MR. HAROLD S. MOODY
Harold S. Moody

With the deepest gratitude and admiration, we, the Class of 1945, dedicate to you, Mr. Harold S. Moody, this, the nineteenth edition of the Annual.

We realize that your ambition has been to foster in your students a true love of art; to give to them an effective manner of self-expression. This is our happy opportunity to state our belief in the successful attainment of your desire and in your immeasurable contribution to our High School.

We appreciate your timeless efforts to make as memorable as possible for us those fleeting high school days. Under your magic touch, line and color were transformed into effective posters, Prom decorations, and sketches in the Annual. What Watertown High School student will ever forget your Art Assembly or the beautiful murals in the Art Room? Any attempt to list your accomplishments or evaluate your friendly influence is futile; there is ample evidence of both throughout our school.

We recognize in you the creative abilities of an artist—your ingenuity being an unlimited source of inspiration, and that inspiration the key to the future successes of your students.
"We will accept only a world consecrated to freedom of speech and expression—freedom of every person to worship God in his own way—freedom from want—and freedom from terrorism."

Foreword

We, the Annual Staff of 1945, have given time and effort that our Class may have a yearbook of which to be proud. We wish to express our thanks to all who have aided this publication—especially, Miss Appel, Miss Thayer, Mr. Moody and Mr. McNealy. The superior quality achieved in this book would never have been attained without their constant assistance and guidance.

We have striven to reach that degree of difference which will give our Annual a distinction—setting it apart from all others. We have tried to embody all the important and pleasant memories of the years spent at our high school. We have used our class colors to make our yearbook attractive and artistic in appearance.

We hope that this book is worthy of its purpose and that over and over again it will bring happiness and satisfaction to all who are a part of it.

Never before in the World's History has a High School graduating class been faced with such problems as exist today. Our country is at war with a foe which would have destroyed us had it not been for an intelligent group of young people. No country in the world has ever been able to muster an army so fast and so perfectly as the United States. We who are older owe our continued freedom to the young men and women who are gallantly prosecuting this war and at present carrying Old Glory into the very capitals of the enemy.

We deeply respect every young man and young woman who has left the ranks of the Class of 1945 for the armed services. Those of you who do not join in the armed service must not feel that your job is any less important than that of the ones who are called to the colors. Our country as never before, needs, and will need the services of those who are at home. The effort of every single soul is needed to carry out his destiny in helping to produce the goods of war now and the goods of peace later. This production may be in the form of material things or it may be in services which require more than a high school education. All are necessary to our country's welfare and our efforts should be dedicated to the problem.

The Class of 1945 is a war class and because of this fact has sacrificed some of the peace-time pleasures that have been enjoyed by former classes. On the other hand you have had the privilege of doing your bit to carry the war towards its inevitable victorious conclusion. We know that when peace comes at last you can look back with satisfaction upon your high school years and feel that you have done your full share to make this country a safe place for yourselves and your children.

In behalf of your teachers and myself I wish every one of you good luck and Godspeed.

Watertown Senior High is both proud and fortunate to have had a man like Mr. Black as Director of Industrial Arts and as printing instructor for the past twenty years.

Mr. Black attended Wentworth Institute, Harvard, and Columbia Summer Schools. Before coming here, he taught in the Manchester, N. H., and Cohasset High Schools. He was a Lieutenant in the U. S. Navy in World War I with thirty-three months' service (twenty months overseas). In World War II, he is serving in the U. S. Coast Guard Temporary Reserve. Mr. Black is a Past Commander of Medford Post, No. 45, American Legion.

While at Watertown he has sponsored the Model Yacht and Seamanship Clubs, well qualified through his experience in the Navy and being author of the book "Yachting with Models." Representing the United States eight times in International Model Yacht Races, he was the winner of his class in the Olympics held in Germany in 1936.

Many students who have been members of his classes have gained much valuable knowledge through his helpful guidance and sincere leadership.
MISS ETHEL A. RICKER
1932 - 1945

Miss Ricker has been teaching at Watertown High School for thirty-six years. In 1905 she received her Bachelor of Arts degree at Wellesley College. In 1909 her own high school alma mater welcomed her as a teacher. Commercial classes first, then English, French, German and Spanish have had her rich influence. Sponsoring the Spanish Club, checking recitation attendance, assisting with graduation and scheduling of pupils are only a few of the services she has faithfully given W. H. S. We will always remember those yellow slips having the initials E. A. R.

May we say “Thank you” for your sympathetic understanding and loyal support of all our school activities.

MRS. FREDERICK V. SIMONDS
1909 - 1945

Miss Madeleine O’Brien was graduated from Girls’ Latin School, Boston, and went on to receive her A.B. and A.M. degrees at Emmanuel College and Boston University respectively. She was graduated Cum Laude from Emmanuel. She came to Watertown High in September, 1932, and has taught algebra, biology, and chemistry. She organized the first Chemistry Club and sponsored it for four years. In the past few years, as Counselor in the Guidance Department, Miss O’Brien has given the school capable and friendly service.

In December, 1944, Miss O’Brien was married to Mr. Frederick V. Simonds and now is retiring to take up the pleasant duties of the homemaker.

TO OUR
The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn’s early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe’s haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is it that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;
'Tis the Star-Spangled Banner; oh long may it wave,
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

R CLASSENMEN
Class of 1946

In deference to the Seniors, our most important Fall activity, that of class elections, did not come until November. We did have one class assembly before that time, when we were chosen to recognize Education Week. The national title of this week was “Education for New Tasks” with emphasis on plans for peace. The program was arranged by the chairman, Sue Hemphill. Short talks were given by Doris Whelan, Thomas Theurer, and Steve Russian on phases of educational training for more effective living.

At this meeting Mr. McNealy gave a preliminary talk about procedure for elections, which event terminated in the choosing of Lenox Cooper, President; Robert Burns, Vice-President; Elinor Morgan, Secretary; and Jacqueline Menghi, Treasurer. The Executive Committee consisted of Dorothy Doyle, Alexander Garabedian, and Jack Sarkisian.

We can claim a fair share of the top-notch athletes in football, basketball, and baseball. They are: Joseph Boyce, Henry Germagian, Robert Burns, Richard Quinn, Frank Cousineau, and Earl Derick. These boys certainly made a fine showing in the field of sports and were a credit to our class.

In December we joined the other classes in a hearty welcome to Mr. Reed, our new Headmaster, wishing him happiness in his new work.

The culminating point of our Junior year was the presentation of our “Spring Dance.” The gymnasium was decorated, traditionally, in the class colors. Everyone gave his full co-operation toward the success of the dance.

And so we now approach our Senior year with anticipation and high hopes!

Elinor Morgan, Secretary
Once more Mrs. Betty Boerstler has scored a smash hit in her direction of "Galahad Jones." This giddy Junior Play, after a week’s postponement, drew back its curtains on a full house.

The plot of the play centers about young Galahad Jones and is concerned with the problem of Galahad’s maladjustment to this progressive generation. Trying to bring the medieval age of chivalry up to the present with much hollow reciting of poetry to himself, Galahad is painfully awakened to this rude life by unfortunate and hilarious experiences of divers sorts. Pretty, attractive "Miriam" finally brings him around with a bang, and all ends well—of course!—in the Jones family. The dialogue is clever, the action good; both combine to bring forth hearty laughs from the audience.

The play showed the hard work and long hours spent by the players and Mrs. Boerstler and by the committees who had charge of tickets, publicity, programs, properties, ushering, and all the other necessary agenda for the presentation of a good play. The cast members were well-chosen; each lived his part enthusiastically.

All in all, it tallied up to a finished amateur production, a really amusing play, and an enjoyable evening’s entertainment.

We, the Sophomores . . .

The feeling which we Sophomores experienced during those first confusing days of September, 1944, was that of inferior characters walking beside very haughty and superior acting Juniors and Seniors! However, not long after that baffling first week our poor, befuddled brains learned to guide us nearer to the places designated on our program cards.

Before the class was organized our newly picked group of Homeroom Representatives met and with the fine help of Miss Jacobs and Miss Tierney, planned a delightful time for us in the form of a party. The program for the evening provided wonderful entertainment by the Juniors and Seniors, with dancing and refreshments afterward. Despite the pouring rain, practically all of us attended and enjoyed ourselves tremendously, making the party a huge success.

Shortly after the party, which served its purpose of getting us more acquainted with one another, we held class elections. With voting very close, we picked this group to lead us through the year; namely, Leo McKeon, President; Thomas Norbury, Vice-President; Shirley Knell, Treasurer; Susan Piteri, Secretary; Ted Dowell, Jack Harrington and Charles Clark making up the Executive Committee.

December will always hold the spotlight for us because in this month we welcomed into our school our new headmaster, Mr. Roberts v. S. Reed. We are especially proud of the fact that ours is the first class Mr. Reed will have through three years at Watertown High School.

Our class officers met and, with the kind and enthusiastic assistance of Mr. Reed, Mr. McNealy, and Miss Jacobs, planned the calendar for the remaining part of the year. On the “blue prints” there were designs for future sophomore assemblies, meetings, and other major activities. Colors selected for the Class of ’47 are red and white.

If you have kept your eyes and ears open you must realize now that we “sophs” are not to be outdone by any older and more experienced schoolmates! In athletics, in honor work, and in anything else that has to be done, we are right “on the ball!”

We expect to keep up our good record through high school, and hope that as Juniors and Seniors we will set a worthwhile example for future sophomore classes that will enter good old Watertown High School.

Cum Laude

The class of 1945 must be congratulated on the number of its members elected this year to the Watertown High Chapter of the National Cum Laude Society, and on the exceptionally high achievement in scholarship of each individual student. No former class except 1938 has equaled the record now set by 1945.

The Watertown High Chapter of Cum Laude was chartered in 1921—the only public high school in Massachusetts to be so honored. There are nineteen chapters of Cum Laude in the state, but all the others are in strictly college preparatory schools of the highest standing like Lawrence Academy at Groton, Dana Hall at Wellesley, Phillips Exeter, Phillips Andover, etc.

Election to Cum Laude is the highest scholastic honor awarded by the high school, and is comparable to Phi Beta Kappa in the liberal arts colleges. Only students of the college preparatory courses are eligible, as they must show excellent scholastic ability in a well-rounded curriculum, including languages, mathematics, science, and history.

Cum Laude is an individual honor and the class should be grateful to its members who have by their conscientious and intelligent efforts contributed to the lasting glory of 1945.

the council was asked to sponsor two War Bond Drives and a Red Feather Drive. These drives were remarkably successful. As usual the “Red Feather Couple” was chosen from the homeroom that helped the most toward the success of the drive.

Many innovations and renovations in the school program have been made or suggested by the Student Council during the past year. Among these, the revision of the traffic system, the remodeling of the Constitution in regard to qualifications for membership, and the changing of the general nature of the council, were activities of outstanding interest to the school and to the student body.

Under the capable leadership of Joseph Beaudette, the Student Council has enjoyed one of its most successful and helpful years since its inauguration.

This society is the one honor society in our school whose membership is open to any pupil. How does a pupil make it then? By being a good enough student of any course to rank in the upper third of his class scholastically, and by possessing and giving evidence of the desirable qualities of character, leadership, and service. The faculty have the privilege of voting pupils into the society, but it is we who, by our honesty, reliability, and co-operativeness deserve this recognition.

By the very nature of this society, the activities can not be very extensive nor are they expected to be. Members of a group of this kind are apt to be the ones who are active in the extra curricular work of the school. This year our president is the editor of this yearbook and has consequently devoted practically all his extra time and energy to that project. We are proud of you, Ed!

In its annual report to National Headquarters in Washington, D. C., each chapter is supposed to tell of at least one completed activity of the current year in addition to the induction ceremony. This year we are working on a notebook containing all the different slips used in our school with a brief explanation of each one; this is to be used in the office for new teachers and substitutes. Many members also helped Mr. Adams in defense stamp work.

The purpose of the Art Club is to give the interested art student an opportunity to work out problems in various mediums of his own choice.

Oil paintings, pastels, and general sketching were practiced by some, while craft pieces of ceramics and stencil work have been favored by others of the club.

Pauline Roberts, who models for Jordan Marsh and Harper's Bazaar; Eva Frascatore of Filene's; and Loretta Fowler, a candidate for modeling school, have all given most generously of their time in posing for the members of the club.

Perhaps its chief achievement is Room 202's series of murals which portray art through the ages.
Throughout the past year, the members of the Arts and Crafts Club have been busily engaged in completing projects of all types.

Vincent Puccia and Ara Barmakian had under construction a fifty-inch model yacht. As part of the year’s program, a fine set of twin beds was constructed by Mardouni Sharrigan. A large mahogany chest, cedar lined, was completed by James Grossi. William Hamilton completed an inlaid checker board. A hanging chest, made of solid mahogany, was constructed by Thomas DeLuca.

In closing their year’s activities, the club members had a party which was paid for by the dues collected through the year. They planned to donate some of the treasury money to the school.
Few students realize the great contribution to school spirit made by our band. The success of the band is due both to Mr. Chick's fine leadership and the splendid musicians that comprise the band. Besides receiving excellent band training, members learn military band routines.

During the school year, this group of talented musicians helped to entertain rallies, sport contests, assemblies, and shows. The Annual Music Festival, in which the band presented a special Scottish feature, was a great success and a high point in school entertainment.

The school is honored to have such an organization as the band which has won the distinction of being one of the finest in Massachusetts.

The Biology Club has been very active this year. The members spent a great deal of time this past fall selling football programs. Biology Project Night, usually held but one night, was open to the public two nights this year, May 28 and 29.

The members have been enlightened by outstanding speakers; such as Dr. John Welsh of Harvard College, Professor Dempsey of Massachusetts Field Station, Dr. Francis O. Schmitt of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Dr. Charles Gettes, an eye, ear, nose, and throat specialist of Watertown.

Visitors to the Biology lab have found quite a family of zebra finches, chirping madly. As their addition to the lab the Biology Club presented to Mr. Keene a set of Botanical Charts.

The Bulletin

The Bulletin is a four-page newspaper published bi-weekly by the students. The staff meets every Friday morning during club period. Each member is given a special assignment which must be completed by the following Wednesday. Assignments are turned in to the editors who are responsible for one page each. Every other Friday, after the pages have been set up, the paper goes to press. The proofs come back on Monday for final corrections and are sent back to the printer. On Wednesday the Bulletins are back from the press and are distributed to subscribers.

Copies of each issue of the Bulletin are being mailed upon request, free of charge, to about seventy service alumni, both here and abroad.

The Camera Club is one of the oldest clubs in the school. The purpose of the club is to study different types of photographic work—enlarging, copying, the use of various sorts of cameras, and means of achieving good composition. Another purpose is to do photographic work for the Annual.

This year there has been a very capable program committee which has planned each meeting carefully, so that all fundamentals have been covered.

Contests have been held once a month and the winners of these contests have then advanced to a higher group where requirements are more severe.

The club has prospered under the capable guidance of Miss Thayer who has always been patient and understanding.

Chemistry Club

Usually the club is carried on by a small number of students working on subjects of their own choice. For the last two years it has been impossible to get sufficient material and equipment to take care of the club's needs. Therefore, the Chemistry Club has not functioned as usual.

Lectures on plastic surgery and various other new developments in science have been given by Mr. Kelley each club period, a new topic having been discussed every week. Members have listened intently, then discussed enthusiastically the subjects proposed. Moving pictures have also provided an added attraction for the members.

A dance held last fall by the club was enjoyed by all who attended.

The Junior-Senior Chorus consisted of fifty voices. This group was formed in order to give those girls, who could not receive choral training during their regular program, an opportunity to do two- and three-part singing. Music of the semi-classical and more modern type was sung by this group, such numbers as “Lovely Night,” “Shortenin’ Bread,” “Lost Chord,” and musical comedy “Rose-Marie” selections.

From this group of singers were selected some of the girls who formed a Special Chorus to perform at the Spring Concert given in conjunction with the Glee Club and Orchestra. “The Star,” by Rubenstein, “Rustle of Spring,” “Beautiful Lady,” and “Holiday for Strings” were numbers rehearsed by this group.

The Commercial Club has completed its fourth eventful year.

Each week the meeting is conducted by a committee of two members who prepare an interesting and enjoyable program for that day. This gives each member of the Club an opportunity to participate in the planning of the club periods. The program usually consists of a spelling bee, quiz, typewriting contest, or some other original idea of the week's committee.

Representatives of the Chandler Secretarial School, the Fisher Business School, Beauty Culture School, Co-operative Stores, and many other businesses have given first-hand information on subjects that are particularly interesting to Business Course students.

The Cercle Français held its first meeting on October 20, 1944, in the Auditorium where, after electing officers, the group gathered around the piano to learn favorite French songs.

In December especial attention was devoted to the learning of traditional Christmas carols. The Christmas Party was a great success— and memorable because of Mr. Reed’s participation as a guest.

Since January, various projects have enlivened the interest of the members—recordings of famous French music, showings of French films, and special programs by individual members.

The club membership is limited to forty, with certain requirements for admission. Meetings are, as far as possible, conducted in French.

The Glee Club has had a membership of seventy-five during the past year. The number of boys doubled that of the previous year.

The club has performed for various assemblies as well as for the annual before-school carol-singing at Christmas time in which the club gave a splendid demonstration of their well-coached talent.

One of the most beautiful and well-liked songs of the new repertoire was Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer." Another tune always in demand was "Happy Song."

The members rehearsed enthusiastically for the Annual Concert in April, given in conjunction with the Orchestra and Girls' Chorus, an event which proved to be a great success.
At the beginning of the school year each new member contributed a golf ball upon admission into the club. Because of an influx in membership Miss Jacobs advised a reduction. Forty-two students were kept.

Dues of five cents went toward bettering club facilities and toward buying refreshments for the parties run at special meetings. Golf instruction was given all members, who enjoyed the full benefit of learning the game.

Outings held throughout the year included golfing at Albemarle Country Club and Fresh Pond. The Valentine Dance held by the members was a great success.

For many years the Library Club has been a very active service club.

This wartime year, the club has been limited to fifteen members in order to give each member a chance to get actual library experience. Emphasis has been on serious work and the gaining of library knowledge. Reading and discussion of a great variety of books has been enjoyed by all members.

One interesting project was the selecting of a set of books which the club donated to the library. The money for these books was earned by the sale of football badges.

For social affairs, the club has had a Christmas party and, near the end of the year, a club outing.

The excellent work of the Block-Printing Club has had wide recognition throughout the school this past year. The club has been working with the Bulletin Staff in producing illustrations for each issue in accordance with the season. Original cuts by Charles Morrissey, Mary Morton, and Jane Houston were reproduced in the Christmas and New Year's issues.

As in past years, each member designed and printed his own Christmas cards. As a special project for the year the club undertook the production of special Christmas cards for our boys in France. The purpose of the Navigation Club is to give its members a basic idea of methods involved in fixing positions and plotting courses for planes or ships. Mr. Adams shows, through his instructions, how to deal with conditions which are likely to occur during a real voyage.

At different times the club has imaginatively sailed through Room 101 around large obstacles, made flights to military objectives and intercepted hostile planes. They have also worked accurately with charts, compasses, sextants, flight calculators and other navigator's instruments, to make flight plans both by dead reckoning and by celestial navigation.

The Club had as a speaker Lt. Howard Scott, of the class of 1940, an army aviator, who told the members about some of his interesting experiences in navigation.

This year the orchestra has been composed of forty members with a well-balanced group of instruments. Its membership includes musicians from all classes who have learned by years of hard work to play an orchestra instrument.

This organization has played at the class plays, for the Woman’s Club activities, and at various assemblies in the school; also individual members have given their time and talent to charitable organizations.

One of the new and most popular numbers performed by the orchestra is the selection from “Oklahoma.” Others included “Malaguena,” Ballet Music from “La Giaconda,” and Excerpts from Wagner’s Operas.

The Rifle Club was re-formed this year in order that boys of the school would have an opportunity to use firearms prior to their induction into the armed forces.

The twelve members of the club, who were chosen to form this year's group, were those boys who received the highest scores of the sixty-two students who originally applied for membership.

The activities of the club have consisted primarily of studying the nomenclature and the firing of the .22 calibre target rifle on the school's own rifle range. There have also been illustrated lectures and motion pictures which have shown the firing of weapons of various other calibres.

On April 19, 1944, as Juniors, the Class of ’45 under the veteran direction of Mrs. Betty Boerstler presented "Incognito," a mystery comedy based on events which occurred just before the present war.

The action of the comedy took place aboard the American pleasure steamer, S.S. Imperial, headed for South America. Erick Jagendorf, a German agent, was murdered as he was about to reveal to a prowling U-Boat the identity of a British spy who had been eluding the Germans for months. Herr Von Strumm, the submarine commander, boarded the steamer, determined to find the murderer. Complications arose when he was confronted by a group of female passengers, one of whom he suspected was the murderer. Thrill followed on thrill, and the action reached a climax with the clever exposé of the murderer.

On December 15, 1944, the Senior Class, under the personal direction of Mrs. Betty Boerstler, presented a highly successful three-act comedy of modern youth.

The play was built around the mischievous doings of Midge Hartman, an unrepressed girl who is in love with Buzz Lindsay. Buzz, in turn, is in love with Midge's sister, Virginia, who tries to win the affections of Keith Nolan. Although Virginia's brother, Elliot, is at first serious and poetical, he changes his attitude when Carolyn Webster, a New York glamour girl and friend of Virginia's, weekends at the Hartman's.

Midge, trying in her characteristic way to attract Buzz, causes a great mix-up. She blackmails the gardener and the maid in order to help Buzz get what he wants. After many hilarious happenings, everything works out well and all go off to the Senior Prom.

History

Four hundred and twenty-five bewildered boys and girls blindly groped in Watertown High School's corridors that day in September, 1942, dog-tagged as members of the Class of 1945. The upper classmen helped in the confusion by directing us, instead of to designated rooms, to remote corners, such as the boiler room. Yes, we were Sophomores that year, and we had to take our initiation. However, this is not a list of grievances, but a record of the progress we have made since that time.

Who will ever forget the day of our first class election, when we went into the booths set up in our gymnasium and chose Edward Francis, President; Richard Boylan, Vice-President; Elaine Thiesing, Secretary; Beverly Bickford, Treasurer; with Francis McDonald, Betty Lee White, and Edward Campbell constituting the Executive Committee? Our initiation period was over, for now we had a governmental body representing and guiding us!

Our Senior year seemed so far away, but our graduation into the Junior class gave us a glimmer of hope that we were getting along "slowly but surely."

Those victorious at the polls this year were Francis McDonald, President; Robert Laffey, Vice-President; Elaine Thiesing, Secretary; Beverly Bickford, Treasurer; with Alfred Bennett, Ida Cannuli, and Ralph Wright, the Executive Committee. Shortly after the elections, Alfred Bennett enlisted in the Navy, the first of our class to go into the service.

After the elections, the officers went right to work appointing committees for the various activities to take place during the year. One of the first of these committees to go to work was the Play Committee, which was successful in the selecting of an appropriate play, Incognito, as the class production. Our play was presented, after the cast had worked for many weeks, with a large attendance. That evening the programs were printed in green and white, the first public debut of our class colors.

In the Spring a most original art assembly took place with Charles Morrissey, Robert Wells, and Mary Scarpello representing our class in the most "talked about" assembly of the year.

We thought May 26th would never come, but it finally did, and the Juniors, dressed in formal attire, set out for the Junior Prom. Our gymnasium was transformed into a lovely pavilion by Mr. Moody and the conscientious decorating committee. Thus our Junior year came to a successful ending, and we began to think seriously of our Senior and last year.

Arriving in September, we were grieved to hear of Mr. Archibald's resignation as principal, but with Miss Jacobs ably acting as temporary headmaster, we started on our "last lap."

Things went on just about as scheduled. Heading the Senior calendar was "Senior Elections." We saw many re-elections in this ballot. The Senior officers were Francis McDonald, President; Donald Costello, Vice-President; Elaine Thiesing, Secretary; Beverly Bickford, Treasurer; Ida Cannuli, Harry Agahigian, and Gloria Juliano as the Executive Committee. Realizing the proper selection of committees this year was vital to our class as a whole, this chosen group settled down to the duties at hand and appointed capable committees for all the coming activities.

Our Annual staff, headed by Edward Jamgochian, went right to work in view of the difficulties and obstacles that the times might bring. They were well on their schedule when Mr. Roberts v. S. Reed, who was selected by the school committee as our principal, came to the school December 19th. We welcomed Mr. Reed in a school assembly and wished him a very successful career. The usual hustle and bustle before the Senior Play echoed through the corridors, and on "the" night when the curtains rose on our talented "Barrymores" every seat in the auditorium was occupied, helping to make "And Came the Spring" a huge success.

Committees worked fervently with Mr. Moody and Mr. McNealy as the decorations for the Senior Prom took shape in green and white crepe paper. The night came finally, and Ken Reeves played for the successful Senior Prom.

Every week a group of our boys left their classes and their everyday life in Watertown to go into the Army, Navy, or Marines. We watched the classroom seats become empty—emptied by a stronger force than we could possibly estimate in terms of figures. They visited us after "boot" and "basic" training, uniformed, fine-looking men—not the boys that left us a few months or weeks ago. Seeing our class grow smaller, we realized that our high school days were almost over and that after receiving our diplomas we would see less of those acquaintances we had made during the years at Watertown High.

Many of us will seek educational advancement; many will step into positions in the business world, and still more of our class, as every week goes by, will go in the service. We graduate in a war year in a democratic country, and that in itself is a privilege.

At this point we wish to thank our principal, our advisors, and all the members of the faculty for their patience, guidance, and co-operation in helping us to attain our goal. For this we will always be grateful.

Elaine Thiesing, Secretary
Ivy Day, 1945

Seldom does ivy mark so strange a day.
The swelling music of the schoolbell climbs
Past the shrill chorus of our childhood play,
Preludes the rising clangor of the times.

Viewed from this threshold, shadowed by farewells,
Life is an earnest and a lonely thing.
We should approach it, sudden wisdom tells,
As does the ivy, plant of greener Spring.

Like this small earth-child, we should strive to grow,
Weld and be welded, struggle toward the sky,
Rejoice in a completion subtly slow,
And leave a gift of strength that will not die.

Planting the ivy, measure of our worth,
We pause—the moment holds a double birth.

"Thumbnail Sketches," you shall see
Presents the class biography.
Hands and faces blacked with ink,
Barrels cleaned with Parker's Quink,
We started out; stole from books,
Stole from songs, and stole from cooks,
Studied, thought, and wrote a label,
For each one a tiny fable.

—How we worried artists strive
Only to emerge alive.

GOV. MCDONALD FAVORED TO WIN CHICAGO CONTEST

CLASH OF GOVERNORS FORECAST

By Thomas Bittlari

Washington, March 13—All the talk in Washington this week concerns the coming national conventions. Primary returns show that several leading men in both major political parties are being boosted for the presidential nomination.

It appears more and more that the coming election will be a clash between governors. Governor Francis McDonald of Massachusetts has been primed by Democratic leaders for the Democratic nomination. However, Representative Santoro and Secretary of State Ed Jamgochian are still in the running. Over in the Republican camp Governor Edward Francis of New York seems to have the inside track. However, Speaker of the House of Representatives, "Honest" Joe Beaudette is providing plenty of opposition, while Edward J. McCabe, owner of the Watertown Moon, is a dark horse candidate.

Democratic National Chairman Walter M. Sawyer has announced that the Democratic Convention will be held in late June at Truesdale Stadium, Chicago.

If McDonald and Francis get the nomination, there will be considerable political turmoil in New York and Massachusetts. State Representative Ida Cannuli has been quoted as saying that Beverly Bickford, Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives will run for the office of governor. In New York Governor Francis has said that if nominated he would immediately resign and support the candidacy of Einar W. Strom, Mayor of Hoosic Falls.

CONTRACTS GRANTED TO LOCAL FIRMS

Memphis, March 14—Yesterday through the strong influence of Senators Delianedis and Coutts (Mass.) the City Beautification Plan, drawn up by Bob Robertson, was approved by the Planning Committee consisting of such leading citizens as Mary Kalajian, Robert Laffey, and Joseph Lepordo.

The A. Chadbourn Construction Co. received the contract for its outstanding work in erecting the famous Television Skyscraper which covers the three blocks which were once called "The Square" in Watertown, Massachusetts. President Chadbourne announced that the George Ings Drafting Company was sub-contracted to design these buildings which will beautify our fair city of Memphis. Miss Barbara MacDougall, secretary to President Carl Richards of the Drafting Co., disclosed that the Shirley Fitzgerald Decorating Co. would be called in to plan all the interior decorations.

NEITHER HERE NOR THERE

by Jackie Keyes

The bright new floorshow which opened at Herbert Lord's Club "45" last night featured many new faces destined to go far. Emma Furlong, Marjorie Emberley and Ethel McElroy presented a brilliant interpretation of a Persian court dance to more than a hundred thrilled "clubbers" who included Jean Smith, Ann Coraziani, and Joan Kelley and their escorts. Very much in evidence was press photographer Donald Vickers, getting candid shots of such society greats as the famed polo player, Louis Wyman; Carl Gustafson and Mable Price waltzing to the dreamy music of Paul Murray's orchestra; and the petite Philomena DeMarco, recent winner of the "Miss America" title. Hostess in the club's ultra-modern dining room, designed by Eva Sansone, was smart, smiling Jeannie Newell, while two cigarette girls who bore notice of were Helen and Esther Halligan.

On a recent trip to Hollywood your columnist saw several old friends who are making a name for themselves, among them Betty Boothby, Barbara Strathie and Grace Arego. A trip to the studio of Mary Louise Carroll (teamd with Joe Beaudette for their third picture) resulted in an unexpected meeting with Joanna Carey, busy script girl at G.M.G. The plane trip back found your writer seated next to Betty Ann Hynes, costume designer, who was coming east to design the clothes in a new show. James Axtges, chatting with Shirley MacKay, our hostess, was returning to plan the settings for the show.

We hopped a bus to the museum last week for the new showing of the works of several up-and-coming young artists. The bus driver, Demetria Pappas, was being interviewed by Rita Canaris of "Snaps" magazine in preparation for a forthcoming article on women's opportunities in the world of today. Also to be featured in the article, rumor has it, are Evelyn Calder and Esther Capone, who have started a school for girl welders, and Helen Landry and Estelle Lening, who represent the ideal housewives. At the museum we found a huge crowd about Charles Morrissey's prize-winning mural "The Ages of Man." Betty Becker and Barbara Darch had also won honors for their canvases and were attracting large crowds of art-lovers.

Alexander's Department Store has constructed a model home in which several rooms were designed by Mary Kalajian and Virginia Chotilian of the Moderne Designing school. Other parts of the home have been planned by various concerns, including a new type of indirect lighting by Richard Olson & Co.

BRUINS TO STANLEY CUP WIN

Boston, March 14—Last night at the Garden the Boston Bruins won the seventh and decisive game of their playoff series with Montreal 8–5. D. Costello, center, worked the "hat trick" for the fifth time this season while his right wing, "Shoe-string" Grady garnered two goals and two assists! It was fitting that Costello and Grady should end their respective seasons in this manner for they sparked the Bruins all season and finished one-two in National Hockey League Scoring.

Joe Polino, right winger on the second line, who has been the high scorer of the Stanley Cup play-off series, garnered two goals. Coach "Bill" Harrington said that he was extremely pleased with the team's performance, while Manager Fiore DiGiovine promised bonuses to all the members of the team which is now owned by the contractor, George Karanian.

LOCAL GOLFERS STAR PRIFITI P.G.A. CHAMP

San Francisco, March 14—Massachusetts golfers dominated the National Open P. G. A. Golf Championships today. Basil Prifti, shooting a six under par sixty-five, edged out Harry Agahigian, Chicago Bears end, when he scored a hole in one on the 176 yard eighteenth hole. Charles O'Rourke, Bob Mulvaney, and Gerald O'Keefe, all of whom shot last round 71's, tied for first in the amateur tourney. Prifti and Agahigian received $10,000 and $8,000 respectively for their efforts, while third place winner "Bob" Hamilton won $3,000.

HARVEY DEFEATS CONN

New York, March 14—In the eleventh round of a scheduled fifteen round bout "Slugger" Harvey knocked out Bill Conn with a right hand smash to the jaw to win the heavyweight title and also his thirty-eighth consecutive fight. The contest staged at Madison Square Garden by promoter Ross Warren, who was once a wrestling champ, drew 18,000 fans. Carl Gustafson refereed. According to George Michaelian, Harvey's manager, his fighter's share of the net receipts will be $40,000. Radio announcer Paul Mason told his unseen audience of over 10,000,000 fight fans that Harvey has without a doubt the most lethal punch since Joe Louis.

LOCKER ROOM

CHATTER

By Robert Leary

Feat of the week: John DiComandrea establishing a world's mile record of 3:59.

In Chicago last week I saw George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears. Although it's rather late for football, George is still raving about his championship team and more especially about his touchdown duo, Don Costello and Eddie Patapian. And can you blame him considering that his "twins" racked up a new pro league record of thirty touchdowns each? His veteran tackles combination of Thiobodeau and Smyly are not exactly amateurs either.

New England fans really should jump at the opportunity to see the beautiful and talented all-girl championship basketball team, the Philadelphia Fillies, play the Hollywood Stars. The captain and leading scorer of the Fillies is Virginia Mayo, while Louise Gillis is a close second. Incidentally, Louise has also made a name for herself in professional tennis circles.

FLICKER WINNER

IN HIALEAH FEATURE

Miami, March 14—In the first race at Hialeah yesterday Flicker, a yearling owned by Louise Stewart and Priscilla Hodges, won by two lengths over Sunbeam owned by Lorna Izzo and Dona Hoy. The winning jockey was Warren Curtis. Big winners at the track yesterday included Alice Murphy, Shirley Ann Maresch, Lorraine Mann, and Arline Kilgore, all of whom pocketed close to $1000 on $5 tickets on the daily double.

ARAKELIAN AND BAGWELL STILL HOLDOUTS

Detroit, March 14—General Manager, George Piz­ zoni, of the Detroit Tigers baseball club, announced today that outfielder Arthur Arakelian, who hit .356 last year, and Bob Bagwell, curve ball pitcher who hung up twenty-two victories last season, have both flatly turned down contracts with substantial increase. Bagwell in an interview with United Press yesterday said that unless he received $25,000 he would "take it easy" and coach the baseball team at the Senior High School, Watertown, Massachusetts. Arakelian has been quoted by Associated Press correspondent Robert Doweli as saying that the Tigers don't appreciate how much he is worth and if Piz­ zoni doesn't meet his demands he will stay on his Georgia farm. However, Manager "Al" Parsegian, who succeeded in getting first baseman "Joe" Anastasi and pitcher "Joe" Argento to sign, believes that both Arakelian and Bagwell will sign in the near future.

Friends, Fellow-students, Faculty—
Lend us your ears. We have come to give

Since we, the Class of '45, having spent three years within the castle walls of Watertown High School, are about to say
"adieu" to all our friends, we hereby draw up, with appropriate flourishes, our last

Article III. To Miss Rita Tierney we also bequeath a book—this one entitled "New Exercises" or "50 Easy Ways to Mangle and Distort the Human Chassis."

Article IV. To Miss O'Brien we bequeath two tickets to Niagara Falls for a second Annual he'll have a supply ready for next year.

Article VI. To Mr. Black we bequeath a Garden.

Article VII. To Mrs. Belding we bequeath three pin-up pictures of Cicero, Caesar, and Virgil (Et locum in nostris animis).

Article VIII. To Miss Ricker we bequeath a pamphlet publishing all the answers to her well-known question, "Where were you such-and-such a period?"
Article IX. To Miss Boyle we bequeath a cow bell so the girls in the locker room can tell when she's coming.

Article X. To Mr. Kelman we bequeath a pulpit so he can deliver his lectures on his philosophies of life to his History and Problems of Democracy classes with the right amount of dignity.

Article XI. To Mr. Malley we bequeath a beautifully bound volume entitled "The Shakespeare of the Twentieth Century" and containing the complete poetical works of Mr. Joseph Malley.

Article XII. To Mr. Moody we bequeath our permission to have his students paint murals like those in the art room on the corridor walls.

Article XIII. To the Class of 1946 we bequeath the first lunch period, the center seats in the assembly hall, and all the extra-curricular activities that go with the Senior Year (and without which no Senior Year would be complete).

Article XIV. To the Girls of W. H. S. we bequeath a hall full of mirrors to prevent a traffic jam in the locker rooms every morning. We also bequeath frames set in the lockers to hold a picture of Frank Sinatra or Van Johnson.

Having parted with everything that is near and dear to us—except our memories, which we shall always keep—we sign, seal, and mark in blood the last Will and Testament of the Class of 1945.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders, carrying on an old tradition, have again done a splendid job of supporting the "Red and Black" through another successful year in sports. Inspiring our boys with that certain fighting spirit that makes a team a team, they led the grandstand rooters in support of our athletic squads.

Reviving an old Watertown custom, dropped two years ago, boys again appeared in the ranks of the megaphone wielders. Don Given, Joe Beaudette, and Bill Martin played a prominent role in leading the traditional "Watertown Locomotive," "Come On Watertown, Let's Go," "Hit 'em Again," and other equally well known cheers.

No W. H. S. alumnus will ever forget the vociferous and acrobatic efforts of our cheerleading team.

Field Hockey

The field hockey squad had a very successful season. Keen interest in this popular sport was manifested by each and every player. Both our backfield, which kept opponents out of our territory, and the forward line, which saw to the scoring, were capable enough to keep our team on the top.

Captain Eva Frascatore and Manager Pauline Ounjian, lived up to their reputations by scoring most of the team's goals.

Basketball

Once again the basketball team had a highly successful season losing only one game, to Newton, by one point in a hotly contested game.

Although not much publicity is given to girls' athletics, the girls always enter each game with much the same spirit that the boys show in their contests.

One of the pleasures and highlights of the season was the Alumnae game in which Seniors played recent graduates.

Whenever, in scholastic circles, baseball is mentioned, Watertown High holds a prominent place in the discussion and the 1945 season has been no exception.

With the graduation of a high percentage of Varsity material, the outlook was none too bright. However, most of these gaps were filled by capable if less experienced men. Every player was high in spirit, knowing he had the full support of his fellow students in the stands.

Special mention should be made of the pitching of Bob Bagwell and Phil Costello, the fielding of Joe Boyce and Art Arakelian, and the steady stickwork of Don Costello and Joe Anastasi. As a result of fine teamwork and leadership, together with good coaching, the team had a highly successful season and ended well up in the Suburban League standings.

Golf

Through many years the golf team has been a powerhouse in the Greater Boston Interscholastic-Golf League and again in 1945 the team went through a very successful season. The graduating class of the previous year had left many vacancies which were filled with inexperienced Juniors and Sophomores who, nevertheless, fared well throughout the season. Four Seniors—Francis McDonald, Basil Prifti, Harry Agahigian, and Paul Grady—formed the nucleus of the team. Leo McKeon, brother of the former W. H. S. golfers, Paul and Jack McKeon, and William Casey, Tom Butler, and Ken Billings played well during the season.

Newton, the most formidable opponent in the league, proved to be the toughest match. Despite the keen competition, the team finished high in the league.
Tennis

With the announcement of the 1945 tennis season large numbers of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior girls ventured forth. On the whole the candidates for the squad were in excellent condition and the team was very fortunate in having so many veterans to start with. The Seniors on the team were Mary Louise Carroll, Louise Gillis, and Betty Lee White, all of whom had been on the team for three years.

Fortunately, the squad included many aggressive Juniors and Sophomores, and, as a result, the team had a very successful season. Matches were played with Concord, Arlington, Medford, Needham, and Newton.

Tennis

Despite the loss of several key men from last year's tennis squad, a formidable outfit was fielded and the teams set out to achieve their goal, a third undefeated season in succession. Steady and aggressive play by Bob Brunke, Rollie Coates, and Bob Dodge were responsible for many points.

Inasmuch as the Suburban Tennis League has not functioned since the outbreak of the war, matches were scheduled with nearby schools. Among the opponents of the raqueteers were Belmont, Newton, Needham, Somerville, and Dedham. The boys also made a splendid showing in the State meet at Belmont and in the New England Interscholastics at Andover.

With only one member graduating and a fine array of experienced talent returning the team may look forward to another successful season in 1946.
The 1945 track season found a large squad reporting at the cinder path at Victory Field. Several fine prospects were found to fill a long-weak section in the field events. As a result, a well balanced team was produced and the season got off to a fine start.

John DiComandrea, Lenox Cooper, Donald Costello, Louis Mastrangelo, and Harry Sahatjian, all experienced veterans, won many points and aided greatly in placing more than one contest in the win column.

The schedule included dual meets with Dedham, Belmont, Arlington, Lexington, and Concord. Several outstanding tracksters participated in the Belmont Relays and in the State Meet at Newton and gave a good account of themselves.

America Needs WISE GUYS!

Trained men and women ... resourceful, clear-thinking, educated youth ... the inventors, scientists, statesmen of tomorrow.

A small amount saved each month ... systematically ... is a good beginning for a successful career. Start now to save for your future education and for better service to your country.

Systematic savings is FAST, because your account grows every month. Systematic saving is EASY because payments are small and easily made.
