and of course Marilyn Matson and Doctor Ed Kelly sweeping with a wave for all towards their orchestra seats. In a corner we caught a glimpse of Marie Natoli slipping the tickets to Ernie Bolduc. Apparently Marie and Ernie now have a complete financial understanding.

We were shown to our seats by the usherette, Eleanor Juliano.

Before first curtain, we watched the show's producer, Malcolm Willoughby, with the charming Dorothy Whitman as they entertained their box, their party consisting of John Macdonald and Barbara Gillis, Fred Arenstrup, and Edith Dauphinee. John is a heating engineer while Fred owns his own oil company. In other boxes we glimpsed Helen Poole and office manager Irving Rodd; Joe Kelley and Alice Dowling; Aram Kadejian, Vincent Frascatore, Raffi Hampson, and Gabriel Fisher, all professional men; and Rear Admiral Paul Francis with Bob Erickson, now a captain in the merchant marines.

During the intermission Charles Pappas, the theatre manager, asked if the owner of the junk wagon would please move it from in front of the theatre. Paul Marsubian was thereby forced to desert his seat.

We were sorry when the show was over because Ray and his able stooges, Frank Maguire and Charlie Parsons, had been their funniest. The singing of Sylvia Katz and Veronica Cavanaugh had lulled us, while the dancing of Marie Grassia had felled us. Florence Santosuosso's impersonations coupled with Roger and Ruth Hay's exotic ballroom dancing completed Watertown's array of stars in the show. However we feel we should mention Howie Ellegood's excellent lighting effects, the sets designed by Davie Shields, and the staging itself which was well handled by 'Ace' Jurjurian and Charlie Papalia.

On the billboard outside we saw a poster advertising Ann Carrington's all woman revue 'Men—Take Your Choice' featuring magnetic Elaine Porter, tempestuous Mary Shields, tricky Mary Osborn, adorable Regina O'Gorman, captivating Margie Morgan, and delightful Jini Guidrey.

We crossed the street for the purpose of getting a bite to eat at Brady's new Super Deluxe Diner now located in Boston. Inside, Tom Comick and Ruth Fifield, dramatic stage stars, were signing autographs for many fans including Phyllis Telecetia, Dot Paddock, and Alan Platt who owns his own business. In a corner booth we spied Boston's two foremost dress designers, namely Anna Fenerjian and Marjorie Wright, with their assistants Eleanor Neary, Marguerite Patapanian, and Theresa Perri. At a table for two we saw four—namely, Mary Gillis and Pat Treblas, U. S. Nat'l amateur tennis doubles stars confering with their managers Margaret Coutts and Alice Capone. At still another table were Eddie Gonsalo and Joe Wertelnyk, prominent local florists.

Loud Laughter drew our attention to the counter where 'Chink' Allen, 'Bud' Folino, Jack Farrington, Karl Whitehead, and Joe De Filippo were amusing themselves with some of Kenny Bryant's cartoons on Father Richard Thurston's new order, strangely enough called 'We Have Returned From the Dead.'

Behind the counter Bob Johnson was shouting orders to the good-natured cook, Millie McKeon, while Peg McManus, the peppy waitress, hastened about.

On our way to the garage we saw Larry Russo and Bud Dillard, men about town, in their top hat and tails holding up a 'no-parking sign.' We then picked up our cars at the garage, bid adieu to the mechanic Myles Beers, then to one another and parted.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1941

Know all men by these presents that we, the class of nineteen hundred and forty-one, being of sound and giving mind and memory in wishing to direct in what manner our estate shall be disposed of after our long-awaited graduation from Watertown High School, do make and publish "this here" document our last will and testament.

We wish to bequeath to our heirs, qualities and stuff which they may use most advantageously. We cannot, however, leave behind our most precious possessions...our fond memories of our last three years in school.

To our survivors, the new senior class, we leave (with our compliments) the senior assembly seats, the first recess and the senior curriculum (They are welcome to them). Our estate being fairly small, we leave no definite bequest to the high school insignificants, the class of 1943. To them we leave merely our best wishes and anything else they can salvage.

To our principal, Mr. Archibald, whose thorough understanding of the whims and fancies of the modern youth has made our high school days so pleasant, we will a comfy corner in our hearts.

To his royal highness, A. Robert Kelman, an adviser in the true sense of the word, we bequeath a Junior G-Man Badge and a crystal ball to help find out "who dunnit."

To Mr. John Craig, a genial descendent of the heather, we leave a pair of plaid bloomers to match his kilts.

To that gracious little lady of the faculty, Miss Severance, We bequeath a deluxe model gas scooter to speed up her between-period journeys.

To all Chemistry teachers we bequeath a bomb-proof shelter. Some of the underclassmen are taking the national defense ideal too seriously.

We would be quite inconsiderate if we did not mention the pedagogues in room 107 (alias the lion's den). To said inhabitants, we will each a pair of rose-colored glasses. They should have had them this past year.

To the rest of the faculty we sympathetically will oodles and oodles of aspirin tablets, for without a doubt they will come in mighty handy during next year's grind.

To those heirs who were disinherited we give this word of consolation. Anything you desire is yours for the asking, but at the same time remember that prisons are filled with many who forgot to ask.

In testimony thereof, we hereby set our hand and in the presence of irresponsible witnesses we declare this to be our last will and testament.

Ray Ballantine,

"What A Life," a three act comedy by Cliff Goldsmith, was presented by the Senior Class on March 14, 1941. The excellent cast, under the direction of Mrs. Betty Boerstler, gave a highly successful performance, which was enjoyed by an overcrowded auditorium. Since the play was based on the high school life of Henry Aldrich, well portrayed by Charles Ellis, Henry's inevitable misfortunes and their solutions afforded much amusement to the audience. The cast in the order of their appearance was:

The Cum Laude Chapter of Watertown High School received its charter in 1921. It is composed of seniors in the college course whose scholastic standing has been exceptionally high. The greatest honor that can be earned while in High School is the privilege of becoming a member of Cum Laude.

High scholastic rating in the classes is encouraged by the competition among the classes each term for the honor of winning the Cum Laude trophy. The trophy donated two years ago is engraved with the name of the winning class on the respective column.

Headed by faculty officers, this organization for the past few years has been sponsoring an annual bridge party in order to raise a scholarship fund. The induction of new members into Cum Laude is always a great day. Congratulations to active seniors whose scholastic records have made them deserving of this recognition.
The National Honor Society, founded by the National Society of Secondary Principals in 1921, has for its purpose the fastening of high ideals as well as the encouragement of scholastic attainment. More than two thousand leading schools of the nation are represented in this society. Watertown High School was granted its charter as the Saltonstall Chapter No. 1930 on May 20, 1937.

Membership in this society is granted to students who show outstanding qualities in character, service, leadership, and scholarship—the four cardinal principles to which the organization is dedicated.

Each year in the spring five per cent of the students of the Junior Class and fifteen per cent of the students of the Senior Class are elected into this organization. After graduation the Juniors meet and elect officers to carry on the work of the Society for the coming year.

In the past few years the Junior Class has had very little confusion in its elections, but it seems that the class of forty-two had to be different. Two ballots had to be taken before the President, Rudy Iodice, and the Vice-President, William Dawson were chosen, due to stiff opposition from Rudy Antoni and Richard Helms.

The Junior class has been fortunate in having such capable directors as Miss Sara D. Abbott and Mr. Harold Kenney, who have worked untiringly for its advancement.

Among its activities were the Junior Prom and the Junior Play. The Junior Prom, the first of its kind to be presented by a Junior Class, was a great success. The gym was attractively decorated with the colors of the class, maroon and gold. The Junior Play, "The Whole Town's Talking," which was directed by Mrs. Boerstler, was equally successful. The acting was outstanding, stellar performances being given by Charles Viau, Sally Prothro, Natalie Bixby, Jack Morse, Donald Howie, Jean McKeever, and a fine supporting cast.

The class was well represented in the other activities of the school. They had some outstanding performers in the All School Night Production, "The Prince of Pilsen", Sally Prothro, and others too numerous to mention, all of whom added much prestige to the class.
The class felt that they had a fine set of athletes, good enough to stand comparison with those of the other two classes. In football we see such names as Walter Delorey, Ruddy Iodice, Frank Zitso, Jack Sheehan, and Ronald Stapelton. Other outstanding athletes were: Walter Delorey, Ronnie Stapelton, and Bobby Baker, who displayed their speed in hockey; Allen McClay and Joe Bragoli, who distinguished themselves in soccer; Ruddy Iodice and Walter Delorey, in Baseball; Dick Bramball, Larry Chick, and Jack Sheehan, in track; and Rudy Antoni and Betty Cate in tennis.

The Juniors had many fine scholars. Among them were Victoria Sarkisian, and Anne Sarkisian who made the Super Honor Roll, and Audrey Bevan, Virginia Quirk and Mary Nielson.

The class wishes to thank those who have done their bit toward improving the class and making the past year such a successful and profitable one. They only hope that they may fill well the space left for them by the departing Senior Class.
The class of 1943 has participated in all school activities and has proven itself well able to fill the gap left by the outgoing seniors.

In our president, George Wickstrom, we not only have an able leader whom everyone likes, but also have an outstanding athlete who accomplished the noteworthy task of being on the football, basketball, and baseball teams while only in his sophomore year. Most people think we come to school only for education, but character building is just as important and sports certainly help to build character. George Bardizian, Hovey Eordekian, John Degnan, and Joe Favuzza showed great promise in basketball, the favorite sport of many of our boys.

Not to be overlooked in athletics are the girls, who took part in field hockey, basketball, tennis, and archery. The basketball team rewarded Miss Tierney by winning the annual game with the East Junior High. Marie Leary, Beverly Freeman, Betty Fardy, Virginia Mann, and Dotty Wright, look promising for next year's teams.

There isn't anyone who doesn't like some kind of music, whether it be the kind sung in the “Prince of Pilsen” or the kind played by the school band. The class should be proud of Pat Ward, who did such a wonderful job in a leading role of the operetta and also of the sophomores who are helping to make the band as fine as it is. We are sure that these musicians will take the places of the seniors and fill them well.

Book worms are usually frowned upon, but the sophomores who made the honor roll are all "regular fellows". Three people in the class who deserve special credit are Gertrude Puccia, Nancy Elsheterian, and Stella Palashis, who received marks high enough to put them on the super honor roll.

Our advisers, Miss O'Brien and Mr. Smith are warm friends of the entire class. They are always ready and willing to help with problems and to give their best advice.

The people that were selected for student council will hold office until next June; none have failed a subject this year. They are as follows:

Annie DiBacco
Emily Roessler
Stella Palashis
Joseph Derian
Robert Burns

Edward Marderosian
Armand Keshishian
Jean Bracken
Donald Leach
Walter Demars

It was our class that ushered in mid-year and final exams.

This year each class has had its own assemblies instead of so many combined all-school gatherings. At one of these assemblies the presidents of the Junior and Senior classes spoke to us on leadership and told us some of the mistakes made by their classes so that we could profit by them. At one class meeting we had a quiz show which everyone enjoyed. The questions were submitted by the pupils and some were very clever. The four contestants were Pat Ward, Walter Demars, Peter Simone, and Albert McCarthy. Mr. Archibald acted as Professor Quiz and after five rounds Walter Demars was awarded the first prize of one dollar.

The sophomores have entered the many clubs of the school. The number of the "Bulletin," edited by Florence Furfy and Claire Haffey, was a well-written edition. The newly formed Safety and Riding Clubs have been very popular with the sophomores.

In September the building was new, the rules and subjects were different from those of the Junior Highs, and most of us were adrift. But during the year we have learned what was expected of us and have graduated from sophists to sophomores. Our old rivals from the East or the West have become our friends. The fine school spirit has already improved us and we will be leading the cheers for you, alma mater, from now on. We are happy to belong and will do our share toward bettering Watertown High School.
Mr. Hugh Eisenhauer, sponsor of the Aero Club, has directed this club for several years. Its members are enthusiastic, air-minded pupils of the school, who enjoy building model airplanes and who are interested in aeronautics.

During the weekly meetings the members talk over the best methods of airplane construction and in this way aid each other in being more efficient in their work.

Of course they also acquire some elementary knowledge of the fundamental principles of flying. They always keep informed about the improvements that are continually being made in airplane design and construction.

The members hold several contests during the year with planes which they construct for this purpose.

At the end of the year the members receive club insignias after passing certain qualifications set up by Mr. Eisenhauer.
A group of twenty-six students make up the Art Club under Mr. Moody's supervision. Mr. Moody gives the members general instruction in the art of drawing and then gives them the opportunity to show their ability. They work in oil, watercolor, pastel, modeling clay, and in fact any medium which appeals to each individual himself. To supplement Mr. Moody's instruction the club was privileged to have as a speaker during one of the meetings Mr. Washburn, Vocational Adviser, from the Boston School of Practical Arts.

Several members attended a lecture at M. I. T. which was of invaluable assistance in their artistic training.

One of the main projects of the year undertaken by the club was the making of the backdrop of the scenery for the operetta "Prince of Pilsen" the All-School-Night Production. The school, which received the benefits from this excellent piece of work, is indebted to the club in this respect.

Another activity which is part of the club program is aiding the Linoleum Block Club with the tinting and shading of Christmas Cards which were sold to the students of the school.
This is the first year that this club was introduced to the school. The pupils received it with great interest as is evidenced by the large membership. Mr. Ford's idea in establishing the club was to promote safety in the school and in the community as well as to educate the students in principles of general safety with emphasis on safe driving. He accomplished this by showing several educational films and by having such interesting speakers as Sergeant Andrew Donnelly of the Traffic Department and Fire Chief O'Hearn who has always taken an active interest in the school. The Auto Drivers' Club sponsored an assembly for the members of the other clubs of the school and in this way hoped to extend to them the realization of the necessity of safety.

The club has adopted the following "Safety Creed," which was written by one of the members of the club:

"I believe that unlimited safety can be obtained in everything I do. I think it is my duty to prevent hazards and protect the lives of others whenever circumstances present themselves. I think the habit of carelessness can be replaced by carefulness. I believe that more thought behind anticipated actions will result in greater happiness for all."
BAND

The High School Band, comprised of about sixty students, is one of the most active organizations in the school.

The success of the band is due to Mr. Arnold L. Chick's fine leadership and the school's splendid musicians. Besides receiving excellent band training, the members learn military band routine work.

Early in the school year the band gave its services to the school by playing at the football games. During several assemblies the students heard many selections of semi-classical and modern composition. One of the outstanding numbers, which the students liked very much, was a group of selections from the operetta, "Naughty Marietta."

On January seventeenth, the combined High School Band and the American Legion Band, one hundred and thirty players in all, presented their annual concert.

The year's efforts were climaxed by the State Music Festival at Plymouth and by the New England Music Festival at Auburn and Lewiston, Maine. The band as a unit played for the last time at the graduation exercises.

The school feels proud to have such an organization as the band which has won the distinction of being one of the finest in Massachusetts and hopes that in future years the band will continue to maintain this high standard.
Because of many insistent requests, Mr. Keene obliged the students by forming the Biology Club. Its members are a select group of thirteen who have shown intense interest in biology and closely related subjects.

The club takes up such work as is not provided in the high school biology course. It is also concerned with arousing the interest of other students in the study of nature.

One of the first undertakings of the club was the performing of experimental psychological tests on rats. Professor Magoun of M. I. T. spoke to the club and gave helpful suggestions concerning the tests.

The members of the club took several field trips, one of which was to the Harvard Biological Laboratories. They also prepared an exhibit for the school library and sponsored Biology Project Night, the great event in the course of all Mr. Keene's Biology students.
BULLETIN

EDITH HALL, CALVIN CAMPBELL
Beatrice Altemar
Joseph Joyce, Lawrence Chick
Florence Furby, Clair Haffey

The "Bulletin," under the supervision of Mr. John Craig and Miss Laura Campbell, has had a very successful year.

In March three members of the staff, accompanied by Miss Laura Campbell, attended the National Conference held at Columbia University. The "Bulletin" delegates were Edith Hall and Calvin Campbell, the co-editors, and Beatrice Altemar, the advertising manager. Similar to this was the Eastern Massachusetts Scholastic Conference held at Northeastern University. Six staff members attended this conference.

In February the "Bulletin" sponsored the annual dance as the "Cupid Press Parade". During the club periods staff members were privileged to hear some fine speakers.

The "Bulletin" staff has worked hard to publish a fine bi-weekly school paper.
CAMERA CLUB

Robert Tarjan
Phyllis Telechea

President
Secretary-Treasurer

The Camera Club, under the supervision of Miss Helen Thayer, is becoming more and more popular.

The purpose of this club is to teach the fundamentals of photography in theory and in practice.

The activities of the club consist mostly of learning to develop and print films and of enlarging and copying pictures. All the club and sports pictures for the "Annual" have been taken by members of this club. In addition, they were willing to take individual pictures of students who did not care to have them taken in Boston studios.

All candid pictures of various school activities and students, used especially in the "Bulletin," are taken by club members.

Each year the club enters the Annual Conference and Exhibit of Massachusetts High School Camera Clubs.
Nothing would be more incomplete than a football game without our cheerleaders. Watertown High has always boasted a colorful group of cheerleaders and the fourteen who cheered the ’40 football team on to victory after victory were Beatrice Arone, Barbara Frappier, Helen Lupo, Miriam Hartenstein, Ruth Sheehan, Grace Harrington, Elaine Porter, Virginia White, Kay Megan, Ernest Bolduc, Paul Francis, Kenny Bryant and Aram Tolajian.

The cheerleaders held rallies in the auditorium to build up school spirit and loyalty to the football squad. They accompanied the football squad to all games and aroused much enthusiasm among the crowd of onlookers.

The cheerleaders also led cheers at some of the Basketball games of the season. The two favorite cheers were:

CHESS CLUB

Howard Scott  President
Emmanuel Zissus  Secretary-Treasurer

For the first time this year a Chess Club was organized in the school. Mr. MacCurdy, who is the sponsor and who naturally is a more experienced player than the members, gave helpful suggestions to the members for playing a winning game. The members played among themselves during the club meetings. These were practice games in preparation for contests held with chess clubs of other schools, such as Belmont, and Lexington, the Huntington School of Boston.

On March 8, in a tournament held at the Huntington School for the determination of the State champion among high school players, three representatives from Watertown participated, one of whom, Roland MacCurdy, succeeded in reaching the finals.

Although it might seem that this club was formed solely for the purpose of playing chess and holding contests with other schools, there is more to it than is evident. Mr. MacCurdy hopes to increase through the game of chess the activity of the mind and the powers of concentration of the members in order that they may better play the game of life.
This newly established club, under the sponsorship of Miss Elizabeth Desmond, has had a very successful year.

The purpose of this club is to develop in the pupils an interest in business subjects; to further their knowledge in business lines and to develop scholarship among the Commercial Club members.

Among their activities the most outstanding were: moving pictures on business subjects; visits to commercial organizations; contests of various kinds, such as typewriting, spelling and English grammar. Various members of the club put on plays, demonstrating office manners, applying for a position, and the work of a secretary.
DEBATING SOCIETY

Thomas Hall
Walter Demars
Esther P. Zitso
Leo Linnehan
Marilyn H. Whitehead

President
Vice-President
Recording Secretary
Corresponding Secretary
Treasurer

The purpose of this organization is to teach students to think clearly and to speak forcefully. Instruction is given in the art of argumentation, discussion, and public speaking. Mr. Chrakian, who was the founder and successful director of this club for several years, teaches the manner of conducting meetings according to rules of parliamentary procedure. The club is an incentive to constructive reasoning and logical thinking.

Weekly debates are given to acquaint the members with the intricacies of discussion and public speaking. The students prepare speeches on subjects of public interest and hold debates with other schools. They submit speeches for the Annual American Legion Oratorical Contest. At the end of the year the American Legion awards a medal to the outstanding boy and girl of the club.
This club is under the able sponsorship of Mr. Martin A. Campbell, who has been prominent in boys' work for many years. The purpose of the Watertown Hi-Y is to create, extend, and maintain throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian living.

This club, unlike most clubs, holds its meetings every week at the Newton Y. M. C. A. where members have the opportunity of using the gyms.

As a part of its many activities the club gave five Christmas baskets and successfully sponsored the annual Victory Dance although no game was held on Thanksgiving Day.

Members of the club served as ushers at the performance of the All School Night production, "The Prince of Pilsen."
HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Edythe Campbell
Ruth Pray
Louise Ishkanian
Josephine Santoro

President
Vice-President
Secretary
Treasurer

The Home Economics Club, sponsored by Miss Freda J. Randall, was established for the purpose of stimulating interest in home activities and special hobbies; to provide opportunity for experience in carrying responsibility; to promote pleasant wholesome social affairs.

Serving afternoon tea to teachers during marking periods has become one of their established activities. This club has also taken under their supervision the food problem of the annual Girls’ Field Hockey Banquet.

At Christmas time they provided many food baskets for needy families.

As social activities they have picnics at Cedar Hill, attend the Flower Show at the Mechanics Building, and hold a Spring outing.

Club periods are spent on hobbies such as making necklaces and sewing kits, and crocheting.
Mr. Loomer, an enthusiastic horseman, formed the Horsemanship Club in order to popularize horseback riding among the students of the school. He is very much interested in horses and thinks horseback riding is a great sport.

At least once a week the members of the club go to Weston where they ride. In addition to riding, they are required to pass tests pertaining to elementary horsemanship. These include care of the horse, equestrian etiquette, and general good sportsmanship through horsemanship. After passing the tests, the members receive a club insignia as a reward for their efforts.

The progression toward advanced horsemanship is being planned on a three year basis, so that students genuinely interested in good horsemanship will have the opportunity to train themselves under very competent guidance. In this way the members will continue from year to year. The club will appeal to a larger number of students and will increase in number in future years.

The members follow closely the outstanding events of important horse shows and thus become more intelligent about different types of horses and their conformation. This knowledge is necessary for the making of a good horseman.

Charles Dillard
Richard Brambrall
Betty Cate
Virginia Guidrey

President
Vice-President
Secretary
Treasurer

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, now in its twelfth year, was organized to assist in all school activities and to be to the school what a Chamber of Commerce is to a community.

Among its activities has been an exhibition of all class and club activities, ushering at school affairs, such as the Parent-Teachers' Reception, providing Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, and providing outstanding speakers for both school and club assemblies. It provides awards each year for the outstanding boy and girl in the Senior class also.

Socially, there is the Christmas Party for all members and an Outing in June for the Senior members.

Among its outstanding speakers were: Mrs. Kenneth Erskine who talked of her work abroad after the last war; Miss Peggy Lund who related her experiences in Norway; Ex-Mayor Childs of Newton, and Mrs. Natalie Gordon who gave details of her newspaper experiences.

All activities are divided among group committees who are responsible for each month's program.

Mr. A. Robert Kelman is Sponsor.
The Knitting Club, under the direction of Miss Marion E. Sweet, was formed to promote an interest in knitting, to teach fundamental principles, and to make useful wearing apparel.

This year the club has endeavored to aid the Red Cross by making sweaters and various articles for the soldiers and refugees.

In order to gain any credit the members must complete at least two sweaters or their equivalent. Other popular garments are scarfs, mittens, socks, bed jackets, dresses, suits, and hats.
For many years the Library Club under the guidance of the school librarian, Miss Johnson, has been one of the most active and most popular organizations of the school. The club raises money in several ways for the purchase of new books for the library. The members of the club receive training in library work by participating in the actual work of the library and developing an appreciation for good books and magazines.

Last December the club sponsored an informal dance and in this way raised money for the library fund. The members sold Watertown "badges" and also sold candy at the basketball games for additional receipts.

After the club had raised sufficient money it purchased several new novels by which the whole school profited.

During its weekly meetings the club usually had speakers who gave valuable information concerning library work.

The members of the club received much enjoyment from their activities and benefited from their excellent training in library work.
Mr. Moody, sponsor of the Linoleum Block Club, has accomplished a great deal of work with the twenty-four members of his club. During the course of the meetings he has aspired to teach the club members what designs or patterns make interesting cuts and what methods of cutting bring out desired effects.

The members are given the opportunity during the year to work out several projects with original designs and individual work.

One of the main activities in which all the members participated as a whole was the making of Christmas Cards which were sold throughout the school. The Art Club was of assistance in this work in that it helped in the coloring of the designs on the cards.

The greatest achievement of which Mr. Moody can boast is the endowment of his pupils with the ability of recognizing and appreciating good work in linoleum block cuts.
Another of the several new organizations added to the extra curricular activities of the high school was the Music Appreciation Club. The club was formed for the benefit of the many students who showed an interest and enthusiasm for such an organization.

The members met on Friday mornings during the regular club period at which time they listened to records and discussed various compositions by the classic masters. A library of classical records which were bought by the members was begun. Music appreciation books were also bought by the students of the club. Besides listening to music played on records, the group had the opportunity to hear some of its own talented members and also visiting musicians.

The club members kept closely informed of the musical events that took place in Boston and on several occasions attended concerts. Through the opportunities of hearing and studying the best in music, the club members developed a greater love and understanding of music and consequently a greater appreciation of the "highest of the fine arts."
The High School Orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Arnold Chick. Its membership includes musicians from all classes who have learned, by years of hard work, to play an orchestral instrument.

They gain added training and experience in the orchestra and enlarge their repertoire. In this organization the members learn the difficulties and intricacies of concert music. In years past many fine musicians have graduated from the school and have continued successfully in more advanced studies of music.

The orchestra was an important factor in the successful production of the All-School-Night operetta, "The Prince of Pilsen." It also supplied music the nights of the Woman's Club production.

The Senior and Junior classes both benefited by having the orchestra play at performances of the Class plays.

The orchestra ended the year by playing at the graduation exercises.
Under the successful sponsorship of Miss Mary Boyle, the Quid Nunc has maintained its popularity.

"The purpose of the club" as stated in Article VIII of its constitution, "shall be to serve loyally this school and community." Every member upon joining pledges herself to abide by the established rules of the school, to try to maintain a high standard of conduct, and to help other girls do so. Carrying out these laws, the members have set up a worthwhile and interesting organization whereby each and every member has pledged herself to complete at least three projects for the Junior Red Cross.

A few of their many activities were: Rollerskating parties, a Christmas party, and assisting the town by giving two Thanksgiving baskets. The members have made quite a few scrapbooks, sweaters, and quilts, and have made clothes for dolls.
The Student Council began functioning in 1937. The National Honor Society took it as a project to form a constitution in 1938, and the form was submitted to the student body and accepted. The constitution provides that the members must be of the upper third of their classes in scholastic rating. There are five courses in the school, each course having two members elected to the Student Council. The presidents of each class and the editors of the "Bulletin" are regular members of the Council. Thus the council is made up of thirty-five members.

The Council has sold tickets for different events in the school as well as boosted school athletics.

Various members attended a convention held at Stoneham.

The activities are under Mr. Smith who is interested in seeing the Student Council a success.
The purpose of the traffic squad in the school is to make filing simpler and easier for students, and to keep general law and order in the corridors.

This year the traffic squad has been under the sponsorship of Mr. Alfred Adams and Mr. John McNealy.

Contrary to custom in other years, junior students were given the privilege of being on the traffic squad. This new addition was made so that the following year the squad will have some experienced students to take positions as captains.

On each floor there are three captains, each with an assistant under him. These captains check on marshals, fill vacancies, and report offenders. The captains are also remodeling the constitution.

Because of the ability of the captains and officers to maintain order, there have been few disturbances. The co-operation of the student body has enabled the squad to function smoothly.
TRI-HI

June Holmes       President
Jean Peacock      Vice-President
Ruth Sheehan      Secretary
Virginia Guidrey  Treasurer
Katherine Paige, Catherine Megan Social Committee

The purpose of the Watertown Tri-Hi is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. This club has as its advisor Mrs. Kenneth H. Erskine.

The club has had a successful social year. Among their activities were two informal dances, one held in Whitehill Hall, the other, a Barn Dance; a formal dance held at the Woodland Country Club; an evening spent in Chinatown; and several teas. Members were chosen as candy girls for the "Prince of Pilsen," the All-School Night performance.

They gave Thanksgiving baskets and held a Christmas Party for underprivileged children in the town.

Delegates from Rhode Island and Massachusetts attended the Older Girls' Conference at Hyde Park in March. Watertown Tri-Hi was represented by June Holmes, Betty Cate, and Louise Salsburg.
THE ANNUAL FORTY-ONE

TYPE CLUB

James Zographus  President
Tina Gentile  Secretary
Mary Tooroonjian  Treasurer

The Type Club, under the leadership of Miss Catherine Taylor, was established with the main aim of giving practice in attaining speed as well as accuracy.

It gives to the members a chance of employing whatever artistic talents and ingenuity they may have in the making of typed pictures. This project is one of the factors causing the club to grow in popularity.

This past year a schedule of "Professor Quiz" programs was made. The club gave prizes to the two winners.

Speed contests have been established to stimulate new interest for the club members. Winners of these contests received gold and silver pins.

Prizes were given for the best typewritten picture and the best budget.
"The Prince of Pilsen," a musical comedy by Gustov Luders and Frank Pixby, was performed on All-School Night this year. The action of the story takes place on the French Riviera at Nice. The plot has to do with the mistaken identity of an American, on tour with his daughter, who is accepted as the Prince of Pilsen, while the true prince is traveling incognito with a group of fellow students.

Other members of the cast important to the plot are a group of American college girls, a designing American woman in search of a successor for her dear departed husband, and an English Lord, in search of a much-needed bank account. To cap it all, sailors of the American Navy arrive and add to the color and gaiety of the scene.

The operetta had a run of three nights and received many favorable reports.

The members of the cast received much praise for their fine acting and singing. The faculty committee of which Miss Abbot was chairman and which was largely responsible for the successful production of the operetta was also highly congratulated.

The orchestra trained by Mr. Chick and under Mr. Archibald's direction was an important factor in the successful production of the operetta and was heartily thanked for its contribution to All School Night.

Coach, Joseph Murphy; Captain, Selected for each game; Manager, Giles Laughera.

Games Played, 9; Games Won, 5; Games Lost, 2; Games Tied, 2
Outstanding Game: Wakefield
Outstanding Players: Ken Anderson, Billy Boyce, Lucky Zissus, Vic Palladino

The team looked very impressive in all their games and they certainly had that extra "punch" which brought them through the season with five victories. With revenge in their minds, after an unlucky streak of years, the team came through with flying colors.

Kenny Anderson, Watertown's star fullback, scored touch-downs that beat both Haverhill and Framingham 6-0. Palladino scored a well-placed field goal, and Boyce, a touchdown in the game with Brookline, which went down to defeat at the hands of Watertown. The season had many high spots; among them were the games of Wakefield and Somerville whose stalwarts combined power and speed to emerge the victors in their encounters with Watertown. The aggregation did more than fulfill predictions by tying for second place in the Mystic Valley League.

It was a great disappointment to all when the annual Turkey Day tilt with Belmont was postponed due to the unexpected snowfall.

One person greatly responsible for the success of our football team was our efficient coach and super-strategian, Mr. Murphy, to whom we all give much credit.
 Watertown's soccer team once more captured the Greater Boston Soccer League Championship crown. This is the fourth championship the soccer men have brought to Watertown in the last seven years.

With the able coaching of John Craig, and Russ Keefe as captain, the booters won eleven games and paced the Greater Boston All-Stars, 4-3.

Special credit goes to three members who will return next year: Italo Toraco, high-scoring sophomore, and Joe Bragoli and Al McClay, Junior defenders.
FIELD HOCKEY

Coach, Rita Tierney; Captain, Elaine Porter; Manager, Mary O’Brien

Games Played, 4: Games Won, 2; Games Lost, 1; Games Tied, 1 (Winthrop forfeited game)

Outstanding Games: Winchester, Belmont

Outstanding Players: Elaine Porter, June Holmes, Marie Natoli, Pat Treblas, Mary Gillis

Under the leadership of Miss Tierney the Field Hockey squad had a very successful season. Field Hockey has been a popular sport and great interest was shown by every member of the team.

Somerville was the first to invade the High School, but due to the clever pass-work of the forward line, was defeated 2-0. The next foe was Needham, but once again the girls of Watertown completely overwhelmed them 3-0. The team’s most bitter enemy next to Belmont, was Winchester, who stopped the local’s winning streak by the close margin of 1-0. The Winthrop game was forfeited, so the girls gained more practice before facing the next-door neighbor, Belmont, who held Watertown’s “stickers” to a scoreless tie.

The forward line, consisting of Alice Capone, Marie Natoli, Mary O’Brien, Mary Gillis, and Elaine Porter made a fine combination and they were responsible for most of the scores. On the defense June Holmes, Pat Treblas, Shirley Colby, Lucy Neshe, Marjorie Morgan, and Margaret Courts performed admirably during the entire season, and the opposing teams found it difficult to pass them. Goalie Barbara Gillis also deserves a great deal of credit for her superb work.

Although most of the team was made up of Seniors, many Middlers are ready to fill in next year.

Miss Tierney was thoroughly satisfied with the playing of her group and only hopes that next year’s team will possess the same winning spirit.

Outstanding Game: Needham
Outstanding Players: Bud Folino, Bob White, Bud Dillard

The hockey team once more put Watertown on the map, after a slump of several seasons. The boys placed two positions on the all Bay State League team.

Under the coaching of Joe Murphy and the leadership of Captain "Bud" Folino, the boys played some of the Bay State League's toughest teams, and beat Needham High School in the League play-offs to take the 2nd place in the league.

Games Played, 17: Games Won, 9; Games Lost, 8

After several seasons absence for the basketball court, Coach Keene took over the coaching reins this season.

With three of the smartest players in many a season, Captain "Lucky" Zissis, Vic Palladino, and Bob Johnson, the boys broke even in their first season under the direction of Coach Keene.

Players who won recognition this year and will be back next season are Joe Farruzza, George Wickstrom and John Degnan.

GIRLS’ BASKETBALL

Coach,—Rita Tierney; Captain,—Pat Treblas; Manager,—Margaret Coutts
Games Played 7; Games Won 5; Games Lost 2
Outstanding Games: Winchester, Somerville
Outstanding Players: Pat Treblas, Mary Gillis, June Holmes, Margaret Coutts, Barbara Gillis

The Girls’ Basketball team had a quite successful casen this year, with five out of seven games won. Their first game was with Concord, and the girls came home with banners flying; they had won 36 to 3. The next game was with Malden; again the girls had a smashing victory with a score of 58 to 4. The game with Newton was a class game, Seniors against Seniors, Juniors against Juniors, and Sophomores against Sophomores. The Seniors won with a score of 79 to 8. The girls’ next game was with the Sacred Heart of Newton and, continuing with the winning streak, made the score 30 to 18. The girls suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of Winchester. The entire game was one of excitement. The final score was 23 to 29. Our next-door neighbor, Belmont, was the next team that the girls encountered, and the Watertown team won with the superb score of 61 to 17. The last game of the season was with Somerville, and the girls journied to their opponents’ gym to play a very interesting game. The home team lost—the score, 26 to 27.

Catherine Ranucci was elected captain for the 1941-1942 season and Mary Cavallerio and Arman Garabedian, Co-Managers. The team feels certain that they will fill these berths as successfully as did Pat Treblas and Margaret Coutts.

The high scorer for the team is Pat Treblas, who has rolled up a score of more than 150 points. The low scoring of the opponents was due to the outstanding work of three guards—June Holmes, Catherine Ranucci, and Margaret Coutts.

Coach, —Robert Daughters; Captain, William Boyce; Manager, Giles Laughrea
Outstanding Players: Rudy Iodice, Bill Boyce

Now we have a sport with a new coach, and this time the coach is Bob Daughters who led the boys from Columbia Street into a successful season. Among those players returned from last year were Rudy Iodice, Vic Palladino, Bob Johnson, and Bud Dillard. Some of those out for the first time who looked promising were Harold Marvin, Bill Johndrow, Joe Favuzza, and George Wickstrom.

By May 5th the team had already won several games and was looking forward to a most successful season.

With Timothy Oates and Robert White the only two veterans, the team looked forward to a difficult but successful year. There were also several fine juniors who stepped into the berths left open by the graduates. Three of the most notable were Joseph Bragoli, James Donnelly and Robert Ellis. The Oakley Golf club again allowed the team to use the course. There are also many promising Sophomores such as Dulio Brescia, Ernest Claire, and John and Paul McKeon.

OUTDOOR TRACK

Coach: Robert Gleason; Captain, Lucky Zissus, Manager, Ray Everett
Outstanding Players: Lucky Zissus, Ray Everett

Per usual Coach Gleason's cindermen tore off a nice piece of track for themselves as they practiced for their meets. They will no doubt break the jinx that has been hounding them. For the past two years or so Watertown has gone gloomily on its way losing consistently, in fact, there were but low scores chalked up in the Watertown win column. This year's team is not running true to form and promises some victories for Watertown high. With such men as Lucky Zissus and Ray Everett, Roy Carpenter, Scott Carpenter, Larry Chick and Jack Sheehan, the team is at its best.

The schedule for the season:

- May 6: Dedham
- May 9: Belmont
- May 14: Arlington
- May 29: Melrose
BOYS' TENNIS

Coach, John McNealy; Captain, Allan Platt
Outstanding Players: Allan Platt, Karl Seleen, Rudy Antoni

The future of the tennis team looked none too bright when John McNealy issued his first call for candidates. However, the situation has brightened up somewhat now that Karl Seleen, Allan Platt, Rudy Antoni, Ralph Holmes, and Randolph Perry, all veterans from last year's team, have returned to the court.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Coach,—Rita Tierney; Captain,—Mary Gillis; Manager,—Marie Natoli

Outstanding Players: Pat Treblas, Mary Gillis, Marie Natoli, Barbara Gillis

The first announcement of the 1941 tennis season for girls brought out a large group of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. In general the candidates for the team were excellent material, and it was with great difficulty that Miss Tierney made her final choice. The team is composed of seniors Mary Gillis, Marie Natoli, Pat Treblas, Barbara Gillis, Muriel Hansen and Elaine Porter and junior Betty Cate. Of these only one is on the squad for the third time; four, for the second time; and two, for their first experience in school tennis.

Fortunately, the team has many up-and-coming substitutes, among them Evelyn Moore and Madeline Dexter and as a result, the school may expect another successful season in 1942 with such a nucleus.

The schedule for the season is a difficult one and intensive practice ensued throughout the season. However, with the leadership of Miss Tierney, it was believed that the team would, as usual, be a successful one winning or losing with the best of sportsmanship.

How To Save Fast!

Just two things to know about fast, easy saving... save a LITTLE at a time... save that little, REGULARLY.

Here, everyone saves that way. On or before the last Thursday of each month, thousands of Watertown and Waitham families make savings payments here. For each of them, their payment is identical, each month.

That gives them fast saving, because their savings-payments are frequent... easy saving because no single payment is more than they can surely spare.

PRETTY SOON... You Are Going to be Worth $88,000*

That's a lot of money, isn't it?
If you had it all at one time, I'll wager you'd put a good part of it in the bank... quick.

But while the chances are that all those thousands (and maybe many more) will pass through your hands in the next 40 years, it's probable too that most of that money will come to you a few dollars at a time.

So... if you're going to KEEP some of those thousands, there's only one way to do it... save it as you get it... a few dollars at a time, regularly.

My office door is always open to welcome any student of Watertown High School who wants to discuss fast, easy, systematic saving, as the beginning of a thrifty plan for living.
